Join us Saturday, June 14 at 2pm CEST, live and live online from the elegant Metropol in Zurich, for a landmark sale featuring more than 1,300 lots of the finest and rarest wines—an estimated CHF 5 million in sales! Special pre-auction tastings and a celebration of Gevrey-Chambertin event will lead up to the big day, bringing Acker's signature energy and conviviality to Europe for this momentous occasion – please join us in person if you can! The sale is stacked with showstopping collections from all over Europe, including The Legendary Collection of Wolfgang Grunewald, Ancient Wonders of a Swiss Doctor, Northern Lights, Dreaming of a White Christmas, Around the World of Fine Wine in 137 Lots, From Switzerland with Love, and Alles Ist Gut! Besides the numerous Swiss collectors offering wines from their cellars, numerous other European countries are represented: UK, France, Belgium, Germany, Spain, Finland and Norway!!! The sale is truly special and a great beginning for our European business, and we are ecstatic to present it to you, and five direct consignments from iconic producers elevate the occasion even further—Domaine Dagueneau, Domaine Fourrier, Domaine Dugat-Py, Domaine Duroché, and Château de l'Étoile—making this a true celebration to remember!!!

There is no better way to kick off our very first live auction in Switzerland than with The Legendary Collection of Wolfgang Grunewald, in lots 1-51! A native of Appenzell, his main cellar is nestled in the mountains, where all of his exceedingly special wines are kept in rigorous temperature and humidity-controlled conditions. Wolfgang is a humidity fanatic—and those who have collected for decades will tell you: humidity is key for long-term aging. Built case by case and joyfully depleted bottle by bottle, Wolfgang's cellar is one of the most soulful in the world. As he likes to say, "Terroir doesn't end at bottling." His fifty-one cherished selections include red Burgundy reaching back to 1923 and including 1961 Comte de Vogüé Musigny Vieilles Vignes on up to 2010 Drouhin Musigny and 2012 Ponsot Clos de la Roche Vieilles Vignes in magnum format. White Burgundy stars 1976 Ramonet Bâtard-Montrachet and 2012 Coche-Dury Corton-Charlemagne. Top Bordeaux, Champagne, and California round out the selection, capped by some incredible bottles of Taylor Fladgate Port back to 1863 and the rarest Klein Constantia that possibly dates back to 1791! We are honored to offer wines from this true bon vivant, still spry and active at the young age of ninety-five!!

Nearly fifty special selections from Ancient Wonders of a Swiss Doctor grace this landmark European sale in lots 52-101. A generous and devoted wine lover, this good doctor has hosted many esteemed tasting events, always eager to open something extraordinary. Sourced straight from temperature-controlled storage in Geneva, the collection is solely Bordeaux—and what a selection it is! 1900 Lafite, 1921 Haut-Brion, 1945 Latour, 1959 La Mission, 1961 Lafite, and modern marvels like 1982 Cos d'Estournel and 1998 Cheval Blanc in magnum are all offered in excellent condition—rare, old, majestic, and truly what the doctor ordered! There are so many gorgeous old bottles here!!

From a seasoned collector and Scandinavian hockey player comes Northern Lights, lots 102-271, a 116-lot marvel removed from his immaculate personal cellar in Finland! Bordeaux shines from 1924

Margaux to 2020 Pétrus, with highlights including 1959 Latour, 1989 Mouton, and 1937 & 1945 Yquem. Burgundy glimmers with 1991 Rousseau Chambertin, 1985 DRC La Tâche, and six vintages of Ramonet Montrachet. There's also Vega Sicilia to 1968, Grange to 1959, and rare Tokaji Essencia, capped with a Champagne lineup including seven vintages of Selosse and bottles of 1995 Krug Clos d'Ambonnay. A dazzling tour through some of the world's most sought-after wines thanks to our Finnish friend!

A second stunning Nordic entry is Dreaming of a White Christmas, a 129-lot White Burgundy dream in lots 520-648. A retired elite athlete consigned this showstopper, storing his prized bottles with the same precision he brought to sport, in impeccable, temperature-controlled professional storage in Norway. Raveneau takes the spotlight with eighty lots spanning 1979–2013, including full cases of Blanchot, Butteaux, Les Clos, and Valmur. Thirty-one lots of Coche-Dury follow, including 2008 Meursault Caillerets and 2009 Perrières, joined by top-tier Red Burgundy from DRC and Rousseau. You don't have to dream about it, the finest Burgundy can be yours from this magical collection!!

The 137 spectacular selections in Around the World of Fine Wine, lots 649-785, take us on a globe-spanning wine journey with bottles removed from professional storage in Switzerland! Bordeaux features jaw-dropping highlights including 2000 Cheval Blanc in magnum and 2005 in double magnum OWC, bottles and magnums of 2005 Pétrus, 2016 Le Pin magnums, and an imperial of 1995 Mouton!! Burgundy arrives with fifteen lots of Rousseau and twenty-seven of DRC, alongside additional high points from Mortet, Roumier, Méo-Camuzet, Prieuré-Roch, Ramonet, and Coche-Dury. Champagne sabers Salon Le Mesnil, while Italy boasts Giacosa, Ornellaia, and more. Harlan from multiple vintages brings us back stateside and wraps up this monumental collection from a truly spectacular Swiss collector!

Speaking of Switzerland, the 200+ lots From Switzerland with Love, lots 921-1126, are like a Swiss bank vault of fine wine! The travels begin with post-modern Bordeaux in original packaging including 2018 Pétrus, 2010 Lafleur, and stellar selections from Latour and Figeac. Burgundy takes the stage with sweet sixteen DRC, including OWCs of 2016 and 2019 La Tâche. Further Red Burgundy legends abound, from Mugnier Les Amoureuses to Roumier, Dujac, and Bizot Morey-St-Denis. White Burgundy beckons with Bonneau du Martray, Coche-Dury, and PYCM, and gems from Cristal, Soldera, Sine Qua Non, and Screaming Eagle conclude this mountainous offering, all removed from ideal professional storage in Switzerland for this Swiss client and friend of the house. This is a stellar selection of some of the world's best from the past fifteen years and can be building blocks for your own collection and the decades to come!!!

And that's not all! One of our favorite European friends and enthusiastic German collectors brings 119 mostly Burgundy and Champagne selections to the party in lots 322-440, Alles Ist Gut! We've shared many unforgettable wine nights over the past two decades with this consignor, and we are thankful for his contribution to our first-ever Swiss sale! A towering 1979 Pétrus double magnum leads the way for thirteen lots of Roumier, plus DRC, and Vogue and Drouhin Musigny. Coche-Dury, Lafon and Leflaive represent White Burgundy well, before an awe-inspiring thirty-nine lots of Dom Pérignon catch our eye, alongside more Champagne from Krug, Cristal, and Salon. Das ist sehr gut!

Other highlights include Pristine Parcels of Petrus Courtesy of The Chairman in lots 866-895, including parcels of OWC Pétrus from benchmark vintages including 2009, 2010, 2011, and 2012—many in large formats. Don't miss the star lot of the sale - a spectacular signed 1959 Jayer Richebourg magnum in lot 519 —a holy grail in excellent condition given to its current owner from Henri Jayet himself! Read more about this bottle inside, it's story is amazing! And The Conquistador returns with sixty-eight unique Spanish treasures from a 12th-century cellar in Barcelona in lots 1283-1350! We told you this sale was special!!!

Last but not least, we are distinctly honored to welcome five direct consignments from some of the most revered producers in France to this historic auction. For deeper insight into each of these remarkable domaines and their offerings, don't miss the full write-ups in the catalog, but we welcome with open arms and open mouths Domaine Didier Dagueneau (lots 786-802), Domaine Fourrier (lots 803-817), Domaine Dugat-Py (lots 818-828), Domaine Duroché (lots 829-833) and Château de L'Étoile (lots 834-858). It is an incredible assortment of wines from these incredible Domaines, including bottles back to 1893 and others never before released!!! Too much to share in this brief introduction, read on!!!

Join us Saturday, June 14, for this unforgettable day and raise a glass with us as Acker makes its debut in both Switzerland and Europe. Cheers to your health and to great wine!

THE LEGENDARY COLLECTION OF WOLFGANG GRUNEWALD

There is no better way to kick off our very first live auction in Switzerland than with the timeless and legendary collection of the native Swiss, Wolfgang Grunewald! The offerings from his collection have been the most treasured from our buyers over the years, and we convinced him to part with fifty-one fabulous selections to help us celebrate our first Zurich auction! A native of Appenzell, Switzerland, his main cellar is nestled in the mountains, where the rolling green hills are breathtakingly beautiful, and all of his exceedingly special wines are kept in a rigorous temperature and humidity-controlled environment—as ideal as you can possibly imagine. Wolfgang is a big humidity fanatic, as are so many of the greatest collectors. Those who have collected for decades will tell you the same thing: humidity is critical for long-term aging. Wolfgang Grunewald's collection has been built over decades—nurtured and grown case by case, and passionately depleted bottle by bottle. I've shared many wines, meals, and memories with this true bon vivant, and his cellar is one that merits extra-special attention, because there simply aren't many like it anymore. As Wolfgang likes to say, "Terroir doesn't end at bottling, and the proper setting is crucial. And so, my friends, on that note I hope you enjoy these cherished bottles from my vinous journey as much as I have enjoyed them—and that you lovingly take care of them properly as well." The selection begins with a terrific trio of Bordeaux lots, including 1989 Haut-Brion, 1990 Pétrus, and 1953 Trotanoy. Red Burgundy reaches back to 1923 and includes 1961 Comte de Vogüé Musigny Vieilles Vignes on up to 2010 Drouhin Musigny and 2012 Ponsot Clos de la Roche Vieilles Vignes in magnum format. White Burgundy stars 1976 Ramonet Bâtard-Montrachet and 2012 Coche-Dury Corton-Charlemagne. A Bollinger Vieilles Vignes Françaises vertical spanning 1992 to 2010, in original wood cases, is on the block alongside selections of Dom Pérignon, Krug, Salon, and Cristal! We touch on California greatness with Screaming Eagle and its Flight Red before toasting this fine occasion—and this finest collection—with a touch of one of Wolfgang's favorite winter sippers, Port. And there are some incredible bottles here of Taylor Fladgate Port back to 1863! It is with great honor that we once again offer wines from the legendary collection of Wolfgang Grunewald—still spry and active at the very young age of ninety-five!!!*

Acker
SINCE 1820

1 Château Haut Brion - Vintage 1989

Graves

"This continues to be one of the immortal wines and one of the greatest young Bordeaux wines of the last half-century. Consistently prodigious and almost a sure bet to top the scoring card of any blind tasting of this vintage as well as other years, the 1989 Haut-Brion is a seamless, majestic classic, and a tribute to this phenomenal terroir and its singular characteristics. The wine still has a very thick, viscous-looking ruby/purple color; a spectacular, young but awesome smorgasbord of aromas ranging from scorched earth, liquid minerals, graphite, blackberry and black currant jam to toast, licorice, and spice box. The levels of fruit, extract, and glycerin in this viscous, full-bodied, low-acid wine are awe-inspiring. The brilliant symmetry of the wine, extraordinary purity, and seamlessness are the hallmarks of a modern-day legend."(100pts)

1 bottle per lot US$1500-2000
per lot CHF1300-1800

2 Château Pétrus - Vintage 1990

Pomerol

"The phenomenally rich, well-endowed 1990 P trus has been magical from the first time I tasted it in cask. The color is a dense, jammy plum/purple. The wine possesses a knock-out nose of black fruits intertwined with aromas of toasty new oak, caramel, and flowers. Massively rich and full-bodied the 1990 is an extraordinarily rich, seamless wine with layers of flavor, and a finish that lasts for nearly 45 seconds."(100pts)

4 Musigny - Vintage 1961

Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue

5.5cm bc, hbsl, sos, Avery's bottling, excellent color*

"The 1961 Comte de Vogue Musigny Vieilles Vignes was a grassy lassy, showing excellent acidity amongst its beefy, bloody and brothy components. There was horse and hay in this 'smokier' Musigny from an underrated vintage. This was also a bit sassy to go with its grassy, and wild herbs and coffee developed in the glass."(96pts JK)

1 bottle per lot US$2000-2800

10 Musigny - Vintage 2010

J. Drouhin

"The suave and gorgeously rich middle weight flavors display superb precision and like its stable mate, the palate impression is one of pure silk. There is ample minerality on the fantastically complex and persistent finish and once again, this is a picture perfect example of power without weight. In short, this is absolutely a 'wow' wine."(94-97pts BH)

11 Musigny - Vintage 2011*J. Drouhin*

"A gorgeously complex and intensely spicy nose of plum, cassis, black cherry and dried rose petal complements to perfection the silky, supple and round middle weight plus flavors that display plenty of minerality. The supporting tannins are firm but markedly ripe and already well-integrated into the explosively long, austere and impeccably well-balanced finish." (95pts BH)

"Moderate bricking but still ruby core. A simply gorgeous and incredibly complex nose of smoke, game, earth, spice and sous-bois-infused aromas..." (96pts BH)

2 bottles per lot US$1000-1400
per lot CHF900-1200

14 Ruchottes Chambertin - Vintage 1983*M. Bonnefondhstl, wrl, sdc, scc, ssos

1 bottle per lot US$400-600
per lot CHF350-500

16 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 2012*Vieilles Vignes, Ponsot3lbsl, 1nl, 3scc

"Tasted blind at the annual "Burgfest" tasting in Beaune. The 2012 Clos de la Roche Vieilles Vignes Grand Cru from Laurent Ponsot has an extravagant, generous nose with hints of kirsch and raisin infusing the cranberry and blueberry fruit. Fortunately it does seem to calm down in the glass, rein in some of that nascent enthusiasm. The palate is sweet on the entry with red fruit, marmalade and dried orange peel. This is a grand cru that just wants to go out and please, a sexy Pinot Noir that does not hold back, which is what you want from this grand cru. This is a tempting offering, so much so that it is easy to overlook its pedigree." (96pts)

3 magnums per lot US$3000-4000

17 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 1983*Les Suchots, R. Arnouxlbsl, sdc, scc

1 bottle per lot US$300-400
per lot CHF260-350

18 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2012*Coche-Durylbsl

"The aromatics unfurl with a sense of ease prioritizing finesse over power: beeswax, linden, lemon thyme and fresh pear. The palate is exquisitely balanced with fleeting glimpses of Seville orange and apricot. But there is more about the tension, the effortlessness and that it just rolls out across the finish like a huge Turkish rug. This is the kind of wine that exhausts superlatives." (97+pts)

1 bottle per lot US$4000-6000
per lot CHF3500-5500

19 Meursault - Vintage 2015*Les Caillerets, Coche-Durylbsl, nc

"Sexy scents of orange oil and spicy oak, plus a floral touch that struck me as more Puligny than Meursault. Dense and silky but also precise and penetrating; more a wine of finesse and delicacy than size or power. Still, there's a fleshiness here and a singed orange note suggesting that some grapes were grilled by the sun. A wine of great individuality, finishing with an impression of strong dry extract and a whiplash of fruits and flowers." (93pts VM)

28 Dom Pérignon Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1996

ltc*

"Dom Pérignon's 1996 Rosé is one of my all-time favorite Champagnes, but I have never tasted it this way, nor has anyone else in the room. Three bottles of the 1996 Rosé are lined up; a standard fifth, magnum and jeroboam. We are all quite curious to taste the three wines, as they were all released at different times. It is quite common for Champagne houses to vary the level of dosage according to the bottle size and release date, but DP is notoriously tight-lipped on such matters, so it is impossible to know for sure. The jeroboam is opened first. It is tight as a drum. Over the course of several hours, the wine opens up beautifully and by the end of the dinner it is clearly the most intriguing and complete of the three. I wish I owned more of these, but this is the last. The magnum is great right out of the gate. I adore the magnum format for all wines, but Champagne in particular. This is a fabulous showing. The straight fifth is also surprisingly closed at the outset, but then blossoms quickly. At the first tasting, it is the most impressive of the three bottles but as time passes there is much less development here than in the big bottles. What a fascinating comparative tasting." ANCIENT WONDERS FROM A SWISS DOCTOR

Nearly fifty special lots from an extremely passionate collector—sourced straight from temperature-controlled storage in Geneva—grace our landmark European sale. A generous and devoted wine lover, the good doctor has hosted many esteemed tasting events, always eager to open something extraordinary. I had the pleasure of tasting a 1959 Clau Dau half bottle on-site in his cellar, and it was divine! Introduced to the great French wines by his father, he has spent decades building a remarkable private collection—one that speaks to the most distinguished names across Burgundy, Bordeaux, and beyond. This scintillating selection is solely Bordeaux – and what a selection it is!! Ancient wonders reach back more than a century, including 1900 Lafite, 1921 Haut-Brion, and 1928 Latour. Famed 1945s include Haut-Brion and Latour, while the stellar 1947 Right Bank offerings are led by Latour à Pomerol. Additional highlights include 1959 Latour, 1959 La Mission, 1961 Latour, and 1961 Lafite, alongside more modern marvels such as 1982 Cos d'Estournel and 1998 Cheval Blanc in magnum. This is a spectacular selection of rare, old and majestic bottles, and all are in excellent condition—and truly what the doctor ordered!!*

"The 1961 had a killer nose that was very racy with lots of vigor and t n a. It was also very sweet in a musky, nutty, caramel-y way. There was lots of oil in this rich and nutty wine, and as soon as I tasted it, I flashed to 1971 and 76 Grange. This menthol/eucalyptus craziness was total Grange. It was rich, hearty and full of strawberry flavors. Bipin concurred that this was always one of the sweeter 61 s, and likened it to a bon-bon ." (94pts JK)

"The 1998 Cheval Blanc, a blend of 65% Merlot and 35% Cabernet Franc, is deep garnet-brick in color and absolutely explodes with scents of exotic spices, incense, dried roses, cigar box and licorice, with a core of Crème de cassis and dried cherries plus touches of black tea and dusty earth. Medium to full-bodied, it fills the mouth with rich, plushly textured fruit and then POW it hits the mid-palate with an explosion of Chinese five spice and floral perfume sparks, leading to an epically long finish. This cannot fail to impress and can easily cellar for another 30 years or more."(100pts)

It remains tannic, but its extraordinary perfume of smoked meats, dried herbs, cedar, black fruits, underbrush, and leather is seductive. It is full-bodied, with a sweet, intense mid-palate, plenty of power, and decades of life remaining. This is an under-rated, stunning Latour that may even improve. Anticipated maturity: now-2020." "Port-like, with an unctuous texture, and a dark garnet color with considerable amber at the edge, the 1961 Latour possesses a viscosity and thickness. One of the three bottles served at the Château's tasting revealed a surprisingly aggressive, minty, herbaceous nose, but the other two bottles were liquid perfection, exhibiting fragrant, cedary, truffle, leather, mineral, and sweet, jammy aromatics, full-bodied, voluptuous textures, exquisite purity and concentration, and a layered, highly-nuanced finish that represents the essence of compellingly great wine. The 1961 has been fully mature for over 15 years, but it seems to get richer, holding onto its succulence and fat, and developing more aromatic nuances without losing any sweetness or concentration. An extraordinary wine, it is unquestionably one of the Bordeaux legends of the century!..." (100pts)

90 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 1947*Pauillachtms, lbsl, excellent color

"I have never had anything but extraordinary, decadent, fabulously rich, concentrated bottles of the 1947 Mouton-Rothschild. The exotic, ostentatious bouquet of ginger, mint, coffee, cedar, and gobs of cassis fruit is followed by a syrupy, viscously-textured, thick, juicy Mouton that is bursting with fruit. Although drinkable since I first tasted it over a decade ago, it exhibits no signs of fruit loss or color deterioration. NORTHERN LIGHTS

This stunning collection hails from a seasoned Scandinavian collector who has been building his cellar for many years. A lifelong hockey player—still hitting the ice to this day—he approaches everything with passion and precision. This offering of 116 stupendous selections includes many older bottles drawn directly from his immaculate personal cellar in Finland. The Bordeaux section is truly illuminating, spanning from 1924 Margaux to 2020 Pétrus!! Highlights include 1959 Latour in half-bottle, 1959 Mouton, 1966 Cheval Blanc, 1989 Mouton, and 2017 Pétrus!!! White Bordeaux glows with historic treasures like the incredible 1937 and 1945 d'Yquem!! The big stars of Burgundy glimmer as well, led by three bottles of 1991 Rousseau Chambertin and DRC selections including 1985 La Tâche and 2007 Montrachet! Six vintages of Ramonet Montrachet—highlighted by 2007—add even more brilliance. From the Rhône, we find iconic Guigal La Las and hidden gems showcasing 1961 Jaboulet Hermitage La Chapelle! No celebratory occasion is complete without Champagne, and this one shines with magnums of Bollinger, seven vintages of Selosse, and nine bottles of 1995 Krug Clos d'Ambonnay. We round things out with Vega Sicilia to 1968, Penfolds Grange to 1959, and rare Tokaji Essencia. Thanks to this spirited collector for a dazzling tour through some of the world's most coveted wines, all removed from a combination of professional and temperature-controlled home storage with pristine provenance!!

"The 1961 had a killer nose that was very racy with lots of vigor and t n a. It was also very sweet in a musky, nutty, caramel-y way. There was lots of oil in this rich and nutty wine, and as soon as I tasted it, I flashed to 1971 and 76 Grange. This menthol/eucalyptus craziness was total Grange. It was rich, hearty and full of strawberry flavors. Bipin concurred that this was always one of the sweeter 61 s, and likened it to a bon-bon." (94pts JK)

"Following from a delicious half-bottle in February, the Château Cheval Blanc 1966 put in another impressive performance just a few months later. Served blind, it has a typical bouquet for the vintage: tobacco and cigar box, the fruit in the background, tertiary and classic in style. The palate is very well balanced and errs more towards the Left Bank than the Right Bank: structured, firm, aloof but compelling. This is a sublime expression of Cheval Blanc and it deserves to be drunk over the next 8-10 years. Tasted September 2014." (94pts)

"The bouquet on the 1949 Cos d'Estournel could bring a man or woman to tears. It is so pure that it is difficult to describe in words. Initially it brings to mind, perhaps, a stupendous old Chambertin, the red fruit unfolding, almost crystalline in nature with subtle scents of orange blossom, sage, sandalwood and incense. The detail and delineation is breathtaking. The palate does not disappoint with perfect balance, perfect acidity, a slightly graininess to the texture. It finishes with almost sorbet-like freshness that lights up the senses. There is nothing powerful or even ambitious here, simply a Saint-Estephe that flirts with perfection. Apart from perhaps the 1949 Mouton-Rothschild, it may well constitute the best 1949 I have encountered so far. Tasted at the Cos d'Estournel vertical at the property." (99pts VM)

"We finished this glorious evening with a strong pocket pair, beginning with the 1947 Latour. The '47 has never been considered one of the top-tier wines of this legendary vintage, but this bottle shattered that myth. The '47 was creamy and nutty with a sweet, open nose. Aromas of grape and broth were present in this rich, saucy and sexy wine. The palate was lush and chunky, grapy again due to the youthfulness of the bottle, but there was a kiss of toughness to its finish. Its secondary acidity was impressive, and the wine got longer and zippier in the glass. This was another great Latour, undervalued in the market." (96pts JK)

"Port-like, with an unctuous texture, and a dark garnet color with considerable amber at the edge, the 1961 Latour possesses a viscosity and thickness. One of the three bottles served at the Château's tasting revealed a surprisingly aggressive, minty, herbaceous nose, but the other two bottles were liquid perfection, exhibiting fragrant, cedary, truffle, leather, mineral, and sweet, jammy aromatics, full-bodied, voluptuous textures, exquisite purity and concentration, and a layered, highly-nuanced finish that represents the essence of compellingly great wine. The 1961 has been fully mature for over 15 years, but it seems to get richer, holding onto its succulence and fat, and developing more aromatic nuances without losing any sweetness or concentration. "The 1989 Château Mouton-Rothschild might not reach the ethereal heights of the 1982 or 1986, but it is certainly a lovely Claret. It has an attractive, slightly leafy bouquet armed with cedar and pencil lead. There is less fruit concentration than I expected, resolutely classic, slightly austere Bordeaux. The palate follows suit. What it lacks in substance it compensates with in balance and personality. This is an understated Mouton-Rothschild that is probably at its peak, although I envisage this offering another two decades of pleasure. "Served from an ex-Château bottle. As the old saying goes: there are perfect bottles but not perfect wines. True. But there is absolutely no question that this was a perfect bottle of Sauternes. The 1945 Château d'Yquem got off to an inauspicious start when a rare frost (-2 degrees) on May 2 miraculously only affected two or three leaves at the top of the vine and left the nascent buds unscathed. Château records detail that the 1945 was picked during six pickings that spanned six weeks from Monday to Saturday. It would seem that observance of the Sabbath led to God's blessing upon the resulting wines. Harvest commenced on September 9 (after 41mm of rainfall on August 29 provoked widespread botrytis) and finished on October 20. The 1945 Yquem is loaded with 164 grams per liter residual sugar with 4.41 grams per liter total acidity, but statistics are a moot point. Do not let its tawny port appearance put you off. The bouquet is so ridiculously delineated and pure that it will make any other Sauternes within its ambit look ordinary. The aromas race from the glass: Seville orange marmalade, quince, wilted rose petals and an old antique bureau. The palate is perfection. The balance is extraordinary, the acidity effortlessly slicing through the candied orange peel and quince notes, a subtle saline tang delivered on the shimmering, crystalline finish. Returning to the bottle two hours later it has lost absolutely none of its energy. I might one day drink a Sauternes equal to the 1945 Yquem, but I will never drink a Sauternes that is better. Drink now-2040+. Tasted March 2014." (100pts)

"The 1999 Rousseau Chambertin was so ample, yet still a teenager. There was more purple to its deep fruit. Jennie P. admired its awesome make up and complexity.' Despite being so young, it opened up in the glass a bit, resulting in the best bottle of this that I can ever remember having. It was thick, long and spectacular. Gentleman Jim, who was starting to resemble One-Eyed Jack lol, hailed it 'my favorite at some point.' What a flight." (97pts JK)

137 Chambertin - Vintage 2005*A. Rousseau*

"I was frankly quite surprised to find the Chambertin almost as expressive and every bit as broad aromatically as the Bèze as the nose is equally kaleidoscopic if featuring a more deeply pitched set of fruit aromas and more earth. The flavors are bigger if not finer with serious power and weight on the rich, full and driving finish that possesses an exuberant underlying sense of energy, all wrapped in a core of rock solid but ripe and balanced tannins. Like the potential of the Bèze, this too has a chance to ascend as one of the top vintages ever typified by such years as '34, '49, '52, '62, '66 and '91. Arguably the Chambertin of the vintage." Vieilles Vignes, D. Bachelet lbsl, ll, lvl
"This is very 1996 in character with its combination of power and finesse with elegant, almost completely primary pinot fruit and flavors underpinned by slightly edgy tannins and very nice length. This is delicious yet entirely serious as the structure coupled with the acidity and mid-palate density will permit this to age over the medium term. The only nit is a slight vegetal quality to the extremely fresh and vibrant finish. Consistent notes." (90pts BH)

"This is also very primary and backward as hints of supremely elegant and seductive exceptionally ripe black fruit aromas replete with soy, hoisin, clove and anise nuances merge into wonderfully fine and refined linear and firmly structured flavors that culminate in a precise, pure and driving finish that goes on and on. This is a really impressive effort that offers terrific potential but fans of this wine should note that it is arguably more masculine than it usually is yet at the same time utterly seamless. A 'wow' wine that is perhaps the ripest of the DRC '05s. A true knockout that is sheer class." (97pts BH)

148 Clos de Tart - Vintage 2001*Domaine du Clos de Tart1x1 magnum owc*

"The 2001 Clos de Tart is aging beautifully and is maturing into one of Sylvain Pitiot's finest wines. Replating its performance in 2010, it has a very expressive bouquet of vivacious red berry fruit: wild strawberry and raspberry, laced with minerals and dried rose petals. The palate is very well-balanced and full of succulent brambly red fruit. Perhaps it is moving into its secondary phase less slowly than I anticipated, with nuanced undergrowth notes developing toward the finish, which remains very fruit-driven and tense. There is a sense of style and class to this Clos de Tart, a grand cru bound to age with those same attributes over the following decade and beyond. Drink now-2024+. Tasted January 2014."(94pts)

The purity here is really sensational as there is an intensely tactile impression of stones on the palate and outstanding precision. "As the late picking date would suggest, this is a very ripe and wonderfully nuanced wine with a brilliantly complex nose of white peach, pear, exotic yellow fruits, acacia blossom and citrus hints that complement perfectly the rich and monumentally constructed flavors that possess an almost chewy texture yet the mouth feel is one of satin and silk, all wrapped in a palate staining mildly toasty finish that displays impeccable balance and incredible length. "The 1990 Domaine Leflaive Puligny-Montrachet Les Pucelles stood out from the crowd, a testament to the 1990 vintage. The Leflaive seemed relatively coiled, intense and wound with its mint, yellow wax and mineral aromas. There was long and distinguished character in its nose as its minerals unveiled sinus-clearing acidity still behind it. Long on the palate, I could easily see this wine drinking well in another ten years. Racy and vibrant, stylish and secure, the 1990 Pucelles was a true baby Grand Cru."(94pts JK)

"Saturated, powerful and focused fruit of dried citrus peel, white flowers plus a hint of green apple are framed by a deft touch of pain grille, merging into massively proportioned flavors that display seemingly endless reserves of sappy extract. There is no denying the sheer magnitude of the flavor impact and drive and the intensity builds from the mid-palate and continues on to the phenomenally long back end. Montrachet is rarely an understated wine yet this manages to be both powerful and reserved, effortlessly combining the sheer elegance and minerality of fine Chevalier with the robust power and muscularity of great Batard. This will eventually be counted among the greatest wines of the 2000 vintage."(96pts BH)

161 Montrachet - Vintage 2001*Ramonetsdc*

"A fantastically complex nose explodes from the glass immediately and requires almost no coaxing to reveal a simply marvelous breadth of aromas, from white flower to honeysuckle to ripe orchard notes to spice elements combine to deliver a genuinely stunning aromatic kaleidoscope. The palate impact does justice to the nose with superb depth and remarkable density by any standard but especially in the context of the vintage as the sap completely coats and stains the palate. While this is clearly very young, there is less tension here than in the B tard at the moment though the balance and length are so good that this will require at least 7 to 8 years to really begin to deliver the promise that the underlying raw materials already so brilliantly hint at. A great effort by any measure."(97pts BH)

"Unlike the majority of the Ramonet '04s, this is as one would expect, which is to say reserved and primary yet classy, pure and ultra refined with a wonderfully complex if presently subdued nose of spicy white flower fruit nuanced by hints of citrus, liquid minerals and acacia blossom that continue onto the rich, intense and beautifully delineated flavors that possess exceptionally subtle wood notes on the hugely long finish. As good as the other grands crus are, there is simply another dimension here and while I don't think this will be one of the longest-lived vintages of this much storied wine, it should provide much pleasure in its inimitable way. In a word, striking."(95pts BH)

"This wine was inserted as a ringer in a tasting of old vintages of some extraordinary Bordeaux. I was able to guess what it was, but not without difficulty. At first I thought it was a 1961 Latour a Pomerol given its sweet nose and expansive, lavishly rich palate. However, with airing, some of the wild, game-like, smoked duck aromas that I associate with Syrah began to emerge. The wine is in extraordinary condition. Still improving, it exhibits an unctuous texture, unbelievable concentration, and a profound bouquet. The finish is out of this world. Clos d'Ambonnay
9x1 bottle ogb's
"The 1995 Brut Blanc de Noirs Clos d'Ambonnay is simply profound from the very first sip. All of the classic Krug elements are there; the signature bouquet, the finesse of the best Clos du Mesnils, but with the broader shoulders of Pinot from Ambonnay. The fruit is intricately layered in sublime, graceful notes of mineral-infused, perfumed berries that linger on the eternal finish. Totally rich and seductive, the 1995 Clos d'Ambonnay is a wine that will stimulate the intellectual and hedonistic senses to the maximum. In a word, it is divine." (98pts)

"Long a tight wine. The acidity is certainly clear and quite hard under the surface like all 96's, but it is embedded in a thick seductive chewable layer of nougat, leather, autumn aromas and cocoa. Magnificent and a pleasure for both brain and heart. Latest absolutely magnificent and best of all 96s !!! Very reminiscent of Krug's vintage wine from the same year and is not at all such a clear Blanc de Noirs, but in fact best of all in an elegant, fresh and senseless Krug-scented way." (99pts RJ)

Cristal Rose
2x1 bottle ogb's
"Perhaps potentially the best rose I've tasted. There is a finesse and crystal-clear elegance that makes me happy. This ros reminds me very much of the white '89, with its perfect balance, crackling acidity, and irresistible aromatic purity. A wonderful gift from the Royal Ballet's premier dancer, Brendan Collins. Best "Party Champagne" ever produced, according to the Millennium Tasting. Slightly less fascinating in a perhaps not perfectly stored case lately. The development is slightly too rapid in comparison with what I was expecting, and while the wine has indeed gained in strength and depth, it has lost too much in elegance." (97pts RJ)

"This bottle of the 1996 Blanc de Blancs Le Mesnil Brut was drinking superbly and represents the apotheosis of Blanc de Blancs, unfurling over the course of three hours with a stunningly complex bouquet of citrus oil, confit lemon, dried white flowers and oyster shell, with hints of praline and pastry cream becoming more pronounced as the wine opens up in the glass. On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, deep and multidimensional, defined by the incisive spine so typical of the vintage that, here, is cloaked in layers of crisp fleshy and chalky extract. The finish is long, penetrating and saline." (99pts)

FROM THE CELLAR OF A SWISS ENTREPRENEUR

This noteworthy consignment from a successful Swiss entrepreneur and friend of the house showcases some of the finest names in wine. Meticulously acquired, expertly stored, and always presented in outstanding condition. These forty fabulous selections span more than a century of vintages! We hit blackjack with twenty-one Bordeaux lots, beginning with a rare 1912 Latour. The lineup continues with heavy hitters including a 1959 Grafe-Lecocq Pétrus magnum, and six bottles each of 1966 and 1970 Pétrus. Additional standouts include six magnums of 1982 Lynch Bages in OWC, twelve bottles of 1982 Pichon Lalande in OWC, and full cases of 1986 Margaux and 1989 Montrose, also in original packaging. Beyond Bordeaux, the collection features 1973 and 1986 Romanée-Conti from DRC, and 1964 Mascarello Barolo, 1988 Sassicaia, and 1962 Vega Sicilia Único in magnum. All wines were removed from ideal, professional storage in Switzerland.

"There is no question that Leoville Poyferre was not making wines at the level of quality they have since 1990. That said, the 1982 is a great wine, no doubt because of the vintage rather than the winemaking at that time. A brilliant effort, it boasts a dense purple color as well as a sweet, flowery bouquet revealing plenty of creme de cassis, plum, and cherry notes, stunning concentration, a boatload of power, sweet tannins (the sweetest and easiest to taste among the St.-Juliens), and a long finish. 267 Château Margaux - Vintage 1986*Margaux5bn, 1vhs, 1ll, 1sdc, 1nc, 1x12 bottle owc*

"The 1986 Château Margaux is one of the dark horses of the vintage. It has an exquisite bouquet that is now fully mature, with a mixture of red and black fruit, violets, pastilles and hints of cold stone. It blossoms in the glass, gaining intensity all the time. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, a more robust Margaux as you would expect given the vintage, clearly with firm backbone, more straight-laced than the 1985 or 1989. Yet there is wonderful delineation and focus here. If you seek strictness and classicism in a wine, then this is the place to come, plus there is superb mineralité and tension on the ferrous finish. Perhaps a little overlooked in recent years, the 1986 Margaux comes highly recommended for those who love the property. This is a wine finally coming of age."(97pts)

PARCEL LOTS 268-269268 Château Montrose - Vintage 1989St. Estephe1x12 bottle owc*

"For many years I have vehemently argued that the 1989 Montrose is a benchmark wine for the estate. Having tasted it several times over the last couple of months, I have never found a single occasion to alter that view. Tasted at the vertical in London, it continues to shine, having never lost any of its luster in recent years. It is a blend of 65% Cabernet Sauvignon, 25% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc that was picked from 11 to 28 September. Lucid in color, the aromatics do not hold back with vibrant blackberry, blueberry and black truffle, hints of sous-bois, all with sensational precision that few can match in this vintage (indeed, its precision lends it a veneer of modernity since "precision" is now more commonplace across Bordeaux). The palate is brilliantly balanced with filigree tannin. There is wonderful backbone here, extremely fresh and tensile, crystalline even with an exceptional detail, mineral-rich finish that lingers in the mouth. Difficult to fault, this might well be the greatest 1989 Montrose that I have tasted, and certainly wishing to take nothing away from the 1990 Montrose that I tasted alongside, the 1989 is now the one I would pick. Is this the greatest Saint Estèphe of the 1980s? I would put it within the top five Bordeaux of the 1980s. Could this be inching its way to perfection???"(100pts)

270 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 1943*Pauillachtms, hbsl, spc, outstanding color*

"We moved on to Bordeaux and a rare 1943 Château Mouton Rothschild. This older claret softly spoke with savory, old library notes. The Mogul noted that it was a little sour,' but this was just a tender, soft, easy and pleasant wine from a not so fabulous vintage made under difficult circumstances as well. It was just hanging on to being interesting."(90pts JK)

272 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 1989*Pauillac3bn, 1x12 bottle owc*

"The 1989 Château Mouton-Rothschild might not reach the ethereal heights of the 1982 or 1986, but it is certainly a lovely Claret. It has an attractive, slightly leafy bouquet armed with cedar and pencil lead. There is less fruit concentration than I expected, resolutely classic, slightly austere Bordeaux. The palate follows suit. What it lacks in substance it compensates with in balance and personality. This is an understated Mouton-Rothschild that is probably at its peak, although I envisage this offering another two decades of pleasure. Whilst this showing did not replicate some glorious bottles in the past, it remains a very fine Claret that may not be inclined to improve any further."(93pts)

273 Château Pétrus - Vintage 1966*Pomerol4ts, 1vhs, 1hs, 6lbls, 1spc, 6scc, 1cuc, outstanding color*

"Whilst I have tasted many vintages of Pétrus, the 1966 Pétrus is one that has eluded me. Finally, it appeared in a series of 1966s served blind and frankly, it's quality shone through long before its identity was revealed. You can consider this as the final great Pétrus from the original vineyard, before absorbing part of Gazin in 1969. It revels in a stunning bouquet with graphite and bay leaf, as well as very intense black fruit that becomes almost Margaux-like with aeration. The palate is silky smooth with fine tannin, far more reserved and masculine than the 1964 Pétrus, yet disarmingly focused and precise, hints of orange peel and morello cherry towards the pixelated finish."(95pts)

HISTORIC BORDEAUX GEMS

This esteemed UK client, with 25 years in the fine wine trade, comes in under the wire with a small but mighty selection of First Growth Bordeaux from outstanding historic vintages. Long-lived 1953 Latour and 1955 Mouton join 1961 Haut-Brion, Margaux, and Latour from what many consider the greatest post-war Bordeaux vintage. All wines in this collection were sourced exclusively from top-tier private cellars, trusted retailers, and reputable auctions, and have been impeccably stored.

Pauillac

ts, gsl, nl, swc, cuc, outstanding color and condition

"Port-like, with an unctuous texture, and a dark garnet color with considerable amber at the edge, the 1961 Latour possesses a viscosity and thickness. One of the three bottles served at the Château's tasting revealed a surprisingly aggressive, minty, herbaceous nose, but the other two bottles were liquid perfection, exhibiting fragrant, cedary, truffle, leather, mineral, and sweet, jammy aromatics, full-bodied, voluptuous textures, exquisite purity and concentration, and a layered, highly-nuanced finish that represents the essence of compellingly great wine. The 1961 has been fully mature for over 15 years, but it seems to get richer, holding onto its succulence and fat, and developing more aromatic nuances without losing any sweetness or concentration. An extraordinary wine, it is unquestionably one of the Bordeaux legends of the century!..." (100pts)

Out of Magnum. "It was blacker in style, gamy with a pinch of BBQ. Its palate was round, rich and long, certainly deserving outstanding status. The wine was heavy yet dancing with a bit of zip. Buttery and decadent, this was clearly a special wine. This was sweet, outstanding stuff. It was then noted that if Parker hasn't had a great bottle/note of an old Bordeaux, it was like it didn't exist, kind of like the '61 Margaux." (96pts JK)

ALLES IST GUT!

One of our favorite European friends and enthusiastic German collectors is supporting our Swiss auction in a big way! For this milestone occasion, he's parted with one hundred nineteen selections from his personal cellar. We've shared many unforgettable wine nights over the past two decades, and we are thankful for this contribution! While the spotlight shines brightest on Burgundy and Champagne, the collection opens with a towering double magnum of 1979 Pétrus! Burgundy lovers will revel in thirteen lots of Roumier, including a case of 2002 Chambolle-Musigny and bottles of 2016 Chambolle-Musigny Les Amoureuses. Red Burgundy continues with 2005 DRC Echezeaux in six-bottle banded OWC, alongside stellar Musigny from Vogue and Drouhin. White Burgundy is just as compelling, led by 2013 Coche-Dury Corton-Charlemagne and 2020 Lafon Montrachet, along with 2005 DRC and 2008 Leflaive Montrachet!! From there, it's time to celebrate—with an awe-inspiring thirty-nine lots of Dom Pérignon, including four bottles of 1973, a mighty Methuselah of 2009 Luminous in OWC, and parcel lots of 2008 Rosé in both bottle and magnum, all in original packaging. Champagne continues with ten lots of Krug, including six bottles of the newly-released 2006 Clos d'Ambonnay in OWC, nine lots of Cristal and Cristal Rosé, and Salon Le Mesnil, highlighted by four magnums of 2012! All wines removed from temperature-controlled storage in Europe to bring some serious sparkle to our first Swiss sale!! Das ist sehr gut!

Roumier"The 2016 Chambolle-Musigny Les Amoureuses 1er Cru is blessed with a deliriously beautiful bouquet with pure red berry fruit, crushed stone and pressed rose petals. Astonishing focus. The palate is medium-bodied with filigree tannin, vivacious red berry fruit laced with minerals and a touch of piquancy on the perfectly formed finish that you might quibble, just misses a little length, although that will surely develop with continued bottle age. Wonderful. Tasted blind at the 2016 Burgfest tasting." (96pts VM)*2 bottles per lot US$6000-8000

"The restrained but fantastically complex aromas are ripe, pure and elegant, indeed one can simply smell this and be knocked out. Like the Perrières, there are copious amounts of dry extract, which imparts a wonderfully seductive character to the textured and classy broad-shouldered flavors that possess excellent mid-palate fat on the opulent, refined, mouth coating and palate staining finish that is mildly austere as well as hugely long. 367 Montrachet - Vintage 2005*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"An opulent, ripe and moderately oaked in-your-face nose explodes from the glass, bringing incredibly complex and layered aromas that run from floral, citrus, spice and a full range of white and yellow fruit notes that complement to perfection the lush, rich and amazingly concentrated broad-scaled flavors that are underpinned by an intense minerality and a palate staining finish of simply unbelievable length. At this young stage, this is a massive Montrachet that is long on power and muscle and while it's not as elegant as say the 2000, 2002 or 2004 versions, I believe that the refinement one typically finds in this wine will come in time. In sum, for sheer vinous fireworks, this is hard to beat and to call it a "wow" wine would be a considerable understatement. However, note that plenty of time will be required and it will be one of the longest-lived vintages in recent memory. A great, great effort." (98pts BH)

"...this 1989 represents the first re-release from the only series of three consecutive vintage bottlings 1988-1990 in Krug's history. The mingling of saline, nutty, and caramelized notes in the nose adumbrating this wine's entire performance is gorgeous. Butter-toasted hazelnuts, dried wild mushrooms, kelp, and cocoa mingle in a silken, mouthwateringly saline and savory matrix reminiscent of oyster liquor laced with fresh lemon juice (because, there is still a youthfully citric store of energy here). This finishes with correspondingly pronounced umami and with tangy vibrancy of citrus and salt." (96pts)

"Krug 2006 Vintage is bright, tense and full of energy. Lemon confit, pastry, chamomile, dried flowers and tangerine oil all race out of the glass. The breadth of the Pinot comes through on the mid-palate and finish, as the 2006 gains power and resonance with a bit of aeration. Light tropical inflections, along with hints of almond and spice, open up later, adding further shades of nuance. Although it has just been released, the 2006 is unusually open and a real pleasure to taste today. In most vintages, Krug demands cellaring, but in the 2006 readers will find a Krug Vintage that is superb, even in the early going." (97pts VM)

"Long a tight wine. The acidity is certainly clear and quite hard under the surface like all 96's, but it is embedded in a thick seductive chewable layer of nougat, leather, autumn aromas and cocoa. Magnificent and a pleasure for both brain and heart. Latest absolutely magnificent and best of all 96s !!! Very reminiscent of Krug's vintage wine from the same year and is not at all such a clear Blanc de Noirs, but in fact best of all in an elegant, fresh and senseless Krug-scented way." (99pts RJ)

PRISTINE ROUSSEAU AND DRC WITH PERFECT PROVENANCE

This special offering comes from a fortunate collector who acquires everything on release direct from the importer! We are the lucky ones now, as he shares sixty-eight selections from his overflowing cellar with us with a focus on the great Domaines of Armand Rousseau and Domaine de la Romanée-Conti. Two dozen lots of Rousseau lead the way, showcasing 2010 and 2015 Chambertin Clos de Beze, along with 2013, 2017, and 2018 Chambertin. From Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, fifteen remarkable offerings include 2017 Romanée-Conti, 2011 Richebourg, and 2017 and 2018 La Tâche. The rest of the collection is equally refined, featuring producers such as Vogue, Liger-Belair, Dujac, and Comte Lafon, alongside eight vintages of Masseto, including large formats. Additional highlights include three bottles of 2007 Screaming Eagle and a selection of Penfolds Grange. All wines properly stored and in outstanding condition.

"One of the stars of the vintage, the wine (100% Merlot) has exceptional concentration, stunning purity, an inky purple color and a broad, expansive mouthfeel. Not a bit heavy, cloying or overwrought, this is a stunning Pétrus (licorice, blackcurrants and truffles dominate) that will probably hit full maturity in 8-10 years and last 25-35." (96+pts)

"Very deeply colored, indeed this is the mostly deeply tinted of the Rousseau '10s. A gentle touch of wood offsets the highly complex and ultra-fresh nose that interweaves a superb range of floral, spice and distinctly ripe fruit elements. The seductively textured, detailed, pure and vibrant broad-shouldered flavors display a subtle minerality before terminating in an explosive, powerful and tautly muscled finish that delivers massive length." On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, ample and powerful, with a lavishly gourmand attack that evokes the 2009 rendition, but this quickly segues into the mid-palate of an altogether more tautly structural, serious wine, its considerable dimension and concentration underwritten by racy acids. The finish is long and firm. This is a monumental Clos de Bèze built for the long haul." (97pts)*

The palate is medium-bodied with ripe red cherry and crushed strawberry fruit, fine tannins and a harmonious, caressing finish that demonstrates assiduous use of new oak. "The 2016 Clos de la Roche Grand Cru was showing a touch of reduction on the nose, so I had to leave the aromatics to one side. The palate is medium-bodied with a firm grip on the entry. This is a stricter, less opulent, more masculine Clos de la Roche with a saline note that became more prominent toward the finish. This will deserve at least five years in bottle: broody, a little saturnine at the moment but one surely destined to repay cellaring. Keep your eye out for this one."(93-95pts)

"The 2017 La Tâche Grand Cru soars from the glass with a captivating and beautifully integrated bouquet of exotic spices, rose petals, raspberries, cherries and blood orange mingled with notions of cinnamon and coniferous forest floor. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, deep and multidimensional, with a deep and tightly coiled core that marks it out as the most muscular wine in the cellar, displaying considerable concentration and largely concealed structure. While this is a dramatic young La Tâche, there's evidently plenty held in reserve, too, and it simply has appreciably more presence than any of the other wines that preceded it in this tasting."(96+pts)

"The restrained and markedly cool nose displays an impressive variety of floral and spice hints that add a sense of elegance to the stunningly complex ripe dark berry fruit and plum aromas. While this is almost always a muscular and at times even robust wine young, in 2010 it offers a truly remarkably sophisticated mouth feel because like the RSV, the tannins are refined and fine-grained. Moreover, there is the same knockout complexity that the nose displays on the intensely mineral-driven finish and overall, this is a complete wine of simply fantastic length."(96pts BH)

"The Richebourg 2012 was picked September 27-28 at just 19 hectoliters per hectare, one of the lowest yields in this vintage. This has a serious bouquet, reserved at first, more earth than air. Unusual for this cuvée, there is a sense of exoticism here, a Richebourg daring to show a bit of ankle. Blackberry pastille intermingle with wilted violets, and there is a touch of warmth that belies the precocity of the growing season. Leaving it aside for 10 minutes, there are hints of Provençal herbs, broom and even fennel. The palate is medium-bodied and the first thing that strikes you is its backbone. Well, this is Richebourg after all. But there is an arching structure to this wine that is disguised by the silkiness of its texture, plus an almost citrus freshness and brightness on the finish. This is a Richebourg that will make you giddy with pleasure. 634 cases produced."(97pts)

481 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2017*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"Wafting from the glass with a deep and complex bouquet of dark wild berries, cassis, wilted rose petals, blood orange, exotic spices, licorice and coniferous forest floor, the 2017 Romanée-Conti Grand Cru is full-bodied, satiny textured and multidimensional. It's just as powerful as this year's La Tâche but even more elegantly framed by filigree structure, concluding with an intensely sapid and penetratingly fragrant finish. Pristinely balanced, this young Romanée-Conti possesses huge reserves for the long haul despite its deceptively supple youthful appeal, and it will reward extended bottle age."(98pts)

482 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2016*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"A more restrained and cooler nose reflects super-fresh and floral-inflected aromas of exceptionally spicy red and dark currant, violet, plum and tea. There is a highly refined mouthfeel to the almost lacy yet concentrated middle weight flavors that possess first-rate complexity on the balanced and wonderfully persistent if youthfully austere finish. This crunchy effort is class in a glass with its emphasis on finesse which is quite different from the evident power and punch of the Corton. Textbook built-to-age RSV."(95pts VM)

"Tasted at the pre-dinner vertical to mark Sylvain Pitiot's retirement from the domaine, the 2009 Clos de Tart Grand Cru has a more intense bouquet than the 2010, although it does not possess the same otherworldly sense of nuance and complexity. Yet it blossoms in the glass, attaining more and more precision, and redcurrant and cranberry scents appear mixed with rose petal and bergamot. The palate is medium-bodied with lovely balance and poise; the tannins are perhaps a little firmer and grippier than the 2010 with a symmetry on the finish that is beguiling. It actually becomes more like the 2010 on the finish so that the two wines end up more similar than you would expect, given the growing season. It is a sublime expression of the vintage."(97pts)

"A sublime, seamless wine, the 2010 Montrachet impresses for its fabulous balance and sense of harmony. All the elements are in the right place. Floral aromatics meld effortlessly into highly nuanced fruit. Hints of smoke, slate and mint add complexity. Not surprisingly, the Montrachet has tightened up considerably since I tasted it from barrel last fall. The 2010 is going to require a measure of patience. Today, it is an infant, and also shows some of the effects of its recent bottling in June, 2012. Lafon's parcels lie on the Chassagne side, but the wine itself shows more of a Puligny-like finesse. 495A Masseto - Vintage 2006*Ornellaia1x3 bottle owc*

"The wine that most delighted me at this historic tasting of Tuscany's most iconic wines was the 2006 Masseto. This is a wine of sheer power, bliss, opulence, infinity and sublime seduction. This Merlot-based masterpiece hits all your senses with the grace of a ballerina and the power of a heavyweight. It is steady on its proverbial feet, but it also glides over the palate with a profound sense of elegance, harmony and rhythm. Among the prized vintages of Masseto, including 2001, 2004 and 2007, this edition is my favorite. The wine delivers an extra sense of tightness or firmness at the back that serves to stitch together its fleshy richness and general sumptuousness. The personality is sunny, expansive, articulate and sophisticated. You'll remember that the 2006 vintage is celebrated for the elegance of its wines. In the coastal Bolgheri appellation, it is also remembered for the power of its wines. You get the best of both worlds with this stunning creation: elegance and power. These traits are particularly well suited to the versatile grape variety at the heart of this Tuscan all-rounder. This is a true Renaissance wine." (100pts)

I fully expect the 2008 to develop into one of the great Massetos. Needless to say, it will be interesting to taste the 2008 in vertical tastings in the future. Anticipated maturity: 2018-2033." "Tasted from barrel, the 2013 Masseto is shaping up to be a super star. This edition of the wine is already more muscular and tight compared to the warm vintage expression in 2011 and 2012. This Masseto instead is linear and balanced with pretty fruit tones that are enhanced by enduring sensations of baking spice, dark chocolate and tobacco. The bouquet delivers the classic aromas you should expect of a Merlot of this high standard. The mouthfeel also shows a tight acidic vein that bodes well for the future evolution of this stunning wine. Martine hailed it as a wild beast,’ and Gil observed, gunpowder and Chinese black oolong tea.’ There was an ocean of fruit here; one had to swim through it to find structure on its shores. This was 1999 at its finest. The pitch was insane, shattering my nose as if it was meant to be an ear drum, and its perfume lingered like memories of a perfect home-cooked meal from Mom. While adolescent, its creamy, purple fruit said it was ready for the draft, and its nose was described as fireworks,’ a chameleon,’ and spearmint.’ Thierry hailed it as brighter, better and fresher’ than the great 1990, a bold statement, indeed. Its flavors were dessert-y without being sweet decadent, exotic, hedonistic, take your pick. Gil observed, caramel Crème brulee,’ and beef and citrus tried to join the party. 1959 HENRI JAYER RICHEBOURG MAGNUM FROM THE CELLAR OF ROY RICHARDS

There are rare wines—and then there are singular icons. This magnum of 1959 Henri Mayer Richebourg, hand-carried from Mayer's cellar and signed by the legendary vigneron himself, comes directly from the cellar of Roy Richards, UK wine merchant and one of the most respected and influential figures in the world of fine wine. Co-founder of Richards Walford in 1982, which served as Mayer's UK importer, and a revered mentor to many, Roy has spent over three decades shaping Burgundy's global reach through his unmatched palate, generosity of spirit, and deep relationships with the region's greatest domaines. Say "Roy" in French wine circles, and everyone knows exactly who you mean!! Roy enjoyed particularly close relationships with many of the world's finest producers—including the late Henri Mayer himself. Roy's Burgundy obsession began with a barrel tasting of 1980 Mayer Cros Parantoux—a wine he'd never even heard of at the time—and that moment sparked a lifelong devotion. This magnum was a personal gift from Mayer to Roy and his longtime business partner, and it has rested untouched in professional UK storage ever since. Don't miss this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to own a piece of Burgundy's sacred history—from one of the most fabled vintages of the 20th century, signed by the man who made it and offered by the man who helped the world understand it!! Thank you, Roy, for sharing this extraordinary treasure with us!

"The 1959 Mayer came from Wilf's cellar, and this extraordinary meal became even more so immediately. It was one of those wines that stopped time, transporting anyone fortunate enough to taste a drop to a place where nothing else matters but pleasure. It was rich and heady like all great '59s and didn't suffer from any over-ripeness or stew that sometimes plagues 1959 in Burgundy. Its finish was endless, another indicator that time is no match for Henri Mayer. I only can hope to try this wine again, just once." (99pts JK)

"A deep sweetness of dark cherry fruit and of marrow-like as well as roasted game meatiness sets the Rousseau 2006 Ruchottes-Chambertin Clos des Ruchottes apart from the wines that preceded it in his collection, and while there is a stony undertone here, the sense of sweetness and rich meatiness dominates through the sustained, savory finish. The refinement, invigoration, and minerality that distinguish the Clos de la Roche are here replaced by a more robustly-structured, overtly ripe, but by no means coarsely tannic personality. I suspect that more mineral dimensions will emerge after a few years in bottle, and this should be fascinating to follow for at least 6-8." (90pts)

"A spicy, expressive and expansive nose of red berry fruit, distinct vegetal nuances, freshly sliced fennel and obvious earth notes that transfer over to the detailed, balanced and energetic flavors that possess excellent transparency on the vibrant and mouth coating finish. "As it usually is relative to the Échézeaux, the restrained nose is distinctly more reserved but classier with a wonderfully intense and layered nose that is more floral still while offering up a variety of spice notes, including anise, clove and soy that can also be found on the pure and sleekly muscled flavors that possess real drive, indeed this does a slow but sure build from the mid-palate on through the explosive finish." "A 2006 DRC La Tâche made everyone stand up and take notice. This was a deep wine showing lots of skin, with that cedary goodness on top of fruit that smelled addictively good. There was almost a drug-like euphoria to the La Tâche. This was a full and long wine, with a finish that was fine and polished despite lingering on and on. There was forest in the house, or this was a house made out of an entire forest, as its breadth and depth impressed us all. Spicy and sexy, La Tache is always special." (96pts JK)

532 Richebourg - Vintage 2006*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"Most impressive and this is a bit like the GE in that the natural elegance of the '06 vintage has tamed somewhat the inherent tendency for there to be a certain robustness in Richebourg to create a harmonious whole. Now that the wine is in bottle, it struck me as a block of stone from which only the vaguest outlines of the final form of the statue have yet to emerge. Superb potential." (95pts BH)

534 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2006*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"Here too is a very reserved yet ultra classy and re-fined, indeed even ethereal nose that is quite simply kaleidoscopic in its breadth, combining red, blue and black fruits with spice, earth, minerality and a hint of underbrush that stands aside for the perfectly balanced, pure and stylish medium full flavors that are very firmly but not aggressively structured while delivering flat out unbelievable length yet all the while remaining completely understated in personality. As are all the very best vintages of RC, this is spherical with nothing out of place and this will age effortlessly for decades. The La Tâche is truly spectacular but there is simply another dimension of depth present here. A wine of sheer class and the epitome of the phrase 'power without weight'." (97pts BH)

535 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2007*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"I have never been treated to such a profusion of floral perfume from this legendary site as rose over the glass of 2007 Romanée-Conti. Hyacinth, rose, gladiola, and iris are underlain by scents of moss-covered, damp stone, wild ginger, and diverse tiny red fruits. "Romanée-Conti c'est le nez," remarks de Villaine of this almost ethereal Pinot. The contrast with the more fleshly La Tache could not be more dramatic. But this doesn't pull back on its silken-textured palate, either far from it: along with persistent inner-mouth profusion of floral perfume come savory, irresistibly juicy raspberry and pomegranate as well as an impression of marrow-rich, multi-boned meat stock. A wafting, wave-like finish harbors the sort of exhilarating sheer refreshment one looks for in white wine, and a kaleidoscopic interchange of colorful floral, spice, fruit, carnal, and mineral elements such as few wines of any sort can deliver." 536 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2006*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1lsl*

"The Domaine de La Romanée-Conti's 2006 Romanée-St.-Vivant charts its own mysterious path, dissimilar to that of their Grands-Échézeaux, as well as reflecting the strides in quality that have manifestly been achieved in recent years in this site, more than at any other at this domaine. Iris, buddleia, and musky narcissus-like floral perfume; ripe purple plum and blackberry; sassafras and licorice; along with smoked meat and a hoisin-like amalgam of spices and soy all waft alluringly from the glass. The tannins here are ultra-refined and there is a vintage-typical sense of levity, despite all of the dark intrigue of enveloping black fruits, forest floor, fungal, and carnal flavors that persist on the palate. Here is an uncanny alliance of the sensual and thought-provoking such as only great red Burgundy among the world's red wines can engender, and if this wine doesn't stimulate in you cravings and wonder at once, the fault is doubtless in yourself and not the glass. It seems to marry the brightness and finesse of the 2002 with the texturally richness of the (unexpectedly fine) 2000, two standouts in recent tasting of Romanée-St.-Vivant that I was privileged to attend. But there is much more depth here, and I expect that this wine's beauty will be worth pondering and savoring for at least two decades." (95pts)

537 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2007*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1lspc*

"An ultra elegant, pure and quite delicately fruited and spiced nose that is extremely fresh, floral and expansive that is more layered still as it introduces seductively textured, detailed and gorgeously delineated middle weight flavors that possess laser-like focus if less density than is usually seen with this wine. Indeed, this is rather like a ballerina with limited power and weight but the watch word here is purity, purity and purity. I quite like this but it will strike some as unduly light though I believe the underlying material is present such that it will add weight in bottle as it ages." (94pts BH)

Coche-Dury
"After a splendid bottle last year, this 2004 Meursault from Domaine Coche-Dury did not hit the same stellar heights. It just did not show quite the same ethereal level of precision and focus as the previous example, perhaps more backward and reticent than I was expecting. It takes time but eventually that gunflint aroma begins to emerge and you start thinking about Coche-Dury. The palate is vibrant and captivating, very well defined with supremely well judged acidity, vibrant citrus lemon and mineral notes with a long finish. It is still a fabulous Meursault, but a point less than last time."(93pts)

4lwrl, 1x12 bottle ocb

"The 2008 Meursault Village is superb, unwinding in the glass with aromas of lemon oil, iodine, mandarin zest and hazelnut cream. On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied and searingly intense, built around a bright line of tangy acidity but with a beautifully textural attack and a deep core of fruit. The finish is tensile and stony, becoming chalkier after an hour or two. When I saw Coche a few days before ordering this bottle, he counseled decanting it, and I'm glad that I followed his advice, as it's a wine that blossoms aromatically and texturally with air. At almost age ten, it's beginning to show well, but it has the balance and energy to evolve for two more decades." (93pts)

571 Chablis - Vintage 1999*Blanchot, Raveneau*

"This is textbook Blanchot with its ultra elegant, subtly spiced fruit and barely medium weight, superbly detailed, wonderfully mineral laden flavors that seem as though they're chiseled from liquid rock. By no means a big or powerful wine, in fact the Montée de Tonnerre is substantially more impressively constructed yet this simply outclasses it by virtue of its sheer elegance and finesse, not to mention the understated complexity and driving persistence. Do not expect to be bowled over by this wine; rather, it seduces through its wonderfully linear character, purity and superb breadth of expression. This is not a simple wine but I was extremely impressed at how something so compact and transparent could be so profound. In fact, this struck me as an exact parallel to the genius of a great d'Angerville Clos des Ducs with its Zen-like signature, e.g. the "real" signature was the absence of one. Some say that Blanchot is not deserving of grand cru status but I would suggest that those who are in doubt taste an example such as this against any of the premiers crus above; I submit that they will ultimately be found wanting, if not in size, weight or power then in completeness as this quite simply aggregates more attributes than any of the foregoing '99s." "At age ten, the 2007 Chablis Grand Cru Blanchot is still an adolescent, and a few more years of cellaring are recommended, but its quality is readily apparent. The wine unfurls in the glass with notes of lemon oil, fresh pastry, honeycomb, oystershell and dried white flowers. On the palate, it's full-bodied, layered and textural, with chewy old-vine extract, succulent acids and a deep, youthfully vibrant core. This represents an enticingly gourmand expression of 2007 Chablis and ranks as one of the vintage's highlights. I'd start pulling corks in earnest from 2020." (95pts)

"Scents of gunpowder green tea, crushed stone, ocean spray, and grapefruit rind rise from the glass of Raveneau 2008 Chablis Blanchots, which then displays a breadth and richness that one would not have anticipated from the nose. Floral perfume and alkaline, iodine, and maritime mineral notes continue on an almost custardy-rich, seamless palate and into a finish of estimable length, although the overall impression here is relatively restrained, despite the wine's amplitude and textural richness. Certainly the sense of minerality goes all the way through. "The benefit of the older vines is apparent as this is notably more complex than either the Forêts or the Montmains with its broad-ranging nose of subtle wood, green fruit, citrus, tidal pool, wet stone and saline notes where the salt and mineral elements continue onto the detailed, intense and exceptionally pure flavors that ooze Chablis character on the palate staining and impeccably balanced finish." "This is more expressive than usual, featuring a hint of wood spice and the usual gorgeously elegant cool green fruit, oyster shell and saline notes that introduce unusually big and powerful flavors that are naturally sweet, intense and like the majority of these '05s, possesses buckets of dry extract. The finish just oozes with minerality and the intensity is almost painful as it really stains the palate. I noted last year that there was marvelous quality here and there was so much material that it could be even better than my range suggested. "According to Raveneau, the airy exposure of its site inherently lends more elegance to his 2006 Chablis Valmur and less weight or opulence than the Blanchots. (The Valmur, too, originates with a high average age of vine.) Diverse flowers and herbal high tones in the nose usher in a remarkably polished, refined palate, one no less tactile in its mineral dimensions than the Blanchots, but more transparent, and with a lift that matches its wafting floral perfume and a purity of yellow plum and grapefruit that are seductively succulent. This unforgettably persistent, truly grand cru should dazzle for 12-15 years." (95-96pts)

"...saturated purple color along with a reticent but striking bouquet of blackberries, blueberries, truffles, and mocha. In spite of its tightness, aeration reveals scents of licorice, menthol, and saddle leather. Opulent and full-bodied, with low acidity, sweet tannin, and a 60-second finish, it is unquestionably as profound as the 1990 and 1982. "...should continue to improve, and may merit an even higher score after additional aging. Stunningly rich and powerful, the dark purple-tinged 2005 Palmer is a blend of 53% Cabernet Sauvignon, 40% Merlot, and 7% Petit Verdot. Aromas of incense, burning embers, black currants, plums, licorice, and flowers are followed by a full-bodied Margaux with more weight and power even than its nearby first-growth rival, Château Margaux. The abundant acidity and tannins are beautifully coated by the wine's exceptional fruit extract and overall harmony and richness. Pomerol

1x3 bottle banded owc

"The 2006 Pétrus now seems to be evolving more slowly than the 2006 Le Pin: the fruit darker with raspberry coulis, mulberry, hints of marmalade and crushed rose petals coming forth. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, gently gripping the mouth and demonstrating admirable weight and complexity. You might almost think there was some Cabernet Franc towards the finish thanks to the subtle peppery notes coming through. It is probably ready to drink now, but the substance here suggests that it will age for another decade and continue to offer pleasure long after. Tasted January 2016." (96pts)

This example showed a little more maturity in colour, but the nose is entrancing and develops beautiful raspberry preserve, pomegranate, cool stone and bay leaf scents that are quite intoxicating. "The 1993 DRC La Tâche is the forgotten, great young vintage of La Tâche. It really needed some time to open up, at first a bit herbal, very tight and structured. After some time, its density, balance and tannins took over, and its palate and acidity were enormous, even longer than the 99 although not as dense. The wine did start to open up slowly but surely and define itself on the palate after a couple of hours, and the acids emerged from a dormant state to really express themselves and let you know they were in the room an earthquake of a La Tâche that shakes the room and stains the soul." As are all the very best vintages of RC, this is spherical with nothing out of place and this will age effortlessly for decades. 712 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2006*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The Domaine de La Romanée-Conti's 2006 Romanée-St.-Vivant charts its own mysterious path, dissimilar to that of their Grands-Échézeaux, as well as reflecting the strides in quality that have manifestly been achieved in recent years in this site, more than at any other at this domaine. Iris, buddleia, and musky narcissus-like floral perfume; ripe purple plum and blackberry; sassafras and licorice; along with smoked meat and a hoisin-like amalgam of spices and soy all waft alluringly from the glass. The tannins here are ultra-refined and there is a vintage-typical sense of levity, despite all of the dark intrigue of enveloping black fruits, forest floor, fungal, and carnal flavors that persist on the palate. Here is an uncanny alliance of the sensual and thought-provoking such as only great red Burgundy among the world's red wines can engender, and if this wine doesn't stimulate in you cravings and wonder at once, the fault is doubtless in yourself and not the glass. It seems to marry the brightness and finesse of the 2002 with the textural richness of the (unexpectedly fine) 2000, two standouts in recent tasting of Romanée-St.-Vivant that I was privileged to attend. But there is much more depth here, and I expect that this wine's beauty will be worth pondering and savoring for at least two decades." (95pts)

"The 2009 Romanée St. Vivant is wonderfully complete. The combination of power and elegance is breathtaking as layers of fruit flow across the palate in stunning style. Hard candy, flowers, mint and dark red berries build to the dramatic, explosive finish. In 2009 the Romanée St. Vivant is a wine of considerable volume and textural depth, but it will require a good many years for those qualities to come through fully." (97pts)

"1999 was a concentrated vintage with big yields. A more intriguing nose - deeper and darker more black fruits, with still some red in there with a reduction sauce quality truffles, earth, stone, nut and spice round out the initial aromas a very balanced and beautiful nose - full yet soft, stylish, and long nose gets better and better as well! Coiled and wound on the palate ('doesn't want to show you anything,' observed Brian) with a touch of stems on the finish amongst its noticeable tannins - will be an incredible wine!..." (95+pts JK)

"Like the Ruchottes, this is already open for business with its wonderfully expressive and densely fruited nose that is both pure and highly spiced where the fruit runs more to the red side of the spectrum, indeed almost like pinot liqueur. There are hints of crushed herb, flowers and stone on the rich, full and sweet medium full-bodied flavors that are utterly seductive as there is a beguiling succulence to the textured and lacy quality to them though the gorgeously long finish tightens up quickly as the ripe tannins make themselves heard." Tactile cinnamon spiciness, bitter-sweet herbs, and black cherry and black raspberry concentrate (fresh, yet with liqueur-like intensity, sweetness and viscosity) saturate the palate, and a dark and rising tide of mineral and carnal flavors meets the fruit and spice in a thunderous finish. 739 Montrachet - Vintage 2008

"The 2008 Montrachet is simply off the charts. Where to start? Layers of fruit literally explode in the glass as the wine conquers all of the senses. The aromatics alone are breathtaking, while the fruit shows striking nuance and transparency. But those descriptors totally fail to capture what is in the glass. This is one of the most moving young wines I have ever tasted. The 2008 is rich, seductive and powerful, but never heavy. Finely chiseled mineral nuances saturate the palate all the way through to the intensely saline finish. When I think of what I want Montrachet to be, it is this. The 2008 Montrachet is an aspirational wine in the very best sense. Ideally another few years in bottle will help the wine become even more expressive and several decades of profound drinking seem likely. Wow! Anticipated maturity: 2018+."(98+pts)

"A fantastically complex nose explodes from the glass immediately and requires almost no coaxing to reveal a simply marvelous breadth of aromas, from white flower to honeysuckle to ripe orchard notes to spice elements combine to deliver a genuinely stunning aromatic kaleidoscope. The palate impact does justice to the nose with superb depth and remarkable density by any standard but especially in the context of the vintage as the sap completely coats and stains the palate. While this is clearly very young, there is less tension here than in the B tard at the moment though the balance and length are so good that this will require at least 7 to 8 years to really begin to deliver the promise that the underlying raw materials already so brilliantly hint at. A great effort by any measure."(97pts BH)

"It floats on the palate with an ethereal core of sweet fruit that calls to mind a profound Musigny, but with the unmistakable structure of Nebbiolo. The perfumed purity of the fruit carries all the way through to the deeply satisfying, resonating finish. Made in a soft, seductive style, this remarkable wine is decidedly more approachable and easy to appreciate today than the Rabaja. Giacosa fans will have a great time discussing the merits of the Rabaja and the Asili in 2004, but to me they are virtually equally moving; Asili for its feminine gracefulness and Rabaja for its size and power. The Asili should prove more accessible at an earlier age. Bruno Giacosa says his 2004 Asili Riserva will turn out to be just like his 2000 Asili Riserva, the wine he still thinks is the best he's ever made."(98pts)

766 Barolo - Vintage 2006*Monvigliero, Burlotto1nl, 1lbsl, 1nc, 1x1 double magnum owc*

"The 2006 Barolo Vigneto Monvigliero is the finest wine I have ever tasted from Burlotto. Monvigliero is a site that typically yields Baroli with high-toned aromatics that can tend towards excessive herbaceousness if there isn't enough fruit to provide balance, something I have often found in this bottling. Not in 2006. This sumptuous yet delicate, classically built Barolo flows with gorgeous layers of red berries, spices, flowers and herbs, showing superb harmony, plenty of depth and fabulous overall balance. To be sure, the wine's signature profile bears more than a passing resemblance to the wines of northern Piedmont, but in 2006, all of the elements are in perfect harmony. This is a fabulous effort from Burlotto, and is highly recommended, particularly for readers who appreciate a firm, classic style of Barolo. Anticipated maturity: 2016-2031."(94pts)

777 Sassicaia - Vintage 2008*Tenuta San Guido1x12 bottle owc*

"The 2008 Bolgheri Sassicaia is a wine without a winemaker. The last vintage made by Giacomo Tachis was 2007 and incoming enologist Graziana Grassini claims 2009 as her first vintage. Within the context of this retrospective, the 2008 vintage opens a new chapter, because it is the first wine to show evident tertiary definition and complexity. In fact, the wine performs beautifully with an exalted performance and ethereal aromas. They include cassis, wild berry, crushed mineral, licorice, petrol and grilled herb. This wine is really coming together now and is entering a very exciting moment in its drinking life. It boasts finesse, elegance and grace. Yet, it also shows unmistakable richness and structure that gives the wine an enormous presence in terms of mouthfeel. This was one of the top highlights of the retrospective." (97pts)

"Bright full ruby. Pure, perfumed aromas of blackberry, cassis, lead pencil, violet and minerals, complicated by a superripe note of crushed raspberry. Extremely primary and pure, offering sharply defined cassis, violet and mineral flavors of great class. The perfectly integrated acidity and a vibrant floral character from the cabernet franc give the middle palate terrific lift. Though very ripe in its flavor profile, this wine conveys a rare lightness of touch that is typical of Sassicaia but rare for this vintage on the Tuscan Coast. Finishes with noble tannins and outstanding palate-staining length. For all its creamy power and charm, I really like this wine's balance and the subtle delivery of its complex flavors..."(97+?pts VM)

DOMAINE DIDIER DAGUENEAU

We are honored to offer, for the first time ever at auction, seventeen selections direct from the cellars of the great Domaine Didier Dagueneau!! Few names in the Loire Valley command the reverence of Didier Dagueneau. Inspired by both the Loire and Burgundy greats—Edmond Vatan and Henri Jayer—and grounded in the wisdom and traditions of his grandfather Louis Dagueneau, Didier set out to craft Pouilly-Fumé of extraordinary dimension, with a focus on terroir. He acquired his first parcel, 1.2 hectares of En Chailloux, and launched his label with the 1982 vintage. By 1985, the now-iconic Silex joined the lineup, followed by Pur Sang in 1988. A maverick in both spirit and winemaking, Didier redefined what Sauvignon Blanc could be. His commitment to biodynamic farming, rigorous vineyard work, and revolutionary cellar techniques—including natural fermentations, sans-soufre vinification, and a fierce dedication to precision—elevated Pouilly-Fumé to new heights. His wines became known for their power, purity, and energy. Today, the Domaine continues under the exacting direction of Didier's children, Louis-Benjamin and Charlotte. As the fifth generation of winemakers, Louis-Benjamin has upheld and refined his father's philosophy, maintaining the estate's reputation as a global benchmark for Sauvignon Blanc. Widely recognized for his talent, Louis-Benjamin was named Winemaker of the Year by La Revue du Vin de France in 2016 and has continued to evolve the Domaine's approach without compromising its soul.

The selections offered here are exceptionally rare, and all presented in large format—from magnums to six-liters! The coveted Silex is available from 2012 through 2020, alongside the elusive 2018 Memento Mori Vin de France, and the near-mythical Astéroïde from 2010, 2019, and 2020!!! Silex remains the estate's flagship—a wine born from flint soils, known for its intense minerality and aging potential. Memento Mori is a tribute cuvée created by Louis-Benjamin in memory of his father: a contemplative wine made in tiny quantities that invites reverence as much as pleasure, and is a true collectible—especially in large format! Astéroïde stands in a class of its own: a wine of extraordinary rarity made from a minuscule plot of ungrafted, notoriously temperamental vines totaling just eighteen rows, and bottled only in select vintages, with production rarely exceeding 200 liters. Do not miss the monster six-liters of Silex 2014 and 2015, and the magnum of the legendary Astéroïde 2020—formats that have never before been released commercially! The wines of Domaine Didier Dagueneau deserve their place among the great singular wines of the world, and we extend our heartfelt thanks to Louis-Benjamin Dagueneau for his trust and for consigning this exceptional offering of rare and coveted bottles!!!

DOMAINE FOURRIER

Domaine Fourrier (previously known as Pernot-Fourrier) has a long history in Gevrey Chambertin extending over four generations, founded by Fernand Pernot during the 1930's. Fernand's nephew, Jean-Claude Fourrier, took the reins of the Domaine in 1969 and Jean-Marie Fourrier took over the family Domaine from his father in 1994 at the young age of 23. Jean-Marie's experience was gained not only at the family Domaine in Gevrey, but also at Domaine Drouhin in Oregon and with the legendary Henri Jayer in Vosne Romanée. Upon his arrival, Jean-Marie completely reinvigorated his family's Domaine by wisely combining the traditions of his family and the experience gained with Henri Jayer, while adding his own clear sense of style. Older vines, lower yields and more natural winemaking are the key to success here, and the resulting wines have great precision and finesse. Jean-Marie Fourrier is today to be considered one of Burgundy's brightest stars - few producers have been able to ascend to the top echelon of Burgundy as quickly as Jean-Marie! It is always a privilege to include wines from this esteemed Domaine and, for our Zurich celebration, we are proud to offer fifteen remarkable selections, presented primarily in original six-bottle cases. The lineup features a brilliant range of old-vine Gevrey-Chambertin Premier Crus—including Combe Aux Moines, Les Champeaux, Les Goulots, and the great Clos St. Jacques—alongside the rare and coveted Griotte-Chambertin Grand Cru. These cuvées span the 2016 to 2020 vintages and reflect the essence of Fourrier's refined, terroir-driven style. Thank you, Jean-Marie!!!

DOMAINE DUGAT-PY

Currently in its thirteenth generation, Domaine Dugat-Py is situated in the oldest cellar in Burgundy, built nearly one thousand years ago in Gevrey Chambertin! The family were long-time vine growers, and Pierre Dugat began estate bottling in 1989 before handing off to his son Bernard, who turned the Domaine over to his son Loïc in 2015. Today, under Loïc's direction, Dugat-Py's wines have reached new heights, showing greater finesse, drinkability, and vibrancy—without sacrificing the depth and concentration for which they're known. With a focus on viticulture and the twenty appellations they cultivate, the Domaine has been certified organic for two decades, and the wines are vinified with as little intervention as possible. Now producing both white wines in the Côte de Beaune and red wines primarily coming from Gevrey, Domaine Dugat-Py has a diverse portfolio of wines of exceptional quality. They are perhaps best known for their Charmes Chambertin, which comes from four plots that total about two-thirds of a hectare. Their further Grand Cru offerings include Mazoyères Chambertin, Mazis Chambertin, and an ultra-rare Chambertin, usually less than one barrel produced each year. With over thirty wines from just fifteen hectares, these wines have a cult following and are in high demand with short supply! We are thrilled and honored to present eleven compelling selections from this storied estate, spanning 2005 through 2023. The offering includes Corton-Charlemagne, a stunning range of Gevrey-Chambertin including Cœur de Roy and Lavaux Saint-Jacques, Mazoyères-Chambertin, and rare old-vine bottlings of Mazis-Chambertin, Charmes-Chambertin and Chambertin Vieilles Vignes, direct from the esteemed Domaine Dugat-Py!!

DOMAINE DUROCHE

One of the most exciting developments in Gevrey Chambertin has been the emergence of young winemaker Pierre Duroché. However, the first bottling at the Domaine was way back in 1933! Pierre has slowly taken over from his father Gilles, quietly and steadfastly producing some of the most exceptional wines in Gevrey. The fifth generation in his family's lineage of winemakers, Pierre is a force with which to be reckoned! He eschews the modernist approach to new oak in order to make delicate and detailed wines throughout the Domaine's 8.25 hectares. Their holdings include small parcels of Premier Crus Estournelles St. Jacques and Champeaux, 1.2 hectares of Lavaut St. Jacques, plus small holdings of the Grand Crus Charmes Chambertin, Griotte Chambertin, Latricères Chambertin and Chambertin Clos de Bèze. Recently, Pierre and Marianne added a micro négoce that allows them to offer different wines while strictly respecting the same philosophy and quality as the wines from the Domaine. These wines are from grapes overseen and carefully selected by Pierre, but also from vines sourced from Marianne's family holdings. We are pleased to offer five sensational selections, including rare jeroboams of 2019 Gevrey-Chambertin Les Jeunes Rois and En Vosne, 2020 En Vosne, and the coveted 2015 Chambertin Clos de Bèze. Also of note is a unique and never-before-seen bottle of 2019 Vieille Fine de Bourgogne, a rare spirit distilled from Pierre's own grapes. Only one hundred bottles will be produced—and this one is offered with no reserve. Bid what you wish – the market will decide! This is a great opportunity to acquire bottles direct from one of Gevrey-Chambertin's most sought-after Domaines!

CHÂTEAU DE L'ÉTOILE

The village of L'Étoile has long been considered one of the Jura's hidden gems. Named for the fossilized star-shaped marine creatures found in its limestone soils, L'Étoile has cultivated wine since at least the Middle Ages and was granted AOC status in 1937. Its reputation for producing age-worthy, mineral-driven whites—especially from Savagnin and Chardonnay—makes it one of the Jura's most distinctive terroirs. At the heart of the village lies Château de L'Étoile. The modern estate was established in 1883, when Auguste Vandelle planted traditional Jura varieties like Chardonnay and Savagnin, laying the groundwork for a legacy passed down through generations. His son, Joseph Vandelle, preserved that vision, and his grandson, Georges Vandelle, brought the estate to prominence—especially for Vin Jaune and Crémant du Jura. Thanks to Georges' foresight and deep understanding of the terroir, Château de L'Étoile became a benchmark for Jura wines, celebrated for its authenticity, elegance, and consistency. Fast forward to 2024: a new chapter begins. Louis Fourier, alongside his associate Florian Scatamacchia, has taken on the challenge of breathing new life into this historic estate. They were drawn not only by its stunning terroir and remarkable heritage, but also by the immense potential waiting to be reawakened. What they discovered was a sleeping beauty. Though its voice had faded over the past fifteen years, its identity remained intact. The vines, the soils, the memory—all still here, waiting. Their project is about more than restoring a winery. It's about honoring a lineage, reviving an appellation, and reestablishing Château de L'Étoile as a jewel of the Jura.

We are honored to present an extraordinary offering of twenty-five selections direct from the Château—an unparalleled glimpse into Jura's winemaking heritage through the ages! The collection includes twelve vintages of Chardonnay dating back to 1893 (!!!), with highlights such as 1927, 1947, 1961, 1970, and 1987. Aged for one year without topping, these wines have matured with remarkable grace, showcasing the oxidative complexity for which the region is so revered. No Jura collection would be complete without Vin Jaune—the region's iconic oxidative white, aged for over six years without topping and bottled in its signature 62cl clavelin. Offered here in a single lot featuring the 1959, 1983, and 2004 vintages, these wines represent the essence of traditional Jura winemaking. Also featured are two hallmark cuvées: the 2005 Réserve du Mont Muzard, made from the native Savagnin grape, and the 2008 Cep D'Or, a blend of Savagnin and Chardonnay sourced from the estate's oldest vines. Both whites are aged sous voile in classic Jura style and embody the region's distinctive texture and character. Three vintages of Savagnin Rose—1966, 1976, and 1990—add further rarity and intrigue. A nearly extinct grape and mutation of Savagnin, it lends a delicate pink hue and uniquely aromatic profile. Nearly impossible to find today, these wines are treasured by collectors for their singularity and scarcity. On the red side, the collection includes five selections of Côtes du Jura Rouge, including six bottles of the scarce and impressive 1949 vintage, along with examples from the 1970s and 1990s. Originally a blend of Pinot Noir, Trousseau, and Poulsard—and more recently produced exclusively from Trousseau—these reds capture the earthy vibrancy and rustic charm that define Jura's red wine tradition. Finally, the sweet and savory 1947 Vin de Paille offers a captivating glimpse into the region's traditional dessert wine style. Made by drying Savagnin grapes on straw mats and aging for three years, this rare wine is complex and enduring. Each of these bottles has been resting in the Château's own cellar since they were made and have only been removed for this auction! A unique opportunity to experience the full spectrum of Jura expression—direct from one of its brightest stars, Château de L'Étoile!!

A MAGNIFICENT SEVEN

This longtime European collector—whose company we’ve enjoyed on many occasions while tasting through countless vintage treasures—offers a distinguished selection in support of our inaugural Zurich auction. A generous and genuine spirit, this multinational businessman presents a magnificent seven selections, most in original packaging, including full cases of 1990 Lafite, 1982 Latour, 1989 Margaux, and 2009 Montrose. Ten bottles each of 1983 and 1990 Margaux, along with two bottles of the storied 1982 Pétrus, round out this focused and majestic lineup. All wines have been removed from professional storage in Geneva.

859 Château Lafite Rothschild - Vintage 1990

Pauillac

1nc, 1x12 bottle owc

“The 1990 Lafite has turned out far better than my early assessment. While it still possesses some firmness, and performs like a late adolescent in terms of its evolution, it boasts gorgeous aromas of cedar, tobacco leaf, cassis, and lead pencil shavings. The explosive aromas are followed by a fleshy, full-bodied wine that should hit its peak in 5-8 years, and last for 25-30 more.”(96pts)

860 Château Latour - Vintage 1982

Pauillac

1bn, 8ts, 5lwrl, 2ll, 1cuc, 1x12 bottle owc

“The dense, opaque garnet-colored 1982 Latour reveals slight amber at the edge. Sweet, smoky, roasted aromas in the nose combine with jammy levels of black currant, cherry, and prune-like fruit. It possesses extraordinary concentration and unctuousity, with a thick, fat texture oozing notes of cedar wood, tobacco, coffee, and over-ripe fruit. Low acidity as well as high alcohol (for Bordeaux) give the wine even more glycerin and textural chewiness. The finish lasts forever.”(100pts)

"Its ethereal bouquet of sweet black fruits, cedar, spices, flowers, smoke, and vanilla is remarkably well-formed and intense. In the mouth, there is not a hard edge to this classic wine, which is super-concentrated, soft, silky-textured, and opulent. It displays an opaque ruby/purple color, a compelling bouquet, and exquisite layers of flavors that cascade over the palate without any notion of toughness or coarseness."(100pts)

"A dense ruby/purple-tinged color and restrained but intriguing aromas of kirsch, raspberry jam, wood spice, and mulberries are found in this full-bodied Pétrus. An undeniable success in 2011, it is rich, layered and pure with light to moderate tannin, but seems slightly less muscular and tannic compared to its stablemate, Tro-tanoy." (95pts)

"This continues to be one of the immortal wines and one of the greatest young Bordeaux wines of the last half-century. Consistently prodigious and almost a sure bet to top the scoring card of any blind tasting of this vintage as well as other years, the 1989 Haut-Brion is a seamless, majestic classic, and a tribute to this phenomenal terroir and its singular characteristics. The wine still has a very thick, viscous-looking ruby/purple color, a spectacular, young but awesome smorgasbord of aromas ranging from scorched earth, liquid minerals, graphite, blackberry and black currant jam to toast, licorice, and spice box. The levels of fruit, extract, and glycerin in this viscous, full-bodied, low-acid wine are awe-inspiring. The brilliant symmetry of the wine, extraordinary purity, and seamlessness are the hallmarks of a modern-day legend."(100pts)

"...exhibits a saturated, nearly opaque dark ruby/garnet color, as well as a tight but promising bouquet of roasted nuts, dried herbs, and rich, jammy, curranty fruit. The most impressive components are the exceptional richness and textured feel. An opaque dark garnet color is followed by aromas of sweet cedar, old wood, truffles, smoke, and underbrush. Big, thick, juicy, black currant, and cherry flavors can be found in this muscular, monster-sized, exceedingly tannic, dense, backward wine. "Approaching full maturity, this beautifully sweet Château Margaux has a dense plum/purple color and a huge, sweet nose of black currants intermixed with licorice, toast, underbrush, and flowers. Medium to full-bodied with supple tannin and a fleshy, juicy, very succulent and multi-layered mid-palate, this expansive, velvety wine has entered its plateau of maturity, where it should remain (assuming good storage) for at least another 10-15 years. A very delicious, seductive, and opulent Château Margaux to drink over the next two decades." (95pts)

"The 1986 Château Margaux is one of the dark horses of the vintage. It has an exquisite bouquet that is now fully mature, with a mixture of red and black fruit, violets, pastilles and hints of cold stone. It blossoms in the glass, gaining intensity all the time. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, a more robust Margaux as you would expect given the vintage, clearly with firm backbone, more straight-laced than the 1985 or 1989. Yet there is wonderful delineation and focus here. If you seek strictness and classicism in a wine, then this is the place to come, plus there is superb mineralité and tension on the ferrous finish. Perhaps a little overlooked in recent years, the 1986 Margaux comes highly recommended for those who love the property. This is a wine finally coming of age." (97pts)

"The 1989 Château Mouton-Rothschild might not reach the ethereal heights of the 1982 or 1986, but it is certainly a lovely Claret. It has an attractive, slightly leafy bouquet armed with cedar and pencil lead. There is less fruit concentration than I expected, resolutely classic, slightly austere Bordeaux. The palate follows suit. What it lacks in substance it compensates with in balance and personality. This is an understated Mouton-Rothschild that is probably at its peak, although I envisage this offering another two decades of pleasure. Whilst this showing did not replicate some glorious bottles in the past, it remains a very fine Claret that may not be inclined to improve any further."(93pts)

FROM SWITZERLAND WITH LOVE

I fell in love with Switzerland ever since my first visit to the country decades ago when I visited the amazing cellar of Wolfgang Grunewald for the first time. There is nothing quite like its unique combination of spectacular mountains and lakes...and there also is one heck of a wine culture! My love affair with Switzerland and wines there continue with a cellar that is like a Swiss bank vault of its finest wines, and we are pleased to present more than two hundred selections from this outstanding collection! The travels begin with post-modern Bordeaux in original packaging, including six bottles of 2018 Pétrus, as well as magnums of 2017 and 2019. You'll also find 2010 Lafleur in bottle and 2018 in magnum, with strong supporting roles from Latour and Figeac. Burgundy takes center stage with a sweet sixteen lots of DRC, led by six-bottle OWCs of 2016 and 2019 La Tâche, and joined by top names like Dugat-Py, de la Tour, Vogüé, and Comte Liger-Belair. Additional highlights include five bottles of 2010 Mortet Chambertin, six bottles of 2021 Bizot Morey-St-Denis Clos de la Bidaude in OCB, and a full case of 2012 Mugnier Chambolle-Musigny Les Amoureuses in OWC. These are joined by stellar offerings from Clos de Tart, Dujac, Roumier, and Prieuré-Roch. White Burgundy joins the procession with Bonneau du Martray, Coche-Dury, PYCM, and more, before we saber parcels of 2014 Cristal in OCBs. Italy struts its stuff with magnificent Barolo from Burlotto and Rinaldi, capped by Tuscany's Soldera Case Basse, with twelve bottles in OWC of the 2016 vintage. We show California some love with Harlan, Heitz, Sine Qua Non, and Screaming Eagle, concluding this mountainous offering—all removed from ideal professional storage in Switzerland.

This is a classic Figeac, up there with the 1947 and 1949, both recently re-tasted and testifying to a wine that genuinely belongs among the elite Saint-Émilion. Medium to deep garnet-purple colored, it offers vibrant red currants, black cherries, wild blueberries, earth and mineral characteristics to begin, with slowly unfurling floral notes of violets and dried roses plus compelling baker's chocolate and fragrant earth layers. Medium to full-bodied, generously fruited and possessing firm yet very, very fine-grained, mind-blowingly ripe tannins, the multi-faceted palate features something of a skip in its step in terms of freshness, while it goes beguilingly earthy on the finish with some mineral hints. 942 Chambertin - Vintage 2015*Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau*

"The 2015 Chambertin-Clos de Bèze Grand Cru is spectacular, wafting from the glass with a dramatic bouquet of sweet grilled meat, red and black fruit, candied peel and rich soil. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, ample and powerful, with a lavishly gourmand attack that evokes the 2009 rendition, but this quickly segues into the mid-palate of an altogether more tautly structural, serious wine, its considerable dimension and concentration underwritten by racy acids. The finish is long and firm. This is a monumental Clos de Bèze built for the long haul. "(97pts)

"The 2010 Clos de la Roche is fascinating to taste after the Mazis. The Clos de la Roche is all about power, structure and length, qualities it has in spades. There is huge depth and serious extract to the fruit, with equally big tannins to provide support. Layers of intense fruit are intermingled with persistent saline notes on the vibrant, finely chiseled finish. It will take years for the tannins to start melting away, but when they do the 2010 will be a dazzling wine. Actually, it already is. Anticipated maturity: 2030-2050. "(94-96+pts)

"There has just enough reduction to shave the top notes from the nose where hints of earth and dark berries can still be discerned. Otherwise there is terrific punch, detail and minerality to the tautly muscular, vibrant and mineral-driven big-bodied flavors that are supported by very firm tannins on the ever-so-mildly austere and gorgeously persistent finale. As is often the case with this wine, it's both restrained and compact at present but everything is in place such that it should age beautifully. In a word, excellent." (93-95pts BH)

"Bright, dark red-ruby. Darker on the nose and palate than the Vieilles Vignes, with its black cherry and licorice aromas complemented by a suggestion of mineral firmness. Very dense and thick but quite backward, with its dark fruit flavors complemented by bitter chocolate and strong soil tones. This will evolve in bottle for a long time but is distinctly less seductive and expressive today than the Vieilles Vignes, finishing with the tannic mass of a 2015 and strong medicinal reserve. More Richebourg in style than Musigny." (94-96pts VM)

954 Musigny - Vintage 2012*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue1x6 bottle owc*

"Tasted blind at the annual "Burgfest" tasting in Beaune. The 2012 Musigny Vieilles Vignes Grand Cru from de Vogüé has slightly brighter and more vivacious fruit than J-F Mugnier, and in fact, the two wines seem to go in two different trajectories in the glass, this blossoming and the other becoming more occluded. De Vogüé's Musigny is unashamedly floral in style, very elegant and yet delineated. There is a noticeable estuary scents, mudflats and seaweed, that begin to permeate the fruit. The palate is medium-bodied with very fine tannin, wonderful acidity and succinctly integrated new oak that is barely tangible. It is intense but elegant, long and tender in the mouth. It is a fabulous Musigny, one of the best that the domaine has produced in recent years." (98pts)

"The 2012 Nuits Saint Georges 1er Cru Clos des Grandes Vignes comes from the red vines within the new monopole including some whole cluster fruit. It has a strict, mineral-driven bouquet that is reticent at the moment, but very well defined. The palate has a rich undercurrent of dried orange peel and marmalade flowing under the carapace of quite broody black fruit. This is an intriguing Nuits Saint Georges that will be fascinating to watch evolve. Long-term for sure, but one must wait to see whether it will turn into an introvert or an extrovert. "This is the second time that I have tasted the 2010 Grands Échézeaux Grand Cru from bottle from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, and it was a wine that prompted a table of mature Pinot aficionados to remark upon the joys of infanticide. This is just a fantastic wine from the domaine. The nose is heavenly with its exquisite delineation, the fruit maybe a touch darker and earthier than a couple of years ago -- yet still with subtle woodland/sous-bois aromas and a hint of morels. The palate is wonderfully defined, so fresh and precise with filigree tannin. Yet there is great backbone to this wine, a framework that imparts a sense of symmetry that is totally disarming. Of course, readers should afford this magnificent wine a decade in the cellar...unless by complete accident a corkscrew falls into the cork and twists around until the cork pops out. Then you will have to drink it." (96pts)

977 Richebourg - Vintage 2012*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x3 bottle owc*

"The Richebourg 2012 was picked September 27-28 at just 19 hectoliters per hectare, one of the lowest yields in this vintage. This has a serious bouquet, reserved at first, more earth than air. Unusual for this cuvée, there is a sense of exoticism here, a Richebourg daring to show a bit of ankle. Blackberry pastille intermingle with wilted violets, and there is a touch of warmth that belies the precocity of the growing season. Leaving it aside for 10 minutes, there are hints of Provençal herbs, broom and even fennel. The palate is medium-bodied and the first thing that strikes you is its backbone. Well, this is Richebourg after all. But there is an arching structure to this wine that is disguised by the silkiness of its texture, plus an almost citrus freshness and brightness on the finish. This is a Richebourg that will make you giddy with pleasure. 634 cases produced." (97pts)

The extraordinarily elegant and airy nose is positively kaleidoscopic in its sheer breadth of spice elements that combine with the stunningly pure red and black raspberry fruit aromas that are liberally laced with rose petal nuances. The lacy, intense and beautifully precise middle weight flavors are harmonious and impeccably well-balanced on the fabulously long and silky finish where a touch of youthful asperity is present. "The 2014 Clos de Tart Grand Cru will contain 40% whole bunch fruit in the final. It was picked from September 17 until September 22. This blend that I tasted included the young vines at the bottom of the vineyard that may or may not be deselected to make a Forge de Tart (the decision will be made next year). It is also the first vintage that does not include old vines at the north-west corner that were pulled up in spring 2014, due to be replanted in four years' time. It has a very well defined bouquet with cranberry and wild strawberry fruit, fine mineral tones and is quite harmonious with hints of wet limestone. The palate is medium-bodied and I feel this has tightened up since I tasted it in September 2015. The fruit also seems a little darker. Blackberry and wild cherry, with a hint of cola and certainly more tangible mineralité on the finish, as you can feel the mouth tingling long after it has bid adieu."(95-97pts)

"An intensely floral nose of cool Asian style spice notes merges with dark berry fruit liqueur, kirsch, earth and stone nuances where the minerality is also reflected by the big, rich and sleekly muscular large-scaled flavors. There is excellent concentration to the mid-palate that oozes dry extract that imparts a textured mouth feel to the driving and wonderfully persistent finish." (94pts BH)

995 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2016

Aux Malconsorts, Dujac

"The 2016 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Aux Malconsorts actually has a similar bouquet to the Les Beaux Monts but with heightened mineralité which is prioritized over the fruit. I was momentarily whisked back to my youth, pot-holing in the Lake District, that tang of limestone and moorland in the air. The palate is medium-bodied with fine-grain tannin. As Alec Seysses remarked, there is more "wine" in the Malconsorts compared to the Beaux Monts. It has brilliant delineation and a very complex finish that fans out with real confidence. This is one of the top wines from Dujac. Chapeau." (95-97pts)

The palate is medium-bodied with filigree tannin, vivacious red berry fruit laced with minerals and a touch of piquancy on the perfectly formed finish that you might quibble, just misses a little length, although that will surely develop with continued bottle age. "The 2016 Ruchottes-Chambertin Grand Cru was also showing very well indeed from bottle, revealing a lovely bouquet of wild berries, spicy forest floor, dark chocolate and wild rose. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, deep and satiny, with an elegantly textural attack, a bright core of fruit and a bright line of animating acidity, concluding with a mineral finish. Having escaped the year's frosts, this was cropped at more normal yields than the Clos Vougeot and Échézeaux, so it's no surprise it is more charming but less concentrated than those two special wines."(95pts)

"The 2011 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru has an exquisite bouquet that truly deserves the phrase "liquid mineral." Imagine a limestone quarry being melted down and then distilled multiple times until there is just enough to fill your wine glass. The palate has perfect acidity and subtle spicy notes on the entry: hints of lime flower, citrus lemon and a subtle note of mandarin coming through with aeration. 1060 Montrachet - Vintage 2017*Marquis de Laguiche, J. Drouhin1x1 Jeroboam owc*

"The 2017 Montrachet Marquis de Laguiche Grand Cru was showing very well indeed, unwinding in the glass with aromas of Meyer lemon, tangerine, dried white flowers, green orchard fruit, beeswax and wet stones. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, ample and expansive, with considerable volume and breadth at the core that's balanced by lively acids that lend the wine energy and tension. The finish is long and pure. This is a beautifully balanced Montrachet that I expect to show very well in bottle."(94-96 pts)

"Schedule to be bottled next week (I suspect it will be in bottle by the time you read this), the 2010 Châteauneuf du Pape Reserve des Celestins is a sensational effort. Deeper, richer and more concentrated than the Marie Beurrier, it reveals an unusually inky ruby/purple color to go with overflowing notes of kirsch liqueur, roasted meats, crushed flowers, garrigue and just about every other Provençal spice you could name. Full-bodied, beautifully concentrated, layered and a blockbuster-styled effort, it should surpass the 2007 and possibly rival the 1990. This is a tour de force in Châteauneuf du Pape!" (97-99pts)

1097 Barolo - Vintage 2015*Cannubi, Burlotto*

"A rush of dark cherry, plum, hard candy licorice, violet and spice all hit the palate. Powerful and vertical in the glass, the Cannubi simply has it all. I would give the 2015 a good bit of time to shed some of its considerable baby fat. 1101 Barolo - Vintage 2013*Monvigliero, Burlotto3lbsl, 1lwrl, 1bsl*

"Burlotto's 2013 Barolo Monvigliero is simply magnificent. In many vintages, a young Monvigliero can come across as disjointed, especially in the aromatics and the pungent, savory notes can be overpowering. Not in 2013. All the elements are in perfect balance. A wine of soaring aromatic intensity, pedigree and class, the 2013 is thrilling from the very first taste. Rose petal, lavender, violet, spice, orange peel, white pepper and cinnamon are some of the many notes that infuse the super-expressive finish. All of Burlotto's 2013 Barolos are exceptional. But the Monvigliero, well, it enters the realm of the deeply moving. It is a wine that will leave readers weak at the knees." (100pts VM)

COVETED COCHE-DURY

A rare release from the private cellar of a Swiss wine and art collector, this offering showcases seventeen selections from one of the most revered domaines in all of Burgundy: Coche-Dury. Sourced directly in France and stored in ideal, temperature-controlled conditions, this selection highlights four bottles of the superlative 2012 Corton-Charlemagne, a range of Meursault from different lieux-dits, and the prized Puligny-Montrachet Les Enseignères.

1127 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2012

Coche-Dury

3sdc

"The aromatics unfurl with a sense of ease prioritizing finesse over power: beeswax, linden, lemon thyme and fresh pear. The palate is exquisitely balanced with fleeting glimpses of Seville orange and apricot. But there is more about the tension, the effortlessness and that it just rolls out across the finish like a huge Turkish rug. This is the kind of wine that exhausts superlatives."(97+pts)

per lot CHF13000-18000

1128 Meursault - Vintage 2013

Coche-Dury

2sdc

"...has a straight-down-the-line, flinty/burnt match nose that we have all come know and love from this domaine. Frankly, nobody achieves the precision like this. The palate is very flattering with great volume married with fine acidity, hints of peach and tangerine, lively and vivacious with a long and tender finish that just goes on and on."(92pts)

2 bottles per lot US$1400-1800
per lot CHF1200-1600

1129 Meursault - Vintage 2015

Coche-Dury

"The 2015 Meursault Village is showing very well, unfurling in the glass with notes of crisp yellow orchard fruit, Anjou pear, white flowers, honeycomb and hazelnut cream. On the palate, the wine is medium to full-bodied, satiny and pure, with beautiful balance, succulent underlying acids and an elegant framing of dry extract that lends a mouthwatering quality to the long, penetrating finish. Without either the strong cooperage or reductive signatures of yesteryear's Coche-Dury, it exemplifies the new stylistic direction taken by Raphaël Coche, and it's a terrific success, surpassing both the 2014 and 2013 renditions."(92pts)

Coche-Dury

"Aromas of crisp Anjou pear, lime zest, orange oil, fresh hazelnuts and white flowers introduce the 2019 Meursault Village, a medium to full-bodied, layered and incisive wine that's chalky and concentrated, with racy acids and an abundance of structuring dry extract."(93pts)

1132 Meursault - Vintage 2020

"A more elegant and very Meursault nose combines notes of acacia and citrus confit with those of hazelnut and white orchard fruit, all of which is trimmed in a discreet application of wood."(91pts BH)

1133 Meursault - Vintage 2007*Les Genevrières, Coche-Dury*

"Tasted blind, the 2007 Meursault 1er Cru Genevrières from Coche-Dury is aging well. It has a fascinating bouquet with scents of white flower, walnut, almond and white chocolate that is beautifully defined. With a few minutes in the glass, there is a hint of wild heather. The palate is very well balanced with a silver bead of acidity that cuts through the harmonious citrus fruit. It just exudes precision and nervosité, that hint of reduction towards the finish directing you to the one producer who knows how to use that to great effect. Wonderful. You could broach this now or see how it develops over the next decade...the choice is yours. Tasted October 2016." (94pts)

1134 Meursault - Vintage 2007*Les Rougeots, Coche-Durylwrvl, sdc*

"Pale, bright yellow. Full, powerful aromas of peach, orange and minerals; ripe, inviting and quintessential Meursault. Then broad and aromatic but classically dry in the middle palate, with captivating orange and tangerine fruit dominating. Opens dramatically on the back half to showcase the silkiness and gras of Meursault, but the long finish features superb grip." (94pts IWC)

1135 Meursault - Vintage 2007*Perrières, Coche-Durylwrvl*

"The 2007 Coche-Dury Meursault Perrières had a fantastic nose that was clean and fresh with great class and style. There was nice minerality and mintiness. Someone thought it was so light aromatically, but I didn't mind as I was wrapped up in the smooth and nutty palate. It was outstanding..." (95pts JK)

1 bottle per lot US$2600-3500
per lot CHF2200-3000

1136 Meursault - Vintage 2009*Perrières, Coche-Dury*

"Light and not really bothersome reduction is in any event not sufficient to hide the sublimely elegant aromas of white flower, citrus and wet stone. This refined introduction is followed by stony and beautifully precise flavors that possess a positively gorgeous mouth feel before terminating in a driving, citrusy and presently compact finish that delivers superb persistence. This is still very much of a baby and given that it's blessed with both an abundance of dry extract and impeccable balance should augur for an excellent future." (94pts BH)

"Broader on the nose than the village Meursault bottlings, offering scents of orange oil, peach, spices, minerals and oak char, plus a whiff of unabsorbed SO2. Dense, fat and concentrated; creamier than the Meursault from Narvaux but not heavy. This wine, too, conveys an impression of power. Finishes classically dry, strong and long, spreading out and vibrating on the back end." (91pts VM)

"The bouquet is very precise and focused, offering Golden Delicious apple, honeysuckle and light fennel scents, plus faint orange blossom aromas. The palate is powerful and intense with a fine bead of acidity, hints of praline infusing the slightly peachy fruit, and then coheres beautifully toward the persistent finish." (93pts VM)

"A markedly more floral-suffused nose speaks of carnation and acacia blossom along with notes of white peach, passion fruit and a hint of phenolic character. CUTTING-EDGE BURGUNDY

This exceptional selection of nineteen lots comes from the cellar of a Swiss collector devoted to Burgundy's leading-edge domaines. His cellar has been assembled over decades, and every bottle was sourced directly from the producers or top-tier merchants in Burgundy and Switzerland. Headliners include 2011 Rousseau Gevrey-Chambertin Clos St. Jacques and 2011 Leroy Pommard Les Vignots, alongside impeccably stored jewels from Duroché, Roumier, Mugnier, Pousse d'Or, and Cathiard. A focused and refined tribute - all wines properly stored.

1144 Chambertin - Vintage 2011

A. Rousseau

"This is completely different from the Bèze aromatically speaking as here the nose is brooding and recalcitrant and only aggressive swirling liberates fresh scents of spice, wet stone, game and dark berry fruits. There is outstanding richness to the powerful and impressively scaled flavors that possess an abundance of dry extract that imparts a velvety quality to the mid-palate while also buffering the tightly wound core of firm tannins on the driving mineral-inflected and hugely persistent finish." 1201 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 2016

St. Emilion

1x6 bottle owc

"The 2016 Cheval Blanc is blended of 59.5% Merlot, 37.2% Cabernet Franc and 3.3% Cabernet Sauvignon. Deep garnet-purple in color, the nose is incredibly youthful yet not so shy as some other 2016s at this stage, giving wonderfully intense scents of red currants, black cherries, wild blueberries and violets with nuances of star anise, cinnamon stick, rose hip tea, cigar box and wood smoke plus a touch of beef drippings. Medium to full-bodied, the palate has jaw-dropping elegance and depth, offering up layer upon layer of fragrant red and black fruits plus an extraordinary array of mineral sparks, supported by a rock-solid grainy texture, finishing with epic persistence and an edifying perfume. This is a very different style from the rich, opulently hedonic 2015, yet this wonderfully fragrant, beautifully poised and intellectually compelling 2016 is equally extraordinary." (100pts)

"This is notably more floral as well as more restrained and what is interesting is that even though the violet-inflected fruit profile is just as ripe, it runs toward the red side of the spectrum while displaying a similar variety of spice components that includes a hint of sandalwood. This too is impressively constituted but despite the power and concentration the broad-shouldered flavors retain plenty of underlying tension as well as lovely precision before culminating in a massively long, balanced and harmonious if youthfully austere finale where the only nit is a hint of warmth." EUROPEAN EXPRESS

We are delighted to present yet another slice from a tremendous collection of the world's grandest wines—this time with sixty-four selections, heavily focused on Classified Growth Bordeaux. Mature treasures from the 1980s and 1990s start the engine, including 1986 Ausone in both bottle and magnum, 1997 Haut-Brion in magnum, and a Jeroboam of 1996 Mouton! The 2000s open with 2004 Lafleur in double magnum, while the 2010s bring momentum with the 2019 Collection Groupe Duclot, 2018 Canon in bottle and magnum, 2019 Haut-Brion, 2016 La Conseillante in bottle, double magnum, and imperial, and an imperial of 2018 Mouton! Also featured are top-tier bottlings from Hosanna, L'Église Clinet, La Mondotte, Le Gay, Lynch-Bages, and more—most in original packaging. From Burgundy, we spotlight three bottles of 2007 Domaine Bizot Echézeaux, two bottles of 2007 DRC Montrachet, and a full case of 2000 Leflaive Bâtard-Montrachet. Rhône legends appear in the form of 1990 Guigal La Mouline and 1989 Chave Hermitage, before a final toast with Dom Pérignon. All wines were professionally stored underground in a temperature and humidity-controlled cellar in Switzerland.

They were almost identical on the nose but the one poured later was more compact. It has a very pure bouquet with blackberry, myrtle, a touch of iris and a touch of garrigue (actually reminiscent of fynbos, the wild South African shrubland). The palate is medium-bodied with crisp tannin, a silver bead of acidity, wonderful precision and beguiling purity. 1236 Château L'Evangile - Vintage 1989*Pomerol1bn, 1stl, 1spc*

"I have been a massive fan of the 1989 Château L'Evangile for many years - the best wine of the decade when it was still under the ownership of the redoubtable Mme. Ducasse, before selling a majority share to Eric de Rothschild in 1990. It fulfils all expectations here with its intense nose of blackberries, raspberry coulis, clove and wild heather. The most surprising aspect is just how backward the aromatics seem to be. The palate is extremely well balanced with fine tannin. The acidity is perfectly pitched with layers of dark berry fruit, black truffle and dried herbs - très Pomerol. Adorned with a velvety texture, it cruises towards a Merlot-driven finish that is one of the most powerful you will find in Pomerol this vintage. On this showing, you could cellar it for another 5-6 years; if not, I strongly recommend a long decant. Tasted January 2016." (95pts)

1237 Château La Conseillante - Vintage 2016*Pomerol2x6 bottle banded owc's*

"Bottled in June of 2018, the 2016 Château La Conseillante is a beautifully seamless yet powerful version of this cuvée that has the hallmark fragrance and elegance of the estate front and center. Complex blackberries, cassis, flowers, incense, forest floor, and floral notes all soar from this full-bodied, pure, and polished Pomerol that has an undeniable class as well as wonderful purity of fruit, perfect integration of its tannins and acidity, and a blockbuster finish. It's an incredibly complete wine that flirts with perfection and will keep for 30-40 years. The blend is 80% Merlot, 20% Cabernet Franc, aged in 70% new French oak, with the balance in once-used barrels. There are less than 4,000 cases made, but this is a wine you want in your cellar." "...this is a monster wine. It is one of the most concentrated, massive Pinot Noirs I have ever tasted. The wine was bottled with no fining or filtering after it had spent 23-months in small oak casks. The color is black/purple, and the nose offers up sweet aromas of licorice, minerals, and super-ripe black fruits intertwined with the smell of toasty vanillin new oak. In the mouth, there is awesome concentration, a thick, glycerin-imbued, full-bodied, chewy texture, and mouthsearing tannins in the explosively long finish."(94pts)

"This is a properly youthful and structured grand cru, offering up a fine aromatic constellation of plums, red and black cherries, venison, mustard seed, a complex base of soil tones and cedar. On the palate the wine is full, focused and seamlessly balanced, with a rock solid core of fruit, ripe, well-integrated tannins and a long, nascently complex and chewy finish. Les Enseignerres, Coche-Dury
"Scents of peach, honeysuckle, and orange zest on the nose of Coche-Dury's 2007 Puligny-Montrachet Les Enseignerres lead to a palate whose subtly oily as well as creamy texture fits its dominant citrus oil and nut paste flavors. There is an invigorating and refreshing sense of energy and fresh citric brightness in the finish here to compliment the wine's inherent richness, as well as a lovely sense of lingering, liquid floral perfume, and a stony undertone. This has the richness you expect of wines from neighboring Batard-Montrachet, but a great many of those lack this degree of elegance or animation. I would count on it to justify 6-8 years of attention."(92pts)

1267 Montrachet - Vintage 2006

Comte Lafon

1x1 bottle owc

"Flowers, peach, and nut oils are dramatically front and center in the Lafon 2006 Montrachet as well. Here is the one overtly creamy wine in this collection, yet it doesn't in the least lack for ripe citrus juiciness. This lacks the sense of dynamic felt in the Perrières, but is somehow both statuesque and at the same time ethereal and cloud-like. Suggestions of minerality here have near-sweetness, like fresh scallops or a lobster shell reduction. A virtually indelible finish suggests distilled floral essences, nut oils, ginger, and crustacean. Too bad there are a mere four barrels of this stunning elixir. The penetration of herbal distillates and citrus oil; seductively sweet gardenia florality; bittersweet nuttiness; and an astonishing combination of super-ripeness and verve, all place the 2005 in the same exalted class." 1268 Montrachet - Vintage 2007

"As the late picking date would suggest, this is a very ripe and wonderfully nuanced wine with a brilliantly complex nose of white peach, pear, exotic yellow fruits, acacia blossom and citrus hints that complement perfectly the rich and monumentally constructed flavors that possess an almost chewy texture yet the mouth feel is one of satin and silk, all wrapped in a palate staining mildly toasty finish that displays impeccable balance and incredible length. To call this a knockout seems almost like faint praise but it is one genuinely stunning wine that should live for 30 to 40 years." (97pts BH)

"A big, voluptuous Burgundy, the 2000 Batard-Montrachet captures all of the personality of this site in its large-scaled frame and pure density. All of that energy is focused inward, though, as the Batard is not at all showy, but rather a wine of structure." (95pts VM)

"The superconcentrated, opaque purple-colored 1990 La Mouline is closer in style to the otherworldly 1988 than I would have thought. "The awesome 1998 Côte-R tie La Mouline is a seamless, full-bodied classic with many characteristics of the 1997 La Landonne, but more structure, tannin, and muscle. It will need two years of cellaring, and will last for twenty years. Stylistically, it is reminiscent of the 1988. This wine's aromatic fireworks, sumptuous texture, and seamless personality represent perfection this remains one of the world's most intensely perfumed and compelling wines." (97pts)

La Mouline, E. Guigal

"Slightly more rustic, with high, yet sweet, tannin, the 2006 Côte Rôtie la Mouline offers notions of toasted spice, licorice, dried flowers, rendered bacon fat and red currants to go with a full-bodied, nicely textured and concentrated feel on the palate. There's a lot of tannin here and I'm curious to see how this evolves over the coming decade. Nevertheless, at the very least, it will benefit from short-term cellaring and have a decade of longevity after that." (95pts)

1280 Dom Pérignon Vintage Champagne - Vintage 2002*1x6 bottle ocb"The 2002 Dom Pérignon speaks to opulence and intensity. Rich, layered and voluptuous in the glass, the 2002 shows off its flamboyant personality with flair. Butter, cooked apple and tropically-leaning fruits mesh together effortlessly. Interestingly, with time in the glass the 2002 gains in freshness and energy without losing its essential opulence. The elevated ripeness of the year gives the 2002 Dom Pérignon distinctly Puligny-Montrachet leaning inflections. Chef de Caves Richard Geoffroy adds that August that year was hot and very dry. Rain towards the end of the month and into early September freshened the vines and accelerated the final phase of ripening. This is yet another fabulous showing from the 2002, which continues to cement its reputation as a truly epic Dom Pérignon." (98pts VM)*

THE UNIQUE CELLAR OF THE CONQUISTADOR

We are thrilled to welcome the return of the Conquistador—a remarkable consignment from a Spanish family cellar spanning three generations of collecting. Nearly every bottle in this offering was purchased on release or directly from the winery, then moved immediately into the family's deep, cold, humid cellar beneath a 12th-century home in the Spanish countryside! This natural cellar, anchored by an underground water source, maintains ideal aging conditions year-round: temperatures in the low-to-mid 50s and humidity above 80%. It has become a destination in its own right—visited and admired by the proprietors of Spain's most revered estates. In fact, several wineries have attempted to buy back bottles for their own libraries!! We've been fortunate to taste many wines with the family ourselves, and without exception, the condition has been outstanding. This offering of sixty-eight treasures includes Vega Sicilia Único back to 1962, ten Muga lots reaching to 1973, and CVNE from 1957, 1959, 1968, and 1970!!! There are ten lots of La Rioja Alta, including Gran Reservas from 1962, 1968, and 1970, as well as Lopez de Heredia Viña Tondonia parcels from 1970. Don't overlook gems from Bilbaínas, Torres, and Marqués de Murrieta, including wines from 1925 and 1954! Due to the over 80% humidity, the labels of these wines have deteriorated and are tattered and soiled, and most capsules have become slightly corroded, but what is on the inside is so beautiful – incredible, mature wines with amazing freshness! We are ecstatic to welcome back once again, the return of the Conquistador!

Reserva Especial

"It has the classical developed Vega Sicilia bouquet, but the newer vintages used this time and the extra bottle time they have given to the 2005 Unico (which is released at the same time as this), makes them show similar profiles. What I'm trying to say is that this is certainly younger than the majority of Reserva Especial to date, and the forest floor, spicy and musky aromas are combined with more primary notes of fruit."(95pts)

STRETCH RUN

As our debut Zurich sale races toward the finish line, four final consignors make a stylish late entrance—refusing to be left out of the spotlight. Look out for Ausone, Dujac, and Chave, along with a vertical of Keller Riesling. If you're not quite ready to call it a night, keep the celebration going with Champagne from Salon, Selsosse, Krug, Cristal, and Taittinger Artist Collection—a fitting finale to a landmark event. Thanks for being part of Acker history. See you in November!

1351 Château Ausone - Vintage 2014

St. Emilion

1x6 bottle banded owc

"...has an almost pastille-like purity on the nose, equally red and black fruit laced with allspice and clove, gaining complexity all the time in the glass. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannin, fleshy and generous, a fine bead of acidity..." (95pts VM)

6 bottles per lot US$1800-2400
per lot CHF1600-2000

1352 Château Pape Clement Blanc - Vintage 2014

Graves

"Orange peel, mint and white flowers lead to more tropical-leaning fruits, along with a host of honey, melon and quince overtones." (92-95pts VM)

12 bottles per lot US$800-1100
per lot CHF700-950

1353 Clos Vougeot - Vintage 2009

Vieilles Vignes, Château de la Tour

1x6 bottle owc

"This is both more elegant and more expressive, which is quite unusual in my experience as there is usually quite a bit of reticence. The lightly spiced and distinctly floral and earthy red currant and humus suffused aromas give way to rich, round and admirably concentrated flavors that display an overt muscularity as well as an abundance of dry extract that stains the palate and pushes the firm tannic spine to the background on the explosively long and overtly austere finish." 1356 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2018

Aux Malconsorts, Dujac

1x6 bottle ocb

"...an extravagant bouquet with brambly red fruit laced with shucked oyster shell and a touch of seaweed. The palate is medium-bodied with fine-grain tannins, lightly spiced with a subtle ash-like note towards the composed finish. This has great backbone that should guarantee its longevity. A quintessential Dujac/Malconsorts." (95pts VM)

"Moderately golden color. This is still quite fresh and strikingly complex as the aromatic profile has definitely gone toward the classic aged Chablis notes of truffle, sous-bois and forest floor along with background hints of sea breeze and iodine."(96pts BH)

1362 Châteauneuf du Pape - Vintage 2010
cuvée Inspiration, Domaine du Pegau
"...with incredible notions of roasted meats, saddle leather, sweet currants and Provencal herbs all emerging from the glass. There's a single barrel of this full-bodied, deeply concentrated elixir and I've no doubt it will be very hard to come by. In addition, this cuvée is only bottled in magnum."(98-100pts)

Full-bodied and stunningly rich with laser-like precision, this is a powerful, massive yet exceptionally well-balanced wine that should be forgotten for a decade and drunk over the following 30-40 years."(100pts)

BOTTLE DESCRIPTIONS BORDEAUX

NECK:

Normal level for all wines. In wines over ten years of age, this level suggests excellent provenance. Rarely used, except to emphasize a particularly good fill level when other fill levels in the same lot are less than perfect.

BASE NECK:

A common fill level at which many Châteaux release their wine. For wines of any age, this level suggests excellent provenance.

TOP-SHOULDER:

Again, a common fill level at which many Châteaux release their wine. For wines of any age, this level suggests excellent provenance.

VERY HIGH SHOULDER:

Acceptable fill level for wines twenty years of age. Suggests proper storage conditions throughout its life. Natural occurrence for wines of this age.

HIGH SHOULDER:

Usually not a problem for wines thirty years of age. This level may be caused by easing of the cork combined with natural evaporation. Check the clarity and the color of the wine in the bottle as a secondary indicator of provenance.

HIGH-TO-MID-SHOULDER:

Refer to High Shoulder and Mid-Shoulder level descriptions.

MID SHOULDER:

May suggest ullage during the life of the wine due to either easing of the cork or inconsistent storage conditions. Not abnormal for wines forty or more years of age. As additional indicators of risk, definitely inspect clarity and color of the wine in the bottle, as well as condition of the cork.

LOW SHOULDER AND BELOW:

Suggests poor provenance. Definitely a risk and generally not saleable, with exception given to rare bottlings and/or labels. (Not recommended for consumption.)

Because the shape of Burgundy bottles does not allow for a level rating system based on the shoulder of the bottle, levels are described by means of centimeters below cork. Generally, Burgundy wines with a four centimeter fill level or above are considered normal for wines younger than twenty years. Wines of twenty or more years of age with fill levels of between four and five centimeters are generally considered to be of sound provenance, though consideration should be given to the clarity and color of the wine in the bottle, as well as the condition of the cork. Bottles with ullage between five and seven centimeters are not uncommon for wines forty years and older and often provide thrilling drinking, but the lower the fill, the higher the risk, so consideration should be given. Burgundy bottles with fill levels lower than seven centimeters may be at risk of being damaged or undrinkable, and therefore may be unsaleable. It should be noted that some Burgundian producers tend to over-fill their bottles during the bottling process which may cause a few drops of wine to become trapped between the capsule and the cork. This should not be confused with ullage, a natural occurrence in older wines, which may be accelerated due to poor provenance.

BUYER'S CONDITIONS OF SALE

These Conditions of Sale serve as the agreement between Acker Switzerland GmbH ("Acker" or the "Seller") and any participant in the auction, as well as any bidder and the successful bidder. These Conditions of Sale can be modified at any time, in writing or orally during the sale. By participating at auction or through private sale, you, as bidder, agree to be bound by all of the terms and conditions of these Conditions of Sale and accept personal liability to pay the purchase price, including the Buyer's Premium (as defined below), taxes and any other applicable charges, for any successful bid. If the bidder is the successful bidder by virtue of being the highest bidder accepted by the auctioneer, or has otherwise agreed to purchase any lot, wine, spirits or other item (the "Property"), that bidder is the Buyer. Before participating in any auction or private sale, you acknowledge and agree that you have read these Conditions of Sale carefully.

1. BEFORE AUCTION.

(a) Lots. Property is divided into separate groupings as determined by Acker in its sole and absolute discretion and each such grouping (a "Lot") is subject to separate bidding at auction.

(b) Bidder Registration. In order to bid at auction, bidder must have an account with Acker or its affiliates. Bidder can open such an account by: (i) completing and submitting a Bidder Registration form; (ii) completing and submitting an Absentee Bid form; or (iii) creating such account online (at www.ackerwines.com) or through the "Acker Wines" mobile app (available for downloading at the Apple App Store or Google Play Store). In connection therewith, bidder will be required to provide the card number, expiration date and security code for an active credit or debit card (American Express, Visa, or MasterCard), which bidder authorizes Acker through its payment processor to validate. Bidders agree to provide Acker with such information as Acker may reasonably require, including a government issued identification containing a photograph, such as a passport, identity card or driver's license. Acker may use this information to verify bidder's identification and for other screening and due diligence purposes pursuant to its Privacy Policy (<https://www.ackerwines.com/terms-conditions/#legal-privacy>), which is incorporated by reference. If bidder does not agree to the terms of the Acker Privacy Policy, please refrain from providing any personal information and cease any use of Acker's website, apps, or other digital assets.

(c) Absentee, Telephone, Online and Mobile App Bidding. Prior to the sale, bidders may make arrangements with Acker to participate at auction by absentee or telephone bidding. Bidder may also participate in the sale by bidding through Acker's and its affiliates' online and/or mobile app bidding platforms, and such participation shall be subject to the Website and Mobile App Terms of Use (available at <https://www.ackerwines.com/terms-conditions/>).

Bidders wishing to participate by absentee bidding must complete and submit an Absentee Bid form to Acker in advance of the sale. The acceptance of absentee, telephone, online and mobile app bids for any Lot in a live auction is subject to the sole and absolute discretion of the auctioneer. Acker offers complimentary absentee, telephone, online and mobile app bidding solely as a convenience to its clients. In no event shall Acker or its affiliates or auctioneer (or any of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, members, employees, attorneys, representatives, agents or assigns) be liable for any errors, omissions or failures relating to, arising from or in connection with the execution (or failure to properly execute) any absentee, telephone, online or mobile app bids.

2. AT AUCTION.

(a) Catalogues. Bidder is advised to read the print or a PDF copy of the catalogue in its entirety. While Acker has attempted to describe each Lot in the catalogue accurately, in no event shall Acker be liable for any error or omission in any such description. Acker retains the absolute right to amend any description in any manner prior to and during the auction. Each statement regarding Property, whether oral or written, and whether made in the catalogue, an advertisement, bill of sale, invoice, announcement, email, or other written or oral communication, is a statement of OPINION ONLY and should not be relied upon by any bidder. Bidder must make appropriate allowances for natural variations of ullages, and conditions of cases, bottles, labels, caps, corks, capsules, and wine and spirits. In no event shall Acker be required to accept a return, offer credit for, or adjust the price of any Property after delivery except under paragraph 12 below. Images appearing in the catalogue or elsewhere are for illustrative purposes only and may not reveal defects or imperfections in any Lot. Bidder is advised not to rely on images in determining whether to bid on Property. All property is sold "as is".

(b) Different Importers. Although Acker makes an effort to state in the catalogue if a Lot includes wines or spirits from different importers, failure to so state is not grounds for rescission of the sale of any Lot. Similarly, any incorrect statement or omission in the catalogue concerning bottles and/or sequence numbers of Property from those producers that number their bottles comprising Property, is not grounds for rescission of the sale of any Lot.

(c) No Warranty. Acker and its affiliates, auctioneer and seller (and each of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, members, employees, attorneys, representatives, agents and assigns) make no oral or written express or implied representations, warranties or guarantees as to the merchantability, fitness for a particular use, accuracy, the correctness of any catalogue description or other description as to the origin, physical condition, size, quality, rarity, authenticity, attribution, value, estimated value, importance, provenance, or potability, concerning any Property.

(d) Reserve Price. Each Lot is sold subject to a reserve price, which is the minimum price below which the Lot will not be sold (unless the auctioneer chooses, in its sole and absolute discretion, to accept a lower price). Acker has the right to raise or lower the reserve price at any time prior to the time the Lot is opened for bidding by the auctioneer during the live auction. Under no circumstance shall the reserve price for a Lot exceed the low estimate for that Lot as printed in the catalogue. The reserve price for each Lot is available to prospective bidders upon request, but Acker shall have no ongoing obligation to notify a prospective bidder who has been informed of any reserve price if such reserve price has been changed.

(e) Estimates. Each Lot in the catalogue is accompanied by a low and high estimate of the selling price, which estimates exclude the Buyer's Premium (as defined below), taxes and any other applicable charges. While estimates are intended as a general guide for prospective bidders, in no event do they constitute either a representation or prediction of an actual selling price or value and should not be relied upon by bidder as such. Acker reserves the right to revise estimates at any time prior to the time the Lot is opened for bidding.

(f) Bidding by Acker. Acker's affiliates reserve the right to bid for their own accounts or to procure the making of a bid on their behalf in accordance with applicable law. Acker reserves the right to permit Acker affiliate employees (in the sole discretion of Acker) to bid for their own accounts on any Lot in the sale. Acker employees may also bid in the auction for their own account.

(g) Post-Auction Sale of Property. Any post-auction sale of Property offered at auction and sold in a private sale shall be incorporated and be subject to these Conditions of Sale as if sold at the live auction.

(h) Purchase Price. The total amount due from all Buyers for each Lot shall be the hammer price, the highest bid accepted by the auctioneer, plus a commission equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of the hammer price ("Buyer's Premium"). Acker may provide discounts on the Buyer's Premium to bidders who transact with Acker or its affiliates over certain thresholds.

(i) Swiss VAT. Tax domiciled Buyers outside Switzerland are exempt from Swiss VAT on the hammer price if the Property is delivered outside of Switzerland. Acker will require sufficient evidence of export. Swiss Buyers (both private and professionals) will have to pay the 8.1% VAT over the hammer price for wines delivered in Switzerland, unless there is an asterisk * identifying lots sold by Swiss private individuals, or unless the wines are delivered In Bond. If the purchases will be kept in storage In Bond, we will not charge VAT. The 8.1% Swiss VAT will be collected on all purchases on the 25% Buyer's Premium, resulting in an additional 2.025% charge.

3. BIDDER REGISTRATION.

Prospective Buyers are asked to provide the following documents, prior to registering for the auction:

(a) All auction Buyers have the responsibility to have a valid credit card or debit card on file with Acker that will be tokenized through its payment processor.

(b) Individuals: government-issued photo identification (such as a driver's license, national identity card, or passport) and, if not shown on the ID document, proof of current address.

(c) Corporate clients: a recent copy of the company register.

(d) For other business structures such as trusts, offshore companies or partnerships, please contact Acker (aml@ackerwines.com) for the information you need to provide.

(e) Please note that Acker is entitled to request a deposit in order to ensure the bidders' final registration. If the bidder is unsuccessful and does not owe Acker any debt, the deposit will be refunded in full. Acker is entitled to change the deposit pre-registration procedures and requirements at its own discretion without prior notice.

4. BIDDER RESPONSIBILITY.

When bidding, the bidder assumes personal responsibility to pay the full purchase price and any other applicable taxes or charges. All Lots sold will be invoiced to the name and address to which the paddle has been registered, and invoices cannot be transferred to other names and addresses. The sale is conducted in Swiss francs. If your bid is successful, you will be notified the day following the sale by email. Invoices will follow soon thereafter.

5. AFTER AUCTION.

(a) Payment.

Invoices reflecting the total amount due, along with bank transfer instructions, will be sent to each Buyer. For any auction, Buyer agrees to pay such invoice in full within 30 days following the date of auction. If payment has not been made by day 35, bidder authorizes Acker to charge your card for the balance due, inclusive of fees. However, in the case of web-only auctions, your credit card will be charged 7 days after the close of the auction, unless you have paid by bank transfer beforehand. By bidding at auction, bidder also authorizes Acker, without further notice to bidder, to charge any credit or debit card used by bidder to create an account with Acker and its affiliates or to make payment on any current or past invoice issued to bidder by Acker or its affiliates. Subject to this automatic charge being successful, there shall be no interest charge. For any balance of bidder's invoice that remains unpaid more than 35 days after the auction, Acker shall charge Buyer interest in the amount of 11% interest per annum calculated daily, until such unpaid amount has been paid. In the event Buyer has not paid in full within 45 days following the close of the auction, Acker reserves the right to cancel the sale and reoffer such Lot(s). Acker reserves all other rights for the default as specified below in paragraph 6. If Buyer is delinquent on any accounts to any Acker entity, Acker reserves the right to reoffer Property in another auction or privately, including paid-for Property, in order to satisfy the debt.

If the Buyer is acting as agent, the principals must provide the required identification and satisfy the anti-money laundering and counterterrorism screening.

Please note that transactions should preferably be made by bank transfer. Acker will accept American Express, Visa, and MasterCard. Credit cards will be charged in USD. The exchange rate of USD to CHF will be applied as of the date of payment. Please note there will be a credit card usage fee of 2% on the entire invoice amount for all internet auctions. For live auctions (only), the 2% fee will only apply to an invoice amount up to and including USD15,000. For a credit card payment over USD15,000, a 3% fee will be applied to the entire invoice amount. The successful bidder during the auction is solely responsible for payment to Acker. Title shall pass to the successful bidder when full payment is received in cleared funds by Acker. Property will not be released to Buyer until full payment has been received.

6. DEFAULT BY BUYER.

If Buyer fails to make payment in full in accordance with these Conditions of Sale within 45 days following the auction, Acker may, in its sole and absolute discretion: (a) cancel the sale, retaining any partial payment as liquidated damages; (b) resell Property publicly or privately for Buyer's account and at Buyer's risk, with estimates and a reserve set at Acker's sole discretion, and charge Buyer for any deficiency between the final bid in the resale and the final bid placed by Buyer, in addition to all costs and expenses of both the initial sale and the resale at Acker's regular rates and the Buyer's Premium due in connection with both sales; (c) set off all sums due from Buyer against any amounts which Acker or its affiliates may owe to Buyer; (d) collect from Buyer the total amount due (including interest) plus any loss, cost or expense incurred by Acker in effecting such collection; (e) collect from Buyer reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by Acker; (f) prohibit Buyer from directly or indirectly purchasing from Acker and its affiliates and from participating in future auctions and other events held, hosted, or sponsored by Acker or its affiliates; or (g) exercise any right or remedy against Buyer available to Seller at law, equity or otherwise. Acker may, in its sole discretion, exercise any one or more of the preceding remedies or any combination thereof.

7. DELIVERY AND STORAGE.

Lots may be stored at our designated third-party Geneva warehouse, either Duty-Paid or In Bond. Please notify us at least 5 business days after payment for the third-party warehouse to organize the Property prior to release. Destination VAT is at the Buyer's charge and cannot be cancelled or refunded by Acker. VAT is included in Acker's invoice as applicable. Acker's third-party warehouse offers storage for any unshipped wine the day following day 30 after the auction date. On the day following 30 days after the auction, storage will be invoiced at the rate of CHF .54 or the USD equivalent per 750cl or 750ml per day calculated every 30 days, whether Buyer has paid or not for the purchased Property. Acker does not ship, transport or deliver alcoholic beverages and shall have no obligation to ship, transport or deliver purchased property to Buyer. Under the appropriate circumstances, Acker may, in its sole discretion, agree to assist in making arrangements to release Property to a carrier with the ability to ship alcoholic beverages. Under no circumstance will Acker ultimately be responsible for any taxes, duties, tariffs, or fees assessed or any interest or penalties related to such. Immediately following payment for successful bids, successful bidders will need to make arrangements within 3 days of payment to have the Property either shipped or released. If Property is not shipped or released within 30 days after auction, normal storage charges shall apply. Buyer acknowledges and agrees that it is solely responsible for the transport of the property and determining the legality and the tax, duty, and tariff consequences of bringing the Property to Buyer's chosen destination.

8. RIGHT TO HOLD PROPERTY.

Acker is authorized to retain the Lots until all amounts due to Acker have been paid in full or until the Buyer has performed all other obligations that Acker, at its discretion, considers required, including anti-money laundering and counter financing of terrorism compliance. In case a Buyer does not fulfill the checks to the satisfaction of Acker, Acker will be entitled to cancel the sale and take any other action required or permitted by law.

9. FAILURE TO COLLECT PROPERTY.

In case the Buyer, having fulfilled all its obligations under these Conditions of Sale, fails to make arrangements for the delivery of the Property within 90 days after having made full payment, Acker will be entitled to, upon notification to the Buyer, reoffer the Property by way of auction or private sale, in its sole discretion, and charge the Buyer the entire storage costs and all other costs that may apply. Additionally, Acker will have a right to retain the Property from release until payment of all of outstanding charges is received. Buyer will incur storage fees for any Property not retrieved within the designated period.

10. INACCURATE INFORMATION.

If the information or documents provided by the Buyer on its identity or the identity of the beneficial owner prove to be false, incomplete, ambiguous or insufficient, Acker may, in its sole discretion, cancel the sale and pursue the fraudulent Buyer. The Buyer will be responsible for all costs incurred.

11. RESCISSION.

(a) Claims by Buyer. Acker has the right but not the obligation to rescind a sale if any statement in Acker's offering materials concerning a Lot is materially incorrect or such Lot is short or is in unsound condition (e.g., cooked, and spoiled), Buyer's sole remedy shall be rescission of such sale in Acker's sole and absolute discretion. If Buyer seeks rescission under this subparagraph, Buyer must so notify Acker in writing within 60 days after the auction of such Property. Buyer may only make such a claim if the Property in question: (i) has the Acker auction sale date reference sticker(s) on the relevant bottle(s); (ii) is in the same condition as when it was released by Acker to Buyer; and (iii) has been delivered to and from Buyer and stored under appropriate conditions. To the fullest extent permitted by law, bidder waives any right to make any claim or bring any legal action against Acker and its affiliates, auctioneers, and the original seller (and each of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, members, employees, attorneys, representatives, agents and assigns) resulting from any determination made (or failed to be made) by Acker under this paragraph. In the event that Buyer fails to provide timely and proper notice to Acker under this paragraph, Buyer shall be deemed to have waived any right to rescission as herein provided. Only the Buyer of record of the Property shall be entitled to make a claim of rescission under this paragraph.

(b) Buyer's Sole Remedy. The refund to the Buyer of the purchase price paid for any property shall be Buyer's sole remedy for any claim or matter relating thereto.

(c) Limited Guarantee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained within these Conditions of Sale, Acker agrees to refund the purchase price to the Buyer of any Property purchased from Acker that is not of the vintage or from the producer as was stated in the catalogue or otherwise represented by Acker, including, but not limited to, Property that is counterfeit or has indicia which suggest that it is likely counterfeit, provided that: (i) the Buyer directly purchased the Property from Acker; (ii) the Buyer returns such Property to Acker within 60 days of the date of the auction of such Property to Buyer; and (iii) that Buyer returns such Property in materially the same condition as it was delivered to Buyer. In the event Acker suspects the Property of a fraudulent activity or is a forgery, Acker may cancel any sale of such Property and hold such Property. In the event the sale is cancelled after Buyer has made payment to Acker, Acker shall return such funds to Buyer.

12. LIABILITY.

Buyers are responsible for any damage or loss to purchased Lots once released to them or their agents.

13. DATA PROTECTION.

As required by law, or in connection with the supply of auction and related services Acker may ask you to provide personal data. 14. MISCELLANEOUS.

(a) Severability. If any provision of these Conditions of Sale should be judged by a court to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, this provision may be waived, and the rest of the agreement will continue to be valid and enforceable.

(b) Personal information. Without your express prior refusal,

Acker will be allowed to keep your personal information and may use it to inform you of our upcoming sales, services and events.

(c) Prohibition of Assignment. The Buyer may not assign any benefit and/or obligation under this agreement without Acker's prior written permission.

(d) Applicable law and Jurisdiction. All contractual arrangements between the Buyer and Acker are subject exclusively to Swiss law, to the exclusion of the rules on the conflict of laws. Any dispute in connection with the contractual arrangement shall be settled exclusively by arbitration in accordance with the Swiss Rules of International Arbitration of the Swiss Chambers' Arbitration Institution in force on the date on which the Notice of Arbitration is submitted in accordance with these Rules.
