This two-day extravaganza showcases thirteen direct consignments from some of Burgundy's most esteemed producers, alongside offerings from highly significant collections featuring Magnificent, Mature and Iconic Old World Wines of a European Connoisseur; A Legendary Offering from an Iconic New York Collector; The Return of the Trinity Collection; and The Golden Bull Rides Again to La Paulée. La Paulée is a bicoastal event this year, and we're bringing the excitement to both coasts with bidding parties in NYC and LA to celebrate the world's finest wines. Surrounding the excitement of the auction is more than a week of incredible tastings, lunches, and dinners—all integral parts of La Paulée, the world's biggest Burgundy wine party! We hope to see you on both coasts!

The roster of distinguished producers offering wines direct from their cellars in the La Paulée auction is nothing short of extraordinary. Highlighted on day two with over 100 exceptional selections from lots 1776-1889, the lineup reads like a who's who of Burgundy, featuring Antoine Jobard, Bachelet-Monnot, Roulot, Clerget, De Montille, Hudelot-Noellat, Hubert Lignier, Dugat-Py, Fourrier, Duroche, Meo-Camuzet, Dujac, and Comte Liger-Belair. We are absolutely delighted about this superb assortment of the best of Burgundy, direct from their cellars to yours!

We kick off the sale by going back in time, shining the spotlight on other fine wine regions with Magnificent, Mature Old World Wines of a European Connoisseur in lots 1-158. Though many have tried, man cannot live on Burgundy alone! This discerning gentleman has been collecting the icons of France, Italy and Spain for decades and offers over one hundred and seventy selections focusing on these mature, iconic gems. Bordeaux commences the festivities with wines from the 1920s through the 1980s highlighted by gorgeous bottles of 1948 Cheval Blanc, 1955 Haut Brion, 1959 La Mission, 1953 Lafite, 1959 Mouton, 1929 Yquem and more! We get our Burgundy fix from DRC and Raveneau, and the Champagne keeps flowing with selections from Salon and a vertical of Taittinger Artist Series going back to 1978! Don't miss a breathtaking collection of sixty selections of Vega Sicilia Unico spanning 1922 to 2000! We are ecstatic to be able to continue to offer wines from this magnificent collection!!

In lots 159-819 we explore A Legendary Offering from an Iconic New York Collector featuring over six hundred and fifty lots of the finest Burgundy and Champagne, and finest may be an understatement!! Having personally inventoried a significant number of the rare bottles on offer here, I can safely say this is one of the most thrilling offerings we have ever done thanks to one of the world's most important collectors. The main course is three hundred and seventy (370!!!) scintillating selections of Red Burgundy. Champagne is the cornerstone of the collection with two hundred and seventy (270!!) selections featuring some of the most important bottles of the 20th Century. There is no better source for rare bottles of old Champagne than this collection, which showcases three dozen lots of Dom Perignon back to the first vintage of 1921, twenty-five lots of Moët back to 1889, and an astounding seventy-plus selections of Krug including Krug Collection back to 1929, Clos du Mesnil, very rare Private Cuvee Extra Secs, and MV believed to be from the 1960s!!! An offering like this does not come around that often, take special note!

Our second session features The Return of the Trinity Collection in lots 1392-1565, including one hundred-seventy tremendous selections of Blue Chip Bordeaux and stunning Burgundy. This generous collector and passionate wine lover has been a staunch supporter of Acker for almost as long as he has been collecting the world's finest wines, which is more than twenty-five years! Bordeaux sets the stage with Ausone, Cheval Blanc, Haut Brion and La Mission, Margaux, Latour, Mouton, eleven lots of Lafite, eight lots of Petrus, and a plethora of Super Seconds. You'll notice numerous 2005 Bordeaux offerings among them, a great vintage that is just coming into own nearly twenty years later. Now is the time to get them in the rotation! Burgundy seizes the mantle with a dozen selections of DRC, including a weighty 1995 Assortment, ten lots of Armand Rousseau, and seven from Comte Liger-Belair. This is another tremendous offering from one of the vaunted Trinity Collection!

In lots 1566-1775, The Golden Bull Rides Again Onto La Paulée, and we are ebullient in welcoming back his brilliant collection with over two hundred selections! Dynamic in all aspects of his life, the Golden Bull is tremendously passionate about Burgundy and has his finger intimately on the pulse on this special region and the fine wine market as a whole for many years. MAGNIFICENT, MATURE OLD WORLD WINES OF A EUROPEAN CONNOISSEUR

We kick off another spectacular La Paulée auction by going back in time, and for a time shining the spotlight on other fine wine regions. Though many have tried, man cannot live on Burgundy alone! Although rest assured we have some DRC and Raveau here to whet your appetite for all the fantastic Burgundy that is to come. Indeed, there is nothing like a perfectly mature wine from a grand old vintage of yesteryear to elicit oohs and aahs at the dinner table. These wines are increasingly hard to find but fortunately this collector has been collecting the icons of France, Italy and Spain for decades and offers over one hundred and seventy selections focusing on these mature, iconic gems. This is a cellar we know well, and we are ecstatic to be able to continue to offer wines from this iconic collection!

Bordeaux commences the festivities with wines from the 1920s through the 1980s, including 1945, 1959 and 1961 highlighted by 1948 Cheval Blanc, 1955 Haut Brion, 1959 La Mission, 1953 Lafite, 1959 Mouton magnum, 1929 Yquem and more! We get our Burgundy on with 1980 La Tache and 1971 Romanee Conti, Romanee Conti followed by a trio of Raveau Chablis. The Champagne keeps flowing decadently as 1961 and 1969 Salon lead us to a vertical of Taittinger Artist Series going back to 1978. Italy flexes its muscles with Mature Barolo spearheaded by 1945, 1955, 1958 and 1961 Monfortino! There are sixty (!) spectacular selections of Vega Sicilia Unico arching over 1922 to 2000 including 1945, 1953 and 1968 among numerous legendary vintages. This is a truly breathtaking collection of Vega. We finish in Rioja with mature CVNE, Lopez de Heredia and Ygay. Talk about magnificent!!! This is, indeed, a rare treasure trove of mature wines carefully acquired by this discerning gentleman that you will want to read and reread again and again. All wines removed from a combination of professional and temperature-controlled storage.

2 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 1948*St. Emilionvhs, lbl, sdc, outstanding color and condition"This is the bottle that attests to numerous eulogies I have heard. The Château Cheval Blanc 1948 has a nose that duped me into thinking it was the 1982, and yet the bricking on the rim gives away its age. It is high-toned with kirsch, cedar, maraschino cherries and salted licorices. Powerful and opulent, this kaleidoscope of aromas leaves you intoxicated, even without imbibing the wine. The palate is supple and lithe, blessed with sat-in-like tannins and an intense, effervescent finish that is brilliantly focused. Layers of vibrant red fruit seem to just wash over you, sensual and profound in equal measure. This is a sensational post-war Saint Emilion that finally delivers everything I expected. The 1948 Cheval Blanc is a masterpiece. "(99pts)*

3 Château Cos d'Estournel - Vintage 1945*St. Estephevhs, fl, nl, cc, sdc, cuc, excellent color"The 1945 Cos d'Estournel set the evening on the right course with a fabulous nose full of smoke, cedar, charcoal and nut. This was a clean and smooth wine. Its palate was satiny, balanced and creamy. While delicate, it was still charming, with delectable cherry flavors and a nice, dry finish. "(94pts JK)*

Still opaque, garnet/black-colored, with a tight but promising nose of licorice, black fruits, and herbs, this full-bodied, meaty, chewy wine exhibits huge reserves of fruit, as well as a spicy, powerful, tannic finish. While it can be drunk now (I would suggest decanting of at least an hour), it is another almost immortal 1945 that will last for another 20-30 years. "(96pts)*

I have never been a fan of this entire decade in Bordeaux, giving it plenty of chances over the last 25 years. This was probably my best experience ever for the entire decade! 24 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 1961*Graveshs, bsl, excellent color*

"One of the greatest 1961s, La Mission-Haut-Brion has been fabulous to drink for the last 5-10 years. Where well-stored, this wine will continue to drink well for 10-20 years. It is more developed and drinkable than the 1959, and it remains a thick, rich, super-aromatic wine with a textbook Graves bouquet of tobacco, barbecued meats, minerals, spices, and sweet red and black fruits. It is dense, full-bodied, alcoholic, and super-rich. This soft, opulently-textured wine makes for a fabulous drink. Absolutely stunning! Last tasted 10/94"(100pts)

"Ironically, I had the same bottle Tuesday for lunch at Matsuhisa (thank you my friend - you know who you are!). The bottle at Matsuhisa was a lot tighter than this one, no doubt due to the lack of proper aeration that was allowed the bottle at Valentino's...this '86 actually had ripeness in the nose - kirsch, soy, mocha...still a tannic monster - the fruit was shy on the palate at first but got better in the glass...nice balance overall."(95pts JK)

"We were then privileged to have an exceptional bottle of 1952 Latour. The nose was a perfect combination of chocolate, walnut, pencil and slate. The long, zippy tannins and acidity kept this wine singing in the mouth and throughout the night. It was a spectacular wine with a long, nervy finish, possessing great tension and balance - simply great!"(96pts JK)

48 La Tâche - Vintage 1980*Domaine de la Romanée Contilbsl, sdc*

"Tasted at the La Tâche vertical at The Square. Not having tasted the La Tâche 1980 for 14 years, I must admit that I had high expectations for this wine and it truly delivered. Ignore the pale color; the extensive bricking on the rim because you will be transfixed by the nose. It is absolutely ethereal with quite brilliant transparency, fleeting glimpses of wild heather, jasmine, rose petals and Lapsong Souchang. The palate is fresh and tense, gently building in the mouth with all the delicacy you can imagine. No, there is not the length here but it is far fresher than the 1985 La Tâche with a sense of nervosité on the finish. Of all the vintages of La Tâche this is one of the most impressive and also the most difficult to put into words. It is simply a heavenly Pinot Noir at its peak." (98pts)

49 Romanée Conti - Vintage 1971*Domaine de la Romanée Contihbsl, lscl, cuc, excellent color*

"A magnum of 1971 DRC Romanée Conti came next. That's right. In fact, this magnum was purchased at our November Hong Kong auction the month prior. I love it when that happens, too. The magnum was in outstanding condition, and it had outstanding provenance, so I was feeling no pressure. After one sip, I was feeling no pain. Its nose was full of that autumnal rust and spice. There were tomato, rose, bouillon and menthol aromas filling my nose to capacity. The Winemaster found the 1971 more elegant than 1978' in general, and I was in love with its great, fully mature flavors. There were brick, rust and autumn flavors here. While its palate was elegant, its finish was thick. It got more minty and (good) herbal on its finish, with almost a kiss of Chartreuse-like complexity. What a wine." (99Mpts JK)

"This is a big step up in power and weight with a gorgeously complex nose of minerals, white flowers and minerals that leads to pure, muscular, fantastically detailed and precise flavors just oozing with sappy extract. This is quite concentrated and there is a certain regal classiness that separates this from all of the prior wines plus the length and vibrancy are simply incredible." (93pts BH)

"Yet another legendary vintage that many select as the best ever to come from the property. However, despite its greatness, I contend that this is no more than a normal Krug. At the age of thirty it's still very youthful and acidic. The oak tones have a delightful nerve and are supported by the aroma of a bakery in the morning. The mid-palate is more impressive than the aftertaste, which is dominated by ripe apple and vanilla." (97pts RJ)

This wine stood out as one of the least memorable from a dinner of grand wines selected from all over the world. After the dinner, our host went out to the kitchen and brought back the half-full magnum. By now it was the best of them all! In other words, it took this forty-three-year-old three hours to open up its refined taste spectrum of all the most sensual things one can think of. "The 1971 Barolo is a real thrill to taste and drink. Let me emphasize that second point. So often, wines like this are tasted among many other wines. On this night the two of us savor every last drop of the 1971. I have had very mixed results with the 1971, to the point I stopped seeking it out. In the 1970s (and later) Barolo was bottled only when it was sold, so it is very likely, if not probable, that the 1971 was bottled bottle by bottle over a period of years, which naturally leads to a certain amount of bottle variation. On this night, the 1971 is positively stellar. Deep, complex and potent, the 1971 captures all the richness of the year in its multi-faceted personality." (96pts VM)

"The most Burgundian (that's great Burgundy, by the way) wine of the tasting, the 1966 Unico Reserva exhibits a huge, fragrant, penetrating bouquet of sweet, jammy, black-cherry fruit, cedar, smoke, and earth. The saturated, dark ruby color reveals a hint of amber at the edge. Full-bodied, succulent, and velvety, this gorgeously-proportioned, decadently-styled Vega Sicilia is fully mature, yet its balance, freshness, and thrilling level of flavor extraction suggest it should easily glide through 15-20 more years." "A blend of 70% Tinto Fino and 30% Cabernet Sauvignon, initially, there seems to be a taint on the nose of the 1974, but what seems like corkiness is manifests into an earthy, tarry scent, suggesting the higher presence of Cabernet Sauvignon in the blend. The palate is very well balanced and very pure with greater density of the 1975. Leaving it aside for one hour, it turns into one powerhouse of a wine, with laser-like focus and a vibrant, life-affirming finish with orange zest and liquorice. What began a potentially disappointing Unico, ultimately turns out to be a barnstormer. 63,500 bottles produced. Drink now-2025+."(93pts)

"The 1981 Unico is one of the forgotten gems of the decade, yet at thirty years of age it has really come into its own. It is a blend of 65% Tinto Fino, 25% Cabernet Sauvignon, and 10% Merlot/Malbec. Initially it seems lighter on the nose than the 1982, but given time in the glass it simply blossoms with pure kirsch and Morello cherry aromas, plus a dalliance with orange sorbet. The palate is medium-bodied and beautifully balanced. There is a sense of symmetry, the leitmotif of great Unico wines. 149A Rioja - Vintage 1970Vina Real, Gran Reserva, CVNE6lsl, 1scc, 1-4cm bc, 1ssos,outstanding color and condition"The 1970s saw major changes in Rioja: the first "modern" wines were produced by Marqués de Ceres, Remelluri and Contino, and the aging time in wood for wines was shortened in general. Until then, six years in barrique was the norm (almost the minimum) for reds, and this time was shortened during the 1970s and 1980s until the approximate two years of today. The breakdown by variety was about 40% Tempranillo, 40% Garnacha and 20% of the rest, mainly Mazuelo and Graciano. 1970 was a very famous vintage in Rioja, the one that provoked the extension of the vineyards. In the same year, The Isle of Wight Festival was held and remains the largest rock festival of all time with some 600, 000 attendants. Meanwhile, Simon & Garfunkel released their final album together; "Bridge Over Troubled Water;" Black Sabbath released their first record considered the first major heavy metal album. The Beatles broke up and Jimi Hendrix and Janis Joplin died 20 days apart. In Washington, D.C., 100, 000 people demonstrated against the Vietnam War.
This was a very ripe vintage, and the wine seems to be aging faster than other vintages, with a little sweet fruit, ripe and fully resolved. The 1970 Vi a Real Gran Reserva was bottled in February 1975. There was a bit of discussion about this wine, as it was one of the most anticipated vintages. At this age, of course, there are no more great vintages, but great bottles. The wine is definitely polished and fully resolved, in fact I think it might be slowly fading out. Notes of iodine, leather and brick dust and a soft palate reveal a wine that is complex and balanced. Other bottles might be less advanced, but based on this one my recommendation would be to drink up fairly soon. Anticipated maturity: 2015-2018." (94pts)*

SINCE 1820

A LEGENDARY OFFERING FROM AN ICONIC NEW YORK COLLECTOR
FEATURING BREATHTAKING BURGUNDY AND INCREDIBLE CHAMPAGNE

We've had offerings from this collection before, but this one is arguably its best with over six hundred and fifty lots of the finest Burgundy and Champagne, and finest may be an understatement. These exceptional wines hail from one of New York City's most important collections, owned by a gentleman who has drunk the best of the best for the past 25 years right by my side. Having personally inventoried a significant number of the rare bottles on offer here, I can safely say this is one of the most thrilling offerings we have ever done. All I can say is "wow, wow and again wow." I have had the pleasure of sharing many wine experiences with this collector, having flown "anywhere" in the world just to have dinner with him, as the wine, food and company are always the best. He has built his collection over a lifetime, having many purchases vetted by experts and sourcing from only known collectors, merchants and auction houses. We could not ask for a more significant feature for our second La Paulee auction!

Bordeaux begins naturally with thirty important lots highlighted by magnums of 1955 Ausone, 1989 La Mission, 1989 Lafleur and 1970 Petrus topped by Imperials of 1959 Lafite and 1982 Lafleur. Our seriously sumptuous main course is over three hundred and seventy (370!!!) scintillating selections of Red Burgundy. Armand Rousseau showcases sixty selections crowned by magnums of Chambertin spanning 1976 to 2016 including 1978, 1985, 1993 and 2005 as well as many full cases including the vaunted 1999 for both Chambertin and its Beze. Domaine de la Romanee Conti unfurls the peacock's tail with over eighty lots including La Tache spanning over 1938 to 2016 including magnums of 1964, 1976, 2005, 2009 and 2010. Romanee Conti, Romanee Conti goes up a couple notches further back to a gorgeous bottle of 1934 with magnums of 1971, 1976, 2005, 2006 and 2012 as well as six-packs of 1991 and 2005! We have over forty selections of Fourrier, a personal favorite of our collector, led by 2009 Clos St. Jacques in five formats up to a Balthazar coupled up with multiple lots of 2009 Griottes Chambertin from bottles up to Salmanazar! There are more than two dozen lots of Roumier with Bonnes Mares back to 1969 with six magnums of 2009 and five magnums of 2010, as well as fifteen lots of Mugnier with multiple magnums of 2005, 2009 and 2010 Musigny. White Burgundy is short and sweet with 2004 and 2011 Coche-Dury Corton Charlemagne topped by a magnum of 1985 Ramonet Montrachet. We head to the Rhone with two dozen lots of Chave Hermitage back to the great 1978 with several vintages of rare magnums and even rarer Jeroboams.

Champagne rattles its saber and foils the assortment of Red Burgundy with two hundred and seventy spectacular selections (270!!!). Champagne is the cornerstone of this collection and where our friend amassed some of the most important bottles of the 20th Century; in fact, I am not sure where else I could turn if looking for aged bottles of bubbles in such outstanding condition. Practically all my great experiences with old Champagne come from this cellar, and I have been truly blessed to discover their ageability thanks to my friend. 1914 Pol Roger, 1929 Krug Collection, 1937 Salon...I could go on and on. He bought many great Champagne cellars two decades ago before the market caught up, mainly thanks to him. There is no better source for rare bottles of old Champagne than this collection. It's not even up for discussion! And in this round, the colors and condition of these bottles are truly inspiring.

Dom Perignon blesses our Champagne section with three dozen lots starting with the rarest of them all, the first vintage of 1921. I think I have seen this bottle only one other time in my life! There are also many bottles and magnums from the 1950s, 60s and 70s. One cannot overlook the 25 lots of vintage Moet back to 1889! These are legendary bottles in their own right, and all the important vintages are represented here including 1911, 1914, 1921 and 1928. Krug commands the highest regard from this collector, and over seventy selections of the first family of Champagne is a vivid testimony. There are thirty lots of Krug Collection going all the way back to 1929 (!), crowned by magnums of 1961, 1962, 1964, 1966, 1969 and 1971, with most in original case with the letters from the house included. There are also very rare Private Cuvee Extra Secs from 1943, 1947 and 1955 and more, including some very rare (and very ageable) MV from believed to be the 1960s. Of course, there are numerous younger vintages in bottle and magnum, including multiple vintages of Clos du Mesnil. We have more than three dozen lots of Louis Roederer back to 1921, with Cristal back to 1949 and Cristal Rose from 1976. The Roederer standard, non-Cristal vintage bottlings are some of my favorite old Champagnes, and some of its great values. Another legendary house from yesteryear, and Sir Winston Churchill's favorite, is Pol Roger. He would know; he drank a lot! These old Pol Rogers are incredible bottles, and we have fourteen lots of Pol Roger all the way back to 1914 with magnums of 1926, 1942 and 1945! Another one of my favorite value houses from the 20th Century is Pommery. These older bottles can compete admirably with the top houses, and we have a dozen lots including many large formats back to 1926! Forty fantastic lots of Salon representing 18 of the 43 vintages ever released arch emphatically over 1943 to 2002. There are bottles of 1943, 1948, 1949, 1951, 1953, 1955, 1959, 1961...I could keep going but these aren't parcels of 2006 and 2007 here! But there are parcels of 1996 and 2002, not to mention rare magnums from 1964, 1966, 1969, 1971, 1973 and 1976. This is a remarkable offering of some of the greatest Salons ever made, and certainly some of its rarest bottles.

There are over sixty lots from Italy highlighted by Bartolo Mascarello back to 1952, eleven selections of Monfortino crowned by two 13.5 liter bottles of 1970, and a baker's dozen of Giuseppe Rinaldi.

This is truly a legendary offering from an iconic New York collector featuring breathtaking Burgundy and incredible Champagnes. There are many superlatives thrown about to describe the great collections we continually represent, but an offering like this just doesn't come around that often. Please take note, and I hope you get to enjoy some of these rare bottles as I have over and over again. All wines removed from professional storage.

163 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 1982*St. Emilionbn, tl, cuc"Revealing considerable amber in its dark plum/garnet color, this intensely fragrant 1982 is somewhat of a paradox in that the front end suggests full maturity, but the mid-palate, finish, and overall texture denote a closed wine. A gorgeously sweet entry displays flavors of caramel, roasted coffee, jammy red and black fruits, coconut, and smoke. It is fat and full-bodied, with considerable tannin, structure, and muscle in the finish. Flamboyantly rich and precocious early in life, it is going through an awkward stage where the tannin is present, but it is also sexy, juicy, and formidably-structured. When the 1982 Cheval Blanc's component parts become totally in sync, it will be capable of meriting a three-digit rating." (99pts)*

It has always been an outstanding wine for the vintage - complex, rich, savory, and the quintessentially elegant Bordeaux. This beauty continues to reveal the fragrance and finesse that one expects from Lafite-Rothschild but so rarely finds. A fragrant, complex bouquet of cedar, herbs, vanillin, fruitcake, and coffee is followed by a soft, gentle, graciously-constructed wine with sweet layers of fruit" (92pts)*

166 Château Haut Brion - Vintage 1989*Graves1x12 bottle owc"This continues to be one of the immortal wines and one of the greatest young Bordeaux wines of the last half-century. Consistently prodigious and almost a sure bet to top the scoring card of any blind tasting of this vintage as well as other years, the 1989 Haut-Brion is a seamless, majestic classic, and a tribute to this phenomenal terroir and its singular characteristics. The wine still has a very thick, viscous-looking ruby/purple color, a spectacular, young but awesome smorgasbord of aromas ranging from scorched earth, liquid minerals, graphite, blackberry and black currant jam to toast, licorice, and spice box. The levels of fruit, extract, and glycerin in this viscous, full-bodied, low-acid wine are awe-inspiring. The brilliant symmetry of the wine, extraordinary purity, and seamlessness are the hallmarks of a modern-day legend." (100pts)*

167 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 1989*Graves"I am certainly not going to argue with anyone who believes La Mission-Haut-Brion's 1989 is every bit as profound as the 1989 Haut-Brion. It is a spectacular wine, and as it ages in the bottle, it is quickly becoming one of my all-time favorite La Mission-Haut-Brions, ranking alongside the 1982, 1975, 1961, 1959, and 1955. The 1989 boasts a dense, thick, purple color, followed by a sweet, roasted cassis, chocolatey-scented nose with whiffs of tobacco, tar, and minerals. The wine is extremely full-bodied, unctuously-textured, sweet, jammy, and rich. Although it is still a youthful, unformed wine, it is already delicious to drink." (100pts)*

"A spectacular nose of kirsch liqueur, minerals, flowers, and blackberries jumps from the glass of this thick, dark ruby-colored Lafleur. Over-ripeness, a characteristic of many 1982s (I say that in a positive, not pejorative sense), is apparent in this jammy, unctuously-textured, massive wine. Somewhat of a paradox to taste, it offers notes of maturity, richness, and succulence contrasted with massive structure, muscle, and density. Thrilling to drink, despite its youthful, tannic grip, the 1975 and 1979 Lafleurs come closest to this wine's massiveness and formidable intensity." (100pts)

Kirsch liqueur, licorice and floral notes are intermixed with raspberry in a very full-bodied, super-intense, opulent and multidimensional style. Extraordinarily dense and pure, but not heavy by any means, the intensity, texture, and richness of the 2009 Lafleur are reminiscent of the perfect 1982." (99pts)

176 Château Lafleur - Vintage 2013*Pomerol1x1 Imperial owc*

"The 2013 Lafleur was one of my favorite wines from barrel because, as Baptiste Guinaudeau remarked when I visited the property, he did not try to make a Pomerol beyond what it could be. The nose might not possess the complexity of the best vintages of Lafleur, but it is clearly delineated and fresh, with blackberry and raspberry fruit, a subtle granitic scent tucked underneath. The palate is medium-bodied with quite firm tannin, as is often the case for Lafleur, with crunchy red berry fruit and a stony, almost reserved but fresh finish that lingers nicely in the mouth. This is an excellent wine considering the growing season." (93pts)

The label will undoubtedly be controversial as a relative of Sigmund Freud, Lucian Freud, has painted a rather comical Zebra staring aimlessly at what appears to be a palm tree in the middle of a stark courtyard. I suppose a psychiatrist could figure out the relationship between that artwork and wine, but I couldn't see one. The flavors are bigger if not finer with serious power and weight on the rich, full and driving finish that possesses an exuberant underlying sense of energy, all wrapped in a core of rock solid but ripe and balanced tannins. Like the potential of the Bèze, this too has a chance to ascend as one of the top vintages ever typified by such years as '34, '49, '52, '62, '66 and '91. Arguably the Chambertin of the vintage." "A highly spiced and exceptionally fresh, ripe and airy nose mixes a wide variety of mostly red berry fruit aromas though there are background notes of plum, cassis, lavender and oak. The broad-shouldered flavors possess a seductive texture thanks to the copious amounts of dry extract that push the very firm tannic spine to the background. I very much like the concentration here as well as the vibrancy and this is very, very dry in the best sense of the term, indeed it is presently almost crisp yet the very dense supporting tannins are clearly quite ripe." 243 Chambertin - Vintage 2015*Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau1x12 bottle ocb*

"The 2015 Chambertin-Clos de Bèze Grand Cru is spectacular, wafting from the glass with a dramatic bouquet of sweet grilled meat, red and black fruit, candied peel and rich soil. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, ample and powerful, with a lavishly gourmand attack that evokes the 2009 rendition, but this quickly segues into the mid-palate of an altogether more tautly structural, serious wine, its considerable dimension and concentration underwritten by racy acids. The finish is long and firm. This is a monumental Clos de Bèze built for the long haul." (97pts)

251 Ruchottes Chambertin - Vintage 2014*C. Roumier*

"Tasted blind at the Burgfest tasting, Christophe Roumier's 2014 Ruchottes Chambertin Grand Cru had a touch of volatile acidity on the nose, more feisty and fruit-driven than its peers, the barrel more pronounced and clearly requiring more time to be fully assimilated. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, more austere in style but nicely proportioned. There is impressive tension and salinity toward the marine-influenced finish and it feels very persistent. Give it 3 or 4 years in bottle. Tasted September 2017." (94pts)

It has a glorious, beautifully defined bouquet of raspberry and crushed strawberry fruit laid over scents of cold stone, violets and pot-pourri. The palate is medium-bodied with a silky smooth texture, very well-judged acidity and a sense of mineralite that this propitious premier cru ought to show. Weightless on the finish, this is a seductive Vosne-Romanée by Louis-Michel and it should drink well over the next two decades." (94pts)*

"The 2009 Corton is a showstopper. The huge, boisterous bouquet is the first sign the Corton is just as dazzling from bottle as it was from barrel. Layers of fruit saturate the palate as this flashy, exuberant wine continues to put on weight as it sits in the glass. This is a decidedly opulent Burgundy that pushes the boundaries of what longtime DRC drinkers expect from the winery, but it is a gorgeous, striking wine in its own way. The 2009 is a great first vintage for the Corton. Anticipated maturity: 2019-2039." (95pts)

"Tasted at the La Tâche vertical at The Square. The La Tâche 1964 is one of those heaven-sent wines that you instantly know you might never drink again. This bottle clearly attested to what was a vintage studded with great wines from the domaine. First, there is that almost refulgent color, beaming at you from the glass. It seems more youthful than many of the subpar wines from the 1970s. The nose is divine: tart red fruit, briary, rose petal and Earl Grey tea all brilliantly defined. The palate is fresh and energetic a 50-year old wine that has retained incredible tension and animation, while the finish has a pastille-like purity and real sucrose intensity. This is a quite brilliant wine from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti." (98pts)

The powerful, chiseled, pure flavors are remarkably detailed, precise and fine with mind bending complexity yet for all the emotional drama of this wine, it remains understated and almost aloof at the moment. The finish is dense, structured and quite firm though there is nary a hard edge to be found and while this too cannot rival the other worldly 1999, 2001 will one day be thought of as a genuinely excellent vintage for La Tâche. "This is perhaps even more floral than the Richebourg and every bit as spicy on the ultra-pure, cool and remarkably elegant mix of red and blue pinot fruit, red currant and wild red berries that are openly mineral-inflected. As with all of the DRC '10s, the equally stony flavors and supporting tannins are extremely fine and while there is ample power and vibrancy, the palate feel is all silk and satin. To be sure, this is a big wine with impressive concentration but this is definitely not cut from the same cloth as say the 2005 or 2009 versions are. "The 2014 La Tâche Grand Cru is a very refined nose, so much so that blind I might mistake it from Romanée-Conti (as I opined to Bertrand de Villaine himself). Very precise, extremely pure and with wonderful mineralité, there is a lucidity embroidered into this wine. The palate is medium-bodied, symmetrical, with a little edginess creeping in here that lends the finish a sense of animation. The fruit shades from red to more black as it opens, yet the aftertaste is extraordinarily long and persistent. There is a kind of magic in this La Tâche." (96-98pts)

The nose was incredible with all the classic DRC rust and iron along with a perfect pinch of citrus. The palate was amazing with smoky, meaty, rich, oily, nutty and earthy flavors. Super intense and long, its palate's rust and leather qualities were great and even had Burghound dreaming of perfection. Allen went on to say that he has only rated six wines even 99 points, three of which were the 1962 La Tâche, 1928 Roumier Bonnes-Mares, and the 1915 La Roman e." (99pts JK)*

That's right. In fact, this magnum was purchased at our November Hong Kong auction the month prior. I love it when that happens, too. The magnum was in outstanding condition, and it had outstanding provenance, so I was feeling no pressure. After one sip, I was feeling no pain. Its nose was full of that autumnal rust and spice. There were tomato, rose, bouillon and menthol aromas filling my nose to capacity. The Winemaster found the 1971 more elegant than 1978' in general, and I was in love with its great, fully mature flavors. There were brick, rust and autumn flavors here. 315 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2001*Domaine de la Romanée Contidifferent importers"Brooding, reserved, somewhat austere yet classic, picture perfect aromas of red and black fruits cut with almost as much spice and aromatic nuances as the La Tâche plus a subtle touch of earth, soy and hoisin that combine to create a bouquet of simply stunning complexity. The purity and detail are flat out incredible with nuanced, multilayered flavors wrapped in pinot sap and culminating in an awe-inspiring finish. Silk, velvet and mouth coating sap completely buffer the ripe structure and this RC possesses what all of the great ones do absolutely perfect harmony; this is seamless and there are no edges. It is as it were a perfect sphere with a haunting finish that I could taste hours later. This is destined to be a great wine."(97pts BH)*

316 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2005*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1bsl, 1nl, different importers"An exceptionally floral yet restrained nose with aromas of both rose and violets that combine with a panoply of spice notes yet the overall impression is classic young RC as the nose is both cool and reserved yet aristocratic. The sweet, intense, focused, detailed and vibrant flavors offer superb drive and punch though there is not the sheer scale of the LT yet they're finer and somehow even purer, indeed absolutely crystalline though I kept asking myself how this was possible as the purity of the La Tâche is itself mind blowing. The descriptor of 'power without weight' came to mind again and again as the flavors slide down the throat with no sense of heaviness yet the impact and precision of the presently somewhat austere finish is quite simply hard to believe. In a word, this is mind bending and in a visceral sense, this is a monumental wine that of real emotional impact. Genius in a glass."(99+pts BH)*

"Here too is a very reserved yet ultra classy and refined, indeed even ethereal nose that is quite simply kaleidoscopic in its breadth, combining red, blue and black fruits with spice, earth, minerality and a hint of underbrush that stands aside for the perfectly balanced, pure and stylish medium full flavors that are very firmly but not aggressively structured while delivering flat out unbelievable length yet all the while remaining completely understated in personality. As are all the very best vintages of RC, this is spherical with nothing out of place and this will age effortlessly for decades. The La Tâche is truly spectacular but there is simply another dimension of depth present here. A wine of sheer class and the epitome of the phrase 'power without weight'." (97pts BH)

"It's a fool's errand to try and capture all of the various nuances but a few of the major components would include dried rose petals, hoisin, clove, anise and cassis that merge seamlessly into regal, pure and gorgeously intense middle weight flavors that possess seemingly limitless reserves of dry extract that almost completely hide the perfectly integrated tannins on the firm, mineral-driven, overtly austere and linear finish. This possesses such a spectacular nose that you don't even have to drink it to be thrilled and the flavors are perfectly spherical." (98+pts BH)

"The surprisingly expressive nose is almost completely dominated by various floral aromas that include violets, lavender and rose petal. There is of course a broad array of spice elements to the red and black currant aromas but they are nuances compared to the floral characters. The wonderfully intense and concentrated middle weight plus flavors possess arguably even more dry extract that, for the moment anyway, pushes the firm tannic spine completely to the background and as such the mouth feel is incredibly rich and opulent. While Romanée-Conti is almost always astonishingly complex it is not always more so than the La Tâche but in 2012 the king of complexity in the DRC range is indisputably Romanée-Conti. There is also a remarkable amount of minerality and the overall impression is one of seamless harmony." (98pts BH)

"The 2015 Romanée-Conti Grand Cru is one of the pinacles of this great red Burgundy vintage, opening in the glass to reveal a bouquet of kaleidoscopic complexity, notes of raspberry and red plum mingling with rose petal, peony, blood orange and spice. On the palate, the wine is silky, medium to full-bodied and stunningly complete, its supremely elegant tannins entirely cloaked in pristinely delicate red fruit. Despite its incredible concentration and persistence, this Romanée-Conti is utterly weightless, and its effortless harmony and unrelenting finish preclude any argument about its benchmark quality." Add to this plenty of attractive nuances to the kaleidoscopically layered red currant and plum suffused aromas and you have something pretty special. This is, not surprisingly, much more refined than the GrandsEch as the supporting tannins on the silky middle weight flavors are extremely fine-grained yet notably dense as the explosive finish is quite firm. "The 2012 Romanée St Vivant, incidentally served before Richebourg rather than afterwards unlike previous years, was picked on September 28 and 29 at 24 hectoliters per hectare. There is a wondrous, ethereal purity to this 2012, a little more sumptuous than I recall it from barrel, with kirsch and freshly picked strawberries. As it opens, it gains more and more sensuality. The palate is rounded, almost curvaceous in the mouth, clearly more concentrated than the 2011 with a sense of authority and purpose, a bit of daring-do on the long finish. It leaves a slightly ferrous residue on the aftertaste, completing what is a marvelous and sensual Grand Cru. 1,148 cases produced." (96pts)

399 Clos Vougeot - Vintage 2014*Hudelot-Noellat2x3 magnum owc's*

"Restrained aromas of licorice, violet and minerals. Conveys a youthfully medicinal quality and an impression of power to its brooding black cherry, dark chocolate and menthol flavors but this grand cru is less filled in today than the Malconsorts. Finishes with substantial tannins and salinity." (90-93pts VM)

"The 2014 Richebourg Grand Cru could be a contender for one of the wines of the vintage. It has a more nuanced and perhaps even better delineated bouquet than the Romanée-Saint-Vivant, aromatics that just nail your feet to the floor. There is wonderful mineralité here. The palate is stunning: filigree tannin and an ineffable sense of symmetry. This is just so energetic and animated, a Richebourg to be reckoned with, class from top to bottom. Do whatever you can to steal a sip." (96-98pts)

Mugnier"Candor forces me to admit that mere words won't begin to do a wine like this justice so I will simply state that the Mugnier Musigny is a compelling candidate for wine of the vintage honors, which is saying something significant in such a gifted vintage like 2005. An incredibly complex and kaleidoscopic nose features a dazzling array of aromas, particularly violet and rose petal nuanced with anise, clove and cinnamon that merges seamlessly into sweet, pure and ultra refined full-bodied flavors that are harmonious and deep, with a driving tension that forces everything into striking relief yet the palate impression is pure velvet on the immensely long finish. Moreover, it delivers one of my favorite aspects of great burgundy, which is power without weight but in this case, the '05 Musigny is an enormously powerful wine but not especially weighty. "The 2004 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru is a monument in the making, unwinding in the glass with a youthful bouquet of lemon oil, fresh apple, vanilla pod, struck match and a light touch of smoky reduction. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, searingly intense and racy, built around a bright line of acidity and laden with chewy extract, still rock solid at the core, concluding with a long, chalky finish that captures the essence of Corton-Charlemagne. Impressively, this is still a few years away from truly entering its plateau." (97+pts)

While those of us in our forties see our waistlines expanding, this '61 has just finished building up its body. Even though I prefer the aromatic merits of the '38, the '61 is the grandest monument to the craft. The color is still light, with touches of bronze and copper. The nose has one side with all the oaky, toasted aromas from the barrel, and another with fascinating tones from the sea and the forest. The superb taste is also on the dark, masculine side, with truffles, duck liver, mushroom, earth cellar, wood, and fish. The fruit is by no means ingratiating, but the depth and breath of the wine are amazing. The aftertaste is actually one of the longest I've ever experienced!" (97pts RJ)*

The '62 probably reached its peak in the early 1980s. The nose is so strong that you feel it in the room when the wine is poured. It holds the scents of the traveling carnival: popcorn, cotton candy, and vanilla ice cream. In the mouth the Champagne expresses an oily weight and an incredible explosion of riches. However, despite its greatness, I contend that this is no more than a normal Krug. At the age of thirty it's still very youthful and acidic. "Some wines are so good that words feel inadequate, and this magnum of 1971 Krug was one of them. Its nose sparkled and crackled, like a flawless diamond meeting the Macy's 4th of July fireworks show. It had an addictive quality to its nose; once you started you did not want to stop. White, crystallized fruits along with an icily great character, the Krug exploded in my mouth, resulting in a bevy of inappropriate and immature jokes from the distinguished guests around me lol. This bubbly had enough liftoff for Nasa; in fact, that's what it finish felt like, those jets burning under a rocketship heading to outerspace, ready for the endless. The fruit is huge, the acidity, the concentration, the fat notes of the house, yes everything is there. The 82', along with the 89', is the fullest wine made on the property since 1976, but has a far greater elegance than that vintage. 1x3 magnum ocb

"Remarkably perfumed nose projects an exotic bouquet of deep, leesy yellow fruit, minerals, honeycomb, smoked meat and flowers, with Asian spices building expanding in the glass. Almost painfully concentrated, offering a surreal parade of orchard and pit fruits, smoked meat, toasted brioche and marrow braced by intensely salty, stunningly incisive minerality. Imagine a Frankenstein's monster of Chablis Le Clos and Clos Ste. Hune-but one with perfect balance, of course-and you get an idea of what I found in my bottle. The energetic, stony character builds exponentially on the finish, which didn't seem to, well, finish. The best analogy I can come up with for the intensity, focus and clarity of this Champagne is liquefied barbed wire. Utterly hallucinatory and one of the most amazing wines I've ever been fortunate enough to drink." (99+pts IWC)

"...smells strikingly redolent of sea breeze, kelp, and piles of oyster and mussel shells, allied to lemon oil and toasted hazelnuts. On the palate, the aforementioned elements serve for compulsive salivation, while a lusciously juicy amalgam of lime, grapefruit and apple tinged with piquancy of their pips buoys the salty wave of mineral matter into a profoundly protracted finish that bursts with brightness and at the same time reveals mouthwateringly savory crab shell reduction and a hitherto largely hidden dark side of smoky Latakia tobacco, dark-roasted coffee, and toasted grains." "Krug's 2002 Brut has an intense citrus color and opens with a generous, intense yet fine and precise bouquet that indicates great depth and elegance. Red fruit flavors on the nose lead to a generously rich yet pure, highly refined and elegant palate, with lots of ripe cherry fruits and delicious yeasty flavors. This is a highly complex and tensioned but beautifully balanced 2002 with a charming dosage that gives perfect roundness. The finish, however, is clear, fresh and well-structured, if not taut, and very mineral." (97+pts)

"Powerful, complex bouquet evokes fresh peach, pear, floral honey, green almond and smoky minerals. Deep, palate-staining citrus and orchard fruit flavors show outstanding vivacity for a hot vintage, picking up ginger and talc notes with air. The similarities with the fabulous '79 were many. The aroma spectrum was basically identical to the legend. Only the cleanness of the '79 surpassed this sensational wine. I just have to taste them together!" (97pts RJ)

"As if there were any doubts, Krug's 1996 Brut Blanc de Blancs Clos du Mesnil reaffirms its position as one of the greatest if not the greatest Champagne of this historic harvest. I have had the privilege of drinking the 1996 Clos du Mesnil a few times over the last year and it has always been breathtaking, as it is again today. The wine sparkles on the palate with a brilliant, pointillist expression of fruit, showing surreal detail, depth and polish. Like a finely cut gem, each impression reveals a different and unique shade of nuance. The 1996 Clos du Mesnil coats every inch of the palate with endless layers of perfumed fruit and a chiseled, minerally finish that lasts forever. The oak seems a touch pronounced in this particular bottle, something I have not encountered previously with this wine. If forced to drink only one Champagne (assuming budget was not an issue) I might very well choose Krug's 1996 Clos du Mesnil. This profound Champagne is as good as it gets." (99pts)

"We quickly rectified things with a 1911 Moët, one of the greatest Champagnes I have ever had. This was the third time I have had it, and each time it soared to the heights of what old Champagne can achieve. The 1911 was a hand-blown bottle with no seams, someone observed. Of course, this was pre-Dom Pérignon, so all that theoretical Dom was going into Moët at the time. It had a crazy nose of luscious honey and sex while frolicking in an open field. The palate was creamy, round, rich and tender while still possessing great length and a finish that was certainly youthful for its age. It lingered like a gorgeous summer sunset. A bite of sushi brought out some pronounced coconut flavors on its finish. This was like a great Montrachet, with outstanding acidity at age 100, and bubbles that were still game."(98pts JK)

*"The Pommery had an amazingly creamy nose with lots of vanilla. It clearly had amazing color and was in out-sugar to the nose with baked edges, but the purity of the years of age. There was still a touch of mousse, but the Pommery was more wine-like in its character and excel-

Lightly toasted, rather plump and buttery as is typical for the 82, a hint of caramel and vanilla brioche. A juicy Granny Smith base and a light touche of dried pineapple. Damned delicious!" "A magnum tasted in England that was exceedingly light and bound in the nose during the entire welcoming toast. This wine stood out as one of the least memorable from a dinner of grand wines selected from all over the world. After the dinner, our host went out to the kitchen and brought back the half-full magnum. By now it was the best of them all! In other words, it took this forty-three-year-old three hours to open up its refined taste spectrum of all the most sensual things one can think of. An ultra-elegant and relatively light vintage for Salon." (98pts RJ)

"The 1971 Salon was staggering out of magnum. Bruce cooed over its old style, while Robert compared it to a great, old Krug. It had a toasty and nutty nose that oozed sexy qualities and hedonistic vanilla and caramel aromas. In the mouth, it was rich with an incredible center of acidity, still vibrant yet starting to show a hint of gamy, mature flavors. Its flavor profile was as complex as the wheel itself, revealing vanilla wafer, wheat, desert, corn, oats and even pineapple. Its crazy complexity was sheer genius." (98pts JK) was drinking superbly and represents the apotheosis of Blanc de Blancs, unfurling over the course of three hours with a stunningly complex bouquet of citrus oil, confit

the wine opens up in the glass. On the palate, it's medi-

the incisive spine so typical of the vintage that, here, is

"This '76 was one of the Champagnes that sparked my obsession with the area and its wines. Never before have I tasted anything so exotic, fruity, and enjoyable. It still holds up very well, even if the character has changed a little. An enormous nose and taste of sweet lemons have now replaced the butteriness. These can be found in many mature Champagnes, but never as clearly as in the Comtes de Champagne '76. A classic milestone, and absolutely one of the ten Champagnes I would pick out for someone who doubts that Champagne can be really good and big. A champion in its class!" (99pts RJ)

"The best vintages of Solaia are 1990, 1994, 1997, 1999, 2001, 2004, 2007, 2010 and now 2013. Marchesi Antinori's 2013 Solaia is a profound and meaningful wine that is based mostly on Cabernet Sauvignon with Sangiovese and Cabernet Franc in supporting roles. It sports a dark and thick texture with plump fruit and spice, grilled herb and black pepper. The bouquet is intense and layered with the kind of complexity that is best admired as the wine shifts and evolves in the glass. The textual impact is also impressive you feel the inherent power and the structure, but these elements are never overdone. The best is yet to come; this Solaia is built for long cellar aging." "The utterly perfect, dense ruby/purple-colored 1996 Barbaresco Asili (Red Label Riserva) is a heroic offering brilliantly displaying both power and elegance. The bouquet develops incrementally, offering up aromas of black raspberries, cherries, cigar box, licorice, and leather. The wine impresses with its nuances as well as its extraordinarily rich, dense mid-palate, and a finish that lasts nearly a minute. There is huge tannin, but equally massive concentration, extract, and overall harmony." (98pts)

756 Barbaresco - Vintage 2004*Asili Riserva, B. Giacosa*

"It floats on the palate with an ethereal core of sweet fruit that calls to mind a profound Musigny, but with the unmistakable structure of Nebbiolo. The perfumed purity of the fruit carries all the way through to the deeply satisfying, resonating finish. Made in a soft, seductive style, this remarkable wine is decidedly more approachable and easy to appreciate today than the Rabaja. Giacosa fans will have a great time discussing the merits of the Rabaja and the Asili in 2004, but to me they are virtually equally moving; Asili for its feminine gracefulness and Rabaja for its size and power. The Asili should prove more accessible at an earlier age. Bruno Giacosa says his 2004 Asili Riserva will turn out to be just like his 2000 Asili Riserva, the wine he still thinks is the best he's ever made." (98pts)

"The 1996 Barolo Falletto de Serralunga (Red Label Riserva) possesses extraordinary presence and stature. Dark garnet/ruby-colored, it offers a tight but promising nose of road tar, scorched earth, truffles, blackberries, cherries, and espresso. This muscular, massive wine gave me chills. It is an exquisite, virtually perfect Barolo that requires a decade of cellaring, and should last for 30-40 years. I remember wishing I were twenty years younger when I tasted it prior to bottling ... I still feel the same way. Awesome! Anticipated maturity: 2010-2040." (98pts)

770 Barolo - Vintage 2010*Francia, G. Conterno*

"The 2010 Barolo Francia is an exotic, beguiling beauty. Lavender, sage, menthol, tobacco and dried rose petals are some of the notes that open up in the glass. Constantly changing in the glass, the 2010 is utterly captivating. The combination of super-expressive aromatics, pliant fruit and pulsating tannins is something to behold. It will be many years before the 2010 is ready to deliver the goods, but it is already utterly captivating from the very first taste. Readers should note that, because of new vineyard regulations, the Cascina Francia is now known simply as Francia. In 2010, the corks had already been printed by the time that decision was made, so the corks on the 2010 read 'Cascina Francia.' "(98+pts VM)

807 Masseto - Vintage 2014*Ornellaia1x1 magnum banded owc*

"The 2014 Masseto has developed beautifully over the past few years of its oak and bottle evolution. This is a very distinctive edition of the iconic Italian Merlot that delivers a silky and streamlined approach. As bold and opulent as Masseto is in the warm vintages, I personally find those wines difficult to finish because the extract, concentration and intensity are so over the top. The best vintages of Masseto usually overpower any food dish you put before them. This is a subdued and downplayed expression instead. The cool summer season has shaped fresh berry notes of wild blackberry and cassis with drying mineral, tobacco, licorice and tar. There is evident sweetness here in terms of the wine's fruit flavors and its tannins, but there also is a cooling vein of acidity that makes the difference. The alcohol feels integrated and light. If you are hankering for a less massive and less muscular Masseto, this vintage is for you."(94pts)

Soldera first released his 2006 as a Brunello di Montalcino Riserva, but became so infuriated with his colleague producers in the aftermath of the loss of his wine that he left the appellation and decided to bottle all of his future wines as simply Sangiovese. LOVELY LEROY AND FURTHER FINEST BURGUNDY FROM A LONGTIEME NORTHEAST COLLECTOR

These fifty lots comes to us of northeast gentleman who's been collecting for nearly three decades. You will find here lots of lovely Leroy and further remarkable Burgundy from Rousseau, DRC, Roumier, Mayer and many others. His wine, or should we say Burgundy epiphany, was when tasting a horizontal of 1999 Burgundy shortly after release, and he was blown away by the Rousseau wines. He immediately switched most of his collecting to Burgundy, which was fueled by frequent trips to the region meeting with the vignerons. A valued client and friend, this successful partner in a large global advisory firm has participated in some of our major auctions including Martine and Wolfgang. Now he's a part of the biggest auction of the year himself with four vintages of La Tache leading up to a six-pack of 2002 in original wood. There are thirteen lucky lots of Leroy highlighted by 2002 Chambertin, 1988 Musigny and Romanee St. Vivant. Cros Parantoux flashes its brilliance with 1988 and 2000 Henri Mayer as well as 1993 Meo-Camuzet. White Burgundy chips in with 2007 Coche-Dury Corton Charlemagne and 1992 Ramonet Batard Montrachet. All wines kept in a combination of professional and climate-controlled home cellar with a special section that is a touch colder for the very oldest vintages.

820 Château Cos d'Estournel - Vintage 2009

"I was frankly quite surprised to find the Chambertin al-most as expressive and every bit as broad aromatically as the Bèze as the nose is equally kaleidoscopic if featuring a more deeply pitched set of fruit aromas and more earth. The flavors are bigger if not finer with serious power and weight on the rich, full and driving finish that possesses an exuberant underlying sense of energy, all wrapped in a core of rock solid but ripe and balanced tannins. Like the potential of the Bèze, this too has a chance to ascend as one of the top vintages ever typified by such years as '34, '49, '52, '62, '66 and '91. 826 La Tâche - Vintage 1999*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"Tasted at the La Tâche vertical at The Square. Having not tasted the La Tâche 1999 since it had been bottled, I was intrigued to see how it was developing. Monumentally, is the correct answer. First and foremost this is a seriously long-term La Tâche that is maturing at a glacial pace. Indeed, I left most in my glass and waited for it to open. An hour later and it was firing on all cylinders. It is blessed with an incredibly intense, powerful nose that loses its broodiness with aeration and eventually unveils a crystalline set of mineral-soaked aromatics that sport a decadent, almost exotic floral note wilted violets and pot-pourri. The palate has a quite astonishing structure, but it is more the symmetry that makes this one of the greatest vintages of recent years. It unfolds with daring passion to reveal layers of plush but focused dark plum and cassis fruit that just seem to flow and flow on the never-ending finish. It is a multifaceted, multidimensional masterpiece that really needs another decade in bottle." (100pts)

The powerful, chiseled, pure flavors are remarkably detailed, precise and fine with mind bending complexity yet for all the emotional drama of this wine, it remains understated and almost aloof at the moment. The finish is dense, structured and quite firm though there is nary a hard edge to be found and while this too cannot rival the other worldly 1999, 2001 will one day be thought of as a genuinely excellent vintage for La Tâche. In short, aristocratic in every sense." (96pts BH)

839 Savigny les Beaune - Vintage 2006*Les Narbantons, Domaine Leroy*

"This is a clear step up in aromatic depth if not elegance with its stylish, pure and expressive nose redolent of ample amounts of pungent Savigny earth and underbrush suffusing the ripe red and dark pinot fruit aromas trimmed in noticeable if subtle oak that marries into exceptionally rich, round and sweet flavors oozing with dry extract that, at present anyway, completely buffer the underlying structure." 840 Volnay - Vintage 1993*Santenots, Domaine Leroy*

"Stunningly rich and complex, still primary red and black fruit aromas lead to rich, full-bodied, deep, almost painfully intense flavors that simply ooze breed and class and the length of this simply goes on and on. This has to be one of the, indeed perhaps even "the" greatest Leroy Santenots ever produced and this is indisputably of grand cru quality. There is of course impressive size, distinction and richness but this has an emotional component to it as well and that rare quality where it's not even necessary to drink this to be wowed as the sheer complexity of the nose is nothing short of dazzling." 841 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2001*Aux Brulées, Domaine Leroy*

"Medium-deep red-ruby. Musky aromas of black raspberry, minerals and dark chocolate, with strong smoke and animal elements. Shows distinctly blacker fruit flavors than the Boudots. Today this is more primary and less fleshy, but the fruit carries impressively on the back." (93pts VM)

842 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 1990*Les Beaux Monts, Domaine Leroy*

"...authoritative and persistent aromas of black fruits, herbs, underbrush, and sweet oak. While it displays exceptional concentration of flavor in the mouth, it is supported by higher levels of tannin and is a more structured, denser, richer wine than the Les Brulées." (98pts)

1 bottle per lot $1800-2400

843 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 1996*Les Beaux Monts, Domaine Leroysdc*

"...profound aromas of intensely sweet cherries, raspberries, stones, and earth give way to a full-bodied, extremely feminine, and massively ripe and vibrant core of roses, cherries, and candied blueberries. This silky-textured, hedonistic (yet wonderfully structured), and focused wine ends on an incredibly long and detailed finish." (96pts)

844 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2001*Les Beaux Monts, Domaine Leroy*

845 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2011*Les Beaux Monts, Domaine Leroy*

"The fruit is darker and broodier here than Aux Brulées with mulberry, raspberry, wild hedgerow and a touch of black olive compote. The palate is medium-bodied with firm, structured tannins lending this Vosne a firm backbone. It is beautifully balanced and extremely pure, not a hair out of place toward the delineated, feminine finish." (96pts)

846 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2008*Aux Malconsorts, Dujac*

"The 2008 Vosne-Romanée Aux Malconsorts blossoms with endless layers of dark fruit. This is a totally sensual, enveloping wine graced with finesse, class and elegance. The Malconsorts is a pretty open 2008, but it will be even better in another few years' time." (94pts)

847 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2002*Cros Parantoux, E. Rouget*

"The nose is classy, wonderfully elegant and utterly pure, revealing concentrated aromas of red and black pinot fruit aromas plus layers upon layers of spices, including sandalwood, anise, soy, hoisin and a strong note of minerality. The linear, almost severe flavors are concentrated as well with finer tannins than usual and decidedly higher acidity than the Echézeaux and the precision is almost painful. This is not a powerful wine, and certainly less powerful than the Ech but it's a good deal more elegant and this too possesses impeccable balance that should permit it to age for 2 decades, perhaps longer." There were great strawberry elements along with citrus. It had such great pitch. Spectacular with food, truffles in the glass,' added Kass." (97pts JK)

856 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 1993*Cros Parantoux, Méo-Camuzet"Wonderfully spicy black fruit with the barest hints of secondary aromas; this is really still quite youthful on the nose. The flavor profile is intense yet suave with superb depth of extract and stunning complexity plus a long, extremely persistent finish. This simply reeks class and is extremely impressive with layer after detailed layer. Similar flavors hit the mouth with full-bodied splendor, a multidimensional mouthfeel and texture, and the sensational finish lasts more than 45 seconds. All wines properly stored.

872 Château Haut Brion - Vintage 1989

Graves

1nl

"This continues to be one of the immortal wines and one of the greatest young Bordeaux wines of the last half-century. Consistently prodigious and almost a sure bet to top the scoring card of any blind tasting of this vintage as well as other years, the 1989 Haut-Brion is a seamless, majestic classic, and a tribute to this phenomenal terroir and its singular characteristics. The wine still has a very thick, viscous-looking ruby/purple color, a spectacular, young but awesome smorgasbord of aromas ranging from scorched earth, liquid minerals, graphite, blackberry and black currant jam to toast, licorice, and spice box. The levels of fruit, extract, and glycerin in this viscous, full-bodied, low-acid wine are awe-inspiring. The brilliant symmetry of the wine, extraordinary purity, and seamlessness are the hallmarks of a modern-day legend." (100pts)

873 Château Lafite Rothschild - Vintage 2002

874 Château Latour - Vintage 1982

Pauillac

2bn, 1bsl, 1ll, 1cuc

"The dense, opaque garnet-colored 1982 Latour reveals slight amber at the edge. Sweet, smoky, roasted aromas in the nose combine with jammy levels of black currant, cherry, and prune-like fruit. It possesses extraordinary concentration and unctuousity, with a thick, fat texture oozing notes of cedar wood, tobacco, coffee, and over-ripe fruit. Low acidity as well as high alcohol (for Bordeaux) give the wine even more glycerin and textural chewiness. The finish lasts forever." (100pts)

875 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 2002

The wine possesses a knock-out nose of black fruits intertwined with aromas of toasty new oak, caramel, and flowers. BORDEAUX AND BURGUNDY BLISS WITH LEROY, LAFLEUR AND MORE Bordeaux and Red Burgundy come to us courtesy of a longtime friend and client from New England who is happy to join the La Paulée auction with cases of 2005 and 2009 Lafleur followed by choice selections of Rousseau, DRC, Leroy and Ramonet, ending with a kiss of four Chave Hermitage vintages. This is just a small fraction of the plethora of wines kept in his temperature-controlled home cellar.

887 Château Lafleur - Vintage 2005

Pomerol

1x3 magnum owc

"Exhibits a complex nose of crushed blackberry, dried flowers and dark chocolate. Full-bodied, with a rich, powerful palate. Tannic and muscular, with great length. Superracy. Builds and goes and goes. So fine and beautiful. Mythic. Best after 2017."(100pts WS)

888 Château Lafleur - Vintage 2009

1x6 bottle owc

"An absolutely prodigious blend of 55% Cabernet Franc and 45% Merlot, the 2009 Lafleur displays the telltale characteristics of this great estate. Kirsch liqueur, licorice and floral notes are intermixed with raspberry in a very full-bodied, super-intense, opulent and multidimensional style. Extraordinarily dense and pure, but not heavy by any means, the intensity, texture, and richness of the 2009 Lafleur are reminiscent of the perfect 1982."(99pts)

889 Château Montrose - Vintage 2009

St. Estephe

890 Chambertin - Vintage 2009

Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau

"Reduction rendered the nose all but impossible to read save for a few pretty spice notes that could not be denied. 891 Ruchottes Chambertin - Vintage 2013

893 Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2012*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The 2012 Grands Echézeaux was picked on September 22, 24 and 25, at 27 hectoliters per hectare. Compared to the Echézeaux the nose is more demure, perhaps more refined, does not feel the urge to "put it all out" as it were. Reticent is the word - yet the precision and delineation is undeniable. The palate is medium-bodied with very supple tannin, here a mixture of red and black fruit, a little broodier and more introspective than its "cousin" but with greater persistence in the mouth. It unfurls on the finish: hints of dry tobacco and cedar, leaving you with the impression of a "masculine" Grands Echézeaux, one built for the long haul. 987 cases produced." (95pts)

894 Richebourg - Vintage 2014*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

896 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2001*Domaine Leroyscrc*

"Quite a bit riper than any wine to this point with jammy, roasted, perfumed, slightly floral aromas and explosive ripe, very primary, rather robust flavors that just ooze pinot extract. 897 Musigny - Vintage 2002*J. Drouhin*

"Stunningly pure, spicy and refined black fruit aromas lead to silky, velvety, concentrated and magnificently rich flavors that ooze class and breed. The intensity does a slowbuild from the richly textured mid-palate to an explosively long finish. In short, this is a classic example of the old adage of an iron fist in a velvet glove as the buried structure and perfect balance will permit this to age for a very long time indeed and if it adds additional complexity over time, my score will seem quite conservative." "A huge and powerful nose of stunning complexity leads to round, muscular and deep flavors that are massive in size and scope. There is serious volume to this wine and while there is still superb intensity, the flavors have finally begun to mellow somewhat even though this will be capable of holding another 10 years. That said, this has reached its peak and is truly a stunning Monty. Multiple, and consistent, notes." (94pts BH)

- 915 Montrachet - Vintage 2015
Domaine de la Romanée Conti
1x3 bottle banded owc
"The 2015 Montrachet Grand Cru is still predictably youthful, unfurling in the glass with aromas of crisp Anjou pear, buttered citrus, tangerine oil and a prominent framing of very classy new oak. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, multidimensional and concentrated, both satiny and textural without being remotely unctuous, and underpinned by succulent, even tangy acids. At this stage, where the wine really shows its pedigree is in its extraordinarily long, oak-inflected finish. Given the vintage, one might have expected more ripeness and drama, but the domaine is picking its Montrachet a bit earlier these days, and that has done it no harm at all in 2015. It would be interesting to taste this wine alongside Ramonet's example, which is both more textural and less overtly oaky, but my sense is that the two are on the same qualitative level in their very different styles." "The 2014 Puligny Montrachet Village Cru offers lilting dewy green apple and wet limestone aromas on the nose, underneath subtle scents of orange blossom lending more complexity as it opens in the glass. The palate is crisp and fresh with a twist of bitter lemon on the entry. This is well balanced with good weight, plenty of energy on the tip of the tongue with a pleasant saline finish. It does not quite possess the drive of the premier crus, although there is a pleasant spicy note that pops up on the aftertaste. Tasted December 2016." (90pts)

Le Mesnil
1x3 bottle owc
"The Salon 1999 Brut Le Mesnil disgorged already in 2011 and dosed with a pretty typical six grams of residual sugar displays faintly fusil and quarry dust notes as well as hickory nut, almond, walnut and toasted wheat piquancy on the nose. Polished and subtly creamy in texture yet brightly juicy with apple and lemon, this displays an uncanny sense of lift and refinement, perfectly complementing the honeysuckle and heliotrope perfume that waft inner-mouth. You could lose yourself in the ineffability of this wine's floral diversity and in its resonantly nut and grain low tones. Hints of apple pip lend subtle additional piquancy on a long and at once soothing as well as stimulating finish, with suggestions of oyster liquor becoming prominent as the bottle stands open for a few minutes, and serving to milk the salivary glands for all that they are worth." 1x3 magnum owc
"The 2013 Dominus is, to my way of thinking, one of the most profound wines Christian Moueix has yet made in his rather brilliant winemaking history, both in France and in Napa Valley. This wine, with very low yields of only 3,500 cases and a final blend of 89% Cabernet Sauvignon, 7% Petit Verdot and 4% Cabernet Franc, offers up notes of cedar wood, forest floor, loamy soil and oodles of blackberry and blackcurrant fruit. Very opaque purple in color, super-pure and intense, this wine has low acidity, but ripe, noticeable tannins. This is a 30- to 40-year wine and a profound effort from this famous vineyard in Yountville. Drink it over the next 40+ years." (100pts)

It was produced using 42% whole cluster and aged for around 21 months in French oak, 6% new (bottled June 21, 2017). It offers up a deep garnet-purple color and notes of dried Mediterranean herbs, dusty earth, Chinese five spice and rose petals over a core of red currants, mulberries, red plums and black raspberries, plus a waft of chocolate covered cherries. Full-bodied, decadently concentrated and yet very, very pretty in the mouth, it delivers incredibly fine-grained, ripe tannins and wonderful freshness, finishing on a persistent totally disarming perfumed red fruit note. 1,199 cases of 750 milliliter bottles and 600 magnums were made." 928 Château Haut Brion - Vintage 1989

"This continues to be one of the immortal wines and one of the greatest young Bordeaux wines of the last half-century. Consistently prodigious and almost a sure bet to top the scoring card of any blind tasting of this vintage as well as other years, the 1989 Haut-Brion is a seamless, majestic classic, and a tribute to this phenomenal terroir and its singular characteristics. The wine still has a very thick, viscous-looking ruby/purple color; a spectacular, young but awesome smorgasbord of aromas ranging from scorched earth, liquid minerals, graphite, blackberry and black currant jam to toast, licorice, and spice box. The levels of fruit, extract, and glycerin in this viscous, full-bodied, low-acid wine are awe-inspiring. Rose

2x3 bottle ocb's

"Dom Pérignon's 1996 Rosé is one of my all-time favorite Champagnes, but I have never tasted it this way, nor has anyone else in the room. Three bottles of the 1996 Rosé are lined up; a standard fifth, magnum and jeroboam. We are all quite curious to taste the three wines, as they were all released at different times. It is quite common for Champagne houses to vary the level of dosage according to the bottle size and release date, but DP is notoriously tight-lipped on such matters, so it is impossible to know for sure. The jeroboam is opened first. It is tight as a drum. Over the course of several hours, the wine opens up beautifully and by the end of the dinner it is clearly the most intriguing and complete of the three. I wish I owned more of these, but this is the last. The magnum is great right out of the gate. I adore the magnum format for all wines, but Champagne in particular. This is a fabulous showing. The straight fifth is also surprisingly closed at the outset, but then blossoms quickly. At the first tasting, it is the most impressive of the three bottles but as time passes there is much less development here than in the big bottles. What a fascinating comparative tasting (Jeroboam Tasted)." (98+pts VM)

"The wine of the vintage. More Krug-like than Mesnil-like. The color is reminiscent of a big, white, toasted, oak-barrel Burgundy even the scent points in that direction. It has an oriental, spicy nose. Toffee, honey, coffee, linden, cream, butterscotch, sun-ripened oranges: it's got everything! Enveloped in a Corton-Charlemagne-like fat, nutty, enormous taste. 954 Château Lynch Bages - Vintage 1985

6bsl

"Tasted single blind at the 1985 Bordeaux horizontal, the 1985 Château Lynch Bages was pitted against two other wines, both First Growths, and it more than held its own. In many ways it is a forerunner for the brilliant 1989 and 1990 that Jean-Michel crafted, though the 1985 has always been more elegant and comely in style. The nose is impressive after three decades with melted tar, a touch of peppermint and delineated black fruit that seem to gain intensity with each passing moment in the glass. Strangely those secondary notes of bay leaf and dried herbs make way for more primal fruit-derived scents with aeration! The palate does not disappoint. Medium rather than full-bodied, beautifully defined tannins and supremely well-judged acidity, this Lynch-Bages is just so well balanced. Hints of black truffle and sandalwood unfold towards the finish that has disarming purity and great persistence. If you want to know why the 1855 Classification screwed up placing Lynch Bages as a Fifth Growth - taste the wonderful 1985 and then the 1989 and 1990 (though the latter pair have greater longevity). Tasted July 2015." (95pts)

956 Château Margaux - Vintage 1986

Margaux

1x12 bottle owc

"The 1986 Château Margaux is one of the dark horses of the vintage. It has an exquisite bouquet that is now fully mature, with a mixture of red and black fruit, violets, pastilles and hints of cold stone. It blossoms in the glass, gaining intensity all the time. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, a more robust Margaux as you would expect given the vintage, clearly with firm backbone, more straight-laced than the 1985 or 1989. Yet there is wonderful delineation and focus here. If you seek strictness and classicism in a wine, then this is the place to come, plus there is superb mineralité and tension on the ferrous finish. Perhaps a little overlooked in recent years, the 1986 Margaux comes highly recommended for those who love the property. This is a wine finally coming of age." (97pts)

957 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 1986

Pauillac

7ts, 3vhs, 9lsl, 1cc

"Clearly the youngest looking, most opaque and concentrated wine of the group, it tastes as if it has not budged in development since I first tasted it out of barrel in March, 1987. An enormously concentrated, massive Mouton-Rothschild, comparable in quality, but not style, to the 1982, 1959, and 1945, this impeccably made wine is still in its infancy I suspect the 1986 Mouton-Rothschild requires a minimum of 15-20 more years of cellaring; it has the potential to last for 50-100 years!..." 960 Château Talbot - Vintage 1982
St. Julien
 4stl, 1tl, 3sdc, 1ssos, 1scc
"Along with the 1986, the 1982 is one of the greatest Talbots ever made. Far more evolved than its stablemate, Gruaud Larose, it exhibits a dense garnet color to the rim along with a huge, sweet, exotic nose of charcoal, beef blood, licorice, herbs, and black fruits. A hint of figs suggests borderline overripeness, but the wine remains fleshy and full-bodied with sweet tannin and an expansive, heady mouthfeel. While fully mature, it should hold for another decade. Release price: ($115.00/case)" (95pts)

"The 1982 is another superb example of that. One of the jammiest, most precocious Granges when it was released, it has never gone through a closed stage and continues to drink beautifully. A full-bodied, opulent Grange, it reveals an inky/purple color to the rim as well as a beautiful nose of crushed blueberries, blackberries, smoke, toast, roasted herbs, and road tar. This dense, plush, expansive, seamless, seductive 1982 has not changed much since I had it nearly a decade ago." (97pts)

THE QUINTESSENTIAL COLLECTOR RETURNS FROM ITALY, CALI AND AUSTRALIA

We are delighted to welcome the return of The Quintessential Collector, this time focusing on cases and parcels from Italy and California with some saucy Aussies for dessert! This successful entrepreneur has been collecting wines for fifteen plus years, rapidly and with precision assembling an amazing collection of depth and variety that has graced our auction catalogs many times before. He began collecting wine after his doctor told him to stop drinking spirits and drink more red wine – good advice! He certainly followed that directive and fell in love with wine, insisting on only the best as he explored many different regions. Five cases of 2012 Solaia start us off smartly for parcels of multiple 2010 Brunellos. There are magnums of Schrader followed by Next of Kyn while rare magnums of Penfolds Grange lead the Aussie charge. All wines removed from professional storage in the UK.

Cerretalto, Casanova di Neri

2x1 magnum owc's, 1x1 double magnum owc

"Here is a stunning wine that exudes excellence in primary material and winemaking craft. Man and nature come together with perfect precision and harmony in the 2010 Brunello di Montalcino Cerretalto. The balance is exquisite. Bold cherry and blackberry notes are followed by crushed mineral, licorice, smoke and lightly fragrant cedar. The wine also shows convincing power and volume. It spreads evenly over the palate, and its flavor intensity can be counted over many long minutes. Cerretalto is beautifully concentrated and rich, but it is never too heavy or dense. This is an Italian icon that is still drinking young now, but it has an exciting world of possibility ahead. I think we'd all like to come along for the ride." (100pts)

"The 2012 Ornellaia has put on quite a bit of weight since I first tasted it from bottle a few months ago. Rich, powerful and concentrated, the 2012 offers plenty of depth and intensity, with expressive fruit and striking mid-palate intensity. Dark red cherry jam, wild flowers, licorice, smoke, tobacco and mint blossom in the glass. There is a very slight element of dryness in the tannin that is the signature of a year in which ripening took place in fits and starts. It will be interesting to see if that note softens over time." This wine promises a long and steady aging future ahead." (95+pts)

1014 Harlan Estate Red - Vintage 2007

"Dense plum/purple-colored with sweet aromas of barbecue smoke, blueberries, blackberries, cassis, licorice, hot rocks and subtle oak, it is a splendidly opulent, pure wine with a skyscraper-like texture as well as stunningly deep fruit that expands gracefully across the palate. The finish lasts nearly a full minute. "This great first-growth property, with aspirations to produce the finest Cabernet Sauvignon-based wine made in the New World, has given us a wine that has it all in 2013. Dense purple to the rim, with notes of espresso, white chocolate, mocha, blackberry, cassis, and cedar wood, the wine is full-bodied, opulent, but also structured, pure and incredibly long (well past a minute after-taste)."(100pts)

"I knew it was only a matter of time before Davide Cilli would make a wine at Promontory that would represent the maximum expression of this rugged hillside site. The 2014 Promontory has been exceptional in the past, but it has also gained another gear or two over the last year, which is pretty much now standard for these wines. Stunningly delineated and precise, with tremendous purity and exceptional balance, the 2014 Promontory dazzles from start to finish. This is an especially translucent style, one that is more about persistence and balance than power alone. Stated simply, the 2014 Promontory is towering achievement from one of Napa Valley's most talented young winemakers. Kudos to the Harlan family and the winegrowing team led by Bob Levy and Cory Empting for creating the framework that allowed Cilli to craft this exquisite, riveting Cabernet Sauvignon."(100pts VM)

1036 Shafer Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2008

Hillside Select

1x6 bottle owc

"...is one of those rare wines that looks like it will be absolutely delicious pretty much at any point in its life. Super-refined and silky, the 2008 caresses the palate with layers of deeply expressive dark fruit. The 2008 is a wine of exceptional textural finesse and pedigree. According to Doug Shafer, cool weather in the spring resulted in small clusters with high skin to juice ratios, always a plus for high quality wines." (96pts)

WHITE BURGUNDY AND CALIFORNIA DREAMING FROM A WEST COAST ENTERTAINMENT EXEC

Sixty sexy selections bringing together the elegance of Burgundy and the richness of Napa Reds were all professionally stored by a West coast music man. 2014 DRC Echezeaux and Grands Echezeaux set the stage for a flurry of White Burgundy featuring nine lots of Pierre-Yves Colin-Morey. We go California dreaming with eleven lots of Abreu, eight from Colgin, eleven from Hundred Acre followed by a flyover of five Screaming Eagle lots starting with 2007. All wines ideally stored.

1037 Richebourg - Vintage 2005

A.F. Gros

"This too is carrying noticeable toast on the otherwise highly spicy and pure black and blue pinot fruit aromas that also display notes of warm earth, leather and exotiCôtea. The mouth coating flavors are structured and muscular, offering serious size and weight yet there is nothing ponderous here as the balance is impeccable and this too is built to age." (92-94pts BH)

1038 Échézeaux - Vintage 2014

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"A wonderfully complex nose features a broad array of spice elements with those of plum, violet, sandalwood and Asian-style tea that are also trimmed in soft wood nuances. There is good punch to the refined, cool and pure medium-bodied flavors that possess better concentration on the balanced, persistent and youthfully austere finale where the only nit is a very subtle hint of warmth." (94pts BH)

1039 Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2014

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"Here the expressive nose is even spicier and more floral with its lovely array of rose petal, lilac and lavender scents adding elegance to the mostly dark pinot and earth aromas that are also trimmed in a bit of wood but in this case it is even more subtle. As is virtually always the case this is bigger, richer, more powerful and more muscular with excellent volume to the rich and mouth coating flavors that deliver superb length on the chiseled, robust and hugely long finale." 1040 Batard Montrachet - Vintage 2007

Domaine Leflaive

"This is also on the ripe side for a 2007 with an ultra elegant nose that is pure, airy and cool, indeed this is unusually elegant for the appellation with its white flower, citrus, pear, menthol, white pepper and light spice hints that are in perfect keeping with the rich, full and broad-shouldered flavors that possess the usual volume and power of a classic Bâtard but do not lose any of the precision or detail on the expansive, mouth coating and hugely long and very dry finish." Thorevilos
1x3 bottle ocb
"This is always the most floral of the Abreu wines, but it also has what the French call je ne sais quoi, a quality that is hard to pin down. The 2015 Thorevilos is, like its siblings, inky blue/black/purple, with incredible amounts of flamboyant, majestic blueberry, blackberry and cassis fruit intermixed with raspberries, spring flowers, wet rocks, truffles and foresty notes. Incredibly intense on the palate, the blueberry and graphite character seems to come forward along with a suggestion of toast. It is an amazingly viscous, thick and juicy wine, but it cuts a ballerina's silhouette across the palate, as there is no heaviness or boredom. This is an exhilarating elixir no doubt about it. Moreover, it is another 50-year wine." (99-100pts)

"The 2013 Dominus is, to my way of thinking, one of the most profound wines Christian Moueix has yet made in his rather brilliant winemaking history, both in France and in Napa Valley. This wine, with very low yields of only 3,500 cases and a final blend of 89% Cabernet Sauvignon, 7% Petit Verdot and 4% Cabernet Franc, offers up notes of cedar wood, forest floor, loamy soil and oodles of blackberry and blackcurrant fruit. Very opaque purple in color; super-pure and intense, this wine has low acidity, but ripe, noticeable tannins. Les Pavots
"The 2014 Proprietary Red Les Pavots (3,570 cases) is a blend of 60% Cabernet Sauvignon, 20% Cabernet Franc, 13% Merlot and 5% Petit Verdot aged in mostly Taransaud barrels with a small helping of Darnajou thrown in. This wine is fabulous in the vintage, although certainly less profoundly concentrated and extracted, as well as structured, compared to the 2013, which was off-the-charts fabulous. This is a brilliant wine, charming, with front-end loaded plum, blackcurrant and black raspberry fruit interwoven with graphite, tar and truffle notes. The wine has sumptuous texture, sweet, velvety tannin, and a long, full-bodied finish. It should drink well for at least two decades. "(95pts)

1093 Peter Michael Red - Vintage 2016
Les Pavots
"The 2016 Cabernet Sauvignon Les Pavots is a dense, powerful wine endowed with tons of raciness and class. Today, the 2016 is a bit shy, though. The aromatics are not as expressive as they can be. On the palate, the Pavots is much more giving. I sense a bit less heft than in the in recent past, which is not a bad thing at all. Time in the glass brings out attractive scents of grilled herbs, rose petal and mint to round things out. "(95+pts VM)

1094 Screaming Eagle Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2007
"The most profound Screaming Eagle since the 2002 and 1997, the 2007 Cabernet Sauvignon (an 800-case blend of 77% Cabernet Sauvignon, 20% Merlot and 3% Cabernet Franc) offers up a prodigiously pure, complex nose of cassis, spring flowers, licorice and black currants, the latter component being so intense and lingering that it makes this cuvée stand apart from other Napa Valley wines. Full-bodied in the mouth, like a ballerina on her toes, this wine glides gracefully across the palate with a cascade of purity, equilibrium and compelling complexity. Extraordinary balance and elegance combined with power make for an utterly stunning wine that should drink well for two decades or more. "(100pts)

Opulent and full-bodied with a multidimensional personality, gorgeous purity and a stunning, flawless texture, this spectacular wine is among the wines of the vintage. "(100pts)

A wine of total class and sophistication, the 2018 is a knock-out from the very first taste. There is an exoticism that I find especially alluring. "(98+pts VM)

Deep, sensual and beautifully layered, the 2019 is simply magnificent from the very first taste. A whole range of red/purplish fruit, spice, leather, dried herb and blood orange accents give the 2019 its vivid, wonderfully detailed personality. "(100pts VM)

STRETCH RUN

Sixty sexy selections bringing together the elegance of Burgundy and the richness of Napa Reds were all professionally stored by a West coast music man. 2014 DRC Echezeaux and Grands Echezeaux set the stage for a flurry of White Burgundy featuring nine lots of Pierre-Yves Colin-Morey. We go California dreaming with eleven lots of Abreu, eight from Colgin, eleven from Hundred Acre followed by a flyover of five Screaming Eagle lots starting with 2007. All wines ideally stored.

1107 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 1949

Pauillac

Its, 1vhs, 2bsl, 1scl, outstanding color and condition

1111 La Tâche - Vintage 1997

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"Dark-colored, the aromatically tight 1997 La Tache reveals Asian spices, pepper, cherries and black currants. This is a velvety-textured, expansive, and massively ripe wine boasting flavors reminiscent of licorice and blackberry jam. It has superb depth of fruit (particularly for this sometimes "simple" vintage), medium-to-full body, and admirable length to its supple finish. "(93pts)

BURGUNDY CHAMPION WITH ASSISTS FROM BLUE-CHIP BORDEAUX AND GUIGAL

We begin day two of our La Paulée auction auspiciously with fifty fabulous selections compliments of our Burgundy Champion. This noted collector has been a champion of Burgundy and other top wine regions in France for a long time, having the history and gravitas to purchase the top wines from each vintage close to the source. A highly influential, senior managing director in private equity, this collector is also a member of the Confrérie des Chevaliers du Tastevin as well as being on the board of several charities championing human rights and the arts. He has been collecting wines for over thirty years, and his Burgundy epiphany moment came when his wife gave him a 1985 La Tache for his birthday. I'd say he married well! He lived in London in the 1990s participating in the auctions there and began to travel extensively to Burgundy and beyond, buying deep and buying often. We are delighted to be the lucky recipients of his brilliant buying acumen.

Bordeaux builds the cellar with original wood cases of 1982 Gruaud Larose, 2010 Lafite and 1989 Lynch Bages. There are dueling quartets of Vogue Musigny and d'Angerville setting us up for Lafon, Leflaive and Roulot, which dominate the White Burgundy selection while we conclude with six lots of Guigal La Las. This is a tremendous selection from a tremendous collection – enjoy the wines from this brilliant champion of Burgundy with a little help from its friends across the fine wine appellation map! All wines properly stored.

"Blended of 60% Cabernet Sauvignon, 38% Merlot and 2% Cabernet Franc, the 2000 Cos d'Estournel is deep garnet in color with a touch of brick and sporting a lot of tertiary evolution on the nose. It leaps from the glass with opulent sandalwood, Chinese five spice, cigar box and leather scents over a core of prunes, baked cherries, dried mulberries and eucalyptus plus a touch of pot-pourri. 1124 Château Gruaud Larose - Vintage 1982

1x12 bottle owc

"A massive wine that is clearly of first-growth quality in this vintage, the 1982 Gruaud Larose remains a youngster. A broodingly dense, thick, unctuously textured, inky/plum/garnet/purple color offers up scents of beef blood, steak tartare, cassis, herbs, tobacco, and underbrush. One of the most concentrated wines of the vintage (as well as one of the most concentrated Bordeaux's I have ever tasted), it is a huge, full-bodied, weighty, rich wine whose tannins are getting silkier and silkier. It appears set for another 30-40 years of life. This behemoth is a singularly profound example of Gruaud Larose that continues to justify its legendary status." (98pts)

1126 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 1998

Graves

1x12 bottle owc

"A candidate for the wine of the vintage from this somewhat forgotten year; consumers should be seeking out wines from the Right Bank and Graves as 1998 was a great vintage in those appellations. La Mission's 1998 exhibits a healthy, opaque blue/purple color with no lightening at the edge. Thirty minutes of aeration brings forth a sensational bouquet of chocolate, cedar, truffles, graphite, blackberries, cassis and incense. La Mission's so-called scorched earth/charcoal/hot rocks characteristic has not yet appeared. Full-bodied with superb purity, a multilayered texture, sweet tannin, good acidity and a fabulously long finish, this great, young La Mission-Haut-Brion's finest days are yet to come."(98pts)

"...a big, rich, full-throttle Lafite-Rothschild meant to age a half century or more. Deep purple, with notes of white chocolate, mocha, cedar and charcoal as well as hints of vanillin and creme de cassis, the wine is full-bodied yet has that ethereal lightness that makes it a Lafite."(98pts)

1131 Château Lynch Bages - Vintage 1989

Pauillac

1x12 bottle owc

"The 1989 has taken forever to shed its formidable tannins, but what a great vintage of Lynch Bages! I would rank it at the top of the pyramid although the 1990, 2000, and down the road, some of the more recent vintages such as 2005, 2009 and 2010 should come close to matching the 1989's extraordinary concentration and undeniable aging potential. Its dense purple color reveals a slight lightening at the edge and the stunning bouquet offers classic notes of creme de cassis, subtle smoke, oak and graphite. Powerful and rich with some tannins still to shed at age 22..."(99+pts)

"Beginning to open magnificently, the still dense purple-colored 2000 reveals a blossoming bouquet of blackberries, cassis, graphite and pen ink. Full-bodied with velvety tannins that have resolved themselves beautifully over the last eleven years, this wine is still an adolescent, but it exhibits admirable purity, texture, mouthfeel and power combined with elegance. One of the all-time great examples of Lynch Bages, the 2000 is just beginning to drink well yet promises to last for another 20-25+ years."(97pts)

"Here too there is less obvious wood than I typically find with this wine and it better enables the reticent and exceptionally cool fruit and broad ranging spice notes to be expressed. There is wonderful verve and freshness to the broad-shouldered, dense and extract-rich flavors where an intense minerality surfaces on the palate staining, focused and linear finish that delivers simply terrific length." 1136 Musigny - Vintage 2001*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue1x6 bottle owc*

"One of the finest wines of the vintage, this is simply a spectacular effort that has captured every bit of the potential it originally displayed in cask. Restrained and backward nose of a fantastically complex mix of blackberries, spice, cedar, soy, anise and dried herbs followed by full-bodied, multi-layered flavors of amazing length. Opulent and lavish yet all remains exquisitely balanced and this is astonishingly precise. A real stunner of a wine that is as classy and graceful as they come. As good and classy as the '02 if not quite as structured." (96pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $3500-5000

1137 Musigny - Vintage 2002*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue1x6 bottle owc*

"The extraordinary 2002 Musigny Vieilles Vignes will most likely not have as much cellaring potential as the great 1949, 1959, or 1990, yet qualitatively is in the same league as those jewels from the past. It sports a profound nose of red cherries, spices, candied raspberries, and hints of oak. This noble, concentrated, refined wine reveals loads of flowers intermingled with red as well as black fruits in its complex personality. Unlike the bold, chewy, hyper-concentrated 1990, this is a feminine wine, a work of art with exquisite tannin. Anticipated maturity: 2007-2018." (97-99pts)

6 bottles per lot $4500-6000

1138 Musigny - Vintage 2007*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue1x6 bottle owc*

"The step up in class is unmistakable with gorgeously complex, even kaleidoscopic and superbly elegant red, black and violet aromas trimmed with a dazzling array of spices, earth and a hint of smoke that adds unmistakable luster to the round, intense, muscular and exceptionally stylish broad-scaled flavors that possess excellent power and a building intensity that develops from the mid-palate to the explosive yet seductive finish. I really like the purity of expression here on the sappy and mineral-infused finish that has a dusty quality from all of the dry extract that coats the firm tannins." (95pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $3000-4000

1139 Musigny - Vintage 2010*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue1x3 magnum owc*

"A highly spiced and intensely floral nose evidences hints of violet, lilac, wild rose and lavender along with notes of both red and black pinot fruit, kirsch, earth and stone hints that continue onto the pure and silky broad-shouldered flavors that also possess a powerful yet almost delicate mouth feel. This is a very interesting wine as the dense tannins are so fine-grained that the palate impression is like the finest satin. The driving minerality adds another element and there is a palpable sense of energy to the balanced, focused and beautifully well-delineated finish that explodes with mouth coating dry extract. This is unapologetically built to age and indeed it will require plenty of it. Succinctly put, this is breathtakingly good." (97pts BH)

1143 Gevrey Chambertin - Vintage 2019*Clos St. Jacques, Vieilles Vignes, Fourrier1x3 magnum owc*

"Spicier if equally restrained aromas are comprised mostly of wild red and dark berries plus whiffs of earth, humus, anise, violet and gentle wood. The sleekly textured and tautly muscular flavors are concentrated and powerful and the intensity is most impressive as it does a slow build from the mid-palate culminating in a superbly complex and well-balanced finale."(93-96pts BH)

1144 Chambolle Musigny - Vintage 2018*Les Cras, G. Roumier1x6 bottle ocb*

"Here the intensely floral-suffused nose is also quite yet fresh ripe with its aromas of poached plum, cassis and pretty spice wisps. The exceptionally rich and dense full-bodied flavors possess an opulent palate impression though the almost pungent salinity adds a sense of lift to the surprisingly powerful, mouth coating and firm finish where the only nit is a hint of warmth. This too possesses excellent development potential, so patience absolutely advised."(93pts BH)

"A hint of menthol adds nuance to the mostly highly-spiced red berry fruit nose that is quite reserved if beautifully complex while leading to sweet, delicious, generous and round medium full flavors that are classy and refined, all wrapped in a strikingly persistent and explosive finish. This offers excellent cellar potential and at this early stage the wood, which is normally fairly prominent, is already well integrated but note that this will need every bit of 15 years, perhaps even slightly longer, to arrive at its prime as it's very structured."(95pts BH)

 "This is a Chevalier-Montrachet that really delivers. The 2000 Chevalier Montrachet has a sensational walnut and smoke-tinged nose that is brilliantly focused and vibrant. This just shimmers with tension and develops hints of cockleshell with time. The palate follows through in style: taut and precise and barely showing its age, deep with great intensity and subtle notes of vanilla pod and coconut toward the finish, though they never obstruct the mineral core of this fantastic Chevalier-Montrachet. Drink now without guilt, cellar for another decade likewise." (96pts)

The borderline painfully intense medium-bodied flavors possess excellent punch and very good mid-palate concentration before terminating in a taut and delineated finish that displays a distinct saline character along with hints of citrus. On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, satiny and supple, with an enveloping but incisive profile, underpinned by electric acids and chalky extract. 1195 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2015*H. Lignier1x1 Jeroboam owc*

"While it has lost none of its striking elegance, the 2015 Clos de la Roche Grand Cru has shut down a bit since I last tasted it, unfurling with coaxing to reveal aromas of ripe cherries, raw cocoa, dried flowers, cinnamon and grilled squab. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, layered and satiny, with unusual suppleness and charm for a young Clos de la Roche, but with considerable depth and concentration behind its deceptively charming facade. Bright and precise, it's a fabulous wine with a long and brilliant future ahead of it." (96pts)

"The 2018 Clos de la Roche from Laurent Lignier is simply stellar example of the vintage, offering up ripe and very pure fruit, great soil signature and a firm, refined chassis of tannin to carry it far into the future. The bouquet wafts from the glass in a complex blend of plums, red and black cherries, a touch of beetroot, gamebird, bonfire, mustard seed, marvelous soil tones and cedar. On the palate the wine is full-bodied, focused and shows off beautiful mid-palate depth, with ripe, chewy and well-integrated tannins, great balance and grip and a very long, tangy and nascently complex finish. A terrific wine." (95pts JG)

The wine is kept in the cellar for 34 to 36 months before the disgorgement, and the pressure (kept at 4.5 bar) is rather gentle since Cédric doesn't like bubbles that much, as he admitted during the tasting. The 2015 is very clear, pure, fresh and aromatic on the nose, offering red berries along with complex limestone flavors. The palate is clear, dry, pure, fine and complex, representing a great mix of perfectly ripe and precise fruit flavors along with complex minerality. Rodolphe Pétters dug deep into his family's cellar for this Champagne. Essentially, Heritage is blended from three tiers of wine, more or less in equal proportion. These are: 1) a base of 2010 Chétillons, 2) a blend of Chétillons from 2002, 2004, 2006 and 2008, and 3) a blend of the domaine's Champagnes from 1996 all the way back to 1921, encompassing Chétillons, Special Club and Vintage bottlings, depending on what was available. The older vintages confer tremendous layers of nuance to a Champagne that stands out for its creamy resonance, depth and personality. A LOYAL LEGION OF LIGER-BELAIR AND KRUG

Sixty-five plus selections come to us courtesy of an ardent purchaser of fine and rare wines. First up is a quartet of Rousseau anchored by a full case of 2014 Clos de Beze. There are nine selections of Comte Liger-Belair centering around six bottles of 2005 La Romanee followed by choice lots of Ponsot, Lachaux, Mugnier, Leflaive and Henri Boillot. Krug dazzles and sparkles with ten lots starting with three cases of 2002 topped by Clos du Mesnil back to six bottles of 1988. All wines removed from professional storage. *

Medium-bodied, the elegantly crafted palate is completely packed with intense floral, mineral and cassis-laced flavors with a firm frame of very finely pixelated tannins and seamless freshness, finishing very long and achingly stunning." "The 2016 Palmer is a blend of 47% Merlot, 47% Cabernet Sauvignon and 6% Petit Verdot. Opaque garnet-purple colored, it slowly glides out of the glass with compelling notes of blueberry compote, warm cassis and kirsch with emerging hints of violets, cigar box, black tea, sandalwood and Sichuan pepper. Medium to full-bodied, wonderfully rich, concentrated and packed with latent energy, the palate literally grows in the mouth, revealing layer upon layer of black, blue and red fruits and tons of floral sparks, framed by super ripe, incredibly fine-grained tannins and finishing with epic length. It's a wine that makes you wanna drape yourself languidly over a chaise lounge, glass of Palmer in hand, sighing with deep satisfaction, "This is so wonderfully Palmer." (98+pts)

1268 Chambertin - Vintage 2014

A. Rousseau

"Rousseau's 2014 Chambertin Grand Cru has a fruit-driven bouquet laden with black cherries, crushed strawberry, ink and a touch of bay leaf. As it aerates, the fruit seems to take more of a back seat and the terroir comes through. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, very pure and elegant, iron fist/velvety glove and so forth. This is what a grand cru should be. Utterly seductive and captivating, its satin texture might lure you into opening a bottle too soon. Give it a decade to admire Rousseau at full flight." (97pts)

1279 La Romanée - Vintage 2006*Comte Liger-Belair1x6 bottle owc*

"This is as reserved and cool as the Reignots but more complex, refined and sophisticated still as it just exudes class and breed with a fantastically broad array of spicy and pure black fruit aromas where the reserve and spice components are also reflected by the minerally, serious and delicious medium full-bodied flavors brimming with s ve and extract on the very firm finish supported by buried tannins and huge length that doesn't stop. This isn't quite as concentrated and powerful as the '05 version but it's more than a respectable successor and there is so much sap that it gives the impression of being much more approachable now than it actually is." 1280 La Romanée - Vintage 2015*Comte Liger-Belair*

"Tasted blind, Louis-Michel Liger-Belair's 2015 La Romanée Grand Cru is simply extraordinary, dominating a flight of great grands crus. The wine wafts from the glass with an extraordinarily complex bouquet in which notes of cherries, cassis and orange rind mingle with fragrant aromas of rose petal and Asian spices, complemented by deeper, more savory bass notes of grilled squab, espresso roast and smoked duck. On the palate, it's full-bodied, multidimensional and complete, with amazing depth and dimension, juicy acids balancing a deep and concentrated core of fruit, and concluding with a long, reverberative finish. This is a powerful, even dramatic La Romanée that ranks as one of the pinnacles of this magical vintage." (100pts)

On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and seamless, with the inherent power of the 2002 vintage very much in evidence in its bottomless core, but with the overall profile of the wine one of unrepentant refinement. As stunningly beautiful as the fruit component is here, the wine is more defined by its brilliant mineral drive on the palate, with its elegant mousse, perfect balance and very, very long, nascently complex and laser-like finish the stuff of legends. The wine seems to attain its lift and backend energy from its limestone mineral drive, rather than the bright, zesty acidity and the overall impression is of almost otherworldly perfection." 1327 Salon Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1999*Le Mesnil12x1 bottle owc's*

"The Salon 1999 Brut Le Mesnil disgorged already in 2011 and dosed with a pretty typical six grams of residual sugar displays faintly fusil and quarry dust notes as well as hickory nut, almond, walnut and toasted wheat piquancy on the nose. Polished and subtly creamy in texture yet brightly juicy with apple and lemon, this displays an uncanny sense of lift and refinement, perfectly complementing the honeysuckle and heliotrope perfume that waft inner-mouth. You could lose yourself in the ineffability of this wine's floral diversity and in its resonantly nut and grain low tones. Hints of apple pip lend subtle additional piquancy on a long and at once soothing as well as stimulating finish, with suggestions of oyster liquor becoming prominent as the bottle stands open for a few minutes, and serving to milk the salivary glands for all that they are worth." "The release of this wine comes at a very happy time for the Masseto brand. The stunning 2015 Masseto is hitting the market just as the final touches are being made to the new Masseto winery. I'm told that Masseto might one day see other wines made under that same roof, so we can't exclude a future enlargement of the Masseto portfolio. The Masseto vineyard now covers seven hectares (divided into three plots), and the vines range from 30 to 40 years old. The wine is absolutely teeming with sensorial spirit that is transmitted through the bounty of the bouquet and the solid tannins of the mouthfeel. Nothing about the wine goes unnoticed or unchecked. Its many working pieces fit together with precision like a well-oiled machine. The 2015 vintage is characterized by a level of sheer exuberance that also defined the 2004 and 2007 vintages. Yet, it also reveals similar power, directness and linearity that we saw in the 2010 vintage. The 2015 Masseto takes the best of all those past vintages and confines those qualities to this single, spectacular bottle." (100pts)

1341 Château Latour - Vintage 2010*Pauillac1x12 bottle owc*

"...is a liquid skyscraper in the mouth, building layers upon layers of extravagant, if not over-the-top richness with its hints of subtle charcoal, truffle, blackberry, cassis, espresso and notes of toast and graphite. Full-bodied, with wonderfully sweet tannin, it is a mind-boggling, prodigious achievement that should hit its prime in about 15 years, and last for 50 to 100." (100pts)

1343 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 1986*Pauillac1bn, 1vhs*

"Clearly the youngest looking, most opaque and concentrated wine of the group, it tastes as if it has not budged in development since I first tasted it out of barrel in March, 1987. An enormously concentrated, massive Mouton-Rothschild, comparable in quality, but not style, to the 1982, 1959, and 1945, this impeccably made wine is still in its infancy I suspect the 1986 Mouton-Rothschild requires a minimum of 15-20 more years of cellaring; it has the potential to last for 50-100 years!..." 1344 Château Pavie - Vintage 2005*St. Emilion1x12 bottle owc*

"The 2005 Pavie is an absolutely amazing wine that has shed most of its oak aging (usually 24-28 months). Opaque purple in color, it is beyond belief in extract and concentration, but perfectly balanced and pure, with the oak well-integrated. Massively concentrated, and still a baby, this wine tastes more like it's two to three years old than one that's been around for a decade. Intense notes of grilled meats, spice box, cassis, black cherry, licorice and graphite are present in abundance. Enormously endowed, but with superlative purity and balance, this is the greatest Pavie in the early Perse era, starting in 1998. Only the 2009 and 2010 rival this in his opinion, but I would add the 2000. This killer effort should drink well for another 50 years and demonstrates the greatness of this terroir owned by the Perse family Bravo!" (100pts)

Lavishly rich, with slightly more structure and delineation than the more Rabelaisian 2009, this wine does show some serious tannins in the finish, and comes across as incredibly youthful." (100pts)

1346 Château Pontet Canet - Vintage 2010*Pauillac*

"An astounding, compelling wine with the classic Pauillac nose more often associated with its cross-street neighbor, Mouton-Rothschild, creme de cassis, there are also some violets and other assorted floral notes. The wine has off-the-charts massiveness and intensity but never comes across as heavy, overbearing or astringent. The freshness, laser-like precision, and full-bodied, massive richness and extract are simply remarkable to behold and experience. It is very easy, to become jaded tasting such great wines from a great vintage, but it is really a privilege to taste something as amazing as this." (100pts)

1350 Chambertin - Vintage 2001*A. Rousseau*

"The 2001 Chambertin Grand Cru possesses an ethereal, floral bouquet of raspberry jam, Morello cherries, minerals and undergrowth, gaining in intensity all the time in the glass. 1351 Chambertin - Vintage 2014*A. Rousseau*

"Rousseau's 2014 Chambertin Grand Cru has a fruit-driven bouquet laden with black cherries, crushed strawberry, ink and a touch of bay leaf. As it aerates, the fruit seems to take more of a back seat and the terroir comes through. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, very pure and elegant, iron fist/velvety glove and so forth. This is what a grand cru should be. Utterly seductive and captivating, its satin texture might lure you into opening a bottle too soon. Give it a decade to admire Rousseau at full flight." (97pts)

A positively brilliant nose of violet and rose petal shines against a background of intensely spiced extravagant red and black pinot fruit nuanced by hints of earth and stone and this minerality continues onto the surprisingly supple flavors that convey a remarkable sense of energy and power on the almost unbelievably intense, focused and structured finish that seems to go on and on without end. And the '05 VV has what all truly great burgundies have which is that extra dimension of power without weight as this carries terrific punch and power yet delivers that explosiveness with impeccable class and grace..." 1356 Musigny - Vintage 2009*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue*

"The 2009 Musigny Vieilles Vignes fleshes out beautifully with endless layers of fruit that caress the palate in stunning style. Sweet floral notes meld into expressive dark red fruit in this mysterious, evocative Burgundy. There is a weightless intensity to the Musigny that is achingly gorgeous. 1357 Musigny - Vintage 2012*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue2wisl*

"Tasted blind at the annual 'Burgfest' tasting in Beaune. The 2012 Musigny Vieilles Vignes Grand Cru from de Vogüé has slightly brighter and more vivacious fruit than J-F Mugnier, and in fact, the two wines seem to go in two different trajectories in the glass, this blossoming and the other becoming more occluded. De Vogüé's Musigny is unashamedly floral in style, very elegant and yet delineated. There is a noticeable estuary scents, mudflats and seaweed, that begin to permeate the fruit. The palate is medium-bodied with very fine tannin, wonderful acidity and succinctly integrated new oak that is barely tangible. It is intense but elegant, long and tender in the mouth. It is a fabulous Musigny, one of the best that the domaine has produced in recent years." (98pts)

1358 Musigny - Vintage 2015*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue*

"A kaleidoscopically spicy and broad-ranging nose grudgingly reveals notes of red cherry, cassis, plum, violet, Asian-style tea, sandalwood and hoisin. The velvety and mouth coating imposingly-scaled and intense mineral-driven flavors are blessed with seemingly endless reserves of dry extract that coat the palate on the highly seductive finish that delivers fantastically good length on the youthfully austere, backward and immaculately well-balanced finale. This opulent yet very serious effort is also going to require a very long snooze in a very cool cellar but it should be a remarkable Musigny when it finally emerges." (97pts BH)

"...is gorgeous, with a bit more sense of reserve than the Echézeaux out of the blocks, as well as a more refined and precise impression on both the nose and palate. The stunning bouquet delivers a suave mix of black plums, red and black raspberries, duck, a gloriously complex base of soil, exotic spices, a touch of lead pencil, fresh herb tones and spicy new oak. 1361 Échézeaux - Vintage 1997*Domaine Bizot*

"There is no doubting the exemplary vineyard and cellar work performed by the young and conscientious Jean-Yves Bizot. His organic farming and non-interventionist winemaking techniques have been described and praised in The Wine Advocate (most recently in issue #118). There is no doubt that Bizot is a vigneron whose name consumers need to commit to memory. Jean-Yves Bizot's 1997 Échézeaux has a great chance of outliving its tannic shell. The first words in my tasting book say, "1990 Montrose!" This wine, which is the result of paltry 16 hectoliter per hectare yields, displays the same monstrous levels of ripeness, density, concentration, and structure as that St. Estephe benchmark setter. Its magnificent aromatics are reminiscent of spices awash in perfume and blackberry liqueur. On the palate, licorice, asphalt, creme de cassis, and herbal notes burst forth before being conquered by the formidable tannins. This may be one of those rare Burgundies that will necessitate 20+ years of cellaring. If so it could ultimately merit a score in the mid to upper ninety point range. However, Pinot Noir rarely copes well with tannins, unlike Cabernet Sauvignon-based wines, and experience suggest it will probably dry out before its substantial backbone softens. Anticipated maturity: 2007-2020? Importer: A Patrick Lesec Selection, Paris Fax #: 011-33-1-44-70-62-93; and a Peter Vezan Selection, Paris fax #011-33-1-42-55-42-93." (90-94pts)

"As is usually the case, this is slightly more elegant than the Brûlées with plenty of floral influence though here it's more rose petal and lavender nuances than violets together with an abundance of stone and spice hints. The silky, pure and stunningly well-detailed flavors possess terrific verve on the extract-rich, balanced and superbly persistent finish. 1394 Château Angelus - Vintage 2005

St. Emilion

"Truly great stuff, this wine performed at a three-digit level both in the horizontal tasting of 2005s in Baltimore, as well as in Montreal at this mini-vertical. This sensational, opaque, bluish/purple wine offers up notes of vanillin, spring flowers, blueberry and blackberry liqueur; plus a touch of licorice. The wine hits the palate with a thunderous cascade of ripe, rich, concentrated fruit. It is full-bodied, multidimensional and layered. The tannins are beautifully integrated but still present, and the wood, acidity, alcohol, etc., are all beautifully assimilated in this magnificent, majestic vintage of Angelus. It can be drunk now, but it is still an adolescent and that suggests it has at least another 25-35 years of longevity." (100pts)

"A saturated black/purple color is followed by sensational aromas of ink, cherries, blackberries, blueberries, and that wet stones/liquid minerality characteristic. The wine has phenomenal presence on the palate as well as astonishing richness and purity. Despite its extract, power, and richness, it is remarkably light, with a surreal delicacy. It is a tour de force in winemaking and a compelling expression of this magical terroir." (100pts)

"A tiny production of just over 1,300 cases will make the 2005 Ausone impossible to find, but proprietor Alain Vauthier continues to exhibit the Midas touch with his perfectionist efforts at this estate. This brilliant, blue/black-hued offering reveals an extraordinarily youthful, but promising nose of incense, blueberries, blackberries, currants, licorice, and crushed rocks. This intense 2005 boasts powerful, super-layered, multidimensional flavors with tremendous extraction, yet they come across as incredibly sublime, even delicate for such a stunningly concentrated, full-bodied effort. A masterpiece of concentration and balance, it will no doubt be drinking well a century from now." (100pts)

In spite of its tightness, aeration reveals scents of licorice, menthol, and saddle leather. Opulent and full-bodied, with low acidity, sweet tannin, and a 60-second finish, it is unquestionably as profound as the 1990 and 1982. There is a sense of bravura here, of aristocracy. The palate is medium-bodied with sumptuous black fruit, perhaps beginning to soften in texture, one or two years off its plateau. There are layers and layers of black fruit intermingling with graphite and black pepper, and it wisely reins everything in on the finish that is more classic in style and in keeping with the vintage. Opaque purple in color, it is beyond belief in extract and concentration, but perfectly balanced and pure, with the oak well-integrated. Massively concentrated, and still a baby, this wine tastes more like it's two to three years old than one that's been around for a decade. Intense notes of grilled meats, spice box, cassis, black cherry, licorice and graphite are present in abundance. "Louis-Michel Liger-Belair's 2007 La Romanée is one of the wines of the vintage and is showing stunning aromatic and flavor complexity at age seven, but it is still emphatically a young wine and more patience will be very richly rewarded! The absolutely brilliant bouquet delivers an celestial blend of raspberries, a touch of blood orange, red plums, cinnamon, incipient notes of duck, a kaleidoscopic base of soil tones, woodsmoke and cedar. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and very light on its feet, with exquisite intensity of flavor, great complexity, a sappy core of fruit, great soil signature and great focus and grip on the tangy and modestly tannic finish. This wine is already very accessible and hard not to drink, but it has not yet developed its secondary layers of complexity and will be even better in another three or four years. A brilliant 2007!"(96pts JG)

The powerful, chiseled, pure flavors are remarkably detailed, precise and fine with mind bending complexity yet for all the emotional drama of this wine, it remains understated and almost aloof at the moment. The finish is dense, structured and quite firm though there is nary a hard edge to be found and while this too cannot rival the other worldly 1999, 2001 will one day be thought of as a genuinely excellent vintage for La Tâche. Replicating its performance in 2010, it has a very expressive bouquet of vivacious red berry fruit: wild strawberry and raspberry, laced with minerals and dried rose petals. The palate is very well-balanced and full of succulent brambly red fruit. Perhaps it is moving into its secondary phase less slowly than I anticipated, with nuanced undergrowth notes developing toward the finish, which remains very fruit-driven and tense. "Very primary, ripe, fresh, earthy, spicy and highly expressive aromas complement equally ripe, big-bodied and still firmly tannic flavors that possess superb depth and outstanding length. This is a serious wine and while it doesn't have quite as much austerity that is typical of still youthful Clos de Vougeot, it will probably require the better part of 10 years to realize its full potential and it may very well require more time than that. 1528 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 1999*Cros Parantoux, H. Mayervlwisl*

"Ooh la la, ah oui oui. The 1999 Mayer Vosne Romanée Cros Parantoux redefined the word sexy. Martine hailed it as a wild beast,' and Gil observed, gunpowder and Chinese black oolong tea. 'There was an ocean of fruit here; one had to swim through it to find structure on its shores. This was 1999 at its finest. The pitch was insane, shattering my nose as if it was meant to be an ear drum, and its perfume lingered like memories of a perfect home-cooked meal from Mom. While adolescent, its creamy, purple fruit said it was ready for the draft, and its nose was described as fireworks,' a chameleon,' and spearmint. 'Thierry hailed it as brighter, better and fresher' than the great 1990, a bold statement, indeed. Its flavors were dessert-y without being sweet decadent, exotic, hedonistic, take your pick. Gil observed, caramel Crème brulee,' and beef and citrus tried to join the party. This wine was bordering on pornographic, and we were all...in awe :)." (98pts JK)

There is a highly seductive mouth feel to the velvet-textured, powerful and robust big-bodied flavors that display plenty of minerality and drive on the exceptionally persistent finish. It's relatively rare that Ponsot's Chapelle surpasses his Griotte but in 2012 it appears to have just a bit more depth of material. 1541 Meursault - Vintage 2014*Genevrières, Coche-Durylbsl*

"The 2014 Meursault 1er Cru les Genevrières comes equipped with a simply magnificent bouquet: orange blossom, hazelnut, minerals and yellow flowers (dandelion and peony). It is incredibly focused and disarming in terms of its intensity. The palate is crisp and taut. It feels unapologetically linear, razor-sharp delineation and with outstanding depth. It begins to loosen up towards the finish, although it is clear that it will benefit from several years in bottle...if you can resist temptation!"(96pts)

1542 Meursault - Vintage 2016*Roulot*

"One of the high points of the vintage, Roulot's 2016 Meursault 1er Cru Perrières is extraordinarily good, unfurling in the glass with a deep but youthfully reserved bouquet of green apple, wet stones, citrus oil, white flowers, beeswax and fresh pastry. On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, ample and satiny, with incisive acids, striking structural tension and a sense of elegance that renders this wine deceptively charming despite its tightly-coiled core and immense reserves of depth and concentration. That elegance makes drinking a bottle today a decidedly pleasurable experience—after all, drinking a young, tight-knit Meursault Perrières can sometimes be a rather brutalizing experience—even though the wine is really built for extended bottle age."(97pts)

1543 Meursault - Vintage 2008*Charmes, Roulot*

"An impressively pure if somewhat reserved high-toned nose features wonderfully stylish aromas of white flower, hazelnut, wet stone and ripe lemon-lime nuances where the minerality also adds punch and lift to the mineral-infused, racy and punchy medium-bodied flavors that possess real finishing verve and seriously impressive persistence. The old vine sap is very much in evidence as it confers a seductive texture onto the mid-palate yet does not compromise the precise and chiseled quality of the backend. "An opaque purple color and a closed but exciting nose of truffles, minerals, Asian spices, and fruitcake. When the wine hits the mouth with its enormous weight and extraction of flavor, one can't help but be seduced by such enormous richness and purity. Nevertheless, there is still a remarkably high level of tannin (sweet rather than astringent), a youthful, unevolved fruit character, and flavors that stain the palate. "This wine is perfect. It is undoubtedly the greatest vintage for Guigal since 1978. Take all the characteristics I described for the wines in 1998 and 1997, then add an ethereal lightness of character, surreal aromatics, and a seamlessness that is uncanny given the massive richness and layers of flavors this wine possesses. The explosive aromatics tend to be more exaggerated in 1999. The wine is more evolved and seductive than the 1998s, but its aging potential should not be underestimated. It has at least two decades of life. In short, Guigal has performed a classic hat trick in 1999 with his La La's." (100pts)

"...possesses a character not unlike a top Amarone from Italy. Dense plum/ruby to the rim, with a huge nose of roasted herbs, beef blood, chocolate, pepper, sweet cherries, and black currants, the wine is full-bodied and dense, with huge extract and richness, high glycerin, and plenty of tannin. The wine has a late-harvest, almost roasted character to it, hence the comparison with Amarone does not seem far-fetched. The fact that it is well north of 16% alcohol also suggests it has a lot in common with an Italian Amarone." (98pts)

1555 Châteauneuf du Pape - Vintage 2001*Reserve des Celestins, H. Bonneau*

"...is a real treat as this cuvée flirts with perfection. Already revealing some pink and amber at the edge, the color is surprisingly evolved for a wine from this vintage. However, that's deceptive as the aromatics offer incredible aromas of dried flowers, beef blood, spice, figs, sweet black currants and kirsch, smoked game, lavender, and sweaty but attractive saddle leather-like notes. "Schedule to be bottled next week (I suspect it will be in bottle by the time you read this), the 2010 Châteauneuf du Pape Reserve des Celestins is a sensational effort. Deeper, richer and more concentrated than the Marie Beurrier, it reveals an unusually inky ruby/purple color to go with overflowing notes of kirsch liqueur, roasted meats, crushed flowers, garrigue and just about every other Provençal spice you could name. Full-bodied, beautifully concentrated, layered and a blockbuster-styled effort, it should surpass the 2007 and possibly rival the 1990. This is a tour de force in Châteauneuf du Pape!" (97-99pts)

THE GOLDEN BULL RIDES AGAIN ONTO LA PAULÉE

The year of the Golden Bull may have given way to the Tiger and Rabbit before now the Wood Dragon, but we still know who to call when we put together a big Burgundy auction! We are ebullient in welcoming back the Golden Bull's brilliant collection with over two hundred selections! The cellar of the Golden Bull is indeed like the Fort Knox of fine wine collections, brimming with shining vinous treasures worth their weight in gold. The Golden Bull was born during naptime after lunch signifying a propitious and prosperous life full of luxury and leisure. This is certainly accurate and resonated well as he retired at 40, but he is selling a part of his collection once again as he diversifies his ever changing portfolio of wines and investments.

Dynamic in all aspects of his life, the Golden Bull is tremendously passionate about Burgundy and had his finger intimately on the pulse on this special region and the fine wine market as a whole for many years. He has an astute eye for the utmost quality with pristine provenance and is far from afraid to buy what he really likes in quantity. All the wines were purchased directly from reputable merchants over the last twenty years and almost all stored at the legendary Octavian cellars in England. Most of the wines are in their original packaging, and everything is in outstanding condition.

Armand Rousseau is as awesome as ever with more than three dozen selections highlighted by full cases of 2005 Chambertin and 2009 Clos de Beze as well as numerous magnums. Vogue dazzles with a dozen lots starting with 1999 Musigny. There are fifteen lots of DRC crowned by a magnum of 1988 La Tache and three bottles of 2020 Romanee Conti, Romanee Conti. Faiveley flexes fourteen selections followed by fines wines from Chateau de la Tour, Clos des Lambrays, Leroy, Dujac, Hudelot-Noellat and Meo-Camuzet. The forecast changes to White Burgundy with sweet sixteen selections from Henri Boillot as well as choice lots of Bouchard and Domaine Leflaive. A baker's dozen of Dom Perignon takes us to over twenty lots of Krug including magnums of 1985 collection and bottles of 1988 Clos du Mesnil with honorable mentions from Cristal, Salon and Comtes de Champagne. To top it all off, we have Madeira going back to 1850!

Grab the bull by the horns and be bullish bidding on this goldmine of a collection! Ladies and Gentlemen, we present to you further selections from the Brilliant Collection of the Golden Bull!!!

1566 Chambertin - Vintage 2005

A. Rousseau

1x12 bottle ocb

"I was frankly quite surprised to find the Chambertin almost as expressive and every bit as broad aromatically as the Bèze as the nose is equally kaleidoscopic if featuring a more deeply pitched set of fruit aromas and more earth. The flavors are bigger if not finer with serious power and weight on the rich, full and driving finish that possesses an exuberant underlying sense of energy, all wrapped in a core of rock solid but ripe and balanced tannins. Like the potential of the Bèze, this too has a chance to ascend as one of the top vintages ever typified by such years as '34, '49, '52, '62, '66 and '91. Arguably the Chambertin of the vintage." "Somewhat ironically, this is both more elegant and fresher than the Clos de Bèze with one of the most complex noses of the entire vintage as it combines a seemingly endless array of spice, mineral, fruit and Gevrey sauvage characters. The impressively rich, serious, mouth coating and broad-shouldered flavors possess superb volume and muscle on the sensationally persistent and explosive finish. This is even more backwards than the Bèze and should be capable of rewarding 20 plus years of cellar time as the tannins are also quite fine but very dense."(98pts BH)

On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, ample and powerful, with a lavishly gourmand attack that evokes the 2009 rendition, but this quickly segues into the mid-palate of an altogether more tautly structural, serious wine, its considerable dimension and concentration underwritten by racy acids. The finish is long and firm. This is a monumental Clos de Bèze built for the long haul."(97pts)*

"Tasted blind at the Burgfest 2014 tasting, Rousseau's 2014 Gevrey Chambertin 1er Cru Clos Saint Jacques has a very refined and delineated bouquet with prudent use of new oak here that is seamlessly integrated and allows the vibrant red fruit to flourish. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, crisp acidity, very good tension and a welcome dash of spice toward the finish that conveys genuine substance and class. The aftertaste is incredibly long the mouth tingling with residual spiciness long after the wine has departed. This is stunning and, dare I suggest, equal to Rousseau's Chambertin and Clos de Bèze. "Tasted blind at the annual "Burgfest" tasting in Beaune. The 2012 Musigny Vieilles Vignes Grand Cru from de Vogüé has slightly brighter and more vivacious fruit than J-F Mugnier, and in fact, the two wines seem to go in two different trajectories in the glass, this blossoming and the other becoming more occluded. De Vogüé's Musigny is unashamedly floral in style, very elegant and yet delineated. There is a noticeable estuary scents, mudflats and seaweed, that begin to permeate the fruit. The palate is medium-bodied with very fine tannin, wonderful acidity and succinctly integrated new oak that is barely tangible. It is intense but elegant, long and tender in the mouth. "This is the second time that I have tasted the 2010 Grands Échézeaux Grand Cru from bottle from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, and it was a wine that prompted a table of mature Pinot aficionados to remark upon the joys of infanticide. This is just a fantastic wine from the domaine. The nose is heavenly with its exquisite delineation, the fruit maybe a touch darker and earthier than a couple of years ago -- yet still with subtle woodland/sous-bois aromas and a hint of morels. The palate is wonderfully defined, so fresh and precise with filigree tannin. Yet there is great backbone to this wine, a framework that imparts a sense of symmetry that is totally disarming. Of course, readers should afford this magnificent wine a decade in the cellar...unless by complete accident a cork-screw falls into the cork and twists around until the cork pops out. 1645 Chambertin - Vintage 2019

Domaine Trapet

1x6 bottle ocb

"it's even cooler with a bit more earth, floral and spice influences. There is outstanding power to the bigger, richer and more concentrated big-bodied flavors that also brim with minerality before terminating in a balanced, overtly austere and hugely long finale where a hint of warmth can be discerned."(93pts BH)

1646 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2009

Dujac

2lscl

"A remarkably fresh and expressive nose displays hightoned red berry fruit, earth and mineral aromas that give way to firm, serious and equally mineral-driven big-bodied flavors that offer excellent verve on the wellmuscle and especially structured finish that seems to go on without end. This positively dazzling effort is not quite old school in basic character though it knocks on the door of it and like several of these grands crus, will need 15 to 20+ years to reach its full prime."(96pts BH)

1647 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2014

Dujac

"The 2014 Bonnes-Mares Grand Cru was actually one of my favourite reds of 2014, smitten at first sight I guess. It has a very classy bouquet, very well defined and floral in nature. This is elegant and very refined, the exuberant predisposition of Bonnes-Mares discretely contained, buttoned-down for now. The palate is very well defined with lace-like tannin. It feels so supple in the mouth with a touch of cassis towards the deceptively structured finish. This is one of the best Bonnes-Mares that I have tasted from Dujac."(95-97pts)

1648 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2009

Dujac

"The 2009 Clos de la Roche wafts from the glass with hints of tobacco, wild flowers and cherries. This is an elegant, refined Clos de la Roche long on finesse and pure sensuality. The gorgeous, finely-knit finish leaves a lasting impression."(96pts)

"An intensely floral nose features notes of assorted red berries, earth, spice and soft wood nuances. This possesses a beguiling mouth feel with its super fine-grained tannins and wonderful purity of expression exhibited by the palate coating medium weight flavors that offer a spicy inner mouth perfume, all wrapped in a harmonious, balanced and persistent if very backward and moderately austere finish."(95pts BH)

Aux Malconsorts, Dujac

"An intensely floral nose of cool Asian style spice notes merges with dark berry fruit liqueur, kirsch, earth and stone nuances where the minerality is also reflected by the big, rich and sleekly muscular large-scaled flavors. There is excellent concentration to the mid-palate that oozes dry extract that imparts a textured mouth feel to the driving and wonderfully persistent finish."(94pts BH)

"Very mild reduction doesn't completely hide the intrinsic Vosne spice notes that also suffuse the intense mineral and beautifully refined and vibrant medium-bodied flavors that possess both lovely delineation as well as that beguiling sense of underlying tension on the classy, cool and impeccably well-balanced finish."(91-94pts BH)

"Compelling aromas of extremely fresh and airy menthol-infused red berry fruit, soil and distinctly spiced tones plus an underlying hint of animale transfers over to the rich, full and serious broad-shouldered flavors brimming with dry extract and supported by impressively refined and ripe tannins that are almost completely buffered on the powerful and balanced finish by the buckets of mid-palate sap. "Wonderfully scented, almost Musigny-like aromas of black cherry, licorice, violet and minerals. Boasts outstanding sappy energy and definition, with the dark berry flavors energized by piquant minerality and salty traces. These vines are actually on the Chambertin side of Clos de Bèze but the wine is less powerful than the estate's other Clos de Bèze, notes Hervet. The endless perfumed finish excites the taste buds. Just five barrels made." (95-98pts VM)

1657 Chambertin - Vintage 2012*Clos de Bèze, Les Ouvrees Rodin, Faiveley1x6 magnum owc*

"Good bright red. Very closed nose hints at rose petal and cinnamon. Wonderfully silky and sweet on the palate, with outstanding definition to the perfumed red raspberry and spice flavors. Finishes with explosive rising length and racy, fine-grained tannins. In its kernel of spice and its superb density and thrust, there's something Musigny-like about this understated but potentially great wine." (95-98pts VM)

1658 Chambertin - Vintage 2013*Clos de Bèze, Les Ouvrees Rodin, Faiveley*

"Aromatically this is compositionally similar to the regular cuvée except that the fruit is slightly denser and there is notably better complexity. There is also more concentration to the gorgeously textured and highly extract-rich big-bodied flavors that also exude plenty of minerality on the caressing yet powerful finish that is initially linear yet as it sits on the palate really fans out. This superb wine does a slow build from the mid-palate on back to the massively deep finale." (94-97pts BH)

"Here the wood and menthol influences are a good deal less subtle and while they don't dominate the even spicier and slightly riper liqueur-like cassis, plum and herbal tea aromas, they're certainly in the way. Otherwise the succulent and opulent massively-scaled flavors possess seemingly endless reserves of dry extract that make the mid-palate and finish of this very firmly structured and almost painfully intense effort appear almost pliant. But make no mistake as this too is very clearly built for the very long haul and I wouldn't touch a bottle for at least 15 years and 20 may ultimately prove to be too soon." (94-97pts BH)

It is extremely well defined and focused, conveying the sense of aristocracy one seeks from a Richebourg. The palate is medium-bodied with filigreed tannin. There is real density and presence here and it is certainly more expressive than the Romanée-Saint-Vivant at the moment, with palpable tension on the finish. Outstanding. "(96-98pts)

"The 2015 Richebourg Grand Cru has an expressive bouquet, a little earthier than the 2015 Cros Parantoux, more reserved and statesmanlike, though at the same time it shows impressive clarity and gains stature with every swirl of the glass. The palate is medium-bodied with superb, quite robust tannin that lend this Richebourg the arching structure that can define this vineyard. There is some some new oak to be absorbed on the finish, but there is great density and length. Does it have the flamboyance of the Cros Parantoux? Let's see - my bets are with the premier cru at present. I suspect that this will be an imposing Richebourg with time, as Jean-Nicolas Méo himself commented."(94-96pts)

There is superb size and weight to the imposing and overtly muscular flavors that also enjoy an incredible amount of dry extract that confers a supple and seductively textured mouth feel to the highly concentrated mid-palate. "This is also strikingly pure, refined and fantastically elegant and while the kaleidoscopic nose is more restrained and primary still, the density of the fruit with its associated depth is quite simply sublime. Notes of white truffle, citrus, rose petal, anise, brioche and clove merge into concentrated, powerful, delineated and stony flavors that are big but not necessarily massive and culminate in a finish that is even more persistent than that of the Chevalier if not necessarily finer. 1704 Montrachet - Vintage 2009*H. Boillot1x6 bottle owc*

"A discreet hint of post-bottling SO2 does not detract significantly from the otherwise reserved but attractively fresh and quite spicy aromas of both white and yellow orchard fruit that displays a top note of dried flowers. The concentrated, powerful, mouth coating and beautifully textured big-bodied flavors possess dry extract to burn, all wrapped in an explosive, linear and driving finish. Despite the muscle and punch of the flavors and finish, this is actually very, very undeveloped at this early junction and will need every bit of a decade, and perhaps a few years more, to really arrive at its full majority but it should be more than worth the wait."(96pts BH)

1708 Montrachet - Vintage 2016*H. Boillot1x3 bottle owc*

"Bright light-medium yellow. Very sexy, quintessential Chevalier nose of citrus fruits and white peach, crushed rock and ginger, plus an element of smoky oak. A wonderfully glyceric wine with a powerful salty impression of extract and strong supporting acidity. Finishes chewy and very long, but without any excess weight. Juicy lemony cut gives this wine a distinctly crystalline quality. A classic Chevalier-Montrachet in the making. This and the Bâtard are in 100% new oak, while the Pucelles, Clos de la Mouchère and Combettes are around 50%, but Boillot notes that the larger (350-liter) format of his barrels is very important."(93-96pts VM)

Almost painfully concentrated, offering a surreal parade of orchard and pit fruits, smoked meat, toasted brioche and marrow braced by intensely salty, stunningly incisive minerality. Imagine a Frankenstein's monster of Chablis Le Clos and Clos Ste. Hune-but one with perfect balance, of course-and you get an idea of what I found in my bottle. The energetic, stony character builds exponentially on the finish, which didn't seem to, well, finish. "As if there were any doubts, Krug's 1996 Brut Blanc de Blancs Clos du Mesnil reaffirms its position as one of the greatest if not the greatest Champagne of this historic harvest. I have had the privilege of drinking the 1996 Clos du Mesnil a few times over the last year and it has always been breathtaking, as it is again today. The wine sparkles on the palate with a brilliant, pointillist expression of fruit, showing surreal detail, depth and polish. Like a finely cut gem, each impression reveals a different and unique shade of nuance. The 1996 Clos du Mesnil coats every inch of the palate with endless layers of perfumed fruit and a chiseled, mineral finish that lasts forever. The oak seems a touch pronounced in this particular bottle, something I have not encountered previously with this wine. 1771 Taittinger Vintage Champagne - Vintage 2002

Comtes de Champagne

1x6 bottle ocb, 3x1 magnum ocb's

"...is off the charts. I have tasted the 2002 now many times, and it has never been less than thrilling. A vivid kaleidoscope of pure Chardonnay aromas and flavors opens up in the glass. The 2002 is at once incredibly rich yet also totally weightless and impeccable in its balance. All the classic Comtes notes are there, but with a level of detail and nuance I don't think I have ever seen before." (98pts)

"Taittinger's 2008 Blanc de Blancs Comtes de Champagne is simply breathtaking. I have tasted it many times over the years in various trial disgorgements and it has never been anything less than compelling. The final, finished wine captures all of that potential. Bright, focused and wonderfully deep, Comtes is a fabulous example of a vintage that expresses so much energy but with real fruit intensity, the signatures that distinguish it from other vintages (1996 comes to mind) that were similarly taut, but more austere in the early going." SINCE 1820

DOMAINE ANTOINE JOBARD

This family domaine was established in 1860 and is now run by fifth generation winemaker, Antoine Jobard. Antoine joined his father, Francois, in 2002 and took over the seven hectares of Chardonnay farmed by the Domaine in 2007. Most of the vines are in Meursault, and these classic, age-worthy whites are considered among the best of the best by wine enthusiasts and are highly esteemed by the winery's Burgundian peers. Jobard believes wines are made primarily in the vineyard, and, although herbicides were never used and practices were largely organic, the Domaine was finally certified under his stewardship in 2019. Antoine's methods and style of winemaking do not stray far from his father's, although he employs slightly less new oak, no more than 15%, and bottles the wines somewhat earlier than his father. That said, the wines, which spend 18-20 months ageing in barrel and another 6 months in tank, are still among the last of the white Burgundies to be released each year. Both father and son have been heralded for producing refined, long-lived white Burgundies in Meursault. It is an honor to commence our Domaine-direct section at La Paulée auction once again with six lots highlighted by a Jeroboam of 2021 Meursault Genevrieres.

DOMAINE BACHELET-MONNOT

Marc and Alexandre Bachelet quickly established Bachelet-Monnot as a cutting-edge producer in the Cote de Beaune, refining their farming and winemaking methods since the first vintage in 2005. The brothers oversee just over twenty hectares of vines, some family-owned and others being long-term leases, in Maranges, Santenay, and Puligny Montrachet. Winemaking is in their blood, and the Domaine was formed with the help of their Uncle Monnot and their father, Jean-Francois Bachelet, who for years made wine for his father's winery, Domaine Bernard Bachelet in Chassagne-Montrachet. In addition to internships at Domaines throughout Burgundy and beyond, both Marc and Alexandre worked five harvests at their father's Domaine prior to introducing Bachelet-Monnot. Farming practices are sustainable and, with vine health in mind, herbicides are forbidden, yields are limited, and grapes are hand-harvested. In the winery, the highly lauded white wines go through a long press, are fermented in larger barrels, aged for 12 months in around 25% new oak, and then aged an additional 6 months in stainless steel tank before release. Some of the Grand Crus employ up to 50% new oak but the mix of larger barrels keeps oak impact minimal, and the reds are aged in cement vats. The Bachelet brothers have quickly earned comparisons to some of Burgundy's greatest producers for their exciting and precise whites and compelling Pinot Noirs. We have nine lots direct from the Domaine including a Jeroboam of 2020 Batard Montrachet!

DOMAINE ROULOT

Jean-Marc Roulot has been in charge of the Domaine since 1989, when he temporarily dropped his movie career to pursue a full-time job at the Domaine, seven years after the death of his father, Guy. It was Guy who really gave the Domaine its actual form. Jean-Marc is the sixth generation of the Roulot family estate located in Meursault, where it has been based since at least the 19th century when Hugues Roulot married Marguerite Nudant in 1827, which is the oldest trace of the Roulot family in Meursault. Since then, the Roulots have always been winemakers and distillers. The Domaine covers fifteen hectares, mostly in Meursault. In the vineyard as well in the cellar, the philosophy of the Domaine is to personalize each single cuvée. Jean-Marc is a purist and perfectionist who strives, in every vintage, to create the perfect expression of the chalky and mineral-laden soils of Meursault in his wines. In the 60's, his father Guy started to vinify separately his different cuvées of Meursault Village. This was reserved, at the time, for the Premier Crus Cuvées. By doing that, Guy Roulot opened new perspectives and started what now remains the philosophy of the Domaine, respecting the diversity of Burgundian soils regardless of Cru. This Domaine direct consignment of six lots for our La Paulée auction is highlighted by a rare Jeroboam of 2016 Clos des Bouchères.

DOMAINE CLERGET

Domaine Yvon Clerget has roots back to the 13th century when the Clerget family settled in the village of Volnay. Their written record was sparse until 1936, when they acquired the Volnay Clos du Verseuil, a Premier Cru Monopole. Yvon Clerget took the helm in 1983, but when he retired in 2009 his son Thibaud was too young to take over. For the next several years, Thibaud completed his studies and internships under Hudelot-Noellat and Drouhin. Then he auspiciously began bottling again for his family's Domaine with the lauded 2015 vintage at the age of only twenty-four! Working six hectares of white and red vines in Volnay, Pommard, Meursault, Chassagne and the lone Grand Cru, Clos Vougeot, Thibaud has garnered much success in his short career as a vigneron. Antonio Galloni sums it up well, "The reborn Domaine Clerget could very well turn out to be one of the great recent success stories in Burgundy...readers should do whatever they can to taste these wines. Thibaut Clerget is just 28 and appears to have a brilliant career in front of him. Bravo!" Domaine Clerget makes few magnums and even fewer Jeroboams as all the wines are relatively small productions. We are excited to present five lots all in Jeroboam topped by 2021 Clos Vougeot Cuvee Felix.

DOMAINE DE MONTILLE

Domaine de Montille is one of the most storied Domaines in all of Burgundy. The Domaine was created during the mid-1700s in the village of Volnay. At its inception, de Montille held treasured vineyards totaling 12 hectares throughout the Côte d'Or, including famous names such as Musigny, Les Amoureuses and, of course, Volnay. Through twists of history, many of these parcels were sold due to generational and financial reasons, not an uncommon occurrence. When Hubert de Montille took over the Domaine in 1947, he was determined to stop the erosion that had caused those 12 hectares to shrink to only three. Hubert stopped selling to negociants and embraced the future of Domaine bottling. His innate skill in producing wines that were elegant and pure quickly catapulted de Montille's wines to insider status. Etienne, Hubert's son, learned viticulture early in his life, but he pursued law as his profession. In 1983, Etienne started working beside his father, becoming co-manager in 1995, beginning to move the de Montille towards organic and biodynamic farming. In 2001, Etienne took full control of the Domaine and asserted his philosophy of winemaking: organic farming and a judicious use of whole cluster fermentation. This resulted in a slightly richer style, yet Etienne has never varied from his father's fundamentals of purity, elegance and balance. Soon after taking full control, Etienne enlarged Domaine de Montille commencing with the esteemed Puligny Montrachet Les Caillerets. In 2005, he returned the family to the Côte de Nuits, with the purchase of a famed parcel in Vosne Romanée Les Malconsorts which features a small plot, named Cuvee Christiane after Etienne's mother, bordering La Tache! We have had the pleasure of welcoming Montille direct offerings to our auctions before and they come through in a big way for the La Paulée auction with eleven selections highlighted by many magnums as well as several Jeroboams!

1816 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2005*Aux Malconsorts, Christiane, Domaine de Montille1x3 bottle ocb*

"Good deep red. Deeply pitched, somewhat reduced nose hints at darker fruits. Then rounder, larger and deeper on the palate than the "regular" Malconsorts; distinctly spherical in shape, an impression that leavens the sheer size of this wine. Complicating notes of earth and vegetable matter. Finish very long and full, with great finesse of tannins. These vines are from an enclave in La Tâche, and yet when I tasted these two samples blind, side by side, this one struck me as having the volume and complicating earth notes of Romanée-Conti while the "regular" Malconsorts was more La Tâche-like in its early perfume and higher-pitched fruit. They were quite different in style." (93-96pts VM)

"This is compositionally similar to the regular cuvée except that here there are even more spice elements in play. The powerful, long and very serious flavors are built on a base of minerality and while the supporting tannins are just as firm, they are finer; indeed the overall mouth feel is more refined before finally culminating in a balanced, pure and Zen-like finish." "A touch more intensity on the nose, while the fruit is a little darker: bilberry and blackberry, plus touches of violet petals. The medium-bodied palate is rounded with a refined opening, a smooth texture and good grip. Plenty of freshness here, and then the structure synonymous with Malconsorts kicks in on the finish. Superb." (94-96pts VM)

"As is often the case this is aromatically similar to the regular cuvée save for being slightly more floral in character. There is more volume and power to the full-bodied, rich and robust flavors that exude a subtle minerality on the more complex, well-balanced and wonderfully long finale. This is also more obviously structured and it seems quite clear that 18 to 20 years will be necessary for this to arrive at its full majority. In a word, terrific." (93-95pts BH)

DOMAINE HUDELLOT-NOELLAT

Hudelot-Noellat is one of the great Domaines of Burgundy, having made excellent wines for decades from very old vines in three famous Grand Crus. Hudelot is a very old Burgundian family whose ancestors have been rooted in Chambolle Musigny before the French Revolution. The modern Domaine was created in 1964 by Alain Hudelot and grew in 1978, when Alain married Odile Noellat, granddaughter of Charles Noellat. She also brought family vineyards. Hudelot-Noellat expanded again in 1988 when Domaine Noellat was divided in three: Lalou Bize-Leroy bought half of those vineyards with the remainder divided between Hudelot-Noellat and Jean-Jacques Confuron. In 2008, Alain Hudelot stepped down when his grandson, Charles van Canneyt, finished his formal wine studies in Dijon and took over the Domaine. Charles has taken Hudelot-Noellat to perhaps its greatest heights, re-establishing his longstanding family's great name amongst the elite of Burgundy. The Romanee St. Vivant comes from vines planted in 1920, while their Richebourg was planted in 1950, and those vines sit next to those of DRC. Not a bad neighborhood to be in! The Clos de Vougeot hails from two old vine plots, also planted in 1950, both near the Chateau itself, in the highest and most sought-after portion of the vineyard. It is an honor to have nine lots Domaine direct including several jousting Jeroboams of Romanee St. Vivant and Richebourg.

DOMAINE HUBERT LIGNIER

It is an honor and a pleasure to have another direct consignment from Hubert Lignier for La Paulée! This legendary Domaine owns over eight hectares principally in Morey-Saint-Denis, as well as Gevrey Chambertin and Chambolle Musigny. Recently, the Ligniers have expanded their holdings to include parcels in the appellations of Nuits-Saint-Georges and Pommard. Hubert's son, Laurent, is the fifth generation of this proud estate and is following his father's traditional practices to ensure the treasures coming from the family's impressive vineyard holdings continue to exhibit the best of their respective appellations. Selection Massale, replacing vines with cuttings from the same vineyard, and restrained use of oak are both techniques that ensure the wines retain their unique character. The special pride of the family is Clos de la Roche, of course, of which Lignier renders a benchmark example, which is really saying something given how many superb and legendary winemakers exist in this great Grand Cru! We are privileged to present thirteen lots direct from Lignier crowned by a magnum of 1996 Clos de la Roche.

DOMAINE DUGAT-PY

It is with great pleasure that we present to you once again wines direct from the cellars of Domaine Dugat-Py! These sixteen lots exclusively released for La Paulée make for a comprehensive experience of Dugat-Py's many splendorous terroirs. Currently in its thirteenth generation, Domaine Dugat-Py is situated in the oldest cellar in Burgundy, built nearly one thousand years ago in Gevrey Chambertin! The family were long-time vine growers, and Pierre Dugat began estate bottling in 1989 before handing off to his son Bernard, who turned the Domaine over to his son Loïc in 2015. The family painstakingly tends old vines with low yields, planted as far back as 1905, which lend concentration and quality to their wines. With a focus on viticulture and the twenty appellations they cultivate, the Domaine has been certified organic for two decades!! The wines are vinified with as little intervention as possible. Now producing both white wines in the Côte de Beaune and red wines primarily coming from Gevrey, Domaine Dugat-Py has a diverse portfolio of wines of exceptional quality. They are perhaps best known for their Charmes Chambertin, which comes from four plots that total about two-thirds of a hectare. Their further Grand Cru offerings include Mazoyères Chambertin, Mazis Chambertin, and an ultra-rare Chambertin, usually less than one barrel produced, so they have a barrel specially made just for this wine that is smaller than traditional Burgundy barrels. We are delighted to offer bottles of Chambertin from 2005 to 2010!

The overtly powerful and again imposingly concentrated big-bodied and intensely mineral-driven flavors possess a seductive and sappy mid-palate that contrasts considerably with the driving and massively long finish that is presently quite youthfully austere but I wouldn't expect it to last beyond a few years. DOMAINE FOURRIER

Domaine Fourrier (previously known as Pernot-Fourrier) has a long history in Gevrey Chambertin extending over four generations. The estate was founded by Fernand Pernot during the 1930's. Then his nephew, Jean-Claude Fourrier, took the reins of the Domaine in 1969. Jean-Marie Fourrier took over the family Domaine from his father in 1994 at the young age of 23. His experience was gained not only at the family Domaine in Gevrey, but also at Domaine Drouhin in Oregon and with the legendary Henri Mayer in Vosne Romanée. Upon his arrival, Jean-Marie completely reinvigorated his family's Domaine by wisely combining the traditions of his family and the experience gained with Henri Mayer, while adding his own clear sense of style. Older vines, lower yields and more natural winemaking are the key to success here, and the resulting wines have great precision and finesse. Jean-Marie Fourrier is today to be considered one of Burgundy's brightest stars. Few producers have been able to ascend to the top echelon of Burgundy as quickly as Jean-Marie. It is a pleasure to offer six splendid selections directly from Fourrier to fete La Paulée led by magnums of 2018 Clos St. Jacques.

Supple on entry, then quite backward--in fact almost austere--in the middle palate, less open to inspection today than the Champeaux. This is one of the most transparent Clos Saint-Jacques that I have tasted from Fourrier. The palate is medium-bodied with fleshy ripe tannins on the entry. This is very focused, maybe a little leaner than the 2015 (recently tasted) but with a scintillating finish of white pepper-tinged red fruit that lingers in the mouth for 45 seconds. Superb." DOMAINE DUROCHE

One of the most exciting developments in Gevrey Chambertin has been the emergence of young winemaker Pierre Duroché. However, the first bottling at the Domaine was way back in 1933! Pierre has slowly taken over from his father Gilles, quietly and steadfastly producing some of the most exceptional wines in Gevrey. The fifth generation in his family's lineage of winemakers, Pierre is a force with which to be reckoned! He eschews the modernist approach to new oak in order to make delicate and detailed wines throughout the Domaine's 8.25 hectares. Their holdings include small parcels of Premier Crus Estournelles St. Jacques and Champeaux, 1.2 hectares of Lavaut St. Jacques, plus small holdings of the Grand Crus Charmes Chambertin, Griotte Chambertin, Latricières Chambertin and Chambertin Clos de Bèze.

It is our pleasure to offer two exceptional lots from Domaine Duroché, assembled exclusively for our second La Paulée auction! The first offering is a rare Jeroboam of the 2021 Domaine Duroche Gevrey Chambertin Cuvée 26. Pierre Duroché ingeniously crafted this unique blend, combining micro-cuvées from premier cru Estournelles St. Jacques, premier cru Les Cazetiers, and Gevrey-Chambertin Aux Etelois. Cuvée 26 is exclusive to the vintage and is a true collector's treasure with only 2 barrels in existence! Our second lot features a historic milestone: the first ever barrel from the Domaine to be sold at auction! Celebrating a century of elegance, the iconic 2023 Lavaut St. Jacques Vieilles Vignes pays homage to its roots planted in 1923. Typically yielding only one barrel per vintage, 2023 was generous enough to produce three, offering you the exclusive chance to claim one-third of this esteemed production!

DOMAINE MEO-CAMUZET

Meo-Camuzet is one of the most important Domaines in all of Burgundy, run today by Jean-Nicolas Meo and having in the past been advised by none other than Henri Jayer. The roots of Jayer run deep in Meo-Camuzet, with the wines having outstanding concentration and sublime elegance, truly the iron fist in the velvet glove. Founded by Etienne Camuzet, for many years the Domaine was run from afar, and the vineyards increasingly leased out. Jean Nicolas launched the modern era of this great Domaine by focusing on estate bottling and reclaiming its special vineyards sharecroppers in the 1980s. In 1981, Domaine Camuzet became Domaine Meo-Camuzet, and they started to bottle under that Domaine name in 1983. Meo-Camuzet's important holdings are crowned by Clos Vougeot, Richebourg and Cros Parantoux (one of only two producers to make it today), along with other significant terroirs in Vosne Romanee, Nuits-Saint-Georges and Corton. Jean-Nicolas has gone old school in maximizing these special vineyards' potential with strict pruning, plowing by horse, Francois Freres barrels and careful sorting and handling. We are exceptionally ecstatic to share eight lots direct from Meo-Camuzet including dueling three vintage verticals of Richebourg.

1869 Vosne Romanée
Les Chaumes, Méo-Camuzet

1870 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2005
Aux Brûlées, Méo-Camuzet
 1x3 bottle ocb
"A touch of wood influence combines with the superbly complex and remarkably primary deep black fruit nose that is positively kaleidoscopic in its range of spices that continue onto the super rich, even opulent flavors that ooze dry extract yet this tightens up instantly on the finish and becomes borderline austere. There is real muscle and punch here and while the nose is ultra refined, the flavor profile runs toward the robust. Incredibly impressive potential but this is clearly a wine for the patient." (95pts BH)
 3 bottles per lot $2200-3000

1871 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2009
Aux Brûlées, Méo-Camuzet
 1x3 bottle ocb
"The 2009 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Aux Brûlées from Méo-Camuzet is superb, offering up an alluring nose of sweet black fruit, exotic spices, rich soil and subtle espresso roast. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, ample and expansive, with grand cru depth and dimension, its fine-grained tannins entirely enveloped in luscious dark fruit, its acids cool and controlled. The Aux Brûlées is routinely one of Jean-Nicolas Méo's finest wines, and the 2009 vintage is no exception." (94pts)
 3 bottles per lot $1800-2400

1872 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2010
Aux Brûlées, Méo-Camuzet
 1x3 bottle ocb
"The 2010 Vosne-Romanée Les Brûlées boasts incredible finesse and inner perfume in its expressive dark red cherries, flowers, mint and spices. This is much more about sheer textural finesse and elegance than anything else. Layers of fruit continue to flesh out on the expressive, radiant finish. There was quite a bit of millerandage in this parcel. The Brûlées has plenty of weight but no heaviness. This is a superb showing. Anticipated maturity: 2025-2040." (94-96pts)
 3 bottles per lot $1800-2400

1873 Clos Vougeot - Vintage 2005
Méo-Camuzet
 1x6 bottle ocb
"...displays roasted, singed meatiness along with bitter-sweet, szechuan pepper-tinged mulberry fruit. Boasting terrific density on the palate, fineness of tannin, clarity of fruit, and saline, chalk and wet stone manifestations of mineral, this finishes with pungent spice and stone fruit." (93-94pts)
 6 bottles per lot $2000-2800

1874 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2009
Cros Parantoux, Méo-Camuzet
 1x3 bottle ocb
"A notably ripe yet elegant, cool, restrained and airy nose of rose petal, spice, hoisin, plum and mineral-laden aromas merges into medium weight flavors brimming with stone influences and an abundance of extract culminate in a relatively powerful finish underpinned by ripe tannins and superb length." DUJAC

The Dujac story starts with passion for gastronomy. Louis Seysses was a biscuit manufacturer and gastronome who had a taste for good food and fine wines. His son, Jacques, quickly came to share his father's passion and then decided he would not only like to drink the wine but make it as well. With the help of his father, Jacques began his career in wine with an apprenticeship with the famous Gerard Potel at the Domaine de la Pousse d'Or. He spent two harvests there. In 1967, he had the opportunity to purchase the then Domaine Graillet in Morey-Saint-Denis. Jacques Seysses christened his new Domaine simply and phonetically "Dujac" in wry homage to the Burgundian locals who referred to it as the "Domaine du Jacques." It took a good measure of both originality and courage to throw himself into the winemaking profession as there was no winemaking tradition in his family. In addition, he chose to do his own bottling, something that was still not common in those days. Trying to blend what he admired in traditional winemaking with modern techniques, Jacques went on to refine a style of his own. Although the first vintage made at Dujac (1968) is the worst known in almost 50 years, the following vintage more than made up for his difficult start, and 1969 remains one of the most superb vintages produced at Dujac. In 1978, Jacques returned to study and graduated with a diploma of oenology, and since 1968 production of the Domaine has slowly increased from five hectares to its present size of fifteen. In 2000 the transition from one generation to the next began. Jacques was joined by his son Jeremy, who handles winemaking along with his wife Diana and his brother Alec. Today, the Domaine is now safely in their hands, although Jacques still always manages to be around! In 2001 the Domaine began experimenting organic viticulture and biodynamics, finally leading to farm the entire Domaine organically in 2009. There are very few producers in the world as loved and cherished as Domaine Dujac, and we are honored to offer nine lots from their cellars for our La Paulée auction including 1996 and 2006 Echezeaux in both bottle and magnum.

1877 Charmes Chambertin - Vintage 1995
Dujac
1x6 bottle ocb
"With touches of purple, this elegant gem's thick texture and cascade of fat, chewy black fruits are divine. Spiced with toasty oak, long and refined..." (93-95 pts)
 6 bottles per lot $3000-4000

1878 Charmes Chambertin - Vintage 1999
Dujac
1x6 bottle ocb
"...displays sweet red and blackberries as well as violets in its aromas. It is lush, ripe, concentrated, and has excellent focus in its medium-bodied personality. This cherry-dominated wine also displays hints of tangy raspberries and hints of new oak. It is pure, elegant, seamless, and has a long, well-delineated finish." (90-91pts)
 6 bottles per lot $4000-6000

1879 Charmes Chambertin - Vintage 2009
Dujac
1x3 magnum ocb
"The 2009 Charmes-Chambertin is unbelievably sophisticated and gracious. The warmth of the year has filled out the wine beautifully and also softened the tannins. This is a decidedly rich, expansive Charmes that impresses for its aristocratic personality. I hope to taste it again in another decade or so. I noted that the Charmes was quite a bit more complex from bottle than it was from barrel. Anticipated maturity: 2019-2039." (95+pts)
 3 magnums per lot $3000-4000

1880 Échézeaux - Vintage 1996
Dujac
1x6 bottle ocb
"Elegant, spicy, sexy and altogether gorgeous aromatics followed by sappy black fruit flavors of solid depth and length. This is most impressive in its harmony, density and classy delivery and this appears to be capable of considerably upside improvement." (92pts BH)
 6 bottles per lot $6000-8000

1881 3 magnums per lot $7000-9000
1x3 magnum ocb

1882 Échézeaux - Vintage 1999
Dujac
1x6 bottle ocb
"...this wine has it all. Explosive fruit, staggering complexity and profoundly long, spicy, velvety flavors, this wine clearly demonstrates, without fear of contradiction, that EÉchézeaux can produce wines worthy of grand cru stature. The fact that it so rarely does is not an excuse for those who make lesser examples." (92-4pts BH)
 6 bottles per lot $6000-8000

1883 Échézeaux - Vintage 2006
Dujac
1x6 bottle ocb
"Very fresh, pure, spicy and ripe nose features a mix of red and black earth-infused aromas that introduce textured, sweet and layered full-bodied flavors that possess a taut muscularity and perfect balance. While the Dujac Ech is almost always relatively sophisticated for what can be a sometimes rustic grand cru, this is even more refined than usual. This is very promising though note that patience will be required." (92pts BH)
 6 bottles per lot $3000-4000

1884 3 magnums per lot $3000-4000
1x3 magnum ocb

1885 Échézeaux - Vintage 2009
Dujac
1x6 bottle ocb
"The 2009 Échézeaux is another inward wine. With time in the glass, some of the layers of fruit begin to flesh out, showing the depth I sensed when I tasted the wine from barrel. There is plenty of elegance and finesse, although today the 2010 appears to be more promising by a touch." (94pts)
 6 bottles per lot $3500-5000

DOMAINE DU COMTE LIGER-BELAIR

It is with tremendous pleasure that we proudly present to you once again wines direct from the cellars of Comte Louis Michel Liger-Belair to help us celebrate La Paulée!!! Domaine du Comte Liger-Belair has a long storied history, but its modern chapter begins with a restoration by Louis-Michel Liger-Belair, agricultural engineer and oenologist, in 2000. However, this is an old and historical Domaine with more than 200 years of history and tradition in Burgundy and Vosne Romanée in particular. In 1815, Louis Liger-Belair, one of Napoleon's generals, acquired the Chateau de Vosne Romanée. The Domaine thereafter grew considerably under the direction of the general and then his nephew that became his adopted son, the Comte Louis-Charles. Louis-Charles married Ludovie Marey, who became part of the history of this family as owners and wine merchants in Burgundy since 1720. At the death of Comte Edgar, son of Comte Louis-Charles, the wine estate family ownership extended over more than 60 hectares, mainly in the Cote de Nuits, gathering some of the most prestigious "Climats" of Burgundy. It included Monopoles such as La Romanée, La Tache and La Grande Rue! At the death of Comte Henri Liger-Belair (grandson of Comte Louis-Charles and great-grandfather of Louis-Michel) in 1924 and then his wife in 1931, the Domaine was sold by judicial auction. Two of the children including Comte Michel (grandfather of Louis-Michel), joined together to buy back La Romanée, les Reignots and les Chaumes, whose management was then entrusted to local winegrowers. Comte Michel sadly died in 1941 during the war, before he could redevelop and realize the potential.

In 2000, Comte Louis-Michel, engineer and oenologist, took over control of the Domaine, all aspects of production, from the vine to the bottle. Comte Louis-Michel resurrected his family's Domaine in 2000 with 1.5 hectares of family vines (Vosne-Romanée La Colombière, Clos du Château and Les Chaumes). In 2002, 1.6 hectares were added with La Romanée Grand Cru Monopole and Vosne Premier Cru Aux Reignots. In 2006, he had the opportunity to rent 5.5 hectares including a large parcel of Echezeaux, Vosne-Romanée les Suchots, les Petits Monts and aux Brulées, Nuits-Saint-Georges aux Cras, Vosne Romanée and Nuits-Saint Georges. In 2012, he bought a Clos in Nuits-Saint-Georges, the "Monopole" of Clos des Grands Vignes. In 2015, he produced his first vintage of Clos de Vougeot. There is even more exciting news coming from the Domaine, starting with 2022 harvest, Liger-Belair will expand its portfolio with 2.6 hectares of new plots in very prominent climats including Grands Echezeaux, Malconsorts, Aux Reas and La Croix Rameau. We are delighted to have to four lots from Liger-Belair all in magnum including 2018 La Romanee!!!

1886 Clos de Vougeot - Vintage 2018*Comte Liger-Belair1x1 magnum owc*

"The 2018 Clos de Vougeot Grand Cru has turned out well, displaying aromas of cassis, plums, smoked meats, dark soils tones, espresso roast and peonies. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, muscular but elegant, with succulent acids and powdery tannins, capturing the power of which this site is capable but rendering it with refinement. The finish is long and perfumed."(94-96pts)

1 magnum per lot $4000-6000

1887 Échézeaux - Vintage 2018*Comte Liger-Belair1x1 magnum owc*

"Much like the Reignots, this is intensely floral with a broad range of spice elements adding lovely layering to the ripe poached plum aromas that are trimmed in just enough wood to merit pointing out. The seductive and caressing yet powerful larger-scaled flavors coat the palate with dry extract that also buffers the prominent tannic spine shaping the beautifully complex and lengthy finish. This well-balanced though equally austere and robust effort should also age gracefully for many years to come."(95pts BH)

1888 La Romanée - Vintage 2018*Comte Liger-Belair1x1 magnum owc*

"The 2018 La Romanée Grand Cru is the most reserved cuvée in the range, unwinding in the glass with notes of cherries, raspberries, dark chocolate, plums and spices that's framed by a nicely integrated bouquet of creamy new oak. It's full-bodied, velvety and enveloping, with a deep and multidimensional core that saturates the palate and largely conceals the wine's powdery structuring tannins. Underpinned by a lively spine of acidity and concluding with a long and pungently perfumed finish."(96-98pts)

"There was sweet, raspberry oak on the 1995 with a touch of marzipan and a great citricity on the palate. It had excellent verve and vim with a long, spicy finish. While many have already given up on the '95 vintage for Red Burgs, this LT rewarded those who waited. There were nice tannins and it was excellently delicious, really rusty in a very good way." 1893 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 1990

1894 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2009

G. Roumier

"This is also remarkably fresh with very ripe but not over ripe aromas of cassis, spice, stone and raspberry liqueur. There is a palpable sense of energy running through the rich, powerful and brooding broad-shouldered flavors that benefit from a huge dollop of dry extract that pushes the very firm tannic spine to the background on the explosive and youthfully austere finish that possesses genuinely outstanding length. I very much like the balance here and this should age effortlessly for decades." (96pts BH)

1895 Clos Vougeot - Vintage 1996

Clos des Ambres, A. Ente
"The Arnaud Ente 2014 Meursault Clos des Ambres offers up a similar profile to the regular Meursault villages apple, citrus, flowers but complemented by suggestions of green pear and crushed chalk. On the palate, the wine is more concentrated, with serious chewy extract and mid-palate depth, its finish long, penetrating and grippy. This will really blossom with time in the cellar. The Clos des Ambres is produced from old vines, planted in 1952 to 1953, in an unusually stony part of the lieu-dit of En l'Ormeau where the water table is lower." (92pts)

1904 La Romanée - Vintage 2008

Comte Liger-Belair

1x3 bottle owc

"A deft touch of wood frames gorgeously complex, elegant, pure and refined aromas that feature ample amounts of spice to the cool red currant and plum notes that complement to perfection the highly sophisticated medium-bodied flavors that possess an abundance of dry extract that buffers the dense but fine tannins on the balanced and superbly persistent finish that exhibits a bit less youthful austerity than I typically see. This really opens on the finish with simply marvelous breadth. A magnificent wine of class and indisputable grace." (96pts BH)

1905 La Romanée - Vintage 2012

Comte Liger-Belair

1x3 bottle owc

"The 2012 La Romanée is a wine of effortless and utterly unforgettable beauty, soaring from the glass in an otherworldly blend of black plums, black raspberries, fresh nutmeg, kaleidoscopic soil tones, duck, incipient Vosne spices, dark chocolate and a very discreet base of new oak. I know that this wine was raised in one hundred percent new oak, but the depth of sappy fruit and the great signature of soil here have simply combined to devour the wood this year! On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied, breathtakingly pure and utterly seamless, with a sappy core of gorgeous fruit, stunning transparency, very suave, silken tannins and brilliant backend energy that gives this supremely elegant wine a sense of vibrancy and purity that simply takes one's breath away! I simply cannot imagine a more profoundly refined and seamless example of this legendary vintage." (100pts JG)

"A really pretty mix of now mostly secondary fruit notes of earth, leather and spice on the highly aromatic nose that dissolves gracefully into rich, silky and pure flavors that are a study in elegance, all wrapped in a gorgeously long finish that is both balanced and refined. In particular, I really admire the mid-palate depth and while this has reached its apogee, it should hold here for years to come as it has only recently arrived at its peak. In a word, terrific." There is a highly refined mouthfeel to the almost lacy yet concentrated middle weight flavors that possess first-rate complexity on the balanced and wonderfully persistent if youthfully austere finish. This crunchy effort is class in a glass with its emphasis on finesse which is quite different from the evident power and punch of the Corton. Textbook built-to-age RSV." (95pts VM)

1909 Charmes Chambertin - Vintage 2005

Dujac

1x6 bottle ocb

"The parade of Dujac grand crus begins with their 2005 Charmes-Chambertin, assembled from several parcels in both Mazoyeres and "Ur-" Charmes. Especially coming after the striking contrast of the two Vosne crus, this smells and tastes like the proverbial bowl of cherries. Polished and incipiently creamy, it's like a pillow after the firm mattresses offered by the two Vosnes for long resting in the cellar. Licorice, chalk dust, and slight hints of game lend complexity to this wine's forward fruit and inform a finish of refined structure and imposing length that should drink well early." (92pts)

"A wonderfully expressive and high-toned nose of cool red berry fruits and hints of spice, earth and minerals serve to introduce sweet and impeccably well-balanced flavors that are sweet, delicious, rich, detailed and altogether serious, packing good punch and energy into a finish that is all grace and harmony. This is a really lovely effort that will age well yet be accessible early on." (91-93pts BH)

"Like several of these 2010s, this is aromatically reserved to the point that only aggressive swirling liberates reluctant notes of spice, violets and a mix of perfumed red and black liqueur scents. The delicious, intense and beautifully detailed middle weight flavors possess a highly sophisticated mouth feel before terminating in a massively persistent, pure and harmonious finish." (96pts BH)

1913 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2005

Aux Malconsorts, Dujac

1x6 bottle ocb

"... offers smoky, tea-like, floral, and spicy aromas. It comes to the palate relatively firm though texturally refined and strikingly clear, full of deep, smoke-licked meaty flavors, ripe though slightly tart raspberry, flowers, tea and spices. Palpably dense, this nevertheless avoids any sense of heaviness or opacity, but instead displays lift and liveliness. The amazingly long finish really builds momentum, confirming how much is held in reserve for the long haul, and that this is about meats, stones, flowers, herbs and spices in short very much about Pinot's mysteries, but very little about fruits or berries." 1914 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2002

Les Petits Monts, J. Drouhin

1x6 bottle ocb

"Dark red. Precise redcurrant and strawberry aromas are lifted by spicy minerality, with slowly unfolding floral notes adding complexity. Silky red berry flavors show a building sweetness, taking on raspberry and cherry preserve tones with air. This gains weight on the long, sappy finish, which offers outstanding length and leaves a lingering impression of exotic Asian spices. Delicious now but should reward another five to six years of age, at the minimum." (93pts IWC)

1915 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 1999

Vieilles Vignes, Ponsot

1x1 Jeroboam owc

"This was a magical bottle of the 1999 Clos de la Roche Grand Cru Cuvée Vieilles Vignes, a wine that's just beginning to hit its stride as it approaches its 20th birthday, unfurling in the glass with aromas of red berries, cassis, dark chocolate, cinnamon, dried rose petals and orange rind. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, deep and immensely concentrated, with a broad attack, lovely acids and a formidable reserve of creamy old-vine fruit, structured around a chalky chassiss of tannin that evokes the great old Burgundies of yesteryear. Concluding with a long and expansive finish, this is still a young wine, and another two decades of aging won't be a problem. But it's now clear that this ranks as one of Ponsot's greatest recent hits and one of the high points of this reputed vintage." (98pts)

1919 Batard Montrachet - Vintage 2000*Ramonet*

"Unlike the much more open and expressive '00 Bienvenues, this is backward, tight and brooding yet vigorous swirling coaxes simply gorgeous and immensely complex aromas of peach, white flower and a good deal more minerality than is typically found in the Ramonet B tard. The flavors are big, rich, muscular yet still essentially linear in character and have clearly not yet begun to unfold but the incredible intensity and first rate precision suggest that this will be a superb wine when it attains its majority. In sum, this is extremely promising but don't touch a bottle now." (94pts BH)

1922 Montrachet - Vintage 2001*Ramonet*

"A fantastically complex nose explodes from the glass immediately and requires almost no coaxing to reveal a simply marvelous breadth of aromas, from white flower to honeysuckle to ripe orchard notes to spice elements combine to deliver a genuinely stunning aromatic kaleidoscope. The palate impact does justice to the nose with superb depth and remarkable density by any standard but especially in the context of the vintage as the sap completely coats and stains the palate. While this is clearly very young, there is less tension here than in the B tard at the moment though the balance and length are so good that this will require at least 7 to 8 years to really begin to deliver the promise that the underlying raw materials already so brilliantly hint at. A great effort by any measure." (97pts BH)

1923 Montrachet - Vintage 2017*Ramonet*

"Like several of the wines in the range, the oaky nose was initially reduced to the point of being borderline funky yet with extended aeration (24 hours in this case), the underlying aromas of a wonderful variety of white orchard fruit, floral, spice and soft citrus scents gradually emerge. There is outstanding richness to the big-bodied, compact and very serious flavors that coat the palate with copious amounts of dry extract that would normally cause the finish to seem ponderous yet in this case the firm acid spine maintains the balance." The precise and pure medium-bodied flavors are equally delicate and fine while brimming with an intense minerality and beautiful acid/fruit balance. This is crafted in an understated style with simply wonderful transparency and the mouth feel is pure silk. In sum, this is a classic Blanchot that has arrived at its apogee though it should be capable of holding here for another decade if perfectly stored. 1937 Billecart Salmon Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1996*Clos St. Hilaire2scl*

"The 1996 had a breadier, yeastier nose, much gamier and earthier than the previous two blends. Someone hastily said, it's walking the Krug, meaning it was showing better, but I found it closer qualitatively despite the obvious stylistic differences. Its finish was also explosive and full of earth, breed and length. King Angry Ray noted, the fruit is so pure, you don't even notice the lack of dosage. The Clos St. Hilaire had the complexity of a quarry full of all types of rocks, minerals and vitamins, possessing incredible acidity, structure and length. Flavors of anise developed, and the finish gained this novocaine-like complexity in this numbingly good Champagne. I asked Ray if he thought this was better than Krug, and he succinctly observed, Just different. More red fruit here. The Hilaire more so than the first two bubbles needs time to age; they all will benefit by age, but the Hilaire seemed to be the most brooding, complex and least approachable overall." (97+pts JK)

"...this 1989 represents the first re-release from the only series of three consecutive vintage bottlings 1988-1990 in Krug's history. The mingling of saline, nutty, and caramelized notes in the nose adumbrating this wine's entire performance is gorgeous. Butter-toasted hazelnuts, dried wild mushrooms, kelp, and cocoa mingle in a silken, mouthwateringly saline and savory matrix reminiscent of oyster liquor laced with fresh lemon juice (because, there is still a youthfully citric store of energy here). "As if there were any doubts, Krug's 1996 Brut Blanc de Blancs Clos du Mesnil reaffirms its position as one of the greatest if not the greatest Champagne of this historic harvest. I have had the privilege of drinking the 1996 Clos du Mesnil a few times over the last year and it has always been breathtaking, as it is again today. The wine sparkles on the palate with a brilliant, pointillist expression of fruit, showing surreal detail, depth and polish. Like a finely cut gem, each impression reveals a different and unique shade of nuance. The 1996 Clos du Mesnil coats every inch of the palate with endless layers of perfumed fruit and a chiseled, minerally finish that lasts forever. The oak seems a touch pronounced in this particular bottle, something I have not encountered previously with this wine. If forced to drink only one Champagne (assuming budget was not an issue) I might very well choose Krug's 1996 Clos du Mesnil. This profound Champagne is as good as it gets." (99pts)

1961 Barolo - Vintage 1988*Monfortino Riserva, G. Conterno*

"The 1988 seemed like a whole, new world as we entered a more youthful stage of Monfortino. The wine still had its baby fat in its nose and was nutty, almost syrupy, with lots of black fruits, tar, cement and peking duck. The wine was much heavier in its tannin and alcohol expressions, and the fruit was dominated by cassis and grape. After having all those older wines, this flight was definitively youthful. Roberto found the 1988 to be the 'most complete at the moment.' He then continued how 1988 was a disastrous vintage at Giacomo Conterno because it was the year that he started working full-time in the family business - HA! He was then asked when he started making the wine, to which he replied 'never. The wine is made in the vineyard and in the winery you can only damage the wine.' It was an excellent, bordering on outstanding, wine." (94+pts JK)

He's getting down to the last bottles, so now is your chance to acquire these exceptional wines amassed over decades of collecting! All wines removed from professional storage.

"The 1988 Richebourg has slightly less finesse and a less perfect bouquet than the Romanée St.-Vivant, but it is more muscular, fuller-framed, and a titan of a wine with its huge proportions and massive concentration and depth. This is a monumental old-style burgundy that is meant to last for ages, and I am envious of anyone who is fortunate enough to put it in their cellars. 1978 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 1996*Coche-Dury*

"The cult wine per excellence hits another home run. Ripe but racy, with a lush, opulent and fat mouthfeel. Very attractive thanks to its richness, this vibrates on the palate as it powers its way to a toasty, ripe, velvety finish that will need years to show it all." (99pts)

1979 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2000*Coche-Dury*

"This was very Coche' per The French Paradox, full of lots of smoky fireplace action and clean waterfall qualities. This was a super fresh 2000 that was as good as the vintage in general gets. The Paradox admired the roasted Coche thing, and this smoky, icy, lemon pie of a wine left me with a lip-smacking finish." (97pts JK)

1980 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2004*Coche-Dury*

"The 2004 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru is a monument in the making, unwinding in the glass with a youthful bouquet of lemon oil, fresh apple, vanilla pod, struck match and a light touch of smoky reduction. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, searingly intense and racy, built around a bright line of acidity and laden with chewy extract, still rock solid at the core, concluding with a long, chalky finish that captures the essence of Corton-Charlemagne. Impressively, this is still a few years away from truly entering its plateau." (97+pts)

"This is also quite restrained yet strikingly pure and highly complex with a nose of white flower, green fruit and discreet spice aromas that complements perfectly the delicious, intense and stony big-bodied and overtly muscular flavors that are wonderfully vibrant and gorgeously detailed on the transparent and explosive finish that really coats the palate with extract. This is beautifully balanced and understated with a youthfully austere finale." (94pts BH)

1982 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2008*Coche-Dury*

"The utterly profound 2008 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru is one of Jean-François Coche's great achievements and though today its quality is obvious, it's interesting that Jean-François and his son Raphaël recall 2008 in its infancy as "rude, closed, austere and cold." The wine wafts from the glass with notes of green orchard fruit, white flowers, oatmeal, vanilla pod, iodine and a subtle framing of new oak. On the palate, it's full-bodied, layered and multidimensional, its bright line of structuring acidity running through an ample but tense core of satiny texture and extract. The finish is bright, chalky and interminable. For a wine that retains all the tension and cut of a cool vintage, this Corton-Charlemagne's amplitude and power are striking. "Classic in the best sense" is Coche's understated judgment; less temperate commentators might call it perfection." (100pts)

1 bottle per lot $4500-6000

1983 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2011*Coche-Dury*

"The 2011 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru has an exquisite bouquet that truly deserves the phrase "liquid mineral." Imagine a limestone quarry being melted down and then distilled multiple times until there is just enough to fill your wine glass. The palate has perfect acidity and subtle spicy notes on the entry: hints of lime flower, citrus lemon and a subtle note of mandarin coming through with aeration. It exhibits balletic poise on the finish a sensational Corton-Charlemagne that just may turn out to be just as good as the 2010. "(96pts)

1984 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2012*Coche-Dury*

"The aromatics unfurl with a sense of ease prioritizing finesse over power: beeswax, linden, lemon thyme and fresh pear. The palate is exquisitely balanced with fleeting glimpses of Seville orange and apricot. But there is more about the tension, the effortlessness and that it just rolls out across the finish like a huge Turkish rug. This is the kind of wine that exhausts superlatives." (97+pts)

1985 Meursault - Vintage 2000*Les Caillerets, Coche-DuryIwsvl*

"This has now peaked and is drinking beautifully with a fully mature nose of honeysuckle, peach, apricot and very subtle spice notes that can also be found on the enveloping flavors that possess a wonderfully seductive mouth feel and ample dry extract that both completely buffers the still firm acid spine and coats the palate on the long, lingering and strikingly perfumed finish. One character that Coche seems to consistently be able to achieve is how his wines are at once generous yet retain a fine sense of focus and precision and this wine certainly displays this." 1986 Meursault - Vintage 2001*Les Caillerets, Coche-Dury*

1988 Meursault - Vintage 1996*Les Perrières, Coche-Dury*

"When the world's wine lovers speak of Jean-François Coche the words Corton-Charlemagne are sure to follow. Personally, I feel his Meursault Perrières is just as extraordinary, and sometimes more so. This vineyard contributes an element of refinement and class to Coche's hedonistic, powerful, and intense style. The 1996 is breathtaking because tasting it is a levitating experience. Its beguiling, almost spiritual bouquet is composed of precisely defined minerals. The palate is greeted by explosive, powerful, awesomely elegant, intense, mouth-coatingly sweet and yet bone dry stones, gravel, crisp pears, and toasty oak. This unbelievably dense and complex, yet pure and perfectly defined wine is massively structured and has an unending finish that reveals cardamon, anise, honeysuckle blossoms, and spices. Anticipated maturity: 2004-2010+." (99pts)

1989 Meursault - Vintage 1999*Les Perrières, Coche-Dury*

"It was musky, nutty and smoky, standing out right away. This was a rich and decadent wine, apropos for the vintage, quite buttery on the palate with more signature white smoke flavors. This was a thick and masculine white wine, flexing the strength of 1999 while still maintaining that Cochy sexiness. "(97+ pts JK)

"Pale lemon-yellow. Nose dominated by crushed rock. Like a liqueur of sappy citrus fruits and minerals in the mouth, with electric energy that's almost painful today. Dense, thick, sweet and fine-grained, with a hint of toast adding another element toward the back. Explosive finishing minerality leaves the palate vibrating on the endless aftertaste. Incredible juice, and likely to be very long-lived."(97+pts VM)

1994 Meursault - Vintage 1988*Les Rougeots, Coche-Durycrc, custom label*

"A reserved but altogether lovely and nicely complex aromatic profile leads to precise yet relatively round and admirably concentrated medium weight flavors that display only the barest trace of the normally markedly acidic character of the '88 vintage. While no longer youthful, this is just now maturing and there is absolutely no rush to drink up as this should easily last another decade. In sum, this is a decided success for the vintage and I quite like the wine, particularly for its fine balance. I have enjoyed consistent notes save for one bottle that was showing noticeable oxidation and while not undrinkable, it was not at the same level at what I describe above."(90pts BH)

1995 Meursault - Vintage 2008*Les Rougeots, Coche-Dury*

1996 Meursault - Vintage 2010*Les Rougeots, Coche-Dury*

"The 2010 Meursault Rougeots is a bit rounder and more inviting than the Chevalieres at this stage. Here the fruit blossoms nicely to fill out the wine's broad frame. There are a richness and creaminess in the Rougeots that make it surprisingly sumptuous and ample at this stage. At the same time, there is plenty of power waiting to emerge. If I were going to open a Coche 2010 early, I would probably start with the Rougeots. Anticipated maturity: 2016+."(92pts)

1997 Meursault - Vintage 2011*Les Rougeots, Coche-Dury*

"While the 2011 Meursault Les Rougeots is still a young wine, it's beginning to drink very well, unfurling in the glass with a beautifully integrated bouquet of lemon oil, green apple, sesame and wheat toast, framed by a very subtle touch of smoky reduction that dissipates with aeration. On the palate, the wine is medium to full-bodied, deep and racy, with a layered, nicely concentrated core, tangy acids and a long, lingeringly stony finish. This is shaping up to be an excellent but comparatively precocious vintage for Coche-Dury, and readers with multiple bottles shouldn't be afraid to try one in the next year or two."(94pts)

1998 Batard Montrachet - Vintage 1985*Ramonetnl*

"Drunk from magnum, the 1985 Bâtard-Montrachet Grand Cru is an extraordinary wine, unfurling in the glass with a multifaceted bouquet of toasted nuts, iodine, ripe but crisp yellow orchard fruit, pastry cream and honeycomb. On the palate, it's full-bodied, immensely layered and penetrating, with stunning minerally structure, searing concentration and an immensely long finish. Structured more like a red wine than a white, this is a brilliant wine from one of Domaine Ramonet's greatest vintages of the decade, and it has a long future ahead of it."(98pts)

nc2007 Montrachet - Vintage 1989Ramonet

"The 1989 Montrachet (of which there are 2 barrels from 70-year old vines) attained a natural alcohol level of 14.8%. So much for those oenologist's wines made within safe technical parameters! I realize few readers will ever get a chance to taste this wine, but as you can imagine, it boasts unbelievable concentration and viscosity. It is not as thick and unctuous as the Montrachet made by the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, but it does possess exquisite balance and length. All things considered, I would wait 10 years before popping the cork. It will drink well for at least the first two decades of the next century. For those Hollywood superstars and multi-million dollar athletes that might be readers, Ramonet still thinks his 1986 Montrachet is the best of the decade, and considers 1989 the pretender to the throne."(97pts)

2008 Montrachet - Vintage 1990*Ramonetnl*

"We started with a 1990 Ramonet Montrachet out of magnum. The 1990 had an amazing nose full of vigor; it was classic Ramonet all the way. The nose was full of butter, cream and sweet corn combined with the perfect toast, and a perfect minerality. It was sexxy juice. The palate was rich, long and fabulous and also smooth, tasty and classic. If anything negative could be said about the wine, it would be that it was more ready to drink than I would have thought out of magnum. Brian liked the 1990 and found it 'crisp and clean, as it should be'."

"Classic young Bonnes Mares with its austere, firm exterior yet with a breathtakingly intense inner core of fiery fruit and extract of pinot. The sweet tannins are mouth coating and the texture almost liquorous yet there is a certain tension here that adds a note of mystery, as though the wine has much more to reveal than its presently hinting at. This may well have the best balance and overall material of any of these 99s and I have long believed that it is the most underrated wine in the Dujac portfolio. Captivating in every sense." 2046 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2015*Aux Malconsorts, Dujac"Domaine Dujac's 2015 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Aux Malconsorts is one of the highlights of a superb range, bursting from the glass with aromas of blackberry, cassis, plum, rose petal, licorice and spice. Despite its aromatic flamboyance, on the palate the wine is controlled even reserved with immense concentration and a bottomless core, its tannins fine-grained but firm, asserting themselves on the finish. The overriding impression is of depth and substance, but this Malconsorts is clearly shutting down; those with the patience to cellar it for a decade or more will reap the rewards. I was momentarily whisked back to my youth, pot-holing in the Lake District, that tang of limestone and moorland in the air. The palate is medium-bodied with fine-grain tannin. As Alec Seysses remarked, there is more "wine" in the Malconsorts compared to the Beaux Monts. It has brilliant delineation and a very complex finish that fans out with real confidence. Coche-Dury

"The 2015 Meursault Village is showing very well, unfurling in the glass with notes of crisp yellow orchard fruit, Anjou pear, white flowers, honeycomb and hazelnut cream. On the palate, the wine is medium to full-bodied, satiny and pure, with beautiful balance, succulent underlying acids and an elegant framing of dry extract that lends a mouthwatering quality to the long, penetrating finish. Without either the strong cooperage or reductive signatures of yesteryear's Coche-Dury, it exemplifies the new stylistic direction taken by Raphaël Coche, and it's a terrific success, surpassing both the 2014 and 2013 renditions." "The 2005 Coche-Dury Meursault Perrières was super fat and much chunkier like some 2005s can be. At first, this lacked the definition of the 2002, but it had loads of brawn and weight. It was rich, sweet, and unctuous 'per the Curious Gourmet. It got better and better, becoming slightly zippier in the glass, continuing to blossom. The bouquet is astonishing: laden with limestone scents, white peach, citrus peel and just a hint of truffle that all exhibit razor-sharp delineation. The palate is vibrant and quintessential Perrières, leaning as it does towards Puligny in style. There is a light lick of wild honey towards the finish that lingers seductively in the mouth and then a deliriously fine honeycomb note on the aftertaste. "A myriad of spices and anise-spiked pears are found in the highly expressive nose of the 2001 Corton-Charlemagne. Medium to full-bodied, with levels of dry extract that would tip the scales, and a supple, fleshy character of intense width and power; this wine is amazing. Magnificently supple, yet focused, boisterous, yet refined, thick, yet balanced, it possesses a finish that easily lasts for over a minute. Moreover, it has all the ear-marks of perfection. This velvety-textured wine is jam-packed with minerals immersed in pear syrup, copious spices (including clove, ginger, and juniper berries), as well as a distinctive note of apple sauce. 2082 Meursault - Vintage 2004*Coche-Dury*

"After a splendid bottle last year, this 2004 Meursault from Domaine Coche-Dury did not hit the same stellar heights. It just did not show quite the same ethereal level of precision and focus as the previous example, perhaps more backward and reticent than I was expecting. It takes time but eventually that gunflint aroma begins to emerge and you start thinking about Coche-Dury. The palate is vibrant and captivating, very well defined with supremely well judged acidity, vibrant citrus lemon and mineral notes with a long finish. "Tasted at the La Tâche vertical at The Square. Not having tasted the La Tâche 1980 for 14 years, I must admit that I had high expectations for this wine and it truly delivered. Ignore the pale color, the extensive bricking on the rim because you will be transfixed by the nose. It is absolutely ethereal with quite brilliant transparency, fleeting glimpses of wild heather, jasmine, rose petals and Lapsong Souchang. The palate is fresh and tense, gently building in the mouth with all the delicacy you can imagine. No, there is not the length here but it is far fresher than the 1985 La Tâche with a sense of nervosité on the finish. Of all the vintages of La Tâche this is one of the most impressive and also the most difficult to put into words. It is simply a heavenly Pinot Noir at its peak."(98pts)

2108 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 1980*Domaine de la Romanée Contibsl*

"Bricked through to the center. A complex, wonderfully fragrant nose of spices, strawberry and a hint of sous bois is followed by rich, soft, round, supple flavors and a satiny mouth coating finish that goes on and on. This is easily the best bottle that I have ever had as several other recent examples have been pretty but clearly declining. By contrast, this was a truly lovely wine of impressive balance, concentration, elegance and length."(92pts BH)

2109 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2015*Aux Malconsorts, Dujac1x6 bottle ocb*

"Domaine Dujac's 2015 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Aux Malconsorts is one of the highlights of a superb range, bursting from the glass with aromas of blackberry, cassis, plum, rose petal, licorice and spice. Despite its aromatic flamboyance, on the palate the wine is controlled even reserved with immense concentration and a bottomless core, its tannins fine-grained but firm, asserting themselves on the finish. The overriding impression is of depth and substance, but this Malconsorts is clearly shutting down; those with the patience to cellar it for a decade or more will reap the rewards."(96+pts)

2110 Gevrey Chambertin - Vintage 2005*Clos St. Jacques, Vieilles Vignes, Fourrier1crc, 1x12 bottle ocb*

"Fourrier's 2005 Gevrey-Chambertin Clos St.-Jacques reveals a gorgeous aroma of black fruits, rose, truffle, tea and musk, a marrowy, creamy richness of texture, and a riveting finishing complexity of fruit, meat, flowers, pungent spices and minerals. If this is not a case of progression into the territory of grand cru quality, I don't know what is. I would plan to start following this from ten years out and anticipate at least a second decade of improvement."(94-95pts)

2114 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 1996*Bonneau du Martray1nc, 1x12 bottle owc*

"The nose was toasty and nice, reserved yet with style. Light coconut and rainwater aromas graced the nose. Tom thought the wine was served too cold, and it was a bit muted, but it was chock full of flavors. A veritable spice box city, the wine was long, smooth and lush with great minerals and slate on its finish. Pure yellow fruits and stone cold flavors made this exquisite wine very enjoyable, although I was looking for a pinch more acidity in my 1996."(94pts JK)

2116 Meursault - Vintage 2000*Les Rougeots, Coche-Dury1l1l, 1wc*

"A completely different expression than any of the foregoing wines, which is interesting since the vineyard abuts Chevali res. This is classic Meursault in style with round, rich, generous, "warm" fruit and flavors, offering toasted nut and butter aromas plus fresh sliced peach, apricot and apple scents but gorgeously complex, intense, refined and beautifully precise flavors of terrific focus and cut. But it is the superb depth on the finish that really set this apart and this delivers such quality that it is almost a match for the Perrières, a compliment in anyone's book." (93pts BH)

2118 Meursault - Vintage 1986*Perrières, Coche-Dury2nl*

"With only a handful of exceptions, my experience with Coche-Dury's wines has taught me that they are about as profound white burgundies as one is likely to find. The fully mature 1986 Meursault-Les Perrières reveals huge aromas of sweet, buttery, apple fruit, grilled nuts, and smoke. The fabulous texture and richness that Coche-Dury routinely appears to achieve is evident, as well as a fascinating, unctuous richness, enough acidity to provide focus, and a spectacularly long finish." 2121 Chevalier Montrachet - Vintage 1995*Domaine Leflaive3cm bc, lbsl*

"Wine of the vintage. Ultra-refined and sweet-tasting, elegant and amazingly seamless, this '95 white Burgundy has the texture of extra-virgin olive oil, and a decadent charm. Supple and smooth, full in body and medium in concentration, it shows wonderful vanilla, pear, bread dough flavors and a superthick midpalate. Melts in the mouth; so subtle its long, refined finish comes as a surprise. Drink now through 2010." (100pts WS)

"The 1979 Ramonet Montrachet was so young out of magnum with a rich, buttery nose that had a fireplace spark with the brick house casing. The wine sparkled on the palate and had a crazy intense finish. This magnum was about as good as it gets, if it didn't follow the 1978, it probably would have gotten 99 points from me." (98+pts JK)

Gripping phenolics and tactile mineral intensity chalk, tangerine and grapefruit zest, white pepper are imbedded in a lusciously rich yet fresh white peach and citrus matrix so vivid I almost expected to find pulp in the bottom of my glass. In its elegant, shimmering interplay of mineral and fruit dimensions and scintillating, bitter-sweet floral perfume, and nut oils all allied to tactile grip this reminds me also of a great Riesling or Gruner Veltliner from the Wachau's Achleit-en." There is really beautiful detail to the stony, sappy and sleekly muscular middle weight flavors that display a lovely sense of harmony and vibrancy on the moderately dry and impressively persistent finish. FIVE OF OUR FAVORITE THINGS FROM A SEASONED COLLECTOR

We proudly present twenty plus exquisite Burgundy selections offering a glimpse into the much larger cellar of a seasoned Midwest collector. This installment offers five of our favorite things: rare 1990s gems from Dujac, Roumier, and Lignier, and exceptional offerings from DRC and Rousseau. All wines properly kept in climate-controlled storage.

2134 Chambertin - Vintage 1988

Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau

lbsl, ltl

"The 1988 Rousseau Chambertin Clos de Bèze that followed was just starting to sing, as many top 1988s are. After decades of tight fruit and hard finishes, the 1988s have finally arrived. There was great perfume to this Bèze. It was rich and sumptuous with autumnal tea leaves and game qualities. Sous bois was definitely there, as was rich and flavorful bouillon flavors."(95pts JK)

2135 Chambertin - Vintage 1989

Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau

2136 La Tâche - Vintage 1993

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

1-3cm bc, 2lbsl, 2ltl, 1spc

"The 1993 DRC La Tâche is the forgotten, great young vintage of La Tâche. It really needed some time to open up, at first a bit herbal, very tight and structured. After some time, its density, balance and tannins took over, and its palate and acidity were enormous, even longer than the 99 although not as dense. Rose, iron and tea all reluctantly emerged in the mouth in this Frankenstein of a La Tâche, a Frankenstein that graduated from Harvard, that is."(97+pts JK)

2 bottles per lot $6000-8000

2137 Richebourg - Vintage 2002

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

1x3 bottle owc

"This is pungently floral with fresh rose notes nuanced by intense red fruits and a deep, wonderfully attractive plummy hint followed by powerfully spiced flavors that offer impeccable balance and real muscle plus a sappy, palate staining finish. The tannins are extremely fine in this vintage and there is a lovely suppleness to the mid-palate without its usual robustness; in fact, there is a pretty textured quality to the structure."(95pts BH)

2138 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 1990

Dujac

1nl, 2nc, 1cuc

"...enjoys the most saturated, deep ruby color, and a tightly knit, closed nose, which, with coaxing, offers up smells of meat, soy, sweet black fruits, and toasty vanillin oak. It is splendidly rich and well-delineated, with full body, exceptional extraction of flavor, impeccable balance, and a long, deep finish."(94pts)

This was both classy and gorgeous which is not always an easy combination to come by lol. 2157 La Romanée - Vintage 2005

"As good as the Reignots is, it's immediately clear that this is at another level with its positively kaleidoscopic and utterly knockout nose featuring exuberant Vosne-style spicy black fruit and a panoply of underlying nuances including anise, clove, minerals, underbrush, warm earth and smoke introduce much more reserved, even cool medium full flavors that are like silk on the palate though the hugely long finish tightens up in a real rush. This is really quite fine and less youthfully austere than it usually is at this early stage. This is also a stunner of a wine with that wonderful character of inner mouth perfume that the great wines always have plus it's built for the long haul." (97pts BH)

2171 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 1999*Cros Parantoux, H. JayerIwisl, 2cuc*

"Ooh la la, ah oui oui. The 1999 Jayer Vosne Romanée Cros Parantoux redefined the word sexy. Martine hailed it as a wild beast,' and Gil observed, gunpowder and Chinese black oolong tea.' There was an ocean of fruit here; one had to swim through it to find structure on its shores. This was 1999 at its finest. The pitch was insane, shattering my nose as if it was meant to be an ear drum, and its perfume lingered like memories of a perfect home-cooked meal from Mom. While adolescent, its creamy, purple fruit said it was ready for the draft, and its nose was described as fireworks,' a chameleon,' and spearmint.' Thierry hailed it as brighter, better and fresher' than the great 1990, a bold statement, indeed. Its flavors were dessert-y without being sweet decadent, exotic, hedonistic, take your pick. Gil observed, caramel Crème brulee,' and beef and citrus tried to join the party. This wine was bordering on pornographic, and we were all...in awe :)." (98pts JK)

Here the nose is unusually expressive rather than its usual brooding character with pretty, even elegant aromas of spicy red pinot and purple fruit and warm earth notes that can also be found on the powerful but detailed, indeed almost nervous flavors that possess excellent precision and a very attractive underlying tension on the explosive finish that delivers flat out incredible length. 2005 is the best vintage for this wine that I've seen since Mugnier took over." 2178 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 1999*Vieilles Vignes, Ponsot*

"This was a magical bottle of the 1999 Clos de la Roche Grand Cru Cuvée Vieilles Vignes, a wine that's just beginning to hit its stride as it approaches its 20th birthday, unfurling in the glass with aromas of red berries, cassis, dark chocolate, cinnamon, dried rose petals and orange rind. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, deep and immensely concentrated, with a broad attack, lovely acids and a formidable reserve of creamy old-vine fruit, structured around a chalky chassis of tannin that evokes the great old Burgundies of yesteryear. Concluding with a long and expansive finish, this is still a young wine, and another two decades of aging won't be a problem. But it's now clear that this ranks as one of Ponsot's greatest recent hits and one of the high points of this reputed vintage." (98pts)

RED BURGUNDY WITH A BIT OF AGE FROM A NOTED CONNOISSEUR

Red Burgundies from the aughts and early tens are graciously shared courtesy of a respected connoisseur. A distinguished member of wine societies and a seasoned writer who travels to Burgundy often, our consignor eagerly embraces each new vintage. Offering over twenty lots, this collection features revered selections from DRC, Comte Liger-Belair, and Meo Camuzet, including more treasures from the superb 2005 vintage. All wines ideally stored.

2180 Échézeaux - Vintage 2011

Comte Liger-Belair

Ilwrl

"...is another superb example of the vintage. The glorious bouquet offers up a blend of red and black raspberries, a touch of blood orange, duck, great minerality, woodsmoke, Vosne spice and cedary wood. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and utterly seamless, with a rock solid core of fruit, exceptional focus and balance, ripe tannins and a long, pure and youthful finish of magical promise. A great bottle of Echézeaux in the making." (96pts JG)

2181 La Romanée - Vintage 2007

Comte Liger-Belair

"Louis-Michel Liger-Belair's 2007 La Romanée is one of the wines of the vintage and is showing stunning aromatic and flavor complexity at age seven, but it is still emphatically a young wine and more patience will be very richly rewarded! The absolutely brilliant bouquet delivers an celestial blend of raspberries, a touch of blood orange, red plums, cinnamon, incipient notes of duck, a kaleidoscopic base of soil tones, woodsmoke and cedar. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and very light on its feet, with exquisite intensity of flavor, great complexity, a sappy core of fruit, great soil signature and great focus and grip on the tangy and modestly tannic finish. This wine is already very accessible and hard not to drink, but it has not yet developed its secondary layers of complexity and will be even better in another three or four years. A brilliant 2007!" The stunning bouquet delivers a suave mix of black plums, red and black raspberries, duck, a gloriously complex base of soil, exotic spices, a touch of lead pencil, fresh herb tones and spicy new oak. The brilliant nose soars from the glass in a haunting mélange of black raspberries, dark plums, a stunningly complex base of soil, Vosne spices, some very elegant, savory herb tones, duck and a stylish base of spicy new wood. 2186 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2006*Les Petits Monts, Comte Liger-Belair2vlscl*

"A new Liger-Belair acquisition that like their Chaumes their 2006 Vosne Romanée Les Petits Monts accounts for a mere 50 cases, and, incredibly, was blended with Les Brulées and sold merely as "Vosne" by its former caretaker. Distilled and dried red fruits, along with pungent spiciness the latter accentuated by notes of oak are the themes here as in so many other wines of this collection. There is an almost horseradish-like nip on the palate here, which in alliance with brash distilled fruit brightness, tartness of fruit skin, and ginger spice leaves the tongue sizzling and aquiver. A distinctly saline savor adds further, mouth-watering appeal in a penetrating finish. This very treble wine should be fascinating to follow for at least the next 6-8 years." (91pts)

2187 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2011*Les Suchots, Comte Liger-Belair*

The flavor profile is intense yet suave with superb depth of extract and stunning complexity plus a long, extremely persistent finish. This simply reeks class and is extremely impressive with layer after detailed layer. While it could be drunk now with pleasure because of the incredible velvety quality of the finish, it will clearly be better in 5 years and should last for another 25 years. It has a very seductive bouquet with a hint of licorice in the background, detailed and gaining intensity in the glass. The palate is very well defined, harmonious on the entry with bitter lemon and orange zest. There is compelling energy here -- this Chassagne just flows across the mouth and the finish is so vivid. EXQUISITE BURGUNDY FROM A SERIOUS BON VIVANT

We present to you a sweet sixteen selections from a dedicated Burgundy collector we have had the pleasure of knowing for two decades! His refined palate has been nurtured through generous sharing from his personal cellar and indulging in the venerable collections of New York City's finest restaurants. Behold dazzling reds from DRC, Dujac, and Mayer, alongside shimmering whites from Coche-Dury and Dauvissat. All wines removed from professional storage.

2201 Chambertin - Vintage 1996

A. Rousseau

"As great as so many of the wines that we had already tasted on this magical evening, this next flight of reds absolutely stole the show. It began with a spectacular bottle courtesy of Big Mike. The first thing I wrote was, WOW. The Rousseau was meaty, intense and DEEP; it was full of rose, iron, crushed red fruits, vitamins, tannins, alcohol, acidity, brick, iron, wildfire it was game over. As Eli decreed, that's it. The palate was rich, hearty and incredible with its rose, oil, game and vitamin flavors. This was wine was flat out incredible." (97pts JK)

There was great perfume to this Bèze. It was rich and sumptuous with autumnal tea leaves and game qualities. Sous bois was definitely there, as was rich and flavorful bouillon flavors." (95pts JK)

2204 Richebourg - Vintage 2012

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"The Richebourg 2012 was picked September 27-28 at just 19 hectoliters per hectare, one of the lowest yields in this vintage. This has a serious bouquet, reserved at first, more earth than air. Unusual for this cuvée, there is a sense of exoticism here, a Richebourg daring to show a bit of ankle. Blackberry pastille intermingle with wilted violets, and there is a touch of warmth that belies the precocity of the growing season. Leaving it aside for 10 minutes, there are hints of Provençal herbs, broom and even fennel. The palate is medium-bodied and the first thing that strikes you is its backbone. Well, this is Richebourg after all. But there is an arching structure to this wine that is disguised by the silkiness of its texture, plus an almost citrus freshness and brightness on the finish. This is a Richebourg that will make you giddy with pleasure. 634 cases produced." (97pts)

2205 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2011

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"Discreet wood sets off a wonderfully elegant, airy and ultra-pure dark pinot fruit nose that is perhaps even more reticent and shut down than the La Tâche and only seriously aggressive swirling can reveal stubborn notes of rose petal, spice and menthol influence. The ultra-silky but firm medium-scaled flavors are also blessed with an impressive abundance of dry extract that buffers the prominent but ripe supporting tannins on the moderately austere, deep and palate coating finish. The length here is genuinely amazing, indeed even at this early juncture this is already the longest wine in the range. As it virtually always is at this point in its development, this is an exercise in understatement, poise and controlled power with an unrivaled purity of expression. In sum, this is Zen-like. As to whether it will ultimately be better than the La Tâche in 2011 remains to be seen but for now the two seem to be neck and neck from a purely qualitative perspective." (96pts BH)

"This is certainly one of, if not the, most floral wine in the range in 2011 with the possible exception of the Richebourg. The extraordinarily elegant and airy nose is positively kaleidoscopic in its sheer breadth of spice elements that combine with the stunningly pure red and black raspberry fruit aromas that are liberally laced with rose petal nuances. The lacy, intense and beautifully precise middle weight flavors are harmonious and impeccably well-balanced on the fabulously long and silky finish where a touch of youthful asperity is present. 2207 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2012*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x6 bottle owc*

"The 2012 Romanée St Vivant, incidentally served before Richebourg rather than afterwards unlike previous years, was picked on September 28 and 29 at 24 hectoliters per hectare. There is a wondrous, ethereal purity to this 2012, a little more sumptuous than I recall it from barrel, with kirsch and freshly picked strawberries. As it opens, it gains more and more sensuality. The palate is rounded, almost curvaceous in the mouth, clearly more concentrated than the 2011 with a sense of authority and purpose, a bit of daring-do on the long finish. It leaves a slightly ferrous residue on the aftertaste, completing what is a marvelous and sensual Grand Cru. 1,148 cases produced." (96pts)

2218 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2011*Coche-Dury*

"The 2011 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru has an exquisite bouquet that truly deserves the phrase "liquid mineral." Imagine a limestone quarry being melted down and then distilled multiple times until there is just enough to fill your wine glass. The palate has perfect acidity and subtle spicy notes on the entry: hints of lime flower, citrus lemon and a subtle note of mandarin coming through with aeration. It exhibits balletic poise on the finish a sensational Corton-Charlemagne that just may turn out to be just as good as the 2010." (96pts)

2 bottles per lot $8000-11000

2219 Meursault - Vintage 2014*Coche-Dury3ssos*

"The 2014 Meursault Villages has a well defined bouquet with grapefruit, apple blossom and subtle chalky scents that needed a little encouragement from the glass. The palate is fresh with crisp acidity. It feels lively at first and then seems to mellow in the glass, offering a light twist of sour lemon on the pretty finish. It is a delightful village cru that should bestow several years of pleasure, possibly more." (91pts)

6 bottles per lot $5000-7000

2220 Meursault - Vintage 2011*Les Caillerets, Coche-DuryIssos*

"...has a refined bouquet with yellow flowers and shucked oyster shells, that telltale note of reduction giving away the identity of the grower. There is a beautiful line of acidity on the palate, rendering this a tense and shimmering Meursault that delivers a precise chalky finish that lingers long in the mouth." (93pts)

2224 Ruchottes Chambertin - Vintage 1996

Bonnefond

2 bottles per lot $1200-1600

2225 Ruchottes Chambertin - Vintage 2006

C. Roumier

"Contrary to the usual pattern, this is actually more expressive than the Charmes with its cool, refined, pure and ripe nose of red and dark berry fruit that includes elements of truffle, crushed herb, earth and minerality, all of which can be found on the very primary and very fresh, sappy, powerful and focused flavors that are serious and while the underlying material of the Charmes is good, this is clearly better which is important because the tannins here are also moderately firmer and denser." (92pts BH)

2 bottles per lot $1400-1800

2226 Musigny - Vintage 2015

Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue

1x6 bottle owc

"A kaleidoscopically spicy and broad-ranging nose grudgingly reveals notes of red cherry, cassis, plum, violet, Asian-style tea, sandalwood and hoisin. The velvety and mouth coating imposingly-scaled and intense mineral-driven flavors are blessed with seemingly endless reserves of dry extract that coat the palate on the highly seductive finish that delivers fantastically good length on the youthfully austere, backward and immaculately well-balanced finale. This opulent yet very serious effort is also going to require a very long snooze in a very cool cellar but it should be a remarkable Musigny when it finally emerges." (97pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $3500-5000

2227 Échézeaux - Vintage 2011

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"A discreet touch of wood sets off the gorgeously floral, ripe and wonderfully spicy nose of red currant, menthol, black cherry and cassis aromas. There is impressive volume and richness to the naturally sweet, silky and mouth coating medium weight flavors that are shaped by fine-grained tannins on the firm, complex, balanced and strikingly persistent finale that really fans out as it lingers on the palate." (93pts BH)

1 magnum per lot $4000-6000

2228 Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2011

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"...has a fragrant bouquet, perhaps the most refined since Aubert de Villaine and his team took guardianship of the vineyard. Leaving the wine to unfurl over ten minutes, there are subtle ferrous notes that surface with passing moments, hints of wild mushroom infusing the brambly red fruit. The palate is crisp on the entry with hints of bitter cherry and a touch of white pepper." (94pts)

1 magnum per lot $4500-6000

2229 La Tâche - Vintage 2011

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

1x6 bottle banded owc

"As it was from cask this is more restrained than usual and it requires aggressive swirling to coax the pure and spicy essence of red berry fruit aromas to emerge from the glass where there is a slight hint of herbal tea present. There is a similar reserve to the distinctly focused and linear flavors that enjoy a seemingly unlimited reserve of dry extract that renders the fine-grained and silky tannins almost invisible at present though I suspect that they will become much more apparent once the baby fat melts away." 2230 La Tâche - Vintage 2014*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x6 bottle banded owc*

"The 2014 La Tâche Grand Cru is a very refined nose, so much so that blind I might mistake it from Romanée-Conti (as I opined to Bertrand de Villaine himself). Very precise, extremely pure and with wonderful mineralité, there is a lucidity embroidered into this wine. The palate is medium-bodied, symmetrical, with a little edginess creeping in here that lends the finish a sense of animation. The fruit shades from red to more black as it opens, yet the aftertaste is extraordinarily long and persistent. There is a kind of magic in this La Tâche."(96-98pts)

6 bottles

per lot $20000-28000

2231 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2011*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x3 bottle banded owc*

"Discreet wood sets off a wonderfully elegant, airy and ultra-pure dark pinot fruit nose that is perhaps even more reticent and shut down than the La Tâche and only seriously aggressive swirling can reveal stubborn notes of rose petal, spice and menthol influence. The ultra-silky but firm medium-scaled flavors are also blessed with an impressive abundance of dry extract that buffers the prominent but ripe supporting tannins on the moderately austere, deep and palate coating finish. The length here is genuinely amazing, indeed even at this early juncture this is already the longest wine in the range. As it virtually always is at this point in its development, this is an exercise in understatement, poise and controlled power with an unrivaled purity of expression. In sum, this is Zen-like. As to whether it will ultimately be better than the La Tâche in 2011 remains to be seen but for now the two seem to be neck and neck from a purely qualitative perspective."(96pts BH)

3 bottles

per lot $35000-50000

2232 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2014*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x3 bottle banded owc*

"This is notably less expressive but not necessarily mute with its restrained aromas of red currant, anise, clove, hoisin, sandalwood and once again Asian-style tea, all of which is trimmed in nuances of rose petal and lavender. The remarkably intense and beautifully well-detailed middle weight flavors possess a completely different texture before culminating in a stony, powerful, focused and explosively long finish that delivers sneaky good length because just as it appears to be dying away, it reappears."(97pts BH)

3 bottles

per lot $40000-55000

2233 Chambertin - Vintage 2018*Clos de Bèze, Les Ouvrées Rodin, Faiveley1x3 bottle owc*

"Once again moderately prominent wood still allows the overtly spicy and floral-inflected dark currant, black cherry and discreet earth nuances to be appreciated. The mid-palate of the broad-shouldered flavors is pliant yet intense and muscular while the driving finish possesses breathtakingly good depth and persistence on the imposingly structured but not really rigid or unduly austere finale. This will live for decades and need at least 10 to 15 to be approachable with pleasure."(94-97pts)

3 bottles

per lot $1400-1800

2234 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2006*G. Roumier*

"There was a chalkiness to its nose, and some gas in the mask, so to speak. Someone noted about Roumier, the darkest fruit of the Côte de Nuits. 'Slate, hot rubber and acid were prominent in this dungeonsque red. Hamburger called 2006 an underrated vintage'"(94pts JK)

1 bottle

2235 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2015*Bonneau du Martray1x6 bottle owc*

"The 2015 Corton Charlemagne Grand Cru from Bonneau du Martray reveals a youthful nose of citrus zest, white flowers, tart pineapple and struck flint, framed by some spicy new oak. On the palate, this full-bodied wine reveals tension and definition that it seemed to miss in barrel, its glossy attack now backed by a nicely chalky structure and a deep, properly reserved core. This will need some time in the bottle to integrate, but its evolution is very promising, and while this is unusually rich and concentrated those qualities don't come at the expense of terroir."(93pts)

2236 Puligny Montrachet - Vintage 2014*Les Pucelles, Domaine Leflaive1x6 bottle owc*

"Tasted blind at the annual Burgfest tasting, Leflaive's 2014 Puligny Montrachet 1er Cru Pucelles, which was the first vintage not bottled under cork (Diam "D" to be exact), is quite closed on the bouquet with cold stone and sea cave aromas that blossom with time. The palate is well balanced with a very sappy entry, a fine line of acidity and a crisp, quite spicy and persistent finish. I just think this Caillerets is very backward at the moment and will have more to give once afforded 2-3 years in bottle. This is a scintillating Les Pucelles, and guess what...it's not going to be corked!"(95pts)

"A classic Meursault nose consists of pure and very fresh hazelnut, white orchard fruit and acacia blossom aromas that are trimmed in subtle wood nuances. The borderline painfully intense medium-bodied flavors possess excellent punch and very good mid-palate concentration before terminating in a taut and delineated finish that displays a distinct saline character along with hints of citrus. This beautifully understated wine of finesse is notably finer than the Porusot if not possessing nearly the same degree of power." (92-94pts BH)

DAZZLING DRC FROM A WORLDLY ENTREPRENEUR

We are pleased to present a lucky thirteen lots from a passionate entrepreneur and noted antiquarian who splits time between the US and France. This selection from his cellar, four decades in the making, unveils exclusively DRC from recent vintages, all acquired upon release!! Behold five lovely lots of La Tache and five dazzling selections of Romanee Conti itself, alongside Richebourg and Corton Charlemagne. All wines removed from a combination of professional storage and temperature-controlled home cellar.

2241 La Tâche - Vintage 2016

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"As is often the case, the highly perfumed nose is the most floral-inflected of the range with its equally cool and restrained array of violet and rose petal scents that combine with an extraordinary group of spice elements on the essence of red currant aromas. The mouthfeel of the imposingly-scaled and powerful flavors is again robust yet refined with just as much minerality as the Richebourg adding even more lift to the almost painfully intense and extravagantly long finish that also just goes and goes." (98pts BH)

2 bottles

2242 La Tâche - Vintage 2017

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"The 2017 La Tâche Grand Cru soars from the glass with a captivating and beautifully integrated bouquet of exotic spices, rose petals, raspberries, cherries and blood orange mingled with notions of cinnamon and coniferous forest floor. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, deep and multidimensional, with a deep and tightly coiled core that marks it out as the most muscular wine in the cellar, displaying considerable concentration and largely concealed structure. While this is a dramatic young La Tâche, there's evidently plenty held in reserve, too, and it simply has appreciably more presence than any of the other wines that preceded it in this tasting." (96+pts)

5 bottles

per lot $15000-20000

2243 La Tâche - Vintage 2018

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"...is typical in 2018 with its restrained and beautifully layered nose of rose petal, violet, lavender, lilac, sandalwood and soy nuances that add incredible breadth to the mostly red berry-suffused aromas, all of which is trimmed in very subtle oak influence. There is outstanding volume to the big, muscular and robust flavors that also possess focused power where the intensity does a slow build from the mid-palate to the explosively long and decidedly austere finish that just lasts and lasts." (99pts BH)

3 bottles

per lot $10000-14000

2244 La Tâche - Vintage 2019

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"... is also quite restrained and only grudgingly offers up a kaleidoscopic range of spice elements that are laced with a wonderful array of floral nuances on the red and dark berry fruit scents. There is superb detail to the muscular big-bodied flavors that brim with both minerality and dry extract before culminating in an explosively long, balanced, youthfully austere and harmonious finish." 2245 La Tâche - Vintage 2020

2246 Richebourg - Vintage 2019

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"As is usually the case, there is even better size, weight and mid-palate density to the big-bodied and very serious mineral-driven flavors that possess that wonderful inner mouth perfume along with a highly seductive texture that gradually gives way to a hugely long finish." (97pts BH)

2247 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2012*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The surprisingly expressive nose is almost completely dominated by various floral aromas that include violets, lavender and rose petal. There is of course a broad array of spice elements to the red and black currant aromas but they are nuances compared to the floral characters. The wonderfully intense and concentrated middle weight plus flavors possess arguably even more dry extract that, for the moment anyway, pushes the firm tannic spine completely to the background and as such the mouth feel is incredibly rich and opulent. While Romanée-Conti is almost always astonishingly complex it is not always more so than the La Tâche but in 2012 the king of complexity in the DRC range is indisputably Romanée-Conti. There is also a remarkable amount of minerality and the overall impression is one of seamless harmony."(98pts BH)

2248 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2017*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"Wafting from the glass with a deep and complex bouquet of dark wild berries, cassis, wilted rose petals, blood orange, exotic spices, licorice and coniferous forest floor, the 2017 Romanée-Conti Grand Cru is full-bodied, satiny textured and multidimensional. It's just as powerful as this year's La Tâche but even more elegantly framed by filigree structure, concluding with an intensely sapid and penetratingly fragrant finish. Pristinely balanced, this young Romanée-Conti possesses huge reserves for the long haul despite its deceptively supple youthful appeal, and it will reward extended bottle age."(98pts)

1 bottle per lot $13000-17000

2249 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2018*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"This is arguably the most floral-inflected nose in the range and, somewhat unusually, it's just as spicy as the La Tâche despite being as cool and restrained as it always is at this early stage. The focused, intense and beautifully well-delineated flavors are an exercise in refined and focused power, all wrapped in intensely mineral-inflected, youthfully austere and superbly persistent finish where a hint of warmth slowly emerges. In much the same fashion as the La Tâche, this is compact, backward and very tightly coiled yet the Zen-like sense of harmony is very much present."(99+pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $14000-18000

2250 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2019*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"Waiting for the wine to open pays dividends, revealing exquisitely-defined brambly red fruit, incense and red roses. There is a very slight gamey element, not strong, but just lingers off-stage. The palate is medium-bodied with lace-like tannins that frame the otherworldly, pure, red fruit."(100pts VM)

2251 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2020*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

2252 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2019*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"There is enough wood to point out surrounding the mildly exotic and phenolic aromas of dried white and yellow orchard fruit that possess intricate nuances of spice, Asian-style tea, fennel, floral wisps and wet stone. I very much like the highly seductive texture of the caressing and beautifully concentrated mineral-driven big-bodied flavors that display stunningly good length on the very dry and impeccably well-balanced finale."(96pts BH)

2256 Château Haut Brion - Vintage 1989

Graves

"This continues to be one of the immortal wines and one of the greatest young Bordeaux wines of the last half-century. Consistently prodigious and almost a sure bet to top the scoring card of any blind tasting of this vintage as well as other years, the 1989 Haut-Brion is a seamless, majestic classic, and a tribute to this phenomenal terroir and its singular characteristics. The wine still has a very thick, viscous-looking ruby/purple color, a spectacular, young but awesome smorgasbord of aromas ranging from scorched earth, liquid minerals, graphite, blackberry and black currant jam to toast, licorice, and spice box. The levels of fruit, extract, and glycerin in this viscous, full-bodied, low-acid wine are awe-inspiring. The brilliant symmetry of the wine, extraordinary purity, and seamlessness are the hallmarks of a modern-day legend."(100pts)

"1990: In terms of the brilliant complexity and nobility of the aromatics, scorched earth, black currants, plums, charcoal, cedar, and spices, the 1990 offers an aromatic explosion that is unparalleled. It is always fascinating to taste this wine next to the 1989, which is a monumental effort, but much more backward and denser, without the aromatic complexity of the 1990. The 1990 put on weight after bottling, and is currently rich, full-bodied, opulent, even flamboyant by Haut Brion's standards. It is an incredible expression of a noble terroir in a top vintage."(98pts)

2259 Batard Montrachet - Vintage 1999*Domaine Leflaive1x6 bottle owc*

"The 1999 Bâtard Montrachet Grand Cru from Domaine Leflaive is blessed with a stunning gunflint nose that soars from the glass. It is supremely well controlled and actually shows up the 1999 Chevalier-Montrachet tasted alongside. The palate is rich in the glass with light honeyed tones intermingling with lime, marzipan and citrus lemon. As you would expect, there is superb mineralité locked into this wine, though it is expressed more aromatically than on the palate. Still, it is a deeply impressive wine and it should continue to give pleasure over the next decade at least."(94pts)

2260 Batard Montrachet - Vintage 2000*Domaine Leflaive1x6 bottle ocb*

"A big, voluptuous Burgundy, the 2000 Bâtard-Montrachet captures all of the personality of this site in its large-scaled frame and pure density. All of that energy is focused inward, though, as the Bâtard is not at all showy, but rather a wine of structure."(95pts VM)

2261 Batard Montrachet - Vintage 2011*Domaine Leflaive1x6 bottle owc*

"Tasted blind at the Burgundy 2011 horizontal tasting in Beaune. The Bâtard-Montrachet 2011 from Anne-Claude Leflaive is slightly deeper in color than its peers. The nose is a little austere at first, but it unfolds nicely with impressive mineral (slate and flint) scents, well defined and poised. The palate is well balanced with a keen thread of acidity. There is a bright citric heart to this Bâtard-Montrachet with fleeting touches of nectarine and citrus lemon joining the edgy mineral finish. This is a classy Grand Cru regal but not imposing."(95pts)

2265 Bienvenue Batard Montrachet - Vintage 2007*Domaine Leflaive1x6 bottle owc*

"...smells of lily, heliotrope, and narcissus, white peach, pineapple, and toasted nuts. With infectious primary juiciness of ripe fruit accompanied by liquid floral perfume on the palate, and transparent to saline and chalky nuances, this is creamy and rich without sacrificing refreshment or a sense of lift and delicacy. For all of its alluring perfume and suggestions of sweetness, the finish here is remarkably dominated by saline, stony, and savory yet still mineral characteristics."(94pts)

"Very fresh, bright medium yellow. Knockout mineral-saturated scents of lemon cream, lime oil, acacia flower, vanilla, crushed stone, nut oil and iodine. Sappy and vibrant but at the same time utterly seamless, offering a compelling combination of refinement, concentration (especially impressive in light of the year's full yields) and acid balance. The wine's outstanding mineral tension is intensified by its brisk acidity--or is it the other way around? This is an exhilarating and truly exceptional grand cru but I would not describe it as an easy drink. Finishes with powerful crushed-stone salinity and a rising whiplash of flavor. A real cellar treasure and my favorite wine of the tasting, still with a long life ahead of it. The '99s at Domaine Leflaive have always stood out for their ripeness and richness but today this wine is even more impressive for its adamant minerality. (Incidentally, my notes at the time said that following a reorganization of the cellar, 1999 was the first vintage at Leflaive to be bottled without filtration, as well as the first vintage to be bottled by gravity.)" Domaine Leflaive

2273 Chevalier Montrachet - Vintage 2007

Domaine Leflaive

1x6 bottle owc

"A strikingly complex nose that is even more complex than that of the Bâtard as there is a great breadth of aromas to the ripe, pure and airy nose of white flower, spice and subtle pear aromas that complement to perfection the rich and mouth coating flavors built on a base of fine minerality, all wrapped in a sappy and mouth coating finish that oozes dry extract. This is really a lovely effort that is almost as powerful as the Bâtard but as one would expect, finer and even a bit longer with an almost painfully intense backend. A very impressive effort that is positively Zen-like in its poise and quiet sense of harmony." (96pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $4500-6000

2274 Chevalier Montrachet - Vintage 2011

Domaine Leflaive

1x6 bottle owc

"The 2011 Chevalier-Montrachet Grand Cru was picked on August 25, the earliest harvest in the history of the Domaine Leflaive, and the resulting wine was another of the sleepers in this tasting, unfurling in the glass with an attractive bouquet of white flowers, fresh peach, tangerine, pear, pastry cream and warm bread. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, expansive and satiny textured, with a layered and open-knit core that's fleshy but lively, concluding with a long and precise finish. This is a forward Chevalier from Leflaive that's already drinking well, but it's a superb effort." (95pts)

BURGUNDY SPLENDOR FEATURING PYCM

This West Coast collector, a retired lawyer and winery owner, has built his impressive cellar over more than four decades of collecting. He has generously offered up two dozen splendid Burgundy selections to help us celebrate La Paulée in style. White Burgundy steals the show with the spotlight on Pierre-Yves Colin Morey spanning 2008 to 2020 including top Grands and Premiers Crus, such as eight vintages of Corton Charlemagne from 2011 to 2020. Complementing these gems are selections from Leflaive, H. Boillot, and Lafon, while Red Burgundy is represented by Ponsot, Hudelot-Noellat, Pousse d'Or, and more. All wines properly stored in his temperature-controlled home cellar and most bought upon release.

2286 Ruchottes Chambertin - Vintage 2005

F. Esmonin

1x12 bottle ocb

"A highly complex nose of wood spice, earth, truffle, crushed herbs, red berries and violets lead to delicious, sappy and mouth coating flavors that are quite powerful, all wrapped in a structured and hugely long finish. There are buckets of dry extract here that confer a velvety textured to the intense finish. Excellent potential here and worth a close look." (91-94pts BH)

"...given how many reference standard vintages Domaine Ponsot has produced of the Clos de la Roche over the years, it would be presumptuous to anoint this as the best ever but if it isn't, it will certainly take its rightful place among the very greatest. In sum, a 'wow' wine that makes you shake your head in sheer amazement." (99pts BH)

2291 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2007

Vieilles Vignes, Ponsot

2x6 bottle owc's

"This was a superb showing for the 2007 Clos de la Roche Grand Cru Cuvée Vieilles Vignes, a brilliant wine that bursts from the glass with a complex and maturing bouquet of red cherries, caramelized orange rind, cinnamon, potpourri and sweet soil tones. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, textural and satiny, with a concentrated, layered core, tangy acids and a stunningly long, sapid finish. This has always been a brilliant wine that transcends the vintage, but new dimensions are becoming apparent as it enters its second decade. This was the last vintage bottled under natural cork chez Ponsot." (96pts)

RED BURGUNDY GEMS FROM A WORLD TRAVELER

These selections come from a consignor who has offered great Burgundy in the past and joins the La Paulée festivities with twenty-two lots of exclusively Red Burgundy. A dedicated traveler, he cultivated his passion for wine while living in France over thirty years ago, later expanding his palate through experiences in the vibrant London and New York wine scenes. Going back to 1996, offerings include top Domaines such as Dujac, Fourrier, and Mugneret-Gibourg, among others. All wines removed from professional storage.

"Ripe cassis and dark cherry are laced with scents of iris and clean, fresh, pasture-fed red meat in the enticing nose of Barthod's 2008 Chambolle-Musigny Les Veroilles, which exhibits sap, energy, and sheer refreshment, yet at the same time a sense of viscosity uncommon in the present collection, or for that matter in this vintage. Intriguingly carnal; bittersweetly herbal and floral; piquantly fruit pit; invigoratingly saline; as well as dustily stony notes combine to lend complexity to a long, lip-smacking, positively gripping finish. This should be downright exciting to observe over the next dozen or more years. It's exuberant and complex, yet not out to flatter the taster or at least, not at this youthful stage." (92-93pts)

2326 Charmes Chambertin - Vintage 2001*cuvée de Tres Vieilles Vignes, J. Roty*

"As big as a Chambertin with the intensity and sheer flavor authority to match. Sumptuously, even lavishly oaked yet it carries its oak as though it were nothing and there is no doubt that this will absorb the wood completely as there is a mind boggling amount of mid-palate sap and punch and it completely coats the mouth and the persistence is exemplary. The structure is completely buried beneath all the sap and while this should be approachable after a decade, it will drink well for another two. Another great Roty Charmes in a very long line of them. If you can find a few bottles, don't miss them. In short, this is very classy juice." (94pts BH)

This is a serene and complete effort and again, as good as any vintage that I can remember. In short, this classy effort is pure silk and lace. In a word, magnificent." (97pts BH)

2331 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2013

A. Rousseau

"...has a tightly knit bouquet that at the moment is less expressive than the Mazis-Chambertin. The palate is crisp and pure, quite tensile, with a spiciness that becomes more prominent toward the fleshy, harmonious finish. Curiously, even from a used barrel the texture feels as if there is some new oak, but that is just the concentration of fruit coming through." (93-95pts)

4 bottles per lot $2200-3000

2332 La Tâche - Vintage 2014

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"The 2014 La Tâche Grand Cru is a very refined nose, so much so that blind I might mistake it from Romanée-Conti (as I opined to Bertrand de Villaine himself). Very precise, extremely pure and with wonderful mineralité, there is a lucidity embroidered into this wine. The palate is medium-bodied, symmetrical, with a little edginess creeping in here that lends the finish a sense of animation. The fruit shades from red to more black as it opens, yet the aftertaste is extraordinarily long and persistent. There is a kind of magic in this La Tâche." (96-98pts)

2333 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2010

Cros Parantoux, E. Rouget

"Brooding, musky aromas of plum, minerals and smoke. Rich, fleshy and broad; not as obviously sweet as the Échézeaux but saturates the entire mouth with fruit, oak and mineral flavors. Builds in sweetness on the back end, with the oakiness carrying through." (93+pts VM)

1 bottle per lot $1800-2400

2334 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2011

Cros Parantoux, E. Rouget

"A highly perfumed nose of pure essence of red pinot fruit along with a panoply of spice elements leads to solidly powerful and well-detailed flavors that are built on a base of almost pungent minerality. There is excellent length and plenty of supporting material and it seems reasonably clear that this is the best in show chez Rouget in 2011." (91-93pts BH)

2335 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2009

Coche-Dury

"... fleshy and super-ripe to the point of being almost exotic. This is a hugely expressive young Corton-Charlemagne from Coche loaded with personality and sheer class. It possesses stunning depth and a refined, kaleidoscopic finish that is remarkable." (97pts)

1 bottle per lot $3500-5000

2336 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2010

Coche-Dury

"The 2010 Coche-Dury Corton Charlemagne was so elegant and so long (I wrote: see previous note with The Rev and Bad Boy in LA, or did I not write that one up?). It was reminiscent of the 1996 vintage upon its release, another vintage that Coche released late, except I think that it was 1k a bottle at the time not five! It was still quite shy, but one sip had me once bitten. The wine was clean and pristine, clearly with the most potential generosity." (98pts JK)

1 bottle per lot $5000-7000

2337 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2012

Coche-Dury

"The aromatics unfurl with a sense of ease prioritizing finesse over power: beeswax, linden, lemon thyme and fresh pear. The palate is exquisitely balanced with fleeting glimpses of Seville orange and apricot. But there is more about the tension, the effortlessness and that it just rolls out across the finish like a huge Turkish rug. This is the kind of wine that exhausts superlatives." (97+pts)

1 bottle per lot $3500-5000

2338 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2013

Coche-Dury

Ivls1, 2sdc

"An incredibly densely fruited nose also only grudgingly offers up notes of stone, tangerine peel, white flowers, green apple and plenty of spice and soft wood nuances. There is an almost painful intensity to the equally concentrated and overtly powerful broad-shouldered flavors that brim with dry extract that simultaneously coats the palate while buffering the extremely firm acid spine on the incredibly long finish." (97pts BH)

2 bottles per lot $6000-8000

2339 Meursault - Vintage 2016

Perrières, Coche-Dury

"The 2016 Meursault 1er Cru Perrières is the most distinctive wine in the range, unfurling in the glass with notes of lemon oil, crushed chalk, tart green apple, dried white flowers and struck flint. On the palate, the wine is medium to full-bodied, elegantly satiny and searingly intense, with tangy acids, huge concentration and the pronouncedly mineral, stony signature that always seems to mark out this bottling. Along with Genevrières, Coche's parcel in Perrières was largely spared by the 2016 frosts. Given its utterly classic profile, a dozen years' patience is advised." (97pts)

2 bottles per lot $4500-6000

2340 Batard Montrachet - Vintage 2015

Domaine Leflaive

"The Leflaive 2015 Bâtard-Montrachet Grand Cru is a superb achievement in the 2015 vintage, wafting from the glass with a complex bouquet of white peach, fresh bread, pear, preserved citrus, beeswax and crisp yellow orchard fruit. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, multidimensional and authoritative, distinguished by its sense of completeness and control, with terrific depth and amplitude and a long, reserved finish. The Bâtard is one of the high-points of the Leflaive range this year, fully realizing the potential of the vintage." (96pts)

2 bottles per lot $1300-1700

2341 Chablis - Vintage 2014

Les Clos, Raveneau

"The 2014 Chablis Grand Cru les Clos has a much more expressive bouquet than the 2015, with beautiful orange blossom and smoky scents decorating the nose. The palate is very well balanced and so saline in the mouth that you almost want to reach for your bucket and spade. This Les Clos is so seductive and so harmonious, seeming to bloom and deliver fabulous intensity on the finish. Whereas Valmur is the pick in 2015, the Les Clos might be the pick in 2014, thanks to its sense of completeness. But as I mentioned in my remarks from barrel last year, patience will be paramount for those seeking to witness this Chablis at its peak." (97pts)

1 bottle per lot $1200-1600

2342 Chablis - Vintage 2015

Les Clos, Raveneau

"The 2015 Chablis Grand Cru les Clos has a very tight bouquet with a subtile marine/estuarine influence, gradually opening to reveal walnut and hazelnut notes. Coming back after five minutes, there is a light minty note. The palate is powerful and very well balanced, a fine line of acidity struck through the lightly-spiced fruit with hints of nutmeg and even fennel that lead to a poised but very persistent and satisfying finish. This is just an extremely satisfying Les Clos that will give 20 to 30 years drinking pleasure." (94 pts)

The breadth of the Pinot comes through on the mid-palate and finish, as the 2006 gains power and resonance with a bit of aeration. Light tropical inflections, along with hints of almond and spice, open up later, adding further shades of nuance. Although it has just been released, the 2006 is unusually open and a real pleasure to taste today. "The 2017 La Tâche Grand Cru soars from the glass with a captivating and beautifully integrated bouquet of exotic spices, rose petals, raspberries, cherries and blood orange mingled with notions of cinnamon and coniferous forest floor. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, deep and multidimensional, with a deep and tightly coiled core that marks it out as the most muscular wine in the cellar, displaying considerable concentration and largely concealed structure. While this is a dramatic young La Tâche, there's evidently plenty held in reserve, too, and it simply has appreciably more presence than any of the other wines that preceded it in this tasting." 2372 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2017*Domaine de la Romanée Contilwrl*

"A total stunner, the 2017 Romanée St. Vivant Grand Cru is the most expressive wine in the lineup today. Rich, creamy and so wonderfully textured, the RSV simply has it all. The tannins are present, but they are also matched by tremendous fruit density and pure power. Floral and savory overtones grace the lifted, saline finish. Leaving price aside, if I could only have one wine in this range, it would unquestionably be the RSV. The 2017 is a total knock-out. That's all there is to it." (98pts VM)

2374 Chambertin - Vintage 2015*Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau*

"The 2015 Chambertin-Clos de Bèze Grand Cru is spectacular, wafting from the glass with a dramatic bouquet of sweet grilled meat, red and black fruit, candied peel and rich soil. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, ample and powerful, with a lavishly gourmand attack that evokes the 2009 rendition, but this quickly segues into the mid-palate of an altogether more tautly structural, serious wine, its considerable dimension and concentration underwritten by racy acids. The finish is long and firm. This is a monumental Clos de Bèze built for the long haul." (97pts)

2376 La Romanée - Vintage 2015*Comte Liger-Belair*

"Tasted blind, Louis-Michel Liger-Belair's 2015 La Romanée Grand Cru is simply extraordinary, dominating a flight of great grands crus. The wine wafts from the glass with an extraordinarily complex bouquet in which notes of cherries, cassis and orange rind mingle with fragrant aromas of rose petal and Asian spices, complemented by deeper, more savory bass notes of grilled squab, espresso roast and smoked duck. On the palate, it's full-bodied, multidimensional and complete, with amazing depth and dimension, juicy acids balancing a deep and concentrated core of fruit, and concluding with a long, reverberative finish. This is a powerful, even dramatic La Romanée that ranks as one of the pinnacles of this magical vintage." (100pts)

2403 Ruchottes Chambertin - Vintage 2005*Clos des Ruchottes, A. Rousseaul1tl*

"The 2005 Clos des Ruchottes is far too young to approach at the moment and like many others, it appears to be closing up. Here, the aromatics are closed, broody and stubborn, only reluctantly offering fleeting glimpses of black cherries, incense and minerals. The palate is very pure but distant at the moment, a prodigy without a tongue. But the signs are all here: a firm backbone, layer upon layer of fruit, but a wine that is more impressive than pleasurable at the moment. Got some in your cellar? Keep it there, you lucky thing. Drink 2020-2040+. Tasted September 2013." (96pts)

2406 Musigny - Vintage 2005*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue*

"Prepare to be transported. A positively brilliant nose of violet and rose petal shines against a background of intensely spiced extravagant red and black pinot fruit nuanced by hints of earth and stone and this minerality continues onto the surprisingly supple flavors that convey a remarkable sense of energy and power on the almost unbelievably intense, focused and structured finish that seems to go on and on without end. And the '05 VV has what all truly great burgundies have which is that extra dimension of power without weight as this carries terrific punch and power yet delivers that explosiveness with impeccable class and grace..." (99pts BH)

4 bottles per lot $3200-4200

2407 Harlan Estate Red - Vintage 2014*1x6 bottle owc*

"The deep garnet-purple colored 2014 Proprietary Red Wine offers up subtle cassis, black cherries and crushed blackberries notes with tons of savory and earthy layers: forest floor, black soil, charcoal and dried herbs, plus wafts of violets and rare beef. Full-bodied and built like a brick house in the mouth, it has loads of tense, muscular fruit with many layers of earth, savory and spice nuances emerging, finishing with epic length. Around 2,100 cases were bottled." (98pts)

6 bottles per lot $3500-5000

2408 La Tâche - Vintage 2009*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"A discreet but incredibly complex nose features notes of spicy, pure and relatively high-toned fruit that is laced with plenty of rose petal and violet hints. There is excellent energy and freshness to the lacy and stunningly precise broad-scaled flavors that build in intensity from the densely concentrated mid-palate to the explosive and mouth coating finish that seemingly goes on without end. This is a big LT with ample muscle and very firm but not aggressive structure along with superb depth of underlying material and positively mind-blowing length." (98pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $4000-6000

2409 La Tâche - Vintage 2012*Domaine de la Romanée Contivl1tl*

"Though this is by no means exuberant, it's clear that there is good ripeness to the spiced green tea, hoisin, soy, anise, sandalwood and rose petal aromas. The cool, pure and seductively textured medium weight plus flavors brim with both minerality and plenty of dry extract that buffers the extremely firm but not hard shaping tannins on the overtly austere if seriously persistent finish." (97pts BH)

1 magnum per lot $7500-10000

2410 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2010*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"This is also intensely spicy with a similar array of highly restrained but exceptionally complex floral and cool red and black berry fruit aromas. There is a real sense of focused power to the beautifully well-delineated, pure and highly nuanced, multifaceted medium-bodied flavors wrapped in a deep reserve of dry extract before culminating in a breathtakingly persistent finish replete with the hallmark youthful austerity. Like all of the great vintages of this most famous of burgundies, it is almost inconceivably spherical with a Zen-like sense of harmony." (99pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $16000-22000

2411 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2019*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"Waiting for the wine to open pays dividends, revealing exquisitely-defined brambly red fruit, incense and red roses. There is a very slight gamey element, not strong, but just lingers off-stage. The palate is medium-bodied with lace-like tannins that frame the otherworldly, pure, red fruit." (100pts VM)

2 bottles per lot $32000-42000

2412 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 2012*O. Bernstein1x6 bottle owc*

"Medium red. Ineffable aromas of red cherry, wild mint, pepper and nutmeg. Larger-scaled and deeper than the Clos de la Roche but less accessible today, perhaps partly owing to the stem element. Comes across as brooding, thick and dry, saline but also with intense spice character to its clenched red fruit flavors. Finishes with serious but surprisingly suave tannins and lingering lavender perfume." (94+pts VM)

6 bottles per lot $1800-2400

2413 Chambertin - Vintage 2012*Clos de Bèze, O. Bernstein1x1 Jeroboam owc*

"There is plenty of floral character to the markedly spicy mix of very fresh red berry fruit liqueur aromas that are trimmed in a background application of oak. The cool, pure and restrained middle weight flavors exude a fine minerality that adds lift to the delicious, round and impressively long finish. I like the underlying material and while this is a good deal less complex than several wines in the range, my score offers the benefit of the doubt." (91-94pts BH)

PARCEL LOTS 2414-24152414 Mazis Chambertin - Vintage 2012O. Bernstein1x6 bottle owc*

"A brooding and fresh nose displays notes of extract of plum, cassis, spice and plenty of sauvage character. There is a highly appealing intensity to the mineral-driven, muscular and mouth coating big-bodied flavors that possess excellent length where the tannins are perfectly integrated on the dusty, serious and mildly austere finish. Patience required." (92-95pts BH)

"Slightly reduced aromas of blackberry, cassis, violet, licorice and bitter chocolate, with leather and herb nuances. Rich, tactile and deep, offering outstanding concentration and chewiness to its dark fruit and saline flavors." (93-96pts VM)

6 bottles per lot $3000-4000

2417 Musigny - Vintage 2017*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue*

"The 2017 Musigny Vieilles Vignes Grand Cru has a very expressive, complex bouquet, the mélange of red, blue and black fruit making it difficult to identify a single dominant color. Blueberry, wild strawberry and black currant intermingle, and hints of sea spray and touches of orange blossom develop with time." (94-96pts VM)

12 bottles per lot $5000-7000

2418 Chevalier Montrachet - Vintage 2009*Domaine Leflaive*

"An ultra-pure and high-toned nose of mineral-based reduction, spiced pear and acacia blossom gives way to overtly stony and quite finely detailed broad-shouldered flavors that despite their significant size and weight, are crystalline in their transparency. This very much seems to be built on a base of liquid limestone with impeccable balance and flat out stunning persistence." (96pts BH)

3 magnums per lot $4500-6000

2419 Morey St. Denis - Vintage 2019Clos de la Bussiere, G. Roumier*

"Ripe yet agreeably fresh aromas include those of poached plum, spice, violet and plenty of newly turned earth wisps. There is a lovely sense of underlying tension to the fleshy and rounded medium-bodied flavors that terminate in a firm, mildly rustic and warm finale." (92pts BH)

3 magnums per lot $2000-2800

2420 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2002*Coche-Durysd, cuc*

"The 2002 Coche-Dury Corton Charlemagne was equally as impressive, but in a more mature way. It was in a perfect spot, on a bridge between youth and wisdom, with extraordinary balance and tension. I think that the 15-20 year mark is a real sweet spot for great vintages of Coche CC. Ooh la la." (98pts JK)

2422 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2007*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x6 bottle banded owc"An ultra elegant, pure and quite delicately fruited and spiced nose that is extremely fresh, floral and expansive that is more layered still as it introduces seductively textured, detailed and gorgeously delineated middle weight flavors that possess laser-like focus if less density than is usually seen with this wine. Indeed, this is rather like a ballerina with limited power and weight but the watch word here is purity, purity and purity. I quite like this but it will strike some as unduly light though I believe the underlying material is present such that it will add weight in bottle as it ages."(94pts BH)*

2423 Musigny - Vintage 1989*Domaine Leroyltl, re-waxed capsule"Gorgeous nose of black fruit and incredibly seductive notes of earth, smoked meat and hints of anise and clove that leads to elegant, pure, powerful but not heavy or unduly rich flavors that really are more about finesse than raw intensity. This is still extremely young but possesses everything it needs for a long, and very distinguished future."(95pts BH)*

BOTTLE DESCRIPTIONS BORDEAUX

NECK:

Normal level for all wines. In wines over ten years of age, this level suggests excellent provenance. Rarely used, except to emphasize a particularly good fill level when other fill levels in the same lot are less than perfect.

BASE NECK:

A common fill level at which many Châteaux release their wine. For wines of any age, this level suggests excellent provenance.

TOP-SHOULDER:

Again, a common fill level at which many Châteaux release their wine. For wines of any age, this level suggests excellent provenance.

VERY HIGH SHOULDER:

Acceptable fill level for wines twenty years of age. Suggests proper storage conditions throughout its life. Natural occurrence for wines of this age.

HIGH SHOULDER:

Usually not a problem for wines thirty years of age. This level may be caused by easing of the cork combined with natural evaporation. Check the clarity and the color of the wine in the bottle as a secondary indicator of provenance.

HIGH-TO-MID-SHOULDER:

Refer to High Shoulder and Mid-Shoulder level descriptions.

MID SHOULDER:

May suggest ullage during the life of the wine due to either easing of the cork or inconsistent storage conditions. Not abnormal for wines forty or more years of age. As additional indicators of risk, definitely inspect clarity and color of the wine in the bottle, as well as condition of the cork.

LOW SHOULDER AND BELOW:

Suggests poor provenance. Definitely a risk and generally not saleable, with exception given to rare bottlings and/or labels. (Not recommended for consumption.)

Because the shape of Burgundy bottles does not allow for a level rating system based on the shoulder of the bottle, levels are described by means of centimeters below cork. Generally, Burgundy wines with a four centimeter fill level or above are considered normal for wines younger than twenty years. Wines of twenty or more years of age with fill levels of between four and five centimeters are generally considered to be of sound provenance, though consideration should be given to the clarity and color of the wine in the bottle, as well as the condition of the cork. Bottles with ullage between five and seven centimeters are not uncommon for wines forty years and older and often provide thrilling drinking, but the lower the fill, the higher the risk, so consideration should be given. Burgundy bottles with fill levels lower than seven centimeters may be at risk of being damaged or undrinkable, and therefore may be unsaleable. It should be noted that some Burgundian producers tend to over-fill their bottles during the bottling process which may cause a few drops of wine to become trapped between the capsule and the cork. This should not be confused with ullage, a natural occurrence in older wines, which may be accelerated due to poor provenance.

BUYER'S CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. BUYER'S AGREEMENT.

By bidding at auction, each bidder ("Bidder") agrees that these Conditions of Sale ("Conditions of Sale") constitute the agreement between Bidder, on the one hand, and Acker Auction DE, LLC ("Acker Auction DE"), for Delaware live auctions, Acker Merrall & Condit Company ("AMC") for California wine web auctions and/or Acker Auction, Inc. ("Acker Auction"), for live New York or web auctions for spirits, and Acker Merrall & Condit Co. ("AMC"), for web auctions for wines (each respectively and together, "Acker" or the seller/consignor (the "Seller"), on the other hand, with respect to the sale of the property listed in the auction catalogue (in whatever format published) ("Property").

Acker may amend these Conditions of Sale or the catalogue from time to time and at any time through posted notices, addenda, or errata or through oral salesroom announcements during the sale. By bidding at auction, Bidder agrees to be bound by all of the terms and conditions of these Conditions of Sale and accepts personal liability to pay the purchase price, including the Buyer's Premium (as defined below), taxes and any other applicable charges, for any successful bid. If the Bidder is the successful bidder by virtue of being the highest bidder accepted by the auctioneer, or has otherwise agreed to purchase any lot, wine or other item, the Bidder is referred to herein as the "Buyer."

2. ACKER AS AGENT.

Except as otherwise stated in these Conditions of Sale, Acker acts strictly as agent for the Seller.

3. BEFORE AUCTION.

(a) Lots. Property is divided into separate groupings as determined by Acker in its sole and absolute discretion and each such grouping (a "Lot") is subject to separate bidding at auction.

(b) Inspection. Prior to auction, Bidder is advised to physically inspect any Property in which Bidder is interested in bidding and to rely on such inspection, as opposed to any descriptions in the catalogue or elsewhere.

(c) Experts. Acker may seek views of outside experts on certain Property either before or after the sale. Some Property may be marked to indicate, or show other indicia, that it has been inspected by an expert (including visible writings, stampings and cut capsules).

(i) Bidder Registration. In order to bid at auction, Bidder must have an account with Acker or its affiliates. Bidder can open such an account by: (A) completing and submitting a Bidder Registration form; (B) completing and submitting an Absentee Bid form; or (C) creating such account online (at www.ackerwines.com) or through the "Acker Wines" mobile app (available for downloading at the Apple App Store or Google Play Store). In connection therewith, Bidder will be required to provide the card number, expiration date and security code for an active credit or debit card (Visa, MasterCard or American Express), which Bidder authorizes Acker and its affiliates to validate. Acker and its affiliates may also require Bidder to provide bank or other financial references. Acker and its affiliates retain the absolute right not to open or to close an account for any prospective Bidder and to refuse any prospective Bidder admission to, or participation in, any auction. Bidders also agree to provide Acker with such information as Acker may reasonably require, including a government issued identification containing a photograph, such as a passport, identity card or driver's license. Acker may use this information to verify Bidder's identification and for other screening and due diligence purposes pursuant to its Privacy Policy (<https://www.ackerwines.com/terms-conditions/#legal-privacy>), which is incorporated by reference. If Bidder does not agree to the terms of the Acker Privacy Policy, please refrain from providing any personal information and cease any use of Acker's website, apps, or other digital assets.

(d) Absentee, Telephone, Online and Mobile App Bidding.

Prior to the sale, Bidders may make arrangements with Acker to participate at auction by absentee or telephone bidding. Bidder may also participate in the sale by bidding through Acker's and its affiliates' online and/or mobile app bidding platforms, which participation shall be subject to the Website and Mobile App Terms of Use (available at <https://www.ackerwines.com/terms-conditions/>). Bidders wishing to participate by absentee bidding must complete and submit an Absentee Bid form to Acker in advance of the sale. All absentee bids must be placed in United States Dollars. If Acker receives identical absentee bids for any particular Lot and such bids are the highest amount for that Lot at auction, the winning bid for such Lot shall be determined by the auctioneer in its sole and absolute discretion; provided that the exercise of the auctioneer's discretion is not in a discriminatory manner otherwise prohibited by applicable law. The acceptance of absentee, telephone, online and mobile app bids for any Lot in a live auction is subject to the sole and absolute discretion of the auctioneer. With respect to bids placed through the online or mobile app bidding platforms, any online and mobile app notifications concerning Bidder's bid status may be overridden by the auctioneer. As such, even if Bidder receives an online or mobile app notice indicating that its bid has been accepted, please be advised that the auctioneer may determine otherwise in its sole and absolute discretion, and the auctioneer's decision shall be final. Acker offers complimentary absentee, telephone, online and mobile app bidding solely as a convenience to its clients. In no event shall Acker or its affiliates or auctioneer (or any of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, members, employees, attorneys, representatives, agents or assigns) be liable for any errors, omissions or failures relating to, arising from or in connection with the execution (or failure to properly execute) any absentee, telephone, online or mobile app bids.

4. AT AUCTION.

(a) Catalogues. Bidder is advised to read the print or a PDF copy of the catalogue in its entirety. While Acker has attempted to describe each Lot in the catalogue accurately, in no event shall Acker be liable for any error or omission in any such description. Acker retains the absolute right to amend any description in any manner prior to and during the auction. Classifications in the text are for identification purposes only and are based on standard sources. Each statement regarding Property, whether oral or written, and whether made in the catalogue, an advertisement, bill of sale, invoice, addendum, notice, announcement, email, or other written or oral communication, is a statement of OPINION ONLY and should not be relied upon by any Bidder. Bidder must make appropriate allowances for natural variations of ullages, and conditions of cases, bottles, labels, caps, corks, capsules, and wine and spirits. In no event shall Acker be required to accept a return, offer credit for, or adjust the price of any Property after delivery except under the terms stated in Section 5(e) below. Images appearing in the catalogue or elsewhere are for illustrative and informational purposes only and may not reveal defects or imperfections in any Lot. Bidder is advised not to rely on images in determining whether to bid on Property and is further advised to personally inspect any Property in which Bidder is interested in bidding prior to placing any bids. ALL PROPERTY IS SOLD "AS IS".

(b) No Representations, Warranties or Guarantees. ACKER AND ITS AFFILIATES, AUCTIONEER AND SELLER (AND EACH OF THEIR RESPECTIVE OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, SHAREHOLDERS, MEMBERS, EMPLOYEES, ATTORNEYS, REPRESENTATIVES, AGENTS AND ASSIGNS) MAKE NO ORAL OR WRITTEN EXPRESS OR IMPLIED REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES OR GUARANTEES AS TO THE MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR USE, ACCURACY, THE CORRECTNESS OF ANY CATALOGUE DESCRIPTION OR OTHER DESCRIPTION AS TO THE ORIGIN, PHYSICAL CONDITION, SIZE, QUALITY, RARITY, AUTHENTICITY, ATTRIBUTION, VALUE, ESTIMATED VALUE, IMPORTANCE, MEDIUM, PROVENANCE, EXHIBITION HISTORY, POTABILITY, LITERATURE, HISTORICAL RELEVANCE OR BIBLIOGRAPHIC REFERENCES CONCERNING ANY PROPERTY.

(c) Reserve Price. Each Lot is sold subject to a reserve price, which is the minimum price below which the Lot will not be sold (unless the auctioneer chooses, in its sole and absolute discretion, to accept a lower price and Acker pays the Seller as if the Lot had sold at the reserve price). While Acker has the right to raise or lower the reserve price at any time prior to the time the Lot is opened for bidding by the auctioneer during the live auction, under no circumstance shall the reserve price for a Lot exceed the low estimate for that Lot as printed in the catalogue or as amended by any oral or posted notice. The reserve price for each Lot is available to prospective Bidders upon request, but Acker shall have no ongoing obligation to notify a prospective Bidder who has been informed of any reserve price if such reserve price has thereafter been changed.

(d) Symbol Identifying Interest in Certain Lots. If Acker or its affiliates has a financial interest in any Lot, including a full or partial ownership interest or the provision to the Seller of a minimum price guarantee, such Lot will be identified in the catalogue by the symbol *. Any such financial interest may be held by Acker or its affiliates or jointly by Acker or its affiliates and a third party. Acker or its affiliates and any third party holding a financial interest in a Lot jointly with Acker and/or its affiliates benefit financially if such a Lot is sold at or above a particular price and may incur a loss if it is not. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Bidder shall be deemed to have waived any further claim against Acker and its affiliates as to the failure to provide disclosures beyond those statutorily required to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

(e) Estimates. Each Lot in the catalogue is accompanied by a low and high estimate of the selling price, which estimates exclude the Buyer's Premium (as defined below), taxes and any other applicable charges. While estimates are intended as a general guide for prospective Bidders, in no event do they constitute either a representation or prediction of an actual selling price or value and should not be relied upon by Bidder as such. Acker reserves the right to revise estimates at any time prior to the time the Lot is opened for bidding.

(f) Bidding.

(i) Bidder Warranties, Representation and Covenants. By bidding at auction (whether in person or through an agent, or through absentee, telephone, online, or mobile app bidding, or by other means), Bidder warrants, represents and covenants that: (A) Bidder is at least twenty-one (21) years of age; (B) Bidder has the legal authority, right, and capacity to buy, receive, possess and otherwise deal in any Lot purchased; (C) any bids made by Bidder or on Bidder's behalf are not pursuant to any anti-competitive agreement and are otherwise in compliance with all applicable laws; (D) any funds used to pay for Property were not directly or indirectly obtained from any criminal activity; and (E) Bidder (and any other party or entity on whose behalf Bidder may be bidding or acting) is not subject to any trade sanctions, embargoes or any other restrictions on trade in the United States or any other jurisdiction in which Bidder or any such other party resides or conducts business. For the avoidance of doubt, if Bidder is bidding as an agent, each of the foregoing representations and warranties are made on behalf of both Bidder and its principal.

(ii) Bids per Lot. Unless otherwise announced by the auctioneer, all bids are per Lot in consecutive numerical order as they appear in the catalogue.

(iii) Bidding Up to the Reserve Price. Subject to the auctioneer's sole and absolute discretion, bids shall be entered in the order in which they are received. The auctioneer may open bidding on any Lot by placing a bid on behalf of the Seller. The auctioneer may further bid on behalf of the Seller up to but not at or exceeding the amount of the reserve price by placing successive or consecutive bids for the Lot, or by placing bids in response to bids placed by any other Bidder.

(iv) Bidding by Acker. Acker and its' affiliates reserve the right to bid for their own accounts or to procure the making of a bid on their behalf and provide notice of such right in their, online auction platform(s), and prior to live auctions in accordance with applicable law. Neither affiliates will bid in auctions held in New York by Acker Auction Inc.

(v) Bidding by Acker Employees. Acker reserves the right to permit its employees (in the sole and absolute discretion of Acker) to bid for their own accounts on any Lot in the sale. Employees shall bid only by absentee bid submitted prior to the auction and otherwise comply with our employee bidding procedures. Employees may bid at a discounted Buyer's Premium. Acker's discount policy shall be disclosed to any Bidder who requests it. Acker may deny discounts for any particular auction on prior notice before such auction takes place. Employees will not be eligible for a discounted Buyer's Premium on charity auctions such as the auctions to benefit World Central Kitchen ("WCK").

(vi) Bidding Not Reaching the Reserve Price. If bidding on a Lot does not reach the reserve price, the auctioneer may remove the Lot from sale. At the time of such removal and before bidding on another Lot begins, the auctioneer shall announce that the removed Lot has been "passed", "bought in" or other term of similar meaning.

(vii) Hammer Price. The Bidder making the highest bid accepted by the auctioneer will become the Buyer. The striking of the auctioneer's hammer marks the acceptance of such bid as the "hammer price" and the creation of a contract for sale between Seller and Buyer. The auctioneer has discretion to reopen bidding at any time during the auction in which case no contract shall be formed until such final bidding is completed.

(viii) Bidding Increments. The following are the bidding increments that will generally apply to bids, whether placed in person or through an agent, or through absentee, telephone, online, or mobile app bidding, or by other means; provided, however, that all increments during an auction are subject to change or modification in the sole and absolute discretion of the auctioneer. Any absentee bid submitted in an incorrect bidding increment will automatically be rounded down to the closest correct increment.

$20,000 up to $30,000	$2000
$30,000 and more	Auctioneer's Discretion

(ix) No Liability for Bidding Errors. In no event shall Acker or its affiliates or auctioneers (or any of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, members, employees, attorneys, representatives, agents or assigns) be liable for any errors, omissions or failures relating to, arising from or in connection with the execution (or failure to properly execute) of any bids, whether placed in person or through an agent, or through absentee, telephone, online, or mobile app bidding, or by other means, including errors or omissions relating to the loss of connection with the internet or Acker's on-line or mobile app bidding platforms.

(g) Parcel Lots. In the event that the catalogue lists a sequence of Lots carrying the same estimates and consisting of the same type of wine or spirits, quantity and bottle size (each a "Parcel"), Buyer of the first Lot in such Parcel may, in the sole and absolute discretion of the auctioneer, be granted the option to buy any or all additional Lots in the Parcel for the same hammer price if there is no higher absentee bid on any subsequent Lot within the Parcel. If the option is not exercised on all such Lots, the auctioneer will open bidding on the next unsold Lot and may elect to offer the Buyer of that Lot the option to take any or all of the remaining Lots in the Parcel. Bidding shall continue in the same manner until all Lots in the Parcel have been offered and declared sold or unsold by the auctioneer.

(h) Auctioneer's Discretion. Acker and/or the auctioneer shall have the sole and absolute discretion to: (i) withdraw any Lot; (ii) divide any Lot; (iii) combine any two or more Lots; (iv) accept or refuse any bid (whether made in person or through an agent, or through absentee, telephone, online, or mobile app bidding, or by other means); (v) advance the bidding (in accordance with Section 4.5.(iv) above), including changing the increments, in such a manner as deemed appropriate; and (vi) in the event of error or dispute or multiple bids of the same amount, determine the successful bidder, continue the bidding, cancel the sale, or reoffer and resell the disputed Lot. Wherever Acker and/or the auctioneer exercises such discretion, its decision shall be final, binding, and conclusive in all respects.

(i) Extension of Internet Bidding Window. For any Internet auctions, if a bid is placed on a Lot within ten (10) minutes of the scheduled close time, the auction for that Lot shall be extended for until the next ten (10) minutes after the scheduled close. Bidding shall be extended in ten (10) minute increments after each subsequent bid is then placed following the close of the auction. In the event the auction is extended, no contract shall be formed until the bidding is concluded.

(j) Buyer's Premium. The total amount due from the Buyer for each Lot shall be the hammer price plus a commission equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of the hammer price ("Buyer's Premium"), in addition to any applicable taxes. Regarding any charitable auctions including the auctions to benefit WCK, Bidders are advised to consult with their own tax advisors to determine the application of the tax law to their own specific circumstances and whether a charitable contribution deduction is available for any purchase. Please note that all WCK Lots are donated in full by the consignors. Bidders are advised to discuss their particular tax circumstances with their independent tax advisor, including residency eligibility under applicable laws, to determine if a charitable deduction for any purchase is available in any jurisdiction outside the United States.

(k) Discounted Buyer's Premium. Acker provides discounts on the buyer's premium to Bidders who transact with Acker or its affiliates over certain dollar thresholds. Acker's discount policy shall be disclosed to any Bidder who requests it. Acker may deny such discounts for any particular auction on prior notice to the Bidders eligible for this discount before such auction takes place. Buyers will not be eligible for any Buyer's Premium discounts with regard to WCK auctions.

(l) Post-Auction Sale of Property. Any post-auction sale of Property offered at auction and sold in a private treaty sale shall incorporate and be subject to these Conditions of Sale as if sold at the live auction.

5. AFTER AUCTION.

(a) Payment.

(i) When Due. Invoices reflecting the total amount due will be sent to each Buyer within two (2) days following the close of the auction (email to suffice). For any Internet auction, Buyer agrees to pay such invoice in full within forty-eight (48) hours following the close of the auction. For any Live auction, Buyer agrees to pay such invoice in full within thirty (30) days following the date of auction. By bidding at auction, Bidder authorizes Acker, without further notice to Bidder, to charge any credit or debit card used by Bidder to create an account with Acker and its affiliates or to make payment on any current or past invoice issued to Bidder by Acker or its affiliates, any balance of Bidder's invoice that remains unpaid more than forty (40) days after the live auction or by noon Eastern Time on the Tuesday following the close of the Internet Auction (as well as any other applicable fees and expenses) for payment of live auctions. Subject to this automatic charge being successful, there shall be no late fee(s). Acker shall charge Buyer a late fee in the amount of eighteen percent (18%) interest per annum calculated daily, until such unpaid amount has been paid ("Late Fee"). This late fee shall take effect thirty-five (35) days following the close of a Live auction. However, Acker will waive the late fee if Buyer contacts Acker to provide a payment method by day forty (40) after the close of the live auction. In the event Buyer has not paid in full within forty-five (45) days following the close of the live auction, Acker reserves the right to cancel the sale and reoffer such Lot(s) or on Thursday at midnight Eastern Time following an Internet sale, in addition to any of Acker's rights upon buyer default.

(ii) Method of Payment. Payment of each invoice must be made in United States Dollars. Payments may be made by wire transfer, check and/or certain credit or debit cards (subject to the provisions herein). Any check returned unpaid will be subject to a $100 processing fee and will not be deemed paid for purposes of determining whether payment has been timely received. Visa, MasterCard, and American Express are accepted. Please note there will be a credit card usage fee of two percent (2%) on the total auction purchase price for all live and internet auctions. For live auctions (only), the two percent (2%) fee will only apply up to the credit card payment limit of fifteen thousand dollars (USD$15,000). This two percent (2%) fee shall be applied except where prohibited by applicable law. All web auction buyers have the responsibility to have a valid credit card on file with Acker that will be tokenized through its payment processor. In the event Acker is unable to automatically charge buyer's credit card within forty-eight (48) hours after the close of the auction for any reason, it is the obligation of the buyer to contact Acker to make alternative payment arrangements within this forty-eight (48) hour period. For successful buyers at web auctions, such buyers will be notified by email the night of the close of the auction (Eastern Time) of their purchase and be issued an invoice (typically a Sunday). The next day the buyer's credit card will be automatically charged for their purchase to which Bidders consent by participating in the auction and agreeing to these Conditions of Sale. If for any reason a buyer's credit card is declined, the buyer will be notified of the need for alternative payment by the Thursday of that week by 12a.m. Eastern Time. If we do not receive payment by that time, the Lot(s) will be deemed to be defaulted on, and we shall reoffer the Lot(s) in the next available web auction, in addition to any of our rights upon buyer default.

NOTE THAT THE LIABILITY OF ACKER STORAGE MAY

BE LIMITED BY LAW OR BY THE TERMS OF ITS STORAGE AGREEMENT.

After title passes and the Property has been picked up by the Buyer or delivered to Acker Storage, any Buyer who arranges shipping, transportation, or delivery of purchased Property outside of the State of Delaware acknowledges that it is the owner and shipper of such Property. Neither Acker Auction DE, AMC, nor Acker Storage nor any of their affiliates make any representation as to the legal rights of any person or entity to ship, transport, deliver or import Property into any state, country, or jurisdiction. Buyer shall be solely and exclusively responsible for the shipping, transportation, and delivery of purchased Property, determining the legality of having such Property shipped, transported and/or delivered to the applicable destination, and compliance with any laws and the payment of all applicable taxes, duties, tariffs, and fees (including without limitation any interest or penalties) associated therewith.

(d) Importation and Exportation.

(i) Importation and Delivery. Acker and its affiliates make no representation as to the legal rights of anyone to import or deliver any Property or other goods into any state or jurisdiction. Buyer acknowledges and agrees that it is solely responsible for the transport of the Property and for determining the legality and the tax/duty consequences of bringing the products to Buyer's chosen destination.

(ii) Exportation. Property sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the United States, and Acker and its affiliates make no representation as to the legal rights of anyone to export such Property or other goods into any state or jurisdiction. It shall be Buyer's sole responsibility to determine, before bidding at auction, whether an export permit or license is required for Buyer's purchase and, if required, to obtain any such required permit or license.

The denial of, or delay in obtaining, any such permit or license shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor any delay in making full payment for the purchase.

(e) Rescission.

(i) Claims by Buyer. Acker has the right but not the obligation to rescind a sale if any statement in Acker's offering materials concerning a Lot is materially incorrect or such Lot is short or is in unsound condition (e.g., cooked, and spoiled), Buyer's sole remedy shall be rescission of such sale in Acker's sole and absolute discretion. If Buyer seeks rescission under this paragraph 5(e)(i), Buyer must so notify Acker in writing within ninety (90) days after the auction. Buyer may only make such a claim if the Property in question: (A) has the Acker auction sale date reference sticker(s) on the relevant bottle(s); (B) is in the same condition as when it was released by Acker to Buyer or when custody thereof was transferred to Acker Storage; and (C) has been delivered to and from Buyer and stored under appropriate conditions. TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, BIDDER WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO MAKE ANY CLAIM OR BRING ANY LEGAL ACTION AGAINST ACKER AND ITS AFFILIATES, AUCTIONEERS, AND SELLER (AND EACH OF THEIR RESPECTIVE OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, SHAREHOLDERS, MEMBERS, EMPLOYEES, ATTORNEYS, REPRESENTATIVES, AGENTS AND ASSIGNS) RESULTING FROM ANY DETERMINATION MADE (OR FAILED TO BE MADE) BY ACKER UNDER THIS SUBSECTION. IN THE EVENT THAT BUYER FAILS TO PROVIDE TIMELY AND PROPER NOTICE TO ACKER UNDER THIS SUBSECTION, BUYER SHALL BE DEEMED TO HAVE WAIVED ANY RIGHT TO RESCISSION AS HEREIN PROVIDED. Only the Buyer of record of the Property shall be entitled to make a claim of rescission under this subparagraph.

(ii) Buyer's Sole Remedy. THE REFUND TO BUYER OF THE PURCHASE PRICE PAID FOR ANY PROPERTY SHALL BE BUYER'S SOLE REMEDY FOR ANY CLAIM OR MATTER RELATING THERETO.

(iii) Different Importers/Bottle Numbers. Although Acker may at times state in the catalogue or elsewhere if a Lot includes Property from different importers, failure to so state is not grounds for rescission of the sale of any Lot. Similarly, any incorrect statement or omission in the catalogue concerning bottle and/or sequence numbers of Property from those producers that number their bottles is not grounds for rescission of the sale of any Lot.

(iv) Limited Guarantee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained within these Conditions of Sale, Acker agrees to refund the purchase price to the Buyer of any Property purchased from Acker that is not of the vintage or from the producer as was stated in the catalogue or otherwise represented by Acker, including, but not limited to, Property that is counterfeit or has indicia which suggest that it is likely counterfeit, provided that: (A) the Buyer directly purchased the Property from Acker; (B) the Buyer returns such Property to Acker within ninety (90) days of the date of delivery of such Property to Buyer; and (C) that Buyer returns such Property in materially the same condition as it was delivered to Buyer. In the event Acker suspects the Property of a fraudulent activity or is a forgery, Acker may cancel any sale of such Property and hold such Property if it is in the possession of any Acker entity, including Acker Storage LLC. In the event the sale is cancelled after Buyer has made payment to Acker, Acker shall return such funds to Buyer.

(f) Default by Buyer. If Buyer fails to make payment in full in accordance with these Conditions of Sale within thirty (30) days following the auction, Acker Auction may, in its sole and absolute discretion:

- (i) Cancel the sale, retaining any partial payment as liquidated damages;
- (ii) Resell Property publicly or privately for Buyer's account and at Buyer's risk, with estimates and a reserve set at Acker's sole and absolute discretion, and charge Buyer for any deficiency between the final bid in the resale and the final bid placed by Buyer, in addition to all costs and expenses of both the initial sale and the resale at Acker's regular rates and the Buyer's Premium due in connection with both sales;
- (iii) Set off all sums due from Buyer against any amounts which Acker or its affiliates may owe to Buyer;
- (iv) Exercise all the rights and remedies of a party holding a first priority perfected security interest in any Property or other property in the possession of Acker or its affiliates and which is owned or has been consigned by Buyer;

(v) Collect from Buyer the total amount due (including the Late Fee) plus any loss, cost or expense incurred by Acker in effecting such collection;

(vi) Collect from Buyer reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by Acker in exercising any one or more of the rights or remedies set forth in this Agreement;

(vii) Prohibit Buyer from directly or indirectly purchasing from Acker and its affiliates and from participating in future auctions and other events held, hosted, or sponsored by Acker or its affiliates;

(viii) Exercise any right or remedy against Buyer available to Seller at law, equity or otherwise; or

(ix) Release the name and address of the Buyer to the Seller to enable Seller to commence legal proceedings against Buyer to recover all amounts due.

Acker may, in its sole and absolute discretion, exercise any one or more of the preceding remedies or any combination thereof.

If Buyer fails to pick up the Property in-person or fails to arrange for shipping, transportation or other delivery of the Property after payment in full has been received by Acker Auction, and after the Buyer has had five (5) business days after payment to pick up the Property itself or authorize delivery of the Property to Acker Storage and has not paid the storage fees for the Property at Acker Storage, Acker may, in its sole and absolute discretion, take any of the following actions in order to pay off all storage fees and other expenses incurred by Acker or Acker Storage:

- (i) Cancel the sale;
- (ii) Resell Property publicly or privately for Buyer's account and at Buyer's risk, with estimates and a reserve set at Acker's absolute and sole discretion, and charge Buyer for any deficiency between the final bid in the resale and the final bid placed by Buyer, in addition to all costs and expenses of both the initial sale and the resale at Acker's regular rates and the Buyer's Premium due in connection with both sales;
- (iii) Set off all sums due from Buyer against any amounts which Acker or its affiliates may owe to Buyer;
- (iv) Exercise all the rights and remedies of a party holding a first priority perfected security interest in any Property or other property in the possession of Acker or its affiliates and which is owned or has been consigned by Buyer;
- (v) Collect from Buyer the total amount due (including the Late Fee and/or interest) plus any loss, cost or expense incurred by Acker in effecting such collection;
- (vi) Collect from Buyer reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by Acker in exercising any one or more of the rights or remedies set forth in this Agreement; provided, however, that prior to taking any of the foregoing actions,

Acker shall make three attempts using reasonable business effort to contact the Buyer in writing (which may include electronic transmission) as to Buyer's failure to pick up or arrange for shipping, transportation, or other delivery of the Property. Acker shall hold any monies received in connection with such sale (after receiving payment for its storage and other costs) in accordance with all escheatment rules of the State of Delaware and as provided under the Acker Storage Agreement.

(g) Bidder's Indemnity. By bidding at auction, each Bidder (including Buyer) agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Acker and its affiliates, auctioneer, and Seller (and each of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, members, employees, attorneys, representatives, agents and assigns) (each, an "Indemnatee") harmless from and against any and all losses, damages, demands, claims, suits, judgments, costs, expenses, or other liability of any kind (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) relating to, arising from or in connection with: (i) Bidder's actual, threatened or alleged breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other provision contained within these Conditions of Sale; (ii) any act or omission on the part of Bidder (or Bidder's agents, employees or representatives) adversely affecting Property; (iii) any inaccuracy of any document or instrument delivered by Bidder pursuant to or in connection with these Conditions of Sale; or (iv) Bidder's violation of any applicable law, statute, rule or regulation. Bidder further agrees to advance each Indemnatee, upon demand, all costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) as they are incurred by such Indemnatee in connection with any matter covered by the indemnification provisions of this Section 5(h). All of Bidder's representations, warranties, and covenants herein, together with the indemnification provided for in this Section 5(g), shall survive completion of the transactions contemplated in these Conditions of Sale.

(h) Copyright. Acker reserves copyright in all images, illustrations and written material produced by or on behalf of Acker, including, without limitation, the content of the catalogue (collectively, "Material"), and in no event may Buyer or any third party use any Material without Acker's prior written consent. In no event do Acker or its affiliates or Seller make any representation or warranty that Buyer will acquire any copyright, reproduction right or any other intellectual property right in any Property.

6. GOVERNING LAW AND FORUM SELECTION.

(a) These Conditions of Sale, including the respective rights and obligations of the parties hereunder and the conduct of the auction for live Delaware sales (including any online bidding in the auction, to which these Conditions of Sale apply), shall be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to the conflicts of laws principles thereof. For New York Live Auctions and Internet Auctions for spirits in New York, the governing law shall be New York (including any online bidding or use of the mobile app). For Internet Auctions of wine (conducted by AMC), the governing law shall be California (including any online bidding or use of the mobile app). Each Bidder (including Buyer) waives, to the maximum extent permitted by law, any objection to the laying of venue in any such court and any claim that such court would be an inconvenient forum for any action covered by this Section 6. Each Bidder (including Buyer) agrees that Acker shall retain the right to bring legal proceedings in any court other than the state courts of the State of Delaware state courts located in New Castle County for Delaware or New York County, New York for New York, or San Francisco for California.

(b) To the extent required by applicable law, each Delaware auctioneer is licensed pursuant to 30 Del. C. 2301(a)(3). The New York auctions are conducted pursuant to N.Y. Alcoholic Beverage Control Law §99-g. California auctions are conducted pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §23355.1; Commercial Code §§1812.600-1812.610 and §2328.

7. JURY TRIAL WAIVER.

EACH BIDDER (INCLUDING BUYER), SELLER AND ACKER IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL ACTION, PROCEEDING, CAUSE OF ACTION, OR COUNTERCLAIM ARISING FROM, RELATING TO, OR CONCERNING THESE CONDITIONS, INCLUDING THE RESPECTIVE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER AND THE CONDUCT OF THE AUCTION.
