SINCE 1820

Dear Client,

We're thrilled to return to Switzerland for our fourth Swiss auction on Saturday, 14 November beginning at 10am CET, live from Restaurant LaSalle in Zürich with live streams in Geneva and Beaune! The sale features nearly one thousand lots with estimated sales of CHF 3.2 million (US$4 million) and is centered around a remarkable lineup of offerings with deep roots in some of Switzerland's great cellars. Leading the way are Magnificent Mature Wines of a Tremendous Trio, three cellars of Bordeaux and Burgundy reaching back to 1924, and The Architects: A Masterclass from Two European Luminaries, crowned by sixty lots of Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, including extraordinary verticals purchased on release!! Also featured are The Cellar of a Swiss Entrepreneur and The P.V.S.R. Collection: Fine Wines from a Geneva Cellar.

Magnificent Mature Wines of a Tremendous Trio opens the sale in lots 1–224 with three exceptional collections. The Art of Collecting in lots 1–53 comes from a successful international restaurateur who ranks among the world's most important fine art collectors and approaches wine with the same trained eye. This time his canvas is painted largely in Burgundy! Highlights include eight bottles and a magnum of 1990 Comte de Vogüé Musigny Vieilles Vignes, six magnums of 2005 Clos de Tart in OWC, and fourteen lots of Comte Lafon from 1987 to 2011, joined by 1964 Pétrus, 1970 Latour in bottle and magnum, and four bottles of 1971 Giacomo Conterno Barolo Riserva! All wines removed from his countryside manor in England. In From Europe with Love, lots 54–156, our continental gentleman returns with more than one hundred selections of ancient and modern wonders. A collector of extraordinary taste and legendary generosity, he opens his finest bottles without hesitation, and we are always grateful for the treasures he pries loose for our sales! The headline is 1959 Latour, supported by Cheval Blanc from 1953, 1955, and 1961, full cases of 1975 and 1982 La Mission Haut-Brion, and Margaux reaching back to 1924!! Burgundy brings 1971 Rousseau Chambertin and twelve bottles of 1999 Grivot Richebourg, while White Burgundy introduces a genuine rarity in the 2016 L'Exceptionnelle Vendange des Sept Domaines Montrachet and selections from Coche-Dury and Leflaive. A jeroboam of 1964 Pommery and two bottles of 1875 Barbeito Malvasia Madeira offer a proper final toast!

The Swiss Doctor Makes Another House Call in lots 157–224 with sixty-seven lots from his temperature-controlled cellar in Geneva. Introduced to the great wines of France by his father, he has spent decades building his collection and has hosted many tremendous tastings. I have tasted wines with him in his cellar back to 1959, and I have never left disappointed! This latest prescription includes a 1961 Pétrus and a magnum of 1964, 1928 Latour, and a Montrose duo from 1947 and 1959!!! I need to be sick more often!! Domaine Leroy stars in Burgundy with ten lots led by 1993 Musigny, before Giacomo Conterno Monfortino from 1955, Vega Sicilia Único from 1962 and 1965, and Swiss rarities from Gantenbein round out this remarkable house call!

The Cellar of a Swiss Entrepreneur follows in lots 343–469, as this successful Swiss entrepreneur and friend of the house returns with one hundred twenty-seven nearly pristine lots, much of it in original packaging. Bordeaux opens splendidly with a magnum of 1961 La Mission Haut-Brion and a case of 2000 Lafite, while Lafleur spans a case of 1983 to the recent 2022 and 2023, joined by full cases of 1990 Margaux and 1982 Pichon Lalande, and Pétrus from 1989 and 2021! Burgundy belongs to Rousseau and DRC. Rousseau Chambertin provides a commanding presence with full twelve-bottle OCBs of 2010, 2015, and 2016, while Romanée-Conti appears in six selections from 2016 through 2021, joined by La Tâche and Comte Liger-Belair La Romanée!!! Domaine Leflaive dominates White Burgundy with eleven lots led by 2009 Montrachet, and twelve bottles of 2015 Salon and three-bottle OWCs of 2013 Monfortino complete a collection of precision and pedigree!

The P.V.S.R. Collection: Fine Wines from a Geneva Cellar graces lots 470–761. There are great collections, and then there are collections that could only belong to one person. The collection of P.V.S.R. is firmly the latter! A discerning Geneva collector with an independent eye, he has never been content simply to assemble the finest Burgundy and Bordeaux, though he holds them in abundance. His curiosity has always led him further, toward the oldest Madeiras, some of the most ancient Jura wines in existence, and the rarest California bottles of the 1960s, not to mention whisky, his other great love. Now he shares two hundred ninety-two lots with us, and they are as singular as the man himself!! Bordeaux sets a regal tone with the 1961 vintage, including three bottles of Ausone, six of Haut-Brion, and five of Lafite, followed by twelve bottles of 1970 Latour and six magnums of 1985 Mouton. Burgundy is the heart of the offering, with more than two hundred lots. Roumier is the largest presence at twenty-nine lots, reaching back to three bottles of 1970 Bonnes-Mares, Bizot and Trapet appear in depth, five lots from Kei Shiogai suit a collector who has never followed the crowd, and Prieuré-Roch showcases six magnums of 1999 Chambertin Clos de Bèze!! Champagne pours three bottles of 1961 Dom Pérignon, California offers deep runs of Diamond Creek and Mayacamas, and the finale belongs to Madeira, with four lots of 1862 D. Bolger Malvasia and Terrantez, the oldest wines in the sale! All bottles stored in pristine conditions at Au Bonheur du Vin, Acker's preferred and recommended professional storage in Geneva.

The Architects: A Masterclass from Two European Luminaries brings together two great collectors, one from Switzerland and one from Scandinavia. In Swiss Savoir-Faire: Blue-Chip Bordeaux and Burgundy, lots 267–342, a renowned Swiss collector with many thousands of bottles in reserve shares seventy-six lots, much of it in original packaging. Margaux is the backbone of the Bordeaux, with full cases of 1994 and 1998 and nine magnums of 2005 in banded OWCs, joined by a magnum of 1961 Lafite and two bottles of 1937 d'Yquem! In Burgundy, Rousseau delivers twelve bottles of 1999 Ruchottes-Chambertin Clos des Ruchottes before DRC takes center stage with three-magnum banded OWCs of 2006 and 2007 La Tâche and a 2006 Romanée-Conti, while seven lots of Coche-Dury shine among the whites. Savoir-faire, indeed!

Acker
SINCE 1820

King of the North: DRC Verticals Purchased on Release follows in lots 762–814, as a major collector in Scandinavia presents fifty-three lots devoted entirely to DRC, every bottle purchased on release and kept in temperature-controlled storage. La Tâche holds court with seventeen vintages, including every year from 2006 through 2021, plus the 2004, while Richebourg parades in thirteen vintages from 2004 through 2020!! Romanée-Conti reigns in fourteen vintages, unbroken from 2006 through 2011 and again from 2014 through 2021, and Montrachet completes the set with nine vintages from 2002 to 2019. A royal flush of DRC; all hail the King of the North!!!

Please join us live from Zürich, Geneva, Beaune, or online on Saturday, 14 November starting at 10am CET for an exceptional auction of the world's finest and rarest wines!

THE ART OF COLLECTING

We are delighted to welcome you to our fourth Swiss auction with fifty-three lots from a successful international restaurateur. He is also serious about fine art, ranking among the world's most important collectors, and approaches wine with the same trained eye. This time, his canvas is painted largely in Burgundy! Bordeaux opens the exhibit with the celebrated 1990 Beauséjour Duffau-Lagarrosse and 1988 Cos d'Estournel, followed by 1970 Latour in both bottle and magnum, and 1964 Pétrus for Right Bank color! Red Burgundy displays 1990 A. & F. Gros Richebourg and four lots of Comte de Vogüé, highlighting eight bottles and a magnum of 1990 Musigny Vieilles Vignes. Six magnums of 2005 Clos de Tart in OWC, ten bottles each of 1999 Ponsot Griottes-Chambertin and 2005 Mugnier Nuits-St.-Georges Clos de la Maréchale, and six bottles of 1989 Bachelet Charmes-Chambertin Vieilles Vignes follow, alongside 1985 Groffier Les Amoureuses and 2004 Cathiard Romanée-St.-Vivant!!

White Burgundy beckons, with fourteen lots of Comte Lafon from 1987 to 2011 as the focal point. Montrachet appears in eight vintages, including two bottles of 2000 in OWC, joined by selections from Meursault. Half-bottles of 1990 Bonneau du Martray Corton-Charlemagne lead a strong cast of 2000 Leflaive Chevalier-Montrachet, 2002 Ramonet Montrachet, 1989 Niellon Chevalier-Montrachet, and 1995 Roumier Corton-Charlemagne. The Rhône brings Bonneau Réserve des Célestins from 1988 and 1989 and Guigal La Turque from 1997 and 1998, before Italy closes with four bottles of 1971 Giacomo Conterno Barolo Riserva, Quintarelli, and Ornellaia!!! A collection composed with an artist's eye! All wines removed from his countryside manor in England.

Lot: 7

Acker
SINCE 1820

1 Château Beausejour Duffau Lagarrosse
- Vintage 1990
St. Emilion
3gsl, 2ll, 1cuc (in bond)
"The color remains an opaque murky purple. The nose offers up fabulously intense aromas of black fruits (plums, cherries, and currants), along with smoke, a roasted herb/nut component, and a compelling minerality. The wine is fabulously concentrated, with outstanding purity, and a nearly unprecedented combination of richness, complexity, and overall balance and harmony."(100pts)

5 bottles — per lot US$2400-3200
per lot CHF1900-2600

2 Château Cos d'Estournel - Vintage 1988
St. Estephe
2bn (in bond)
"This powerhouse is rather traditional and decadent compared to the modern-day wines from Cos. Ink-colored and full-bodied, with ripe fruit aromas, velvety tannins and intense berry and spice flavors."(95pts WS)

10 bottles — per lot US$1200-1600
per lot CHF950-1300

3 Château Lafite Rothschild - Vintage 1970
Pauillac
outstanding color and condition (in bond)
"The Lafite had a bit of volatile acidity to it, but some nice pencil, cedar and roasted fruit behind it. It was tender and slightly rich in the mouth, with a leathery finish."(93pts JK)

"On cue, it was one of the best bottles of this wine that I have ever had, and the first one in a while that hit outstanding territory. It had a great nose of pencil, nut, carob, musk and good' barn, you know, when you're in there with the farmer's daughter lol. The palate was creamy, clean, long and balanced. This was young and fresh for 1970, and it reminded me that drinking Bordeaux is always best when it's older."(95pts JK)

9 Pommard - Vintage 1990
Clos des Epeneaux, Comte Armand

"...this is a monster wine. It is one of the most concentrated, massive Pinot Noirs I have ever tasted. The wine was bottled with no fining or filtering after it had spent 23-months in small oak casks. The color is black/purple, and the nose offers up sweet aromas of licorice, minerals, and super-ripe black fruits intertwined with the smell of toasty vanillin new oak. In the mouth, there is awesome concentration, a thick, glycerin-imbued, full-bodied, chewy texture, and mouthsearing tannins in the explosively long finish."(94pts)

Domaine du Clos de Tart

1nl, 6x1 magnum owc (in bond)

"Tasted at the pre-dinner vertical to mark Sylvain Pitiot's retirement from the domaine, the 2005 Clos de Tart Grand Cru (tasted from magnum) is bestowed a magnificent bouquet of haunting intensity and purity: wild strawberry and raspberry - every atom infused with mineral/cold stone scents with amazing focus. The palate is simply to die for. Here, a precise lattice of tannin that is incredibly framed with perfect poise and detail, there is a gentle crescendo to an incisive finish that takes your breath away. Could this be Sylvain Pitior's greatest achievement alongside the 2002? Astonishingly fine - très grand cru, très délicieux."(97pts)

This is impressive as it is clearly Nuits in character yet with refined and sophisticated structural elements."(92pts BH)

18 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 1999

Vieilles Vignes, Ponsot

1nl, 1sdc (in bond)

"This was a magical bottle of the 1999 Clos de la Roche Grand Cru Cuvée Vieilles Vignes, a wine that's just beginning to hit its stride as it approaches its 20th birthday, unfurling in the glass with aromas of red berries, cassis, dark chocolate, cinnamon, dried rose petals and orange rind. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, deep and immensely concentrated, with a broad attack, lovely acids and a formidable reserve of creamy old-vine fruit, structured around a chalky chassis of tannin that evokes the great old Burgundies of yesteryear. Concluding with a long and expansive finish, this is still a young wine, and another two decades of aging won't be a problem. But it's now clear that this ranks as one of Ponsot's greatest recent hits and one of the high points of this reputed vintage."(98pts)

"This presently shares the reserved and backward personality of the Reignots with only glimpses of highly complex earthy dark berry fruit aromas laced liberally with spice and tea notes but in contrast to the former wine's emphasis on finesse, here the flavors run toward the robust with powerful, intense and muscular full-bodied flavors underpinned by a firm tannic spine and noteworthy grip that is completely buffered by buckets of pinot sap. Finishes with superb intensity and stunning depth and completely coats and stains the palate. This is flat out marvelous with striking energy and you don't want to miss it."(91-93pts BH)

"Still remarkably tight for 15 years of age with a pungent minerality and still entirely fresh green fruit nose followed by medium weight, sweet, very youthful flavors that are wonderfully intense and precise and the two years since I last had this wine in this format have certainly improved the length as well as the intensity. While this could be drunk now with pleasure, it's still frankly too young and would be best left for another 5 years or so first. In short, this is a stunner of a wine and one that seems to just keep getting better and better with time."(94pts BH)

There were lots of leathery fruit flavors. "The wine was incredibly kinky and exotic in the nose; Wendy immediately noted Pina Colada, and Ray found it more coconuts and cream, splitting a hair into two. It definitely had this amazing suntan lotion quality, and Rob was admiring how pure and laser-like the wine was. Wendy noted some licorice, and Ray was being his usual self, calling it more anise. There was no doubting its exotic aromas that were bordering on tropical in a candle wax and Mounds (chocolate and coconut) way. Rob noted big banana 94 Colgin-ish, and while I saw what he was saying, the Cheval had more earth, barn and bread than the usual 1994 Colgin, although perhaps in forty years that Colgin will be the same! The flavors were chocolaty, bready, earthy and slaty, and Mike noted marzipan and took my Mounds and Almond Joyed me back. Rob got slightly critical and found it dessert wine-like, a la Chambers Tokay. The wine was kinky, exotic and outstanding."(95pts JK)

"The 1961 had a killer nose that was very racy with lots of vigor and t n a. It was also very sweet in a musky, nutty, caramel-y way. There was lots of oil in this rich and nutty wine, and as soon as I tasted it, I flashed to 1971 and 76 Grange. This menthol/eucalyptus craziness was total Grange. It was rich, hearty and full of strawberry flavors. Bipin concurred that this was always one of the sweeter 61's, and likened it to a bon-bon ."(94pts JK)

"The 1975 La Mission-Haut-Brion has been the most consistent wine of the vintage. Super-concentrated, and now beginning to shed enough tannin so that it can be fully appreciated, this enormously constituted La Mission-Haut-Brion has developed that fabulous Graves set of aromatics - tobacco, black fruits, minerals, roasted herbs, and cedar. Huge, massive, thick, and succulent, with moderate tannin, and some amber notes at the edge... it comes closest in style to resembling the 1945, with a hint of the sweet, ripe 1959."(100pts)

The color is a dark garnet with orange/amber at the edge. The profound bouquet has the magnetic allure that leaves great Bordeaux unmatched for complexity. Sweet notes of dried fruits, herbs, tobacco, smoke, and roasted meats are followed by an opulently-textured, thick, nearly viscous wine with high glycerin, ripe, jammy fruit, and an intoxicating combination of glycerin, extract, and suppleness. "A highly spiced and exceptionally fresh, ripe and airy nose mixes a wide variety of mostly red berry fruit aromas though there are background notes of plum, cassis, lavender and oak. The broad-shouldered flavors possess a seductive texture thanks to the copious amounts of dry extract that push the very firm tannic spine to the background. 121 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 1990

(in bond)

"This is a prodigious effort. Given recent perplexing offerings from this producer, it is amazing how phenomenal Ponsot's wines can be. The 1990 exhibits a deep, dense, murky, ruby color as well as an explosive nose of gravel, spring flowers, and black and red fruits. Extremely rich and full-bodied, with spectacular concentration, an unctuous texture, and an extraordinarily long finish, this wine remains youthful, but its fat and succulent texture are hard to resist."(98pts)

"...a monumentally scaled yet uncannily elegant and pure wine with a massive nose of limestone, citrus and white flowers of almost indescribable complexity followed by dense, very tight, beautifully nuanced flavors all wrapped in endless reserves of mid-palate sap. The backend display simply astonishing persistence that stains the palate. Yet for all this expressiveness, it's immediately clear that only a very small portion of the wine's potential is being revealed. The acidity of the '96 vintage is pronounced yet there is more than enough seve to balance it. A genuinely great wine of power, finesse, detail and riveting class. THE SWISS DOCTOR MAKES ANOTHER HOUSE CALL

We welcome back one of the best cellars we know in Switzerland, with sixty-seven lots from this good doctor's temperature-controlled cellar in Geneva. Introduced to the great wines of France by his father, he has spent decades building his collection, and as a generous and devoted wine lover he has hosted many tremendous tastings, always eager to open something special. I have tasted wines with him in his cellar back to 1959, and I have never left disappointed! This latest prescription begins with a 1961 Pétrus and a magnum of 1964, joined by 1928 Latour and a magnum of 1952, a magnum of 1989 Haut-Brion, and a Montrose duo from 1947 and 1959! I need to be sick more often!!

Domaine Leroy is the star of Burgundy, with ten lots led by 1993 Musigny alongside 1993 Chambertin and two bottles of 1988 Richebourg, while Comte de Vogüé contributes 1969 Bonnes-Mares and 1995 Musigny Vieilles Vignes. Champagne sabers Krug Clos du Mesnil from 1988 and 2002 and Dom Pérignon Oenothèque from 1990 and 1996, before Italy shows real depth with Bruno Giacosa back to 1971 and 1955 Giacomo Conterno Monfortino!! Vega Sicilia Único from 1962 and 1965 adds Spanish depth, while Swiss rarities from Gantenbein offer a taste of home to round out this remarkable house call! Many lots are single bottles, ideal for filling gaps in any collection! All wines removed from his temperature-controlled home cellar in Geneva.

"The 1975 La Mission-Haut-Brion has been the most consistent wine of the vintage. Super-concentrated, and now beginning to shed enough tannin so that it can be fully appreciated, this enormously constituted La Mission-Haut-Brion has developed that fabulous Graves set of aromatics - tobacco, black fruits, minerals, roasted herbs, and cedar. "...exhibits a saturated, nearly opaque dark ruby/garnet color, as well as a tight but promising bouquet of roasted nuts, dried herbs, and rich, jammy, curranty fruit. The most impressive components are the exceptional richness and textured feel. An opaque dark garnet color is followed by aromas of sweet cedar, old wood, truffles, smoke, and underbrush. Big, thick, juicy, black currant, and cherry flavors can be found in this muscular, monster-sized, exceedingly tannic, dense, backward wine. "Tasted at the Montrose vertical in Stamford, the 1947 Montrose is a truly great Saint Estèphe. Noticeably deeper in color than the 1952 or 1959, it has an impressive bouquet: ample red berry fruit, rusty copper piping, dried blood and damp earth developing in the glass and keeping you hooked. The palate is medium-bodied and as fresh as the aromatics. There is a fine line of acidity here, much less volatility than you often encounter in Bordeaux 1947s, very harmonious with dried orange peel, tobacco and iron filings towards the stocky finish. This is a 1947 that still packs a punch after many decades and it is delicious!"(98pts)

175 Château Pétrus - Vintage 1961

ts, ltl, spc, scc, cuc, outstanding color and condition (not in bond VAT paid)

"As they say, it's a tough job, but someone's got to do it! Just to make you even more envious of my good fortune, let me tell you that over the last year I had the 1961 Pétrus out of regular format, twice from a magnum, and twice from a double magnum. Regardless of the size of the bottle, it is a perfect wine. Fully mature, and more evolved than several of its neighbors (i.e., 1961 Latour a Pomerol and 1961 Lafleur), it offers a huge, sweet nose of ginger, mint, exotic spices, and gobs of jammy black fruits. Its extraordinary viscosity, sweetness of fruit, and heady alcohol level, as well as its remarkable extract, make for one of the most sumptuous, hedonistic bottles of wine anybody could ever consume."(100pts)

176 Château Pétrus - Vintage 1964

vhs, ltl, scc, outstanding color and condition (not in bond VAT paid)

"...high levels of tannin and equally impressive levels of richness. This wine has a dark, murky garnet color with some orange and rust at the edge. The spectacular aromatics soar from the glass, offering up roasted herbs, espresso coffee, mocha, caramel, and plenty of jammy red and black fruits."(99pts)

177 Château Pichon Lalande - Vintage 1982

Pauillac

2ts (not in bond VAT paid)

"...retains all its glossy, rich, flamboyant cassis fruit, chocolaty, berry jam-like notes, and plenty of earthy, foresty flavors. This is a full-bodied, extravagantly rich Pichon Lalande seemingly devoid of acidity and tannin, but the wine is incredibly well-balanced and pure. It is an amazing effort!"(100pts)

183 Chambertin - Vintage 1993

Domaine Leroy

3.5cm bc, scc (not in bond VAT paid)

"... a fantastically complex and explosive nose of truffles, tea, leather, fresh earth and minerality is followed by delicious, intense and impressively broad-scaled flavors that are austere, beautifully focused and extremely precise before exploding into a palate staining finish of incredible length and profound complexity. The '93 Chambertin has arrived at a point in its evolution where it could be drunk now with pleasure though I stress that there is certainly no rush to drink up; in both cases, after an hour of air the wine was singing so if you're in the mood to enjoy this wine, don't hesitate."(97pts BH)

184 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 1993

Domaine Leroy

3.5cm bc, scc, sdc (not in bond VAT paid)

"...is a show-stopper. It has penetrating aromas of cassis, blackberry, stones, and wild herbs. On the palate, leather, boysenberries, assorted dark fruits, and a myriad of spices can be discerned in its complex and decadently fashioned personality. This 1993 unquestionably has the requisite power, richness, concentration, and density of fruit to stand up to its solid backbone."(98pts)

185 Clos Vougeot - Vintage 1993

Domaine Leroy

(not in bond VAT paid)

"The positively gorgeous, strikingly complex and highly perfumed nose offers up an array of both primary and secondary fruit elements along with ample spice, earth, sandalwood and game nuances. There is a distinctly cool mouth feel to the sleek, detailed and focused big-bodied flavors that are overtly powerful while delivering the same excellent depth as telegraphed by the nose on the driving finish."(96pts BH)

1 bottle per lot US$3000-4000
per lot CHF2400-3200

186 Clos Vougeot - Vintage 1995

Domaine Leroy

sdc (not in bond VAT paid)

"This is a fascinating wine of power and intensity yet without weight or heaviness and the usual youthful austerity of classic Clos de Vougeot is only a background element as the rich, full-bodied, sappy and highly complex flavors are underpinned by supple tannins that have none of the aggressivity of the typical '95 today. In fact, this is really quite forward and while it should hold for many years at this level, I don't see any further improvement potential. A great effort from what is undoubtedly the reference standard producer of this fabled grand cru."(93pts)

188 Nuits St. Georges - Vintage 1993

Aux Boudots, Domaine Leroy

scc (not in bond VAT paid)

"...aromas of spice, earth, dried flowers and ripe dark berry liqueur-like scents. There is excellent richness to the delicious, velvety and seductively textured medium plus weight flavors that possess outstanding mid-palate density before culminating in a lingering, complex and nicely balanced finish."(93pts BH)

189 Nuits St. Georges - Vintage 1995

Aux Boudots, Domaine Leroy

(not in bond VAT paid)

"Leroy's most profound Nuits is the benchmark-setting opaque and black-colored Nuits-St.-Georges Aux Boudots (250 cases). This extraordinary wine possesses an enthralling nose of wild berries, iron, stones and some intriguing saltiness. Explosive, powerful, elegant as well as velvety-textured and jam-packed with copious amounts of sweet red and black fruits, this is a wine of intense depth."(94-97pts)

190 Musigny - Vintage 1993

wisvl, scc, cuc (not in bond VAT paid)

"The 1993 Leroy Musigny showed that signature Leroy' per Zen, along with fresh blood,' per another, and Chinese root' per one more. There was so much garden and the flower of Chambolle' according to the Comte. This had great stink and was super gamy, rich and saucy, and it only got better with air. This was a crazy tasty' wine, I wrote, and it was full of forest goodness. The Hamburglar called it one of the wines of the weekend,' while the Comte found it exceptional.' There was great smack to its bouncing ass of a finish."(97pts JK)

191 Richebourg - Vintage 1988

Domaine Leroy

(not in bond VAT paid)

"The 1988 Richebourg has slightly less finesse and a less perfect bouquet than the Romanée St.-Vivant, but it is more muscular. fuller-framed, and a titan of a wine with its huge proportions and massive concentration and depth. This is a monumental old-style burgundy that is meant to last for ages, and I am envious of anyone who is fortunate enough to put it in their cellars. The 1988 vintage attests to a remarkably auspicious start for the new Domaine Leroy in Vosne-Romanée."(98pts)

192 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 1993

"...exhibits a marvelous panoply of spices, flowers, herbs, and dark raspberry scents. Its flavor profile remains youthful, with profound layers of fresh red and black berries, rosemary, violets, and stones vying for the taster's attention. Firmly structured, powerful, and stupendously long in the finish, this is a wine for the ages."(99pts)

199 Krug Vintage Champagne - Vintage 2002

Clos du Mesnil

1x1 bottle owc (not in bond VAT paid)

"...offers up a deep, pure and youthful bouquet of fresh apricot, pear, a marvelously complex base of chalky soil tones, hints of the Crème patissière to come, a dollop of fresh nutmeg and a nice touch of citrus zest in the upper register. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and seamless, with the inherent power of the 2002 vintage very much in evidence in its bottomless core, but with the overall profile of the wine one of unrepentant refinement. As stunningly beautiful as the fruit component is here, the wine is more defined by its brilliant mineral drive on the palate, with its elegant mousse, perfect balance and very, very long, nascently complex and laser-like finish the stuff of legends. The wine seems to attain its lift and backend energy from its limestone mineral drive, rather than the bright, zesty acidity and the overall impression is of almost otherworldly perfection."(100pts JG)

201 Louis Roederer Vintage Champagne - Vintage 2002

Cristal Rose

(not in bond VAT paid)

"The 2002 Brut Cristal Rose shows the classic Roederer introspectiveness that can sometimes make the wines hard to grasp when they are young. It, too, is a relatively lightly-colored rose. The bouquet is beautifully woven into a fabric of layered, ripe fruit. With some time in the glass, the wine's textural beauty becomes more apparent, but this is a Champagne that needs bottle age. It should be spectacular in time."(95+pts)

ANCIENT LATOUR AND A JAYER JEWEL

Small in number but enormous in history, these eleven lots hold some of the oldest and rarest bottles in the sale! Latour opens a window onto the nineteenth century with two single bottles of 1892, followed by two bottles of 1902 and a 1906, while a 1917 Lagrange adds another early twentieth-century survivor. Bottles of this age rarely come to market, and each one is a piece of Bordeaux history in its own right. The centerpiece is a bottle of 1959 Henri Jayer Richebourg, reconditioned by Henri Jayer himself. Its provenance traces back to the private collection of his daughter, Lydie Jayer, and it was purchased at auction by this collector in 2021!! Four bottles of 1992 Boisson-Vadot Meursault Les Genevrières lead into a cult favorite from the Jura: Houillon-Overnoy Arbois Pupillin Vin Jaune from 1983, 1985, 1988, and 1999, each in its traditional 62cl clavelin. A rare chance to hold history in your hands!!

"The 1959 Jayer came from Wilf's cellar, and this extraordinary meal became even more so immediately. It was one of those wines that stopped time, transporting anyone fortunate enough to taste a drop to a place where nothing else matters but pleasure. It was rich and heady like all great '59s and didn't suffer from any over-ripeness or stew that sometimes plagues 1959 in Burgundy. Its finish was endless, another indicator that time is no match for Henri Jayer. I only can hope to try this wine again, just once."(99pts JK)

A TRIO OF WHITE BURGUNDY GRAND CRUS

Three tremendous selections of top-flight White Burgundy feature Coche-Dury Corton-Charlemagne from 2014 and 2016 alongside 2017 Leflaive Bâtard-Montrachet. Three lots, two legendary domaines! All wines properly stored.

240 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2014

Coche-Dury

nl (in bond)

"The 2014 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru is a wine that leaves you lost for words - never helpful in this profession. It begs the question: Why are not all Corton-Charlemagnes like this? It has a stunning bouquet with a profound mix of yellow plum, Mirabelle, Seville orange marmalade, those liquid minerals and later, scents of cold wet limestone. The palate is incredibly powerful with stunning acidity. There are multiple layers of spice-tinged citrus fruit, just a faint tinge of marzipan, wondrous umami sensation in the mouth with grilled walnut and a hint of pralines towards the finish. This represents an astonishing Corton-Charlemagne that might end up touching the imperious 2005. Readers should note that Raphael told me that the release of this will be delayed, just like the 2005 and 2010. Put it on your wish list and wait."(99pts)

242 Batard Montrachet - Vintage 2017

Domaine Leflaive

nl (in bond)

"The 2017 Bâtard-Montrachet Grand Cru unfurls in the glass with a reticent bouquet of lemon rind, citrus, hazelnut cream, white flowers and mandarin oil. On the palate, it's full-bodied, both denser and blockier than the Bienvenues-Bâtard, with exceptional concentration, tangy acids and a long finish. Today, the wine is only partially formed, but it's immensely promising. Pierre Vincent told me that it attained 12.8% natural alcohol, but despite that rather modest degree for a grand cru white Burgundy, it displays plenty of power and substance."(94-96pts)

BOUCHARD PÈRE ET FILS LA ROMANÉE

We are pleased to present five distinguished lots showcasing Bouchard Père et Fils La Romanée. Six bottles of 1984 in OWC are joined by two magnums each of 1984 and 1992, also in original wood, from the era when Bouchard raised and sold La Romanée under its arrangement with the Liger-Belair family. At just 0.85 hectares, La Romanée is the smallest Grand Cru appellation in the Côte d'Or and sits directly above Romanée-Conti. A 1959 Latour and a magnum of 1959 Bouchard Aîné Musigny add two more gems from a great vintage. All wines removed from professional storage.

FROM CORTON TO ROMANÉE-CONTI

This nineteen-lot offering of the one and only Domaine de la Romanée-Conti was purchased on release and arrives from Scandinavia in perfect condition. Corton leads with ten vintages, every one from 2010 through 2018 plus the 2022, before the Grand Crus take over with Echézeaux from 2019 and 2022, 2020 Grands Echézeaux, La Tâche from 2021 and 2023, 2023 Richebourg, and a bottle of 2022 Romanée-Conti! White Burgundy adds 2020 Corton-Charlemagne and 2003 Montrachet. A remarkable cross-section of the Domaine's holdings! All wines purchased on release and properly stored.

248 Corton - Vintage 2010

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

(in bond)

"A very ripe yet fresh nose of dark berry fruit, violets and plum enjoy added breadth from the presence of spice, earth and distinct sauvage nuances. This sauvage aspect also characterizes the remarkably rich and full-bodied flavors that possess a velvety texture from the copious amounts of dry extract. The supporting structure possesses a high degree of phenolic maturity and outstanding length on the ever-so-slightly warm finish."(93pts BH)

249 Corton - Vintage 2011

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

(in bond)

"The 2011 Corton Grand Cru from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti put in a similar showing as it did just after bottling earlier last year. It has less of the mushroom element than I recollect, adorned with pastille-like purity of red cherry and wild strawberry fruit, a slight ferrous note developing with time in the glass. The palate has developed a tad more roundness in the mouth in recent months, the tannins softened a little and it is consequently less masculine and more approachable. That said, as much as I enjoyed polishing off my glass, I would advise allowing this several years in bottle so that it can lose its puppy fat."(93pts)

250 Corton - Vintage 2012

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

(in bond)

"The 2012 Corton Grand Cru was cropped at 11 hectoliters per hectare on September 21. Clear, almost pale in color, the nose exudes that term often appropriated to Burgundy: transparency. The aromatics gradually unfold with light strawberry and red cherry scents, just a hint of sous bois in the background. The palate is crisp on the entry with tart cherries, a fine line of acidity and hints of brown sugar interwoven through the finish that fans out gently. It feels a little foursquare, a "correct" Corton that is perhaps letting the fellow Grand Crus take the limelight. But it will give pleasure over the next 10 to 12 years, and though it might not represent the best Corton since the domaine took over the parcels in 2009, it is perhaps the one that slots in perfectly with the other wines. Just 242 cases produced this year."(92pts)

251 Corton - Vintage 2013

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"A very fresh and expressive nose features notes of dried flowers, pungent earth, plum, dark berries and plenty of the sauvage. 252 Corton - Vintage 2014

253 Corton - Vintage 2015

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

(in bond)

" On the palate, the wine is medium to full-bodied, sapid and penetrating, with vibrant acids and an assertive chassis of firm, youthfully stemmy tannins though there's sufficient mid-palate depth to subsume those in the fullness of time. While the domaine's Corton, from the vineyards of Prince Florent de Mérode, is still a work in progress, the 2015 is the most successful rendition to date, and the balmy, low-yielding vintage seems to have played to the hill's strengths."(93pts)

1 bottle per lot US$1800-2400
per lot CHF1400-1900

254 Corton - Vintage 2016

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

(in bond)

"Surpassing the 2015 rendition, the 2016 Corton Grand Cru is the finest wine that the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti has produced to date from the holdings of Prince Florent de Mérode. Wafting from the glass with notes of cassis, currant leaf, raspberries and menthol, discretely framed by new wood, the wine is medium to full-bodied, velvety and intense, gaining in depth and dimension as it sits in the glass, with tangy underpinning acids and powdery tannins, culminating in a long finish. Aubert de Villaine recounted that the Domaine replanted a third of Corton-Bressandes while also grafting over the Mérodes' young vines to their own massal selections of Pinot Fin. While this is built for four decade's evolution in the cellar, the balance and concentration are such that it could be drunk with pleasure in its youth."(94pts)

255 Corton - Vintage 2017

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

(in bond)

"The 2017 Corton Grand Cru is performing beautifully from bottle, bursting from the glass with a captivating bouquet of peonies, rose hips, sweet red berries, orange rind, spices and subtle soil tones. On the palate, the wine medium to full-bodied, supple and velvety, with succulent acids, good concentration and a long, exquisitely perfumed finish. Indeed, it's only by comparison with the domaine's utterly suave wines from Vosne-Romanée later in the tasting that this Corton's tannins seem comparatively coarse-grained. Picked on September 4th, it is showing appreciably better than it did when I tasted it from tank before bottling last year."(93pts)

SWISS SAVOIR-FAIRE: BLUE-CHIP BORDEAUX AND BURGUNDY

A renowned Swiss collector, with many thousands of bottles in reserve, shares seventy-six lots of blue-chip Bordeaux and Burgundy, much of it in original packaging. Margaux is the backbone of the Bordeaux, with full cases of 1994 and 1998 and nine magnums of 2005 in banded OWCs. Haut-Brion counters with two OWCs of 2001 and a jeroboam of 1988, and Mouton offers 2000 in both a six-bottle OWC and jeroboam. A magnum of 1961 Lafite, Pétrus from 1982 and 2005, and two bottles of 1937 d'Yquem add vintage pedigree!

In Burgundy, Rousseau delivers twelve bottles of 1999 Ruchottes-Chambertin Clos des Ruchottes before DRC takes center stage with three-magnum banded OWCs of 2006 and 2007 La Tâche and a 2006 Romanée-Conti, followed by Leroy Chambertin from 1996 and 2000!! Seven lots of Coche-Dury, led by 2001 Corton-Charlemagne, and DRC Montrachet from 2009 and 2018 shine among the whites, while Rayas Châteauneuf-du-Pape from 1994 to 2003 and a 1996 Screaming Eagle soar beyond Burgundy. Savoir-faire, indeed! All wines removed from professional storage.

Consistently prodigious and almost a sure bet to top the scoring card of any blind tasting of this vintage as well as other years, the 1989 Haut-Brion is a seamless, majestic classic, and a tribute to this phenomenal terroir and its singular characteristics. The wine still has a very thick, viscous-looking ruby/purple color, a spectacular, young but awesome smorgasbord of aromas ranging from scorched earth, liquid minerals, graphite, blackberry and black currant jam to toast, licorice, and spice box. The levels of fruit, extract, and glycerin in this viscous, full-bodied, low-acid wine are awe-inspiring. "The 2000 possesses a saturated ruby/purple color to the rim as well as an extraordinarily promising nose of creme de cassis intermixed with white flowers, licorice, and hints of espresso and toasty oak. There is great intensity, compelling purity, a multi-layered, full-bodied palate, and a finish that goes on for nearly 70+ seconds. Bottled naturally, with no filtration, it is a monumental example of the elegance and power that symbolize this extraordinary vineyard. A tour de force in winemaking, many of my colleagues predicted, far earlier than me, that it would be the wine of the vintage."(100pts)

283 Château Montrose - Vintage 1989

St. Estephe

(not in bond VAT not paid)

"Lucid in color, the aromatics do not hold back with vibrant blackberry, blueberry and black truffle, hints of sous-bois, all with sensational precision that few can match in this vintage (indeed, its precision lends it a veneer of modernity since "precision" is now more commonplace across Bordeaux). The palate is brilliantly balanced with filigree tannin. There is wonderful backbone here, extremely fresh and tensile, crystalline even with an exceptional detail, mineral-rich finish that lingers in the mouth. Difficult to fault, this might well be the greatest 1989 Montrose that I have tasted, and certainly wishing to take nothing away from the 1990 Montrose that I tasted alongside, the 1989 is now the one I would pick."(100pts)

Dense, chewy, and backward, with tremendous purity and density in addition to obvious toasty oak, it is full-bodied, powerful, tannic, and backward. Twenty-four to 48 hours of aeration only hints at its ultimate potential. This blockbuster will be exceptionally long-lived."(97pts)

This is a big wine by any measure with excellent mid-palate density and superb length. "Hints of mocha, vanilla, maraschino, and almond paste lend a confectionary note to generously rich cassis and raspberry, while Latakia tobacco, peat, clove, black pepper, star anise, and cumin contribute commune-typical Vosne-Romanée personality in spades. The high-toned, sweet themes continue inner mouth, with intimation of heliotrope, rowan, and lily perfume, while the wine's smoky, spicy elements seem to descend into a low-register undertone of roasted red meats and forest floor. As this opens to the air, a subtly sweet-saline suggestion of lobster shell reduction adds richness and succulence. Strikingly creamy in feel, this La Tâche nevertheless possessed a fresh berry edge that helps convey vibrancy to a finish that practically glows in your mouth, offering another of those Burgundian paradoxes of light and dark.."(96pts)

"Here too is a very reserved yet ultra classy and refined, indeed even ethereal nose that is quite simply kaleidoscopic in its breadth, combining red, blue and black fruits with spice, earth, minerality and a hint of underbrush that stands aside for the perfectly balanced, pure and stylish medium full flavors that are very firmly but not aggressively structured while delivering flat out unbelievable length yet all the while remaining completely understated in personality. As are all the very best vintages of RC, this is spherical with nothing out of place and this will age effortlessly for decades. The La Tâche is truly spectacular but there is simply another dimension of depth present here. A wine of sheer class and the epitome of the phrase 'power without weight'."(97pts BH)

It has a fascinating bouquet with scents of white flower, walnut, almond and white chocolate that is beautifully defined. With a few minutes in the glass, there is a hint of wild heather. The palate offers candied orange peel on the entry that gallivants about with mandarin and grapefruit. It is hot-wired with a "killer" line of acidity that imbues this Puligny with supreme energy. There is still plenty of signature 2009 richness and ripeness, but the wine's minerality is now much more present. A brilliant, textured finish rounds things out in style. Overall, the 2009 is a mid-weight Montrachet. I would love to see it age for several decades, but it takes a pretty courageous soul to age white Burgundy these days."(96pts)

THE CELLAR OF A SWISS ENTREPRENEUR

We are delighted to welcome back this successful Swiss entrepreneur and friend of the house with one hundred twenty-seven nearly pristine lots. Original packaging abounds once again, and Bordeaux opens splendidly with a magnum of 1961 La Mission Haut-Brion and a case of 2000 Lafite spanning two generations!! Lafleur follows with a case of 1983 up to the more recent 2022 and 2023, while full cases of 1990 Margaux and 1982 Pichon Lalande, and Pétrus from 1989 and 2021 add to the grandeur!

Burgundy belongs to Rousseau and DRC. Rousseau Chambertin provides a commanding presence with full twelve-bottle OCBs of 2010, 2015, and 2016, while Romanée-Conti appears in six selections from 2016 through 2021, joined by La Tâche and Comte Liger-Belair La Romanée!!! Maison Leroy reaches back with Volnay Santenots to 1949 and 1969 Chambertin, and Domaine Leflaive dominates White Burgundy with eleven lots, led by 2009 Montrachet and six-bottle OWCs of Bâtard-Montrachet. Four bottles of 1978 Bonneau Réserve des Célestins, twelve bottles of 2015 Salon, and three-bottle OWCs of 2013 Monfortino complete a collection of precision and pedigree!! All wines meticulously acquired, expertly stored, and generally in outstanding condition.

343 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 2005

St. Emilion

1x6 bottle owc (not in bond VAT not paid)

"The 2005 from Cheval Blanc is a quintessentially elegant, beautiful, deep bluish/ruby-colored wine from St.-Emilion, with raspberry, blueberry, and floral notes, impressive density, great precision, freshness and purity. Full-bodied, but extremely light on its feet, I don't mean to gush, but it is super-intense, rich and just so meticulously crafted! This is another fabulous wine and a perfect expression for this vintage. It is difficult to forget the gorgeous blueberry and raspberry fruit, full body, sweet tannin, a multi-layered texture, and purity and palate presence of this stunning wine."(100pts)

St. Emilion

"...rivets you to the spot with brilliant delineation and mineral-rich red fruit that articulates its terroir as well as any Right Bank you will find. The palate is medium-bodied with svelte tannin, perfect acidity, wonderfully integrated new oak and enormous depth toward the fresh, pencil-box- and cedar-infused finish. This is a classic Figeac, up there with the 1947 and 1949, both recently re-tasted and testifying to a wine that genuinely belongs among the elite Saint-Émilions. Faye believes it is the best Figeac he has ever made. He is correct."(100pts)

Medium to full-bodied, the palate is wonderfully rich and decadently seductive in its generosity of fruit and velvety texture, offering seamless freshness and finishing with epic length and compelling minerality."(99pts)

There is great intensity, compelling purity, a multi-layered, full-bodied palate, and a finish that goes on for nearly 70+ seconds. However, this is splitting hairs, as this is another stunningly opulent, rich, full-bodied, amazingly concentrated, exotic, flamboyant Pétrus that remains remarkably youthful, and in need of more years of bottle age. 368 Chambertin - Vintage 2010

A. Rousseau

1x12 bottle ocb (not in bond VAT not paid)

"Somewhat ironically, this is both more elegant and fresher than the Clos de Bèze with one of the most complex noses of the entire vintage as it combines a seemingly endless array of spice, mineral, fruit and Gevrey sauvage characters. The impressively rich, serious, mouth coating and broad-shouldered flavors possess superb volume and muscle on the sensationally persistent and explosive finish. This is even more backwards than the Bèze and should be capable of rewarding 20 plus years of cellar time as the tannins are also quite fine but very dense."(98pts BH)

"As is often the case, the highly perfumed nose is the most floral-inflected of the range with its equally cool and restrained array of violet and rose petal scents that combine with an extraordinary group of spice elements on the essence of red currant aromas. The mouthfeel of the imposingly-scaled and powerful flavors is again robust yet refined with just as much minerality as the Richebourg adding even more lift to the almost painfully intense and extravagantly long finish that also just goes and goes."(98pts BH)

"...wafting from the glass with aromas of wild berries, violets, peony, dark chocolate, cinnamon and exotic spices. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, ample and satiny, with an ineffable sense of completeness, searing concentration without weight, a vibrant, indeed animating line of acidity, and a long, expansive finish that concludes with a judicious touch of mouthwatering bitterness. Wines like this are the foundation of the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti's reputation."(100pts)

"Wafting from the glass with a deep and complex bouquet of dark wild berries, cassis, wilted rose petals, blood orange, exotic spices, licorice and coniferous forest floor, the 2017 Romanée-Conti Grand Cru is full-bodied, satiny textured and multidimensional. It's just as powerful as this year's La Tâche but even more elegantly framed by filigree structure, concluding with an intensely sapid and penetratingly fragrant finish. Pristinely balanced, this young Romanée-Conti possesses huge reserves for the long haul despite its deceptively supple youthful appeal, and it will reward extended bottle age."(98pts)

There is a highly refined mouthfeel to the almost lacy yet concentrated middle weight flavors that possess first-rate complexity on the balanced and wonderfully persistent if youthfully austere finish. 447 Châteauneuf du Pape - Vintage 1978

Reserve des Celestins, H. Bonneau

4bsl, 4scc, outstanding color (not in bond VAT not paid)

"When drunk with Henri Bonneau at his home, this wine was so remarkably young as to defy belief. A clone of the 1989-1990 blend, this structured, tannic, profoundly concentrated wine represents the essence of Châteauneuf du Pape. The huge nose of smoked herbs, olives, beef blood, and black fruits is intense. The enormous concentration, freshness, and superb balance are hallmarks of this classically profound vintage for Châteauneuf du Pape. The wine reveals amazing extract and intensity, as well as a striking youthfulness. Still young, yet complete and complex, the 1978 should prove to be uncommonly long-lived, even by Henri Bonneau's standards."(99pts)

Light tropical notes, pastry, spice and yellow orchard fruit notes give the Roises an intriguing exotic profile that comes through beautifully in the glass. "The 2013 Barolo Riserva Monfortino is a huge, towering wine marked by serious fruit intensity and a backbone of firm, classically austere tannins. Certainly next to the 2014 and 2015, the sheer tannic clout of the 2013 is impossible to miss. "The 2010 Costa Russi is a vineyard-designate "Barbaresco" (although the wine's addition of five percent Barbera prohibits it from being called such) that opens to even more profound depth and generosity. As is typical of this cru expression, the wine displays an amazing assortment of aromas that span from the floral to the spicy. Supple, round and seductive, it caresses the palate in the most beautiful fashion. The 2010 vintage is shaping up handsomely for those who collect Gaja's best bottles."(95pts)

"The 2016 Barbaresco Costa Russi is ripe, creamy and enveloping, as it so often is, and yet also preserves the super classic sense of structure that runs through all these wines. In 2016, Costa Russi has an extra touch of mid-palate sweetness that gives the wine its sense of immediacy. Succulent red cherry, rosewater, kirsch, mint and dried flowers meld together in the glass. Soft and sensual, with tons of allure, Costa Russi is another winner from Gaja. Time in the glass brings out the wine's density and tannins, both of which it has in spades."(98pts VM)

"A dear friend had saved a bottle of the 1985 Sassicaia to share, and that was the impetus for getting together. Although I have had the 1985 Sassicaia a number of times I have never been totally convinced. This bottle did it for me. It was as perfect as anything can be in this world. Still fresh, perfumed and full of life, the wine showed incredible detail and pedigree in a dazzling expression of class. To say it was profound would be an understatement. THE P.V.S.R. COLLECTION: FINE WINES FROM A GENEVA CELLAR

There are great collections, and then there are collections that could only belong to one person. The collection of P.V.S.R. is firmly the latter! A discerning Geneva collector with an independent eye, he has never been content simply to assemble the finest Burgundy and Bordeaux, though he holds them in abundance. His curiosity has always led him further, toward the oldest Madeiras, some of the most ancient Jura wines in existence, and the rarest California bottles of the 1960s, not to mention whisky, his other great love, pursued with the same rigor and sense of discovery. Shaped by a lifetime of travel and by encounters with fellow connoisseurs around the world, his is a collection in which every bottle carries a story. Now he shares two hundred ninety-two lots with us, and they are as singular as the man himself!!

Bordeaux sets a regal tone with the 1961 vintage, including three bottles of Ausone, six of Haut-Brion, and five of Lafite, followed by twelve bottles of 1970 Latour, ten bottles of 1982 Margaux, six magnums of 1985 Mouton, and ten bottles of 1959 Pichon Baron!! Burgundy is the heart of the offering, with more than two hundred lots. Domaine Bizot appears in eighteen lots, led by Echézeaux from 1999 through 2017, and Domaine Trapet brings nineteen. Roumier is the largest presence at twenty-nine lots, reaching back to three bottles of 1970 Bonnes-Mares and featuring 2011 Les Amoureuses and six bottles of 2018 Bonnes-Mares, while five lots from Kei Shiogai suit a collector who has never followed the crowd. Prieuré-Roch provides a showcase, encompassing six magnums of 1999 Chambertin Clos de Bèze, alongside magnums of 1999 Vosne-Romanée Le Clos Goillotte!! Three bottles of 1978 Engel Grands Echézeaux and thirteen lots of Groffier round out the remarkable reds in this special collection!

White Burgundy impresses with eight lots of Leflaive and Sauzet Chevalier-Montrachet from 2013 to 2016 alongside Montrachet from 2018 and 2020. Bonneau Réserve des Célestins from 2014 through 2016 adds a Rhône treasure, and Champagne pours three bottles of 1961 Dom Pérignon, 1999 Cristal and Cristal Rosé Vinothèque, plus a custom OWC of Salon from 2004 to 2008! California offers deep runs of Diamond Creek and Mayacamas and a three-bottle OWC of 1999 Harlan Estate. The finale belongs to Madeira, with four lots of 1862 D. Bolger Malvasia and Terrantez, the oldest wines in the sale! All bottles stored in pristine conditions at Au Bonheur du Vin, Acker's preferred and recommended professional storage in Geneva.

"The deep garnet-purple colored 2015 La Mission Haut-Brion is a blend of 58% Merlot, 7% Cabernet Franc and 35% Cabernet Sauvignon. Youthfully mute with bright, youthful red currants, black raspberries, cassis and freshly crushed blackberries notions, it slowly unfurls to reveal an earthy/minerally undercurrent of damp soil, charcoal, iron ore and truffles plus a waft of violets. Medium to full-bodied, decadently fruited and yet wonderfully elegant with very ripe, very silky tannins, freshness that sits well in the background and an almost electric intensity of vibrant red and black fruit flavors, it finishes long and minerally. Just. Beautiful. Consider giving it 6-7 years in bottle before broaching and drink it over the next 30+."(98pts)

"...is a liquid skyscraper in the mouth, building layers upon layers of extravagant, if not over-the-top richness with its hints of subtle charcoal, truffle, blackberry, cassis, espresso and notes of toast and graphite. Full-bodied, with wonderfully sweet tannin, it is a mind-boggling, prodigious achievement that should hit its prime in about 15 years, and last for 50 to 100."(100pts)

"The late Michel Delon always thought that this was the greatest vintage he had produced. We often tasted it side by side with the 1982, because I always preferred the latter vintage. Of course, the two vintages are quite different in style, with the 1986 a monument to classicism, with great tannin, extraordinary delineation, and a huge, full-bodied nose of sweet, ripe cassis fruit intermixed with vanilla, melon, fruitcake, and a multitude of spices. The wine has always been phenomenally concentrated, yet wonderfully fresh and vigorous. The wine still seems young, yet it is hard to believe it is not close to full maturity." (100pts)

Margaux

1x6 bottle banded owc (not in bond VAT not paid)

"The 2015 Château Margaux is a blend of 87% Cabernet Sauvignon, 8% Merlot, 3% Cabernet Franc and 2% Petit Verdot. Medium garnet-purple colored, the nose features oh-so-seductive notes of warm blackberries, cassis and black forest cake with touches of forest floor, sandalwood, anise and cigar boxes plus a waft of lavender. Medium to full-bodied, it delivers taut, muscular, densely packed black fruits and exotic spice flavor layers supported by a very firm backbone of grainy tannins with oodles of freshness and a long, savory finish. It is tightly knit and a little reticent at this very youthful stage; afford it at least 15 years in the cellar, and it will open out into a classic Château Margaux of incredible proportions. Readers may be interested to know that this wine is beautifully packaged in a special commemorative bottle honoring winemaker Paul Pontellier, who passed away in 2016. The gold-etched black bottle bears the message, "Hommage à Paul Pontellier" at the bottom. This 2015 is an achingly beautiful swan song from an incredibly gifted winemaker, taken from us too soon. In my view, this alone makes this vintage more than worth the investment for the many lovers of history in a bottle."(99pts)

"This was classic Pauillac on the irony side, stony with lots of rocks in its nose. It came across very young and fresh, with a touch of ashtray in there. "Of all the old Charles Noëllat wines that I have tasted (some dishonestly sporting a Leroy label after Madame Bize purchased this old estate and its stocks as the genesis of her Domaine Leroy), this has been the best. This particular magnum was not part of the re-release of this wine that occurred under Madame Bize (I have had quite good bottles of the '64 RSV as well that were let go from the cellars at the time her purchase of the domaine), but had been bought years before. The bouquet in magnum is lovely, offering up a complex and impressive bouquet of raspberry, coffee, herb tones, duck, cloves, sous bois, minerals and cedar. On the palate the wine is medium-full, with good depth of fruit, lovely resolution, and good length on the complex finish. This is clearly old fashioned wine making, and shows just a tad too much chaptalized sweetness, but the wine does have good grip. It is not a wine that will impress with great purity, but with its silky fruit and solid expression of terroir." (90pts JG)

"Tasted blind at the Burgfest tasting in Beaune, the 2013 Ruchottes-Chambertin Grand Cru from Christophe Roumier has a simpler bouquet than its peers: a little reduced to contend with, later sea spray and iodine scents infusing the tightly wound brambly red fruit underneath. The palate is medium-bodied with chewy tannin, moderate acidity, quite dense though it feels a little "pushed" at the moment, has not quite settled into its groove. I would hope to see more nuance develop in bottle as it was outclassed by Mugneret-Gibourg's own 2013 Ruchottes-Chambertin here. Tasted September 2016."(91pts)

"Ruchottes-chambertin Grand Cru Red) The 2017 Ruchottes-Chambertin Grand Cru already translates the limestone terroir of the soils on the nose, which is very refined and cerebral, showing touches of blackberry and wild hedgerow, even flint. 556 Chambertin - Vintage 2012

Domaine Trapet

(not in bond VAT not paid)

"Tasted blind at the annual "Burgfest" tasting in Beaune. The 2012 Chambertin Grand Cru from Domaine J-L Trapet has a very perfumed, mint-tinged bouquet with desiccated orange peel infusing the slightly oxidised maraschino and strawberry fruit. It is very contained - never fully lets go. The palate is medium-bodied with fine, very supple tannin, plenty of juicy red cherry fruit, but feels a tad flat-footed towards the finish. It does not quite possess the chutzpah of its peers at the moment, though Trapet's Chambertin consistently repays cellaring."(94pts)

"Bright medium red. Very complex, subtle aromas of raspberry, flowers, licorice, minerals and menthol opened nicely with air. Boasts terrific inner-mouth menthol-and-spice tension, with its juicy dark berry fruit still wound up but already showing a captivating restrained sweetness. Finishes with terrific saline grip and length, the suave tannins perfectly buffered by fruits and minerals."(94+pts VM)

" The youthful bouquet already shows enormous complexity in its combination of red and black cherries, dark plums, woodsmoke, a gorgeous base of soil, gamebird, mustard seed and vanillin oak. On the palate the wine is deep, pure and sappy at the core, with great balance and grip, suave, fine-grained tannins, exquisite length and focus and simply stunning backend mineral drive for a 2015 Burgundy. This is going to be celestial juice in the fullness of time."(97pts JG)

"...derived from vines planted in 1920, Duroché produced a single barrel of the 2020 Chambertin-Clos de Bèze Grand Cru Hommage à Philippe. Last year, I singled it out as one of the wines of the vintage, and this year it confirmed all its promise. Unwinding in the glass with aromas of wild berries, Indian spices, peonies, incense, sweet spices, licorice and soy sauce, it's full-bodied, ample and multidimensional, with a deep, layered mid-palate, beautifully refined tannins and a seamless, complete profile, with lively acids and a long, perfumed finish. Despite its undeniable authority, it remains extremely elegant and harmonious." (100pts)

The bouquet soars from the glass in a blaze of sappy red and black cherries, game-bird, limestone soil tones, woodsmoke, violets and raw cocoa. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannin. There is a fine bead of acidity here, lithe in texture, building in volume towards quite a weighty and persistent finish. "Tasted blind in a line-up of 2011 Amoureuses in Holland, Georges Roumier's 2011 Chambolle-Musigny 1er Cru Amoureuses possesses a stricter nose vis-a-vis La Pousse d'Or's Amoureuses '11: slightly more herbaceous in style but well-defined and demonstrating good intensity. This is very natural and composed very 2011 in style more than Amoureuses, but more bashful. The palate is medium-bodied with slightly chalky tannins, a fine citric thread of acidity as well as tension, and a structured but feminine finish. This is a more elegant take on Amoureuses but one that is well made. This has a mouth-tingling saltiness on the finish. On this showing, this is the finest Amoureuses in 2011."(96pts)

There is excellent concentration to the succulent yet well-detailed and intensely mineral-inflected flavors that are blessed with plenty of sappy dry extract that also serves to buffer the moderately firm core of tannins shaping the beautifully persistent finish that also flashes a suggestion of warmth. "...has an introspective bouquet at first, but allowing the wine a couple of minutes to open, it reveals intense red cherries, kirsch, strawberry and mineral scents that convey the femininity of the vineyard. The palate is medium-bodied with layers of minerally red fruit, superb acidity and a showstopping peacock's tail of flavors on the finish: strawberry, raspberry, white pepper, mineral and truffle."(95-97pts)

"The elegant, airy and beautifully perfumed nose offers up notes of sandalwood, anise, clove, herbal tea and plenty of floral influences. There is excellent delineation and minerality to the solidly concentrated, indeed even muscular, large-scaled flavors that culminate in an incredibly long if very, very backward, austere and compact finale. This Zen-like effort is going to require an extended snooze in a cool cellar and as such, it's a wine to buy and forget that you own it for at least a decade."(95pts BH)

Clos Rognet, Méo-Camuzet

2lscl (not in bond VAT not paid)

"This is a very ripe and classically robust Corton that carries its 14.4% alcohol effortlessly and with no obvious warmth and one that I clearly underestimated from barrel as it's turned into a genuinely great example of the vineyard. Specifically, a notably ripe and hugely complex nose that is still entirely primary features notes of blueberry, raspberry, earth, underbrush and a trace of smoke that complement perfectly the rich, muscled and robust big-boned flavors brimming with so much dry extract that it renders the very firm tannins almost invisible and confers a velvety texture to the massively long finish. This is almost chewy at present yet for such a big wine, there is no sense of heaviness or lack of grace. A great Corton that will live for decades and is still very much on the way up."(95pts BH)

Les Hauts Doix, R. Groffier

"This has a beautifully defined, well-focused and quite mineral-driven bouquet packed full of blackberry and raspberry fruit. The palate is full of primal energy, the red fruit framed by succulent tannins that form an almost corpulent finish, which disguises the structure underneath."(91-93pts VM)

674 Chambolle Musigny - Vintage 2017

Les Sentiers, R. Groffier

2x6 bottle ocb (not in bond VAT not paid)

"The bouquet is completely different from Les Hauts Doix, displaying more density, darker fruit, more substance and a less airy style, but still very pure and detailed. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin. There is plenty of lightly spiced black fruit, gentle grip, an appealing sense of symmetry and a longer tail on the finish than the Les Haut Doix. Superb."(92-94pts VM)

676 Gevrey Chambertin - Vintage 2016

Clos St. Jacques, S. Esmonin

2x6 bottle ocb (not in bond VAT not paid)

"The 2016 Gevrey-Chambertin Clos Saint-Jacques 1er Cru is darker in colour than its peers. The bouquet is driven by a lot of new oak (indicating that it is probably from Sylvie Esmonin), though there is sufficient fruit to support it. The palate is medium-bodied with chewy tannins, very structured and with dense red fruit that grips the mouth. There is fine sapidity towards the finish and although it is, as usual, the most impenetrable of the Clos Saint-Jacques, give it 15 to 20 years in bottle. Tasted blind at the 2016 Burgfest tasting."(94pts VM)

"An attractively layered nose combines lovely floral notes with those of citrus peel, pear and soft spice hints. The racy and tension-filled medium weight flavors possess excellent detail on the palate coating finish that is at once clean, dry and, minerally and youthfully austere. I would further observe that this is a wine that has made considerable progress over the last 10 years, and the 2018 is only the latest confirmation of that progress. 701 Montrachet - Vintage 2014

"The 2014 Montrachet Grand Cru (which incidentally Jacques was thinking about two cuvées from his two parcels) has a refined bouquet with lovely yellow flower and mineral scents that unfurl from the glass. This shows its class. This is a very classy Montrachet."(93-95pts)

"The 2015 Montrachet Grand Cru has a light, slight smoky bouquet with an intriguing and very subtle licorice note that loiters in the background like a naughty kid. The palate is well balanced and shows more cohesion and terroir expression than the Chevalier-Montrachet: quite powerful with an attractive viscous texture, but counterbalanced by a fine thread of acidity and a convincing spicy finish. This is the best white from Jacques Prieur this year by some margin."(92-94pts)

704 Chevalier Montrachet - Vintage 2014

M. Niellon

(not in bond VAT not paid)

"Reduction pushes the floral-scented aromas to the background. Otherwise there is excellent richness to the powerful and concentrated flavors, indeed this is almost succulent which is unusual for Chevalier though there is plenty of the hallmark minerality on the sappy and lingering finale. If there is a nit it's that this is not especially complex even allowing for how young it is, and my score offers the benefit of the doubt that more will develop and it should given this wine's impeccable long-term track record."(93pts BH)

The wine's tannic structure is firm and lasting. It shows broad shoulders and rich texture overall. KING OF THE NORTH: DRC VERTICALS PURCHASED ON RELEASE

A major collector in Scandinavia presents fifty-three lots devoted entirely to Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, drawn from a much larger collection. Every bottle was purchased on release and kept in temperature-controlled storage. La Tâche holds court with seventeen vintages, including every year from 2006 through 2021, plus the 2004, while Richebourg parades in thirteen vintages from 2004 through 2020!! Romanée-Conti reigns in fourteen vintages, unbroken from 2006 through 2011 and again from 2014 through 2021!!! Montrachet completes the set with nine vintages from 2002 to 2019. A royal flush of DRC; all hail the King of the North! All wines purchased on release and stored under ideal temperature-controlled conditions.

762 La Tâche - Vintage 2004

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

vlscl (in bond)

"This too is sublime in its subtlety and grace with ineffably pure aromas and it strikes a balance between the opulence of the RSV and the restraint of the GE with an expressive yet ultra fine nose of rose petals, violets and seductive spice notes that introduce unbelievably refined flavors that seem crafted from silk and lace, culminating in a linear, mouth coating finish that detonates like a bomb and lasts and lasts."(95pts BH)

763 La Tâche - Vintage 2006

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

lstl, lscl (in bond)

"A 2006 DRC La Tâche made everyone stand up and take notice. This was a deep wine showing lots of skin, with that cedary goodness on top of fruit that smelled addictively good. There was almost a drug-like euphoria to the La Tâche. This was a full and long wine, with a finish that was fine and polished despite lingering on and on. There was forest in the house, or this was a house made out of an entire forest, as its breadth and depth impressed us all. Spicy and sexy, La Tache is always special."(96pts JK)

1 bottle — per lot US$4000-6000

764 La Tâche - Vintage 2007

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

lscl (in bond)

"Hints of mocha, vanilla, maraschino, and almond paste lend a confectionary note to generously rich cassis and raspberry, while Latakia tobacco, peat, clove, black pepper, star anise, and cumin contribute commune-typical Vosne-Romanée personality in spades. The high-toned, sweet themes continue inner mouth, with intimation of heliotrope, rowan, and lily perfume, while the wine's smoky, spicy elements seem to descend into a low-register undertone of roasted red meats and forest floor. As this opens to the air, a subtly sweet-saline suggestion of lobster shell reduction adds richness and succulence. Strikingly creamy in feel, this La Tâche nevertheless possessed a fresh berry edge that helps convey vibrancy to a finish that practically glows in your mouth, offering another of those Burgundian paradoxes of light and dark.."(96pts)

765 La Tâche - Vintage 2008

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

lscl (in bond)

"The 2008 La Tâche is another huge, powerful wine. Deep layers of perfumed fruit flow from this gorgeous wine. Mint, crushed flowers, orange peel and spices are just some of the notes that emerge from the wonderfully textured fruit. Darker hints of earthiness, tar and minerals frame the sweeping, eternal finish. This is simply dazzling."(97pts)

1 bottle per lot US$4000-6000

766 La Tâche - Vintage 2009

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

lscl (in bond)

"A discreet but incredibly complex nose features notes of spicy, pure and relatively high-toned fruit that is laced with plenty of rose petal and violet hints. There is excellent energy and freshness to the lacy and stunningly precise broad-scaled flavors that build in intensity from the densely concentrated mid-palate to the explosive and mouth coating finish that seemingly goes on without end. This is a big LT with ample muscle and very firm but not aggressive structure along with superb depth of underlying material and positively mind-blowing length." (98pts BH)

1 bottle per lot US$4500-6000
per lot CHF3500-4800

767 La Tâche - Vintage 2010

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

(in bond)

"This is perhaps even more floral than the Richebourg and every bit as spicy on the ultra-pure, cool and remarkably elegant mix of red and blue pinot fruit, red currant and wild red berries that are openly mineral-inflected. As with all of the DRC '10s, the equally stony flavors and supporting tannins are extremely fine and while there is ample power and vibrancy, the palate feel is all silk and satin. To be sure, this is a big wine with impressive concentration but this is definitely not cut from the same cloth as say the 2005 or 2009 versions are. I can admire both styles but this one is seriously lovely."(98pts BH)

1 bottle per lot US$5000-7000
per lot CHF4000-5500

768 La Tâche - Vintage 2011

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

vlscl (in bond)

"As it was from cask this is more restrained than usual and it requires aggressive swirling to coax the pure and spicy essence of red berry fruit aromas to emerge from the glass where there is a slight hint of herbal tea present. There is a similar reserve to the distinctly focused and linear flavors that enjoy a seemingly unlimited reserve of dry extract that renders the fine-grained and silky tannins almost invisible at present though I suspect that they will become much more apparent once the baby fat melts away."(96pts BH)

1 bottle per lot US$4000-6000
per lot CHF3200-4800

769 La Tâche - Vintage 2012

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

vlscl (in bond)

"Though this is by no means exuberant, it's clear that there is good ripeness to the spiced green tea, hoisin, soy, anise, sandalwood and rose petal aromas. The cool, pure and seductively textured medium weight plus flavors brim with both minerality and plenty of dry extract that buffers the extremely firm but not hard shaping tannins on the overtly austere if seriously persistent finish."(97pts BH)

1 bottle per lot US$4000-6000
per lot CHF3200-4800

770 La Tâche - Vintage 2013

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

lscl (in bond)

"The 2013 La Tâche Grand Cru was picked from the afternoon of October 7 and over the next two days at 18 hectoliters per hectare. It has a heavenly nose with exquisite mineral-rich red cherry, wild strawberry, blood orange and subtle woodland, damp autumn leaf and moss aromas that are extraordinarily complex. It seems to gain vigor and intensity with each swirl of the glass. The palate is medium-bodied with very fine tannin, a slightly suppler La Tâche compared to recent years, a wine with an athleticism. There is nothing wasted or superfluous here, a honed La Tâche that is all about tensile structure matched by perfect acidity and an incredibly complex, kaleidoscopic finish that seems so mercurial in the glass, initially offering red fruit then changing its mind and revealing darker and more tertiary notes. In a word: awesome."(97pts)

1 bottle — per lot US$4000-6000

771 La Tâche - Vintage 2014

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

lscl (in bond)

"The 2014 La Tâche Grand Cru is a very refined nose, so much so that blind I might mistake it from Romanée-Conti (as I opined to Bertrand de Villaine himself). Very precise, extremely pure and with wonderful mineralité, there is a lucidity embroidered into this wine. The palate is medium-bodied, symmetrical, with a little edginess creeping in here that lends the finish a sense of animation. The fruit shades from red to more black as it opens, yet the aftertaste is extraordinarily long and persistent. There is a kind of magic in this La Tâche."(96-98pts)

1 bottle — per lot US$4000-6000
per lot CHF3200-4800

772 La Tâche - Vintage 2015

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

lscl (in bond)

"The 2015 had so much muscle up front. It was brimming with crushed rocks laced with rose petals rising from the glass. It was so rich and full-bodied with some goodie goodie woodsy edges. This was a monster of a wine with an endless finish, but a beautiful monster. The 2015 was decadent, with a hint of bouillon, but still very much primary."(98pts JK)

1 bottle — per lot US$5000-7000
per lot CHF4000-5500

773 La Tâche - Vintage 2016

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

(in bond)

"As is often the case, the highly perfumed nose is the most floral-inflected of the range with its equally cool and restrained array of violet and rose petal scents that combine with an extraordinary group of spice elements on the essence of red currant aromas. The mouthfeel of the imposingly-scaled and powerful flavors is again robust yet refined with just as much minerality as the Richebourg adding even more lift to the almost painfully intense and extravagantly long finish that also just goes and goes."(98pts BH)

1 bottle — per lot US$4500-6000
per lot CHF3500-4800

774 La Tâche - Vintage 2017

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

lscl (in bond)

"The 2017 La Tâche Grand Cru soars from the glass with a captivating and beautifully integrated bouquet of exotic spices, rose petals, raspberries, cherries and blood orange mingled with notions of cinnamon and coniferous forest floor. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, deep and multidimensional, with a deep and tightly coiled core that marks it out as the most muscular wine in the cellar, displaying considerable concentration and largely concealed structure. While this is a dramatic young La Tâche, there's evidently plenty held in reserve, too, and it simply has appreciably more presence than any of the other wines that preceded it in this tasting."(96+pts)

775 La Tâche - Vintage 2018

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

vlscl, lscvl (in bond)

"...is typical in 2018 with its restrained and beautifully layered nose of rose petal, violet, lavender, lilac, sandalwood and soy nuances that add incredible breadth to the mostly red berry-suffused aromas, all of which is trimmed in very subtle oak influence. There is outstanding volume to the big, muscular and robust flavors that also possess focused power where the intensity does a slow build from the mid-palate to the explosively long and decidedly austere finish that just lasts and lasts."(99pts BH)

776 La Tâche - Vintage 2019

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"... is also quite restrained and only grudgingly offers up a kaleidoscopic range of spice elements that are laced with a wonderful array of floral nuances on the red and dark berry fruit scents. There is superb detail to the muscular big-bodied flavors that brim with both minerality and dry extract before culminating in an explosively long, balanced, youthfully austere and harmonious finish."(99pts BH)

778 La Tâche - Vintage 2021

779 Richebourg - Vintage 2004

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

vlscl (in bond)

"...surprisingly understated and subtle with an intensely floral nose of red and black fruit aromas that are nuanced and beautifully elegant, merging seamlessly into linear, reserved, indeed almost brooding flavors that are as once supple yet precise and detailed, all wrapped in a powerful and muscular finish that delivers striking length there is a gorgeous combination of finesse and power and again, I really like the sense of drive and energy here as well as the first rate balance."(94pts BH)

780 Richebourg - Vintage 2005

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"...swirling coaxes superbly elegant and pure aromas that are wonderfully broad and include red, black, blue and violet aromas as well as seemingly a full cupboard of Asian spices that complement to perfection the extremely rich, full and sweet flavors that are quite floral in the mouth, all wrapped in a detailed and punchy finish where the tannic spine is completely buried. While it sounds moderately odd to describe it this way, there is a swagger to the '05 Riche and this will clearly be one very long distance runner..."(97pts BH)

781 Richebourg - Vintage 2008

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

(in bond)

"The 2008 Richebourg sweeps across the palate with a breathtaking combination of elegance and power. It is a huge wine that boasts tons of mineral-driven, pointed fruit with more than enough depth to fill out its broad shoulders. All of the elements build gracefully towards the intense, taut finish. The Richebourg is likely to require considerable patience."(96pts)

1 bottle per lot US$3000-4000
per lot CHF2400-3200

782 Richebourg - Vintage 2009

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

vlscl (in bond)

"The bottle that I tried displayed a hint of reduction though not enough to hide the intensely floral and notably ripe nose that features fresh notes of plum, mocha and cassis that are sprinkled with exotic spice notes. The expansive and tautly muscular broad-shouldered flavors are, unusually, almost as fine as those of the RSV yet even slightly more complex with the same finely grained tannins. The length is similar but at present, the extra dimension of depth gives this the barest of edges."(97pts BH)

1 bottle per lot US$3000-4000
per lot CHF2400-3200

783 Richebourg - Vintage 2012

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

(in bond)

"The Richebourg 2012 was picked September 27-28 at just 19 hectoliters per hectare, one of the lowest yields in this vintage. This has a serious bouquet, reserved at first, more earth than air. Unusual for this cuvée, there is a sense of exoticism here, a Richebourg daring to show a bit of ankle. Blackberry pastille intermingle with wilted violets, and there is a touch of warmth that belies the precocity of the growing season. Leaving it aside for 10 minutes, there are hints of Provençal herbs, broom and even fennel. The palate is medium-bodied and the first thing that strikes you is its backbone. Well, this is Richebourg after all. But there is an arching structure to this wine that is disguised by the silkiness of its texture, plus an almost citrus freshness and brightness on the finish. This is a Richebourg that will make you giddy with pleasure. 634 cases produced."(97pts)

784 Richebourg - Vintage 2013

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"...beautifully defined with beguiling transparency. The palate is medium-bodied, but there is serious weight and presence here. It is struck through with sorbet-like freshness, hints of blood orange tincturing the vibrant red fruit, seguing into a finish with great conviction and confidence, a Richebourg self-aware though not preening about its status."(96pts)

On the palate, the Richebourg is full-bodied, rich and multidimensional, with a lavishly enveloping attack and supple structuring tannins that are almost entirely concealed by its deep core of fruit. "Here too is a very reserved yet ultra classy and refined, indeed even ethereal nose that is quite simply kaleidoscopic in its breadth, combining red, blue and black fruits with spice, earth, minerality and a hint of underbrush that stands aside for the perfectly balanced, pure and stylish medium full flavors that are very firmly but not aggressively structured while delivering flat out unbelievable length yet all the while remaining completely understated in personality. As are all the very best vintages of RC, this is spherical with nothing out of place and this will age effortlessly for decades. The La Tâche is truly spectacular but there is simply another dimension of depth present here. A wine of sheer class and the epitome of the phrase 'power without weight'."(97pts BH)

"I have never been treated to such a profusion of floral perfume from this legendary site as rose over the glass of 2007 Romanée-Conti. Hyacinth, rose, gladiola, and iris are underlain by scents of moss-covered, damp stone, wild ginger, and diverse tiny red fruits. "Romanée-Conti c est le nez," remarks de Villaine of this almost ethereal Pinot. The contrast with the more fleshly La Tache could not be more dramatic. But this doesn t pull back on its silken-textured palate, either far from it: along with persistent inner-mouth profusion of floral perfume come savory, irresistibly juicy raspberry and pomegranate as well as an impression of marrow-rich, multi-boned meat stock. A wafting, wave-like finish harbors the sort of exhilarating sheer refreshment one looks for in white wine, and a kaleidoscopic interchange of colorful floral, spice, fruit, carnal, and mineral elements such as few wines of any sort can deliver."(96pts)

"Discreet wood sets off a wonderfully elegant, airy and ultra-pure dark pinot fruit nose that is perhaps even more reticent and shut down than the La Tâche and only seriously aggressive swirling can reveal stubborn notes of rose petal, spice and menthol influence. The ultra-silky but firm medium-scaled flavors are also blessed with an impressive abundance of dry extract that buffers the prominent but ripe supporting tannins on the moderately austere, deep and palate coating finish. The length here is genuinely amazing, indeed even at this early juncture this is already the longest wine in the range. As it virtually always is at this point in its development, this is an exercise in understatement, poise and controlled power with an unrivaled purity of expression. In sum, this is Zen-like. As to whether it will ultimately be better than the La Tâche in 2011 remains to be seen but for now the two seem to be neck and neck from a purely qualitative perspective."(96pts BH)

"The 2015 Romanée-Conti Grand Cru is one of the pinnacles of this great red Burgundy vintage, opening in the glass to reveal a bouquet of kaleidoscopic complexity, notes of raspberry and red plum mingling with rose petal, peony, blood orange and spice. On the palate, the wine is silky, medium to full-bodied and stunningly complete, its supremely elegant tannins entirely cloaked in pristinely delicate red fruit. "This is arguably the most floral-inflected nose in the range and, somewhat unusually, it's just as spicy as the La Tâche despite being as cool and restrained as it always is at this early stage. The focused, intense and beautifully well-delineated flavors are an exercise in refined and focused power, all wrapped in intensely mineral-inflected, youthfully austere and superbly persistent finish where a hint of warmth slowly emerges. "The 2009 Montrachet has come together beautifully since I last tasted it from barrel. From barrel the 2009 was super-ripe and almost tropical but it seems to have settled down over the last year. There is still plenty of signature 2009 richness and ripeness, but the wine's minerality is now much more present. A brilliant, textured finish rounds things out in style. Overall, the 2009 is a mid-weight Montrachet. I would love to see it age for several decades, but it takes a pretty courageous soul to age white Burgundy these days."(96pts)

810 Montrachet - Vintage 2011

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"The Montrachet was picked on 6 September at a respectable 37.1hl/ha. Lucid in colour, perhaps a little deeper than expected, it has a multi-faceted nose that you have to monitor over one hour. Hints of almond and butterscotch emerge at first, then salted caramel, pralines and peach skin. It is mercurial and utterly alluring. The palate is intense on the entry and immediately expresses a sense of vitality and tension. This Montrachet is suffused with great weight in the mouth with subtle touches of orange peel, almond and hazelnut that ebb with time. It mellows in the glass but never dispensing with one iota of tension, yet seeming if anything to gain in volume. This epitomizes great Montrachet."(97pts)

811 Montrachet - Vintage 2015

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

(in bond)

"The 2015 Montrachet Grand Cru is still predictably youthful, unfurling in the glass with aromas of crisp Anjou pear, buttered citrus, tangerine oil and a prominent framing of very classy new oak. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, multidimensional and concentrated, both satiny and textural without being remotely unctuous, and underpinned by succulent, even tangy acids. At this stage, where the wine really shows its pedigree is in its extraordinarily long, oak-inflected finish. Given the vintage, one might have expected more ripeness and drama, but the domaine is picking its Montrachet a bit earlier these days, and that has done it no harm at all in 2015. It would be interesting to taste this wine alongside Ramonet's example, which is both more textural and less overtly oaky, but my sense is that the two are on the same qualitative level in their very different styles."(96+pts)

"Leroy's most profound Nuits is the benchmark-setting opaque and black-colored Nuits-St.-Georges Aux Boudots (250 cases). This extraordinary wine possesses an enthralling nose of wild berries, iron, stones and some intriguing saltiness. Explosive, powerful, elegant as well as velvety-textured and jam-packed with copious amounts of sweet red and black fruits, this is a wine of intense depth."(94-97pts)

This tannic, backward, and hyper-concentrated wine is powerful and intense, yet elegant and precise. If this wine can cope with its very present tannins, it will prove to be stunning."(93pts)

836 Meursault - Vintage 2015

Les Caillerets, Coche-Dury

(not in bond VAT not paid)

" Sexy scents of orange oil and spicy oak, plus a floral touch that struck me as more Puligny than Meursault. Dense and silky but also precise and penetrating; more a wine of finesse and delicacy than size or power. Still, there's a fleshiness here and a singed orange note suggesting that some grapes were grilled by the sun. A wine of great individuality, finishing with an impression of strong dry extract and a whiplash of fruits and flowers."(93pts VM)

"The NV Brut Grand Cru cuvée de Reserve is pure chalk, slate and gunflint. A tense, wiry wine, the cuvée de Reserve needs time in the glass for its aromas and flavors to fully blossom. White peaches, grapefruit and lime are some of the notes that emerge from this bright, crystalline Champagne. The cuvée de Reserve is mostly 2009, with the addition of reserve wines going back to 1988. Readers won't find a lot of 2009 radiance here." (91pts)

There is a lot of concentration here with hints of kirsch and cassis in the background, but they are very well contained. The palate is a little chewy on the entry but there is fine acidity here. Good density, perhaps sinewy toward the finish, but there is superb delineation and balanced so that you end up with an intense Clos de Vougeot with a very long tail on the finish. Very fine, very sophisticated, very "Yes please."(92-94pts)

"offers a deconstructed Tignanello upon first inspection because you can clearly make out the varietal typicity of the grapes, especially the green spice and white pepper of the two Cabernets, along with aromas of crushed limestone that recall the white rocks carefully placed in the vineyards to protect the rows. The wine's fruit weight is contained and polished, and there are no exaggerations, excesses or loose ends. The results are calculated and exacting."(98pts)

"The 2018 Sassicaia is gracious, perfumed and super-elegant. Like all of the 2018s at Tenuta San Guido, the 2018 Sassicaia is a wine of refinement and nuance more than anything else. Dark tonalities of fruit and bright acids give the 2018 its very distinctive personality. This is a very promising early look at the 2018, especially for a sample assembled from separate lots in barrel specifically for this tasting. I can't wait to taste it again." (93-96pts VM)

Montevertine

1x6 bottle owc (in bond)

"These lovely 2016 vintages from Montevertine impress and excite on all levels. The 2016 Le Pergole Torte takes top prize and represents a crowning achievement for Martino Manetti and his family. Fruit comes from vines that are between 20 and 50 years old, and the wine is carefully aged in oak casks, slowly incorporating complexity and textural richness during this careful process. This classic vintage is chiseled and sharp, and the fruit is framed with exacting precision. It is softly layered in the mouth and just gorgeous on the long finish. Le Pergole Torte will give its best many years from now, so put this bottle way at the back of your cellar."(98+pts)

"A discreet but incredibly complex nose features notes of spicy, pure and relatively high-toned fruit that is laced with plenty of rose petal and violet hints. There is excellent energy and freshness to the lacy and stunningly precise broad-scaled flavors that build in intensity from the densely concentrated mid-palate to the explosive and mouth coating finish that seemingly goes on without end. This is a big LT with ample muscle and very firm but not aggressive structure along with superb depth of underlying material and positively mind-blowing length." (98pts BH)

940 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2010

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

(in bond)

"All that I could think when I first put my nose in the glass was "wow!" as the airy and very cool nose of ultra-elegant spice, floral and herbal nuances greeted me. Add to this plenty of attractive nuances to the kaleidoscopically layered red currant and plum suffused aromas and you have something pretty special. This is, not surprisingly, much more refined than the GrandsEch as the supporting tannins on the silky middle weight flavors are extremely fine-grained yet notably dense as the explosive finish is quite firm. Despite the tightly wound structure the overall impression of the mouth feel is one of delicacy and ultimate refinement."(96pts BH)

"Explosive, smoke- and spice-accented blueberry, cherry cola, incense and smoky mineral aromas show outstanding delineation and pick up a hint of olive with aeration. Sweet and expansive on the palate, offering deeply concentrated dark berry liqueur, fruitcake and floral pastille flavors, along with a suggestion of star anise. The remarkably long, penetrating finish features strong minerally cut, an echo of sweet blue fruit and harmonious tannins that come in late and fold effortlessly into the deeply concentrated fruit."(98pts VM)

NECK:
Normal level for all wines. In wines over ten years of age, this level suggests excellent provenance. Rarely used, except to emphasize a particularly good fill level when other fill levels in the same lot are less than perfect.

BASE NECK:
A common fill level at which many Châteaux release their wine. For wines of any age, this level suggests excellent provenance.

TOP-SHOULDER:
Again, a common fill level at which many Châteaux release their wine. For wines of any age, this level suggests excellent provenance.

VERY HIGH SHOULDER:
Acceptable fill level for wines twenty years of age. Suggests proper storage conditions throughout its life. Natural occurrence for wines of this age.

HIGH SHOULDER:
Usually not a problem for wines thirty years of age. This level may be caused by easing of the cork combined with natural evaporation. Check the clarity and the color of the wine in the bottle as a secondary indicator of provenance.

HIGH-TO-MID-SHOULDER:
Refer to High Shoulder and Mid-Shoulder level descriptions.

MID SHOULDER:
May suggest ullage during the life of the wine due to either easing of the cork or inconsistent storage conditions. Not abnormal for wines forty or more years of age. As additional indicators of risk, definitely inspect clarity and color of the wine in the bottle, as well as condition of the cork.

LOW SHOULDER AND BELOW:
Suggests poor provenance. Definitely a risk and generally not saleable, with exception given to rare bottlings and/or labels. (Not recommended for consumption.)

Because the shape of Burgundy bottles does not allow for a level rating system based on the shoulder of the bottle, levels are described by means of centimeters below cork. Generally, Burgundy wines with a four centimeter fill level or above are considered normal for wines younger than twenty years. Wines of twenty or more years of age with fill levels of between four and five centimeters are generally considered to be of sound provenance, though consideration should be given to the clarity and color of the wine in the bottle, as well as the condition of the cork. Bottles with ullage between five and seven centimeters are not uncommon for wines forty years and older and often provide thrilling drinking, but the lower the fill, the higher the risk, so consideration should be given. Burgundy bottles with fill levels lower than seven centimeters may be at risk of being damaged or undrinkable, and therefore may be unsaleable. It should be noted that some Burgundian producers tend to over-fill their bottles during the bottling process which may cause a few drops of wine to become trapped between the capsule and the cork. This should not be confused with ullage, a natural occurrence in older wines, which may be accelerated due to poor provenance.

BUYER'S CONDITIONS OF SALE

These Conditions of Sale serve as the agreement between Acker Switzerland GmbH ("Acker" or the "Seller") and any participant in the auction, as well as any bidder and the successful bidder. These Conditions of Sale can be modified at any time, in writing or orally during the sale. By participating at auction or through private sale, you, as bidder, agree to be bound by all of the terms and conditions of these Conditions of Sale and accept personal liability to pay the purchase price, including the Buyer's Premium (as defined below), taxes and any other applicable charges, for any successful bid. If the bidder is the successful bidder by virtue of being the highest bidder accepted by the auctioneer, or has otherwise agreed to purchase any lot, wine, spirits or other item (the "Property"), that bidder is the Buyer. Before participating in any auction or private sale, you acknowledge and agree that you have read these Conditions of Sale carefully.

1. BEFORE AUCTION.

(a) Lots. Property is divided into separate groupings as determined by Acker in its sole and absolute discretion and each such grouping (a "Lot") is subject to separate bidding at auction.

(b) Bidder Registration. In order to bid at auction, bidder must have an account with Acker or its affiliates. Bidder can open such an account by: (i) completing and submitting a Bidder Registration form; (ii) completing and submitting an Absentee Bid form; or (iii) creating such account online (at www.ackerwines.com) or through the "Acker Wines" mobile app (available for downloading at the Apple App Store or Google Play Store). In connection therewith, bidder will be required to provide the card number, expiration date and security code for an active credit or debit card (American Express, Visa, or MasterCard), which bidder authorizes Acker through its payment processor to validate. Bidders agree to provide Acker with such information as Acker may reasonably require, including a government issued identification containing a photograph, such as a passport, identity card or driver's license. Acker may use this information to verify bidder's identification and for other screening and due diligence purposes pursuant to its Privacy Policy (https://www.ackerwines.com/terms-conditions/#legal-privacy), which is incorporated by reference. If bidder does not agree to the terms of the Acker Privacy Policy, please refrain from providing any personal information and cease any use of Acker's website, apps, or other digital assets.

(c) Absentee, Telephone, Online and Mobile App Bidding. Prior to the sale, bidders may make arrangements with Acker to participate at auction by absentee or telephone bidding. Bidder may also participate in the sale by bidding through Acker's and its affiliates' online and/or mobile app bidding platforms, and such participation shall be subject to the Website and Mobile App Terms of Use (available at https://www.ackerwines.com/terms-conditions/).

Bidders wishing to participate by absentee bidding must complete and submit an Absentee Bid form to Acker in advance of the sale. The acceptance of absentee, telephone, online and mobile app bids for any Lot in a live auction is subject to the sole and absolute discretion of the auctioneer. Acker offers complimentary absentee, telephone, online and mobile app bidding solely as a convenience to its clients. In no event shall Acker or its affiliates or auctioneer (or any of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, members, employees, attorneys, representatives, agents or assigns) be liable for any errors, omissions or failures relating to, arising from or in connection with the execution (or failure to properly execute) any absentee, telephone, online or mobile app bids.

2. AT AUCTION.

(a) Catalogues. Bidder is advised to read the print or a PDF copy of the catalogue in its entirety. While Acker has attempted to describe each Lot in the catalogue accurately, in no event shall Acker be liable for any error or omission in any such description. Acker retains the absolute right to amend any description in any manner prior to and during the auction. Each statement regarding Property, whether oral or written, and whether made in the catalogue, an advertisement, bill of sale, invoice, announcement, email, or other written or oral communication, is a statement of OPINION ONLY and should not be relied upon by any bidder. Bidder must make appropriate allowances for natural variations of ullages, and conditions of cases, bottles, labels, caps, corks, capsules, and wine and spirits. In no event shall Acker be required to accept a return, offer credit for, or adjust the price of any Property after delivery except under paragraph 12 below. Images appearing in the catalogue or elsewhere are for illustrative purposes only and may not reveal defects or imperfections in any Lot. Bidder is advised not to rely on images in determining whether to bid on Property. All property is sold "as is".

(b) Different Importers. Although Acker makes an effort to state in the catalogue if a Lot includes wines or spirits from different importers, failure to so state is not grounds for rescission of the sale of any Lot. Similarly, any incorrect statement or omission in the catalogue concerning bottles and/or sequence numbers of Property from those producers that number their bottles comprising Property, is not grounds for rescission of the sale of any Lot.

(c) No Warranty. Acker and its affiliates, auctioneer and seller (and each of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, members, employees, attorneys, representatives, agents and assigns) make no oral or written express or implied representations, warranties or guarantees as to the merchantability, fitness for a particular use, accuracy, the correctness of any catalogue description or other description as to the origin, physical condition, size, quality, rarity, authenticity, attribution, value, estimated value, importance, provenance, or potability, concerning any Property.

(d) Reserve Price. Each Lot is sold subject to a reserve price, which is the minimum price below which the Lot will not be sold (unless the auctioneer chooses, in its sole and absolute discretion, to accept a lower price). Acker has the right to raise or lower the reserve price at any time prior to the time the Lot is opened for bidding by the auctioneer during the live auction. Under no circumstance shall the reserve price for a Lot exceed the low estimate for that Lot as printed in the catalogue. The reserve price for each Lot is available to prospective bidders upon request, but Acker shall have no ongoing obligation to notify a prospective bidder who has been informed of any reserve price if such reserve price has been changed.

(e) Estimates. Each Lot in the catalogue is accompanied by a low and high estimate of the selling price, which estimates exclude the Buyer's Premium (as defined below), taxes and any other applicable charges. While estimates are intended as a general guide for prospective bidders, in no event do they constitute either a representation or prediction of an actual selling price or value and should not be relied upon by bidder as such. Acker reserves the right to revise estimates at any time prior to the time the Lot is opened for bidding.

(f) Bidding by Acker. Acker's affiliates reserve the right to bid for their own accounts or to procure the making of a bid on their behalf in accordance with applicable law. Acker reserves the right to permit Acker affiliate employees (in the sole discretion of Acker) to bid for their own accounts on any Lot in the sale. Acker employees may also bid in the auction for their own account.

(g) Post-Auction Sale of Property. Any post-auction sale of Property offered at auction and sold in a private sale shall be incorporated and be subject to these Conditions of Sale as if sold at the live auction.

(h) Purchase Price. The total amount due from all Buyers for each Lot shall be the hammer price, the highest bid accepted by the auctioneer, plus a commission equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of the hammer price ("Buyer's Premium"). Acker may provide discounts on the Buyer's Premium to bidders who transact with Acker or its affiliates over certain thresholds.

(i) Swiss VAT. This information concerns the most usual circumstances and is not intended to be complete. Acker is unable to provide tax advice to bidders and recommends bidders obtain independent tax advice. In all cases the relevant tax legislation takes precedence. The VAT rates in effect on the day of a sale of a Lot will be the rates charged. Tax domiciled Buyers outside Switzerland are exempt from Swiss VAT if the Property is delivered outside of Switzerland. Acker will require sufficient evidence of export. Swiss Buyers (both private and professionals) will have to pay the 8.1% VAT for wines delivered in Switzerland unless otherwise stated in the catalogue and depending on delivery location. If the purchases are currently held in bond and will be delivered to an in bond warehouse, VAT is not applicable. The 8.1% Swiss VAT will be collected on the 25% Buyer's Premium resulting in an additional 2.025% charge for all purchases unless delivered outside of Switzerland by a non-Swiss Buyer.

3. BIDDER REGISTRATION.

Prospective Buyers are asked to provide the following documents, prior to registering for the auction:

(a) All auction Buyers have the responsibility to have a valid credit card or debit card on file with Acker that will be tokenized through its payment processor.

(b)For individuals -government-issued photo identification and for corporate clients - a recent copy of the company register.

(c) Corporate clients: a recent copy of the company register.

(d) For other business structures such as trusts, offshore companies or partnerships, please contact Acker (aml@ackerwines.com) for the information you need to provide.

(e) Please note that Acker is entitled to request a deposit in order to ensure the bidders' final registration. If the bidder is unsuccessful and does not owe Acker any debt, the deposit will be refunded in full. Acker is entitled to change the deposit pre-registration procedures and requirements at its own discretion without prior notice.

4. BIDDER RESPONSIBILITY.

When bidding, the bidder assumes personal responsibility to pay the full purchase price and any other applicable taxes or charges. All Lots sold will be invoiced to the name and address to which the paddle has been registered, and invoices cannot be transferred to other names and addresses. The sale is conducted in Swiss francs. If your bid is successful, you will be notified the day following the sale by email. Invoices will follow soon thereafter.

5. AFTER AUCTION.

(a) Payment.

Invoices reflecting the total amount due, along with bank transfer instructions, will be sent to each Buyer. For any auction, Buyer agrees to pay such invoice in full within 30 days following the date of auction. If payment has not been made by day 35, bidder authorizes Acker to charge your card for the balance due, inclusive of fees. However, in the case of web-only auctions, your credit card will be charged 7 days after the close of the auction, unless you have paid by bank transfer beforehand. By bidding at auction, bidder also authorizes Acker, without further notice to bidder, to charge any credit or debit card used by bidder to create an account with Acker and its affiliates or to make payment on any current or past invoice issued to bidder by Acker or its affiliates. Subject to this automatic charge being successful, there shall be no interest charge. For any balance of bidder's invoice that remains unpaid more than 35 days after the auction, Acker shall charge Buyer interest in the amount of 11% interest per annum calculated daily, until such unpaid amount has been paid. In the event Buyer has not paid in full within 45 days following the close of the auction, Acker reserves the right to cancel the sale and reoffer such Lot(s). Acker reserves all other rights for the default as specified below in paragraph 6. If Buyer is delinquent on any accounts to any Acker entity, Acker reserves the right to reoffer Property in another auction or privately, including paid-for Property, in order to satisfy the debt.

If the Buyer is acting as agent, the principals must provide the required identification and satisfy the anti-money laundering and counterterrorism screening.

Please note that transactions should preferably be made by bank transfer. Acker will accept American Express, Visa, and MasterCard. Credit cards will be charged in USD. The exchange rate of USD to CHF will be applied as of the date of payment. Please note there will be a credit card usage fee of 2% on the entire invoice amount for all internet auctions.

For live auctions (only), the 2% fee will only apply to an invoice amount up to and including USD15,000. For a credit card payment over USD15,000, a 3% fee will be applied to the entire invoice amount. The successful bidder during the auction is solely responsible for payment to Acker. Title shall pass to the successful bidder when full payment is received in cleared funds by Acker. Property will not be released to Buyer until full payment has been received.

6. DEFAULT BY BUYER.

If Buyer fails to make payment in full in accordance with these Conditions of Sale within 45 days following the auction, Acker may, in its sole and absolute discretion: (a) cancel the sale, retaining any partial payment as liquidated damages; (b) resell Property publicly or privately for Buyer's account and at Buyer's risk, with estimates and a reserve set at Acker's sole discretion, and charge Buyer for any deficiency between the final bid in the resale and the final bid placed by Buyer, in addition to all costs and expenses of both the initial sale and the resale at Acker's regular rates and the Buyer's Premium due in connection with both sales; (c) set off all sums due from Buyer against any amounts which Acker or its affiliates may owe to Buyer; (d) collect from Buyer the total amount due (including interest) plus any loss, cost or expense incurred by Acker in effecting such collection; (e) collect from Buyer reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by Acker; (f) prohibit Buyer from directly or indirectly purchasing from Acker and its affiliates and from participating in future auctions and other events held, hosted, or sponsored by Acker or its affiliates; or (g) exercise any right or remedy against Buyer available to Seller at law, equity or otherwise. Acker may, in its sole discretion, exercise any one or more of the preceding remedies or any combination thereof.

7. DELIVERY AND STORAGE.

Lots may be stored at Acker's designated third-party Geneva warehouse, either Duty-Paid or In Bond. Please notify us at least 5 business days after payment for the third-party warehouse to organize the Property prior to release. Destination VAT is at the Buyer's charge and cannot be cancelled or refunded by Acker. VAT is included in Acker's invoice as applicable. Acker's third-party warehouse offers storage for any unshipped wine the day following day 30 after the auction date. On the day following 30 days after the auction, storage will be invoiced at the rate of CHF .54 or the USD equivalent per 750cl or 750ml per day calculated every 30 days, whether Buyer has paid or not for the purchased Property. Acker does not ship, transport or deliver alcoholic beverages and shall have no obligation to ship, transport or deliver purchased property to Buyer. Under the appropriate circumstances, Acker may, in its sole discretion, agree to assist in making arrangements to release Property to a carrier with the ability to ship alcoholic beverages. Under no circumstance will Acker ultimately be responsible for any taxes, duties, tariffs, or fees assessed or any interest or penalties related to such. Immediately following payment for successful bids, successful bidders will need to make arrangements within 3 days of payment to have the Property either shipped or released. If Property is not shipped or released within 30 days after auction, normal storage charges shall apply. Buyer acknowledges and agrees that it is solely responsible for the transport of the property and determining the legality and the tax, duty, and tariff consequences of bringing the Property to Buyer's chosen destination.

8. RIGHT TO HOLD PROPERTY.

Acker is authorized to retain the Lots until all amounts due to Acker have been paid in full or until the Buyer has performed all other obligations that Acker, at its discretion, considers required, including anti-money laundering and counter financing of terrorism compliance. In case a Buyer does not fulfill the checks to the satisfaction of Acker, Acker will be entitled to cancel the sale and take any other action required or permitted by law.

9. FAILURE TO COLLECT PROPERTY.

In case the Buyer, having fulfilled all its obligations under these Conditions of Sale, fails to make arrangements for the delivery of the Property within 90 days after having made full payment, Acker will be entitled to, upon notification to the Buyer, reoffer the Property by way of auction or private sale, in its sole discretion, and charge the Buyer the entire storage costs and all other costs that may apply. Additionally, Acker will have a right to retain the Property from release until payment of all of outstanding charges is received. Buyer will incur storage fees for any Property not retrieved within the designated period.

10. INACCURATE INFORMATION.

If the information or documents provided by the Buyer on its identity or the identity of the beneficial owner prove to be false, incomplete, ambiguous or insufficient, Acker may, in its sole discretion, cancel the sale and pursue the fraudulent Buyer. The Buyer will be responsible for all costs incurred.

11. RESCISSION.

(a) Claims by Buyer. Acker has the right but not the obligation to rescind a sale if any statement in Acker's offering materials concerning a Lot is materially incorrect or such Lot is short or is in unsound condition (e.g., cooked, and spoiled), Buyer's sole remedy shall be rescission of such sale in Acker's sole and absolute discretion. If Buyer seeks rescission under this subparagraph, Buyer must so notify Acker in writing within 60 days after the auction of such Property. Buyer may only make such a claim if the Property in question: (i) has the Acker auction sale date reference sticker(s) on the relevant bottle(s); (ii) is in the same condition as when it was released by Acker to Buyer; and (iii) has been delivered to and from Buyer and stored under appropriate conditions. To the fullest extent permitted by law, bidder waives any right to make any claim or bring any legal action against Acker and its affiliates, auctioneers, and the original seller (and each of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, members, employees, attorneys, representatives, agents and assigns) resulting from any determination made (or failed to be made) by Acker under this paragraph. In the event that Buyer fails to provide timely and proper notice to Acker under this paragraph, Buyer shall be deemed to have waived any right to rescission as herein provided. Only the Buyer of record of the Property shall be entitled to make a claim of rescission under this paragraph.

(b) Buyer's Sole Remedy. The refund to the Buyer of the purchase price paid for any property shall be Buyer's sole remedy for any claim or matter relating thereto.

(c) Limited Guarantee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained within these Conditions of Sale, Acker agrees to refund the purchase price to the Buyer of any Property purchased from Acker that is not of the vintage or from the producer as was stated in the catalogue or otherwise represented by Acker, including, but not limited to, Property that is counterfeit or has indicia which suggest that it is likely counterfeit, provided that: (i) the Buyer directly purchased the Property from Acker; (ii) the Buyer returns such Property to Acker within 60 days of the date of the auction of such Property to Buyer; and (iii) that Buyer returns such Property in materially the same condition as it was delivered to Buyer. In the event Acker suspects the Property of a fraudulent activity or is a forgery, Acker may cancel any sale of such Property and hold such Property. In the event the sale is cancelled after Buyer has made payment to Acker, Acker shall return such funds to Buyer.

12. LIABILITY.

Buyers are responsible for any damage or loss to purchased Lots once released to them or their agents.

13. DATA PROTECTION.

As required by law, or in connection with the supply of auction and related services Acker may ask you to provide personal data. Acker may take and retain a copy of government-issued identification such as a passport or driving license to the extent and for the duration required by applicable law. Acker will use your personal data:

If you do not wish your details to be used for this purpose, please email privacy@ackerwines.com. If you provide Acker with information that falls under the special categories of data as defined by European data protection laws ("sensitive data"), you agree that it may be used for the purposes set out above. In the course of these disclosures, personal data collected in the European Economic Area will be disclosed to countries outside the European Economic Area. Although such countries may not have legislation that protects personal information, Acker shall take reasonable steps to keep such information secure and in accordance with European data protection principles. By agreeing to these Conditions of Sale, you agree to such disclosure. Please read Acker's Privacy Policy on https://www.ackerwines.com/terms-conditions/#legal-privacy for full information about personal information and data protection. Acker's designated third-party warehouse and any auction venue may be subject to video surveillance and recording. Acker may process that information in accordance with its Privacy Policy.

14. MISCELLANEOUS.

(a) Severability. If any provision of these Conditions of Sale should be judged by a court to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, this provision may be waived, and the rest of the agreement will continue to be valid and enforceable.

(b) Personal information. Without your express prior refusal, Acker will be allowed to keep your personal information and may use it to inform you of the Acker Group's upcoming sales, services and events.

(c) Prohibition of Assignment. The Buyer may not assign any benefit and/or obligation under this agreement without Acker's prior written permission.

(d)Applicable law and Jurisdiction. All contractual arrangements between the Buyer and Acker are subject exclusively to Swiss law, to the exclusion of the rules on the conflict of laws. Any dispute in connection with the contractual arrangement shall be settled exclusively by arbitration in accordance with the Swiss Rules of International Arbitration of the Swiss Chambers' Arbitration Institution in force on the date on which the Notice of Arbitration is submitted in accordance with these Rules.
